STATEMENT OF FACTS

18. On or about September 20, 2014, at approximately 2:15 a.m., all Plaintiffs were in the vicinity of Fifth Avenue between 40th and 41st Streets, Brooklyn, New York.
19. The Plaintiff, SANDRA AMEZQUITA, who was pregnant and late in her second trimester at the time, was assaulted and battered by a member of the NYPD, and arrested without probable cause. Specifically, while standing in the vicinity of her son, who police officers had attempted to arrest, Plaintiff Sandra Amezquita, was grabbed by an Officer Degan, who threw her to the pavement, such that she landed on her abdomen, with Officer Degan positioning himself on her back. Officer Degan also smashed a baton or nightstick on her body. Officer Roome helped pin her down on the ground.
20. Plaintiff, Amezquita, was arrested without probable cause by Officers Degan and Roome, given a summons for disorderly conduct, and was held in police custody for approximately 3.75 hours.
21. Officer Vallecillo signed the paperwork related to her arrest.
22. Prior to the incident, there were no complications with Plaintiff, Amezquita's, pregnancy. The incident resulted in complications with the pregnancy, which, upon information and belief, caused Plaintiff, Amezquita, to deliver the baby, who is named Kevin, approximately 4 weeks early.
23. There is concern that the incident has put the physical well-being and cognitive development of Kevin at risk and the potential injury to Kevin is causing Plaintiff

Amezquita and Plaintiff Florian severe mental injury, anguish, and trauma.

24. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Amezquita was arrested and prosecuted on the basis of information provided by Officers Degan, Roome and Vallecillo that was false and fabricated.

25. The prosecution of Plaintiff Amezquita was initiated without probable cause and with malice.

26. The conduct of the Defendants, and each of them, in detaining and arresting Sandra Amezquita and using force against her was totally without probable cause, was excessive, and was done maliciously, falsely and in bad faith.

27. On December 2, 2014, the criminal prosecution was terminated favorably to Plaintiff Amezquita when the charges were dismissed.

28. Plaintiff Ronel Lemos Florian was assaulted and battered by members of the NYPD including, without limitation, upon information and belief, Officers Merizalde and / or Vallecillo, and arrested without probable cause. Specifically, Plaintiff Florian was in the vicinity of his son as police officers had attempted to arrest his son. The NYPD members then assaulted and battered Plaintiff Florian to the extent that he fell to the ground.

29. Once he was on the ground, an NYPD member further assaulted and battered Plaintiff Florian.

30. Less than a minute later, Plaintiff Florian's pregnant wife, Plaintiff Sandra Amezquita, who was standing right next to him, was thrown to the pavement by Officer Degan, as described above.

31. Plaintiff Florian was arrested by Officers Bonavita and Vallecillo, Sergeant

Rodriguez, and John Doe and Richard Doe without probable cause, and charged with obstructing governmental administration in the second degree, harassment in the second degree, assault in the second degree, and assault in the third degree.

32. Sergeant Delossantos supervised the unlawful arrest, and Officer Rodriguez entered the paperwork related to the unlawful arrest. Lieutenant Spataro was the “signoff supervisor.”
33. Plaintiff Florian was held in police custody for approximately 22.75 hours.
34. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Florian was arrested and prosecuted on the basis of information provided by Officer Merizalde, Officer Bonavita, Officer Rodriguez, Officer Vallecillo and John Doe and Richard Doe, that was false and fabricated.
35. The prosecution of Plaintiff Florian was initiated without probable cause and with malice.
36. The conduct of the Defendants, and each of them, in detaining and arresting Ronel Lemos Florian and using force against him was totally without probable cause, was excessive, and was done maliciously, falsely and in bad faith.
37. On March 27, 2015, the criminal prosecution was terminated favorably to Plaintiff Florian when the charges were dismissed.
38. When the NYPD were arresting Plaintiff, Amezcua, Plaintiff Mercedes Hidalgo approached Officer Degan to tell him that Ms. Amezcua was pregnant.
39. Plaintiff Hidalgo did not take any actions that could be considered threatening or violent.
40. Officer Degan turned from the process of arresting Ms. Amezcua, and, completely unprovoked, used both his hands to push Ms. Hidalgo to the ground with a force that caused her to roll approximately ten to fifteen feet into the middle of the Street.

41. Plaintiff Hidalgo was unable to stand up and remained lying in the street for a period of time.
42. An ambulance eventually took her to a hospital.
43. Plaintiff Secundino Payamps Peralta was assaulted and battered by members of the NYPD and arrested without probable cause. Specifically, Mr. Peralta went to the aid of his wife, Plaintiff, Mercedes Hidalgo, who had been thrown to the ground and injured by Officer Degan as described above. While Plaintiff Peralta was walking near his wife, Officer Vallecillo rushed at him and threw him on the hood of a car. Officer Vallecillo and several other police officers then proceeded to assault and batter him.
44. Plaintiff Peralta was arrested without probable cause by Officer Vallecillo, Officer Roome, and John Doe and Richard Doe, and he was charged with obstructing governmental administration in the second degree, harassment in the second degree, assault in the second degree, and assault in the third degree.
45. Sergeant Delossantos supervised the unlawful arrest, and Officer Rodriguez signed the paperwork related to the unlawful arrest. Lieutenant Spataro was the “signoff supervisor.”
46. He was held in police custody for approximately 22.75 hours.
47. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff Peralta was arrested and prosecuted on the basis of information provided by Officer Merizalde, Officer Vallecillo, Officer

Roome, Officer Rodriguez, and John Doe and Richard Doe that was false and fabricated.

48. The prosecution of Peralta was initiated without probable cause and with malice.

49. The conduct of the Defendants, and each of them, in detaining and arresting Secundino Payamps Peralta and using force against him was totally without probable cause, was excessive, and was done maliciously, falsely and in bad faith.

50. On March 27, 2015, the criminal prosecution was terminated favorably to Plaintiff Peralta when the charges were dismissed.

51. Plaintiffs did not strike or attempt to strike any of the police officers.

52. The assault and battery by Defendant police officers on each Plaintiff was in excess of their rightful authority as NYPD officers, and was otherwise made without proper cause.

53. Defendants' conduct caused each Plaintiff to sustain physical pain and injury, suffer psychological and emotional harm, and suffer economic injuries including, but not limited to, loss of wages. Defendants' actions constitute outrageous and reckless conduct, and demonstrate a callous indifference to and willful disregard of Plaintiffs' state and other protected rights.

54. On December 15, 2014, each Plaintiff served a Notice of Claim on the New York City Comptroller's Office. On June 17, 2015, after their criminal proceedings were favorably terminated, Plaintiffs Florian and Peralta served a second Notice of Claim related to their malicious prosecution claims.

55. At least thirty (30) days have elapsed since the service of all such Notices of Claim, and adjustment and / or payment has been neglected and / or refused.

56. A 50-h hearing was held for each Plaintiff on March 18, 2015.
57. At all relevant times, Defendants were acting under color of state law.
58. An initial action was filed in the United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York within 1 year and ninety days of the incident at issue herein.
59. The United States District Court for the Eastern District of New York so-ordered a Discontinuance and dismissal of the federal claims asserted in the action under Docket number 15 CV 0303, leaving viable all non-federal claims, to be re-filed pursuant to New York Civil Practice Law and Rules Section 205(a) and / or 28 USCA Section 1367.
