That such pattern of bias, bigotry and malfeasance on the part of defendants' police officers has continued prior and subsequent to the above events and dates in a sustained and concerted effort by the individual defendants to intimidate Mr. Johnson to dissuade him from leveling charges against the defendants.

71. The individually named defendants, state actors, were acting pursuant to a policy, custom and practice, which was formulated, designed and implemented by the defendant City and NYPD, and which policy, custom and practice required the individually named defendants to make a certain, predetermined number and amount of arrests and vehicular seizures each week, month and year, irrespective of the conditions or lack of criminal conduct that existed in their precinct or sector during their shifts or tours.

72. That these policies, customs and practices also encouraged, taught, instructed and/or required police officers to make arrests, stops, detentions and to target members of the public based on their appearance, race, ethnicity and irrespective of their conduct, lawful or otherwise, thereby violating the rights of the public, including the plaintiff herein.

73. These policies, customs and practices were designed and formulated by the defendants City and NYPD and implemented and effectuated by its officers, by their very nature violated the rights of the public, and violated the rights of the plaintiff herein.

74. That at all times relevant herein, the agents, servants and/or employees of NYPD and The City, including, but not limited to P.O. Ng, and P.O. Doe, knew or reasonably should have known that Mr. Johnson was innocent of all allegations against him.

75. That at all times relevant herein, the agents, servants and/or employees of NYPD and The City, including, but not limited to P.O. Ng, and P.O. Doe, actually knew or reasonably should have known that the allegations against Mr. Johnson were fabricated and fraudulent.

76. That at all times relevant herein, the agents, servants and/or employees of NYPD and The City, including but not limited to P.O. Ng, and P.O. Doe, conspired to fraudulently accuse Mr. Johnson of crimes of which he was innocent ("malfeasance").

77. Moreover, the complete and utter lack of merit and baseless nature of any conceivable criminal investigation and/or criminal prosecution of Mr. Johnson were readily apparent and patently obvious to all defendants but yet said criminal investigation and/or criminal prosecution of Mr. Johnson continued unabated, causing serious injury to Mr. Johnson and infringing, violating and rupturing his civil rights.

78. That defendants' their agents, servants, and/or employees unlawfully and falsely arrested and imprisoned Mr. Johnson in furtherance to the malfeasance.

79. That at all times relevant herein, notwithstanding that the apprehension, arrest, detention and imprisonment was unjust, unwarranted, without cause, and unlawful, Mr. Johnson complied with the officers' commands and did not resist.

80. That at all times relevant herein, defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees, while acting in concert, maliciously and with the intent to injure Mr. Johnson, and without just cause or any right to do so, handcuffed, detained, jailed and restrained Mr. Johnson against his will, thereby depriving him of his liberty.

81. That the criminal charges filed against Mr. Johnson were falsely fabricated by defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees based on false and incomplete information provided by defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees, in violation of Mr. Johnson's civil rights and in furtherance of the malfeasance.

82. That at all times relevant herein, defendants' officers, including but not limited to P.O. Ng, and P.O. Doe, with disregard for proper, lawful, appropriate, correct and effective investigative behaviors and procedures, investigated, stopped, detained, accused, arrested and charged Mr. Johnson when it was not right, just, lawful, proper or necessary to do so.

83. That at all times relevant herein, defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees had no cause or basis to stop, question or search Mr. Johnson.

84. That at all times relevant herein, P.O. Ng and P.O. Doe, falsely stopped Mr. Johnson for no reason and without probable cause to do so.

85. That at all times relevant herein, P.O. Ng and P.O. Doe, placed Mr. Johnson under arrest for crimes that he did not commit.

86. That at all times relevant herein, Mr. Johnson was innocent of the false charges made against him further to the malfeasance.

87. That at all times relevant herein, defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees acted maliciously and intentionally.

88. That at all times relevant herein, the arrest and detention of Mr. Johnson was unlawful, unwarranted and unjustified.

89. That at all times relevant herein, defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees knew or should have known that Mr. Johnson was innocent of the crimes charged.

90. That at all times herein mentioned, and without proof that Mr. Johnson were in any way connected to a crime, or that any crime was, in fact, committed, and without reasonable suspicion to stop Mr. Lundi, and without probable cause to detain or arrest Mr. Johnson, defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees individually, and acting in concert, knowingly, unlawfully, wrongfully and in furtherance of the malfeasance fabricated the false charges against Mr. Johnson.

91. That at all times herein, defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees were all acting in the performance of their employment, within the scope of their authority and in furtherance of policies and practices implemented by The City and NYPD.

92. That at all times herein, said policies and practices included the implementation of a quota system with respect to the quantity of arrests expected and/or required of its officers, including the aforesaid police officers.

93. That at all times herein, said policy and practice violated the civil rights of the public, including Mr. Johnson herein.

94. That at all times herein, defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees have an unlawful policy and practice that utilizes racial profiling when conducting investigations and performing its duties.

95. Mr. Johnson has suffered and continue to suffer damage as a result of the events described herein.

96. That upon information and belief, the aforesaid abuse of authority was not the first incident wherein P.O. Ng, and P.O. Doe committed acts of misconduct while on duty as employees of the City and/or NYPD.

97. The City and NYPD had actual and constructive notice of P.O. Ng, and P.O. Doe, propensities for misconduct but failed to do anything to mitigate the danger that their continued employment presented to the public at large, including the plaintiff herein.

98. That at all times relevant herein, the City and/or NYPD did fail to train and/or retrain and/or reinstruct P.O. Ng, and P.O. Doe, after acquiring notice of their defective and dangerous propensities. The City and/or NYPD did negligently hire, retain and train P.O. Ng and P.O. Doe, to the detriment of the public and to the plaintiff herein.

99. By reason of the foregoing acts of the defendants, and as a direct and proximate result of the acts of the defendants, Mr. Johnson suffered severe and permanent personal injuries and damages, and upon information and belief, will continue to suffer pain in the future.

100. By reason of the foregoing acts of the defendants, Mr. Johnson was caused severe and intense emotional and psychological anguish, distress and embarrassment and will continue to suffer same in the future.

101. By reason of the foregoing acts of the defendants, Mr. Johnson was caused emotional and psychological trauma from not only the traumatic experience of the false arrest and unlawful imprisonment, but also fearing that he may again be falsely arrested and unlawfully imprisoned.

102. By reason of the foregoing, Mr. Johnson was compelled to, and did necessarily incur legal fees and did necessarily pay and become liable therefore, and will necessarily incur similar legal fees in the future.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION ON BEHALF OF TONY JOHNSON

MONELL CLAIM -42 U.S.C. § 1983
(Against Defendants City, NYPD)

113. Plaintiff incorporates by reference the allegations set forth in all preceding paragraphs as if fully set forth herein.

114. At all times material to this complaint, The City and NYPD had de facto policies, practices, customs and usages which were a direct and proximate cause of the unconstitutional conduct alleged herein, to wit, use of unreasonable force.

115. All of the acts and omissions by the defendants described above were carried out pursuant to overlapping policies and practices of defendant City which were in existence at the time of the conduct alleged herein and were engaged in with the full knowledge, consent, and cooperation and under the supervisory authority of the defendant City and its agencies, and the NYPD.

116. Defendants The City and NYPD, by their policy-making agents, servants and employees, authorized, sanctioned and/or ratified the individual defendants' wrongful acts; and/or failed to prevent or stop those acts; and/or allowed or encouraged those acts to continue.

117. The acts complained of were carried out by the aforementioned individual defendants in their capacities as municipal officers and officials pursuant to customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of the City and/or NYPD, all under the supervision of ranking officers of the NYPD.

118. The aforementioned customs, practices, procedures and rules of the City and the NYPD include, but are not limited to, the following unconstitutional practices:

- a. Using excessive force on individuals;
- b. Failing to supervise, train, screen, instruct and discipline officers and encouraging their misconduct, including but not limited to the individual defendants named herein;

- c. Discouraging officers from reporting the corrupt or unlawful acts of other officers;
- d. Retaliating against officers who report police misconduct; and
- e. Failing to intervene to prevent the above-mentioned practices when they reasonably could have been prevented by a supervisor or other agent or employee of the NYPD and/or The City.

119. The existence of aforesaid unconstitutional customs and policies may be inferred from repeated occurrences of similar wrongful conduct, as documented in the following civil rights actions filed against the City and analogous prosecutions of police officers:

- a. Carmody v. City of New York, 05-CV-8084 (HB), 2006 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 83207 (S.D.N.Y.) (police officer alleges that he was terminated for cooperating with another officer's claims of a hostile work environment);
- b. Powers v. City of New York, 04-CV-2246 (NGG), 2007 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 27704 (E.D.N.Y.) (police officer alleges unlawful retaliation by other police officers after testifying about corruption within the NYPD);
- c. Nonnemann v. City of New York, 02-CV-10131 (JSR) (AJP), 2004 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 8966 (S.D.N.Y.) (former NYPD lieutenant alleging retaliatory demotion and early retirement after reporting a fellow officer to IAB and CCRB for the officer's suspicionless, racially-motivated stop-and-frisk of a group of Hispanic youth);
- d. Barry v. New York City Police Department, 01-CV-10627 *2 (CBM), 2004 U.S. LEXIS 5951 (S.D.N.Y.) (triable issue of fact where NYPD sergeant alleged retaliatory demotion and disciplinary charges in response to sergeant's allegations of corruption within her unit and alleged that the NYPD had an "unwritten but pervasive custom of punishing officers who speak out about police misconduct and encouraging, if not facilitating, silence among officers");
- e. Walton v. Safir, 99-CV-4430 (AKH), 122 F.Supp.2d 466 (S.D.N.Y. 2000) (factual findings after trial that a 12-year veteran of NYPD was terminated in retaliation for criticizing the racially-motivated policies of the NYPD's Street Crime Unit and for alleging that such policies led to the NYPD shooting death of Amadou Diallo);
- f. White-Ruiz v. City of New York, 93-CV-7233 (DLC) (MHD), 983 F.Supp. 365,

380 (S.D.N.Y. 1997) (holding that the NYPD had an "unwritten policy or practice of encouraging or at least tolerating a pattern of harassment directed at officers who exposed instances of police corruption"); and,

- g. Ariza v. City of New York, 93-CV-5287 (CPS), 1996 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 20250 at*14 (E.D.N.Y.) (police officer alleges retaliatory duty assignments and harassment in response to his allegations about a racially-discriminatory workplace; on motion for summary judgment, the Court held that the police officer had established proof of both a widespread usage of a policy to retaliate against police officers who expose police misconduct and a failure to train in the police department).

120. Furthermore, the existence of the aforesaid unconstitutional customs and practices, specifically with regard to the failure to supervise, train, instruct and discipline officers and encouraging their misconduct, is further evidenced, inter alia, by the following:

- a. In the matter of Raymond Dyer v. New York City Police Department, et ano., Bronx Supreme Index No.: 301394/13, at an Examination Before Trial on May 23, 2014, defendant police officer Waqar Ali, Shield Number 20144 testified in sum and substance that the extent of education and training pertaining to the laws that police officers are charged to enforce consists of a one (1) day class, which focuses primarily on how to use the penal code index to look up the penal law to justify an arrest that has already been effectuated. Ali deposition transcript at P. 10. Ninety-five (95%) of the testing by the Police Academy is multiple choice and limited to the New York City Police Department Patrol Guide, not penal law. Id at p. 11. Although field testing is performed, none of it is utilized to test a cadet's knowledge of the law. Id at p. 12. Zero follow up training is provided with regard to continuing education of penal law. Id at p. 13. Officers learn the law "on the job" and have available to them at the stationhouse a copy of the penal code to reference "if any situation arises". Id at p. 13.
- b. The Report of the Commission to Investigate Allegations of Police Corruption and the Anti-Corruption Procedures of the Police Department ("Mollen Commission Report"), dated July 7, 1994, states:

In the face of this problem [of corruption], the [NYPD] allowed its systems for fighting corruption virtually to collapse. It has become more concerned about the bad publicity that corruption disclosures generate than the devastating consequences of corruption itself. As a result, its corruption control minimized, ignored and at times concealed corruption rather than root it out. Such an institutional reluctance to uncover corruption is not surprising. No institution wants its reputations tainted - especially a Department that needs the public's confidence and partnership to be effective. A weak and poorly resources anti-corruption apparatus minimizes the likelihood of such taint, embarrassment and potential harm to careers. Thus there is a strong institutional incentive to allow corruption efforts to fray and lose priority – which is exactly what the Commission uncovered. This reluctance manifested itself in every component of the Department's corruption controls from command accountability and supervision, to investigations, police culture, training and recruitment. For at least the past decade, the system designed to protect the Department from corruption minimized the likelihood of uncovering it.¹

- c. Accordingly, in 1990, the Office of the Special Prosecutor, which investigated charges of police corruption, was abolished.
- d. In response to the Honorable Judge Weinstein's ruling of November 25, 2009 in Colon v. City of New York, 09-CV-00008 (E.D.N.Y.), in which he noted a "widespread... custom or policy by the city approving illegal conduct" such as lying under oath and false swearing, Police Commissioner acknowledged, "When it happens, it's not for personal gain. It's more for convenience."²
- e. Regarding defendant City's tacit condonement and failure to supervise, discipline or provide remedial training when officers engage in excessive force, the Civilian Complaint Review Board is a City agency, allegedly independent of the NYPD that is responsible for investigating and issuing findings on complaints of police abuse and misconduct.³ When it does, however, Police Commissioner controls whether the NYPD pursues the matter and he alone has the authority to impose discipline on the subject officer(s). Since 2005, during former Police Commissioner Kelly's tenure, only one-quarter of officers whom the CCRB found engaged in misconduct received punishment more severe than verbal "instructions." Moreover, the number of CCRB-substantiated cases that the NYPD has simply dropped (i.e., closed without action or discipline) has spiked from less than 4% each year between 2002 and 2006, to 35% in 2007, and approximately 30% in 2008. Alarming, the NYPD has refused to prosecute 40% of the cases sent to it by the CCRB in 2009.⁴ As a result, the percentage of cases where the CCRB found misconduct but where the subject officers were given only verbal instructions or the matter was simply dropped by the NYPD rose to 66% in 2007. Substantiated complaints of excessive force against civilians accounted for more than 10% of the cases that the NYPD dropped in 2007 and account for more than 25% of cases dropped in 2008.⁵

121. The existence of the aforesaid unconstitutional customs and practices, specifically with regard to the practice or custom of discouraging police officers from reporting the corrupt or unlawful practices of other police officers and of retaliating against officers who report misconduct, are further evidenced, inter alia, by the following:

- a. Former New York County District Attorney Robert Morgenthau has been quoted as acknowledging that, in the NYPD, there is a "code of silence," or a "code of protection" that exists among officers and that is followed carefully;
- b. In 1985, former NYPD Commissioner Benjamin Ward, testifying before a State Senate Committee, acknowledged the existence of the "code of silence" in the NYPD;
- c. Former NYPD Commissioner Robert Daly wrote in 1991 that the "blue wall of solidarity with its macho mores and prejudices, its cover-ups and silence, is reinforced every day in every way."

122. The existence of the described unlawful de facto policies and/or well-settled and widespread customs and practices is known to, encouraged and/or condoned by supervisory and policy-making officer and officials of the NYPD and the City, including, without limitation, Police Commissioner.

123. The actions of the officer-defendants resulted from and were taken pursuant to the above-mentioned de facto policies and/or well-settled and widespread customs and practices of the City, which are implemented by members of the NYPD, of engaging in systematic and ubiquitous perjury, both oral and written, to cover up federal law violations committed against civilians by either themselves or their fellow officers, supervisors and/or subordinates. They do so with the knowledge and approval of their supervisors, commanders and Police Commissioner who all: (i) tacitly accept and encourage a code of silence wherein police officers refuse to report other officers' misconduct or tell false and/or incomplete stories, inter alia, in sworn testimony, official reports, in statements to the CCRB and the Internal Affairs Bureau ("IAB"), and in public statements designed to cover for and/or falsely exonerate accused police officers; and (ii) encourage and, in the absence of video evidence blatantly exposing the officers' perjury, fail to discipline officers for "testilying" and/or fabricating false evidence to initiate and continue the malicious prosecution of civilians in order to cover-up civil rights violations perpetrated by themselves or fellow officers, supervisors and/or subordinates against those civilians.

124. The policies, practices, customs, and usages, and the failure to properly train, screen, supervise, or discipline, were a direct and proximate cause of the unconstitutional conduct alleged herein, causing injury and damage in violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights as guaranteed under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 and the United States Constitution, including its Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments.

125. The City and NYPD knew or should have known that the acts alleged herein would deprive the plaintiff of his rights, in violation of the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

126. The City and NYPD are directly liable and responsible for the acts of the individual defendants because they repeatedly and knowingly failed to properly supervise, train, instruct, and discipline them, and because it repeatedly and knowingly failed to enforce the rules and regulations of the City and NYPD, and to require compliance with the Constitution and laws of the United States.

127. Despite knowledge of such unlawful de facto policies, practices and/or customs, these supervisory and policy-making officers and officials of the NYPD and the City, including Police Commissioner, have not taken steps to terminate these policies, practices and/or customs, do not discipline individuals who engage in such policies, practices and/or customs, or otherwise properly train police officers with regard to the constitutional and statutory limits on the exercise of their authority, and instead sanction and ratify these policies, practices and/or customs through their active encouragement of, deliberate indifference to and/or reckless disregard of the effect of said policies, practices and/or customs upon the constitutional rights of persons in the City of New York.

128. The aforementioned City policies, practices and/or customs of failing to supervise, train, instruct and discipline police officers and encouraging their misconduct are evidenced by the misconduct detailed herein.

129. Specifically, pursuant to the aforementioned City policies, practices and/or customs, the individual defendants felt empowered to exercise unreasonable and wholly unprovoked force against plaintiff. Pursuant to the aforementioned City policies, practices and/or customs, defendants failed to intervene in or report other defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights or subsequent perjury.

130. Plaintiff's injuries were a direct and proximate result of the defendants, City and the NYPD's wrongful de facto policies and/or well-settled and widespread customs and practices and of the knowing and repeated failure of the defendants to properly supervise, train and discipline their officers.

131. The actions of the individual police defendants resulted from and were taken pursuant to de facto policies and/or well-settled and widespread customs and practices of The City, which were implemented by agents or employees of the NYPD, of employing wholly unprovoked and excessive force.

132. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, acquiesced in a pattern of unconstitutional conduct by subordinate officers and were directly responsible for the violation of the plaintiff's constitutional rights.

133. Plaintiff's injuries were a direct and proximate result of defendants The City's and the NYPD's well-settled and widespread custom and practice at issue in this litigation.

134. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was deprived of liberty, suffered emotional distress, humiliation, costs and expenses, and was otherwise damaged and injured.
