Plaintiff, DERRICK SHORT, by his attorneys, Jacobs & Hazan, LLP, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On April 11, 2015, at approximately 9:30 p.m. plaintiff Derrick Short was subjected to an unlawful stop, frisk, search, detention, false imprisonment, and false imprisonment while lawfully present in the vicinity of 123rd Street and Lexington Avenue, New York, New York. Additionally, the defendant Police Officers assaulted and battered plaintiff, and subjected him to excessive force when they, amongst other things, slammed plaintiff's body and head against a wall and placed handcuffs on plaintiff in an extremely tight manner, causing pain and cuts to plaintiff's wrists. Plaintiff was transported to the 25th precinct where he was subjected to an unlawful strip search. Thereafter, the officers maliciously prosecuted plaintiff and denied plaintiff a right to a fair trial by initiating a prosecution against him, without probable cause by falsifying evidence, providing false, misleading and/or incomplete information to the DA's Office and by signing a Criminal Court complaint which contained false information about plaintiff. All charges against plaintiff were dismissed and sealed on May 24, 2016. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, confined, falsely arrested, maliciously prosecuted, unlawfully stripped search, used excessive force and denied plaintiff the right to a fair trial of plaintiff in violation of the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and in violation of New York State Law.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Derrick Short is a resident of Staten Island, New York.

3. POLICE OFFICER CHRISTOPHER ARENA, Shield No. 7633, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

4. On the date of the subject incident, POLICE OFFICER CHRISTOPHER ARENA, Shield No. 7633, was assigned to Patrol Borough Manhattan North.

5. POLICE OFFICER CHRISTOPHER ARENA, Shield No. 7633, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

6. SERGEANT TREUBIG, Shield No. 05617, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

7. On the date of the subject incident, SERGEANT TREUBIG, Shield No. 05617, was assigned to Patrol Borough Manhattan North.

8. SERGEANT TREUBIG, Shield No. 05617, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

9. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

10. At all times relevant hereto, defendant CITY OF NEW YORK, operated, maintained managed, supervised and controlled the New York City Police Department ("NYPD") as part of and in conjunction with its municipal function.

11. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

12. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

13. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

14. On April 11, 2015, at approximately 9:30 p.m., plaintiff was lawfully walking with his wife in the vicinity of 123rd Street and Lexington Avenue, New York, New York when he was subjected to an unlawful stop, frisk, search, detention, false imprisonment, and false imprisonment.

15. At no time prior to being unlawfully stopped by the defendant officers did plaintiff commit a crime or behave in a manner that gave the police officers a reasonable and objective basis to believe he had committed or was committing a crime.

16. Nevertheless, the defendant police officers suddenly and without legal justification grabbed plaintiff and forcefully slammed him against a wall causing his head to slam against the wall.

17. At no time relevant herein did plaintiff resist arrest in any way.

18. The defendant police officers then unlawfully handcuffed plaintiff in an excessively tight manner, causing pain and discomfort to plaintiff's wrist.

19. Plaintiff was then placed in the back seat of the police vehicle and transported to the 25th precinct.

20. At the 25th precinct, plaintiff was fingerprinted, photographed, and unlawfully detained in a holding cell.

21. Thereafter, while at the 25th precinct, the defendant police officers unlawfully conducted a strip search of plaintiff without reasonable suspicion or probable cause.

22. Specifically, plaintiff was forced to take off all of his clothes and shake each piece of clothing out.

23. Plaintiff was then ordered to turn around, and with his back facing the defendant police officers, plaintiff was forced to bend over and spread his buttocks.

24. At no time did the defendant police officers recover any drugs, contraband or other illegal paraphernalia from plaintiff.

25. On or about April 12, 2015, plaintiff was transported from the 25th precinct to Manhattan Central Booking.

26. Based upon the false, misleading, and incomplete information provided to the District Attorney's Office by the defendant police officers and sworn to by defendant police officer Christopher Arena in the criminal court complaint, defendants maliciously initiated a prosecution against plaintiff without probable cause, and as a result plaintiff was falsely charged with Obstruction Governmental Administration, Disorderly Conduct, and Resisting Arrest.

27. On or about April 12, 2015, after approximately 24 hours in custody, plaintiff was arraigned in Manhattan Criminal Court and was released on his own recognizance.

28. Thereafter, plaintiff was forced to appear in Court on numerous occasions before all charges against plaintiff were dismissed on or about May 24, 2016.

29. As a result of plaintiff's unlawful arrest and detention, he was forced to miss work and incurred lost earnings.

30. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent the unjustifiable stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, false imprisonment, malicious prosecution, unlawful strip search, use of excessive force, and denial of fair trial and due process rights to plaintiff.

31. The unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, false imprisonment, malicious prosecution, unlawful strip search, use of excessive force, denial of due process, denial of a fair trial, against plaintiff by the individually named defendants caused plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth Amendment, Fifth Amendment, and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

32. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 31 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

33. The individually named police officer defendants while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused plaintiff to be unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, malicious prosecution, subjected to denial of his due process rights and denied the right to a fair trial without probable cause in violation of plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure and denial of due process under the Fourth and Fifth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment

34. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 33 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

35. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

36. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

37. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

38. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

39. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Stop, Question, and Frisk

40. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 39 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

41. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop, questioning and frisk employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

42. The conduct of defendants in stopping, frisking, and searching, plaintiff were performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

43. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution

44. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

45. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

46. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Search

47. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 46 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

48. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search inside plaintiff's, pockets, inside of the waistband of his pants and underneath his clothing employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

49. Defendants lacked probable cause to search plaintiff.

50. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

51. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

52. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

53. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Denial of Right to Fair Trial

54. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs numbered 1 through 53 with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

55. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the New York County District Attorney's Office.

56. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the New York County District Attorney's Office.

57. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the New York County District Attorney's Office.

58. In withholding/creating false evidence against plaintiff Derrick Short and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, defendants violated plaintiff's constitutional right to a fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution.

59. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff Derrick Short, sustained, inter alia, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, lost earnings and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

60. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

61. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment

Rights

62. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 61 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

63. The use of excessive force by defendants, by slamming plaintiff's body and head against the wall and placing his wrists in excessively tight handcuffs, was an objectively unreasonable physical seizure of plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

64. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for his conduct.

65. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, psychological and economic injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

66. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 65 as if fully set forth herein.

67. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the United States Constitution, State of New York and New York State common law.

68. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against plaintiff.

69. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against plaintiff and for each of the charges for which he was prosecuted.

70. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned date.

71. Plaintiff was subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate plaintiff's Fourth Amendment rights.

72. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

73. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Strip Search

74. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 73 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

75. Plaintiff was searched by defendants without an individualized reasonable suspicion that plaintiff was concealing weapons or other contraband based on a crime charged, the particular characteristics of the arrestee, and/or the circumstances of the arrest.

76. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff's Constitutional rights were deprived and he sustained great emotional injuries.

77. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the United States Constitution and the State of New York.

78. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

79. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 78 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

80. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

81. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

82. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

83. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

84. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

JURY DEMAND

85. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff Derrick Short demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
