Re: CCRB Case No. 202204060 (Incident Date: June 20, 2022) regarding Police Officer Paramveer Singh, Tax No. 958076 (DADS No. 2023-28758)

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed the request for Charges and Specifications in connection with CCRB Case No. 202204060, pertaining to Police Officer Paramveer Singh. Having analyzed the facts and circumstances of this matter, the Police Commissioner has determined that to pursue Charges and Specifications against Police Officer Singh would be detrimental to the Police Department's disciplinary process.

While the Police Commissioner agrees with the CCRB's substantiation of the allegations in this matter, the Police Commissioner does not agree that Charges and Specifications are the appropriate form of penalty. The Police Commissioner has determined Police Officer Singh spoke discourteously, and the penalty days associated with the command discipline will reflect the mitigated penalty and run concurrent, considering Police Officer Singh's positive tenure with the Department and lack of any prior formal disciplinary history.

Therefore, as provided for within the 2012 Memorandum of Understanding between the CCRB and the Police Department, the Police Commissioner, in the interest of justice and to retain jurisdiction over this matter, intends to direct the issuance of a Schedule "A" Command Discipline for the allegations of discourtesy.

Sincerely,

Anthony S. Marino
Deputy Chief

The Honorable Edward Caban
Police Commissioner
New York City Police Department

Re: CCRB Case No. 202204060 PO Paramveer Singh:

Commissioner Caban:

I am writing in response to the letter from Deputy Chief, Anthony Marino, dated December 12, 2023, informing the Civilian Complaint Review Board (hereinafter referred to as “CCRB”) of your intent to dismiss the Charges and Specifications against PO Singh. Pursuant to Paragraph 6 of the April 2, 2012, Memorandum of Understanding between CCRB and the New York City Police Department (hereinafter referred to as the “MOU”), I am responding to Deputy Chief Marinos’ notification.

The Police Commissioner agrees with the CCRB’s substantiation of the allegations on this matter but does not agree that Charges and Specifications are the appropriate form of penalty. The Police Commissioner further determined that PO Singh did speak discourteously to § 87(2)(b)

NYPD Patrol Guide §200-02 states that “in partnership with the community, we pledge to: value human life, respect the dignity of each individual and render our services with courtesy and civility.” PO Singh did not follow the mission, vision, or values of the Department and his conduct was prejudicial to the good order, efficiency, and discipline of the Department.

While the CCRB treated each of the substantiated allegations against PO Singh as deserving of a consecutive penalty, the Police Commissioner’s decision to treat these allegations as deserving of concurrent penalties is not unreasonable on its face.

Respectfully submitted,

Jonathan Darche
Executive Director
NYC Civilian Complaint Review Board

Re: CCRB Case No. 202204060 (Incident Date: June 20, 2022) regarding Police Officer
Paramveer Singh, Tax No. 958076 (DADS No. 2023-28758)

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed your letter, dated December 18, 2023 concerning the Civilian Complaint Review Board ("CCRB") case involving Police Officer Paramveer Singh, and nevertheless maintains that it would be detrimental to the Police Department's disciplinary process to allow the Civilian Complaint Review Board to continue its prosecution of Police Officer Singh for the reasons expressed in my December 12, 2023 letter.

Therefore, the Police Commissioner affirms his decision to exercise Provision Two of the Memorandum of Understanding and now directs that Police Officer Singh be issued a Schedule "A" Command Discipline for the substantiated discourtesy allegations.

Sincerely,

Anthony S. Marino
Deputy Chief
Commanding Officer
Police Commissioner's Office
