FACTUAL CHARGES

20. On May 18, 2019, at approximately 5:58 PM, Plaintiff was in the vicinity of 1204 Avenue U, Brooklyn, NY.

22. Plaintiff was receiving a haircut at a nearby barbershop when DEFENDANT ROBERTS and DEFENDANT MORAN approached his motorcycle.
23. Plaintiff was informed by his barber that police officers had approached his motorcycle

24. Upon seeing the Defendant officers inspecting his motorcycle, Plaintiff left the barbershop to speak with the officers.
25. Plaintiff approached Defendants and informed them that he was aware that the registration sticker on his motorcycle had expired, but that he had a temporary registration on his cellular phone.
26. Plaintiff informed Defendants that he all proper paperwork, registration, insurance and licensing for the lawful operation of the motorcycle.

33. Defendant Officer Roberts told Plaintiff to get off of the motorcycle.

35. Plaintiff asked why Defendant Officers needed his driver's license for a non-moving violation.
36. Defendant Officer informed Plaintiff that if he did not provide identification, Plaintiff would be arrested.

37. Plaintiff provided the Defendant Officer his identification.
38. Shortly thereafter, approximately six patrol cars approached the location and Defendants, including Defendant TITUS, and John and Jane Doe 1 through 8 exited their vehicles.
39. Defendant Officer informed her sergeant that this was a traffic stop, which Plaintiff contested as he was not driving the motorcycle.
40. Defendant John Doe, a sergeant, told Plaintiff to shut up.
41. Plaintiff was, thereafter, arrested without probable cause and falsely charged with Obstruction of Governmental Administration (Arrest # K19626050).
42. The defendant police officers, including Defendant TITUS falsely stated to the Kings County District Attorney's Office that plaintiff had committed a crime despite knowing, or should have known, that they lacked a legal and a factual basis to allege that plaintiff committed any crime.
43. Plaintiff did not resist arrest.
44. The Defendants did not observe Plaintiff committing any crime or violating any law or local ordinance.
45. Defendants did not have probable cause or reasonable suspicion to detain or arrest Plaintiff.
46. Based on information and belief, a Defendant supervisor, was present on the scene and did not stop the unlawful arrest of Plaintiff.
47. Several Defendants, John and Jane Does 1-8, who did not participate in the incident, but were otherwise present and observed the violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights failed to intercede on Plaintiff's behalf.
48. Defendants searched Plaintiff's person without his authority or permission.

49. Defendants then placed Plaintiff into the back of a marked NYPD vehicle and drove to the Precinct.
50. At the Precinct, Plaintiff was subjected to an intrusive search of his person, and his belongings were taken and vouchered.
51. Plaintiff was subjected to fingerprinting and photographing.
52. Plaintiff was unlawfully detained at the Precinct for approximately fourteen (14) hours before being taken to central booking.
53. Plaintiff was arraigned and offered an Adjournment in Contemplation of Dismissal and released.
54. Plaintiff was not asked to return to court for this matter.
55. The actions taken by Defendants caused Plaintiff personal and emotional injuries.
56. During all of the events described, Defendants acted maliciously, willfully, knowingly and with the specific intent to injure Plaintiff and violate his civil rights.
57. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants were involved in the decision to arrest Plaintiff without probable cause or failed to intervene in the actions of his fellow officers when they observed them arresting Plaintiff without probable cause.
58. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants were involved in the decision to violate Plaintiff's civil rights, including falsely arresting Plaintiff, and failed to intervene in the actions of their fellow officers.
59. The City has been on notice for more than a generation that brutality is widespread and that particular reforms need to be implemented. From reform-minded Commissioner Patrick Murphy to the Mollen Commission twenty-five years later, the City has been repeatedly cautioned that a systemic tolerance for brutality flourishes throughout the NYPD. Indeed, years before said violation was perpetrated upon Plaintiff, the Mollen Commission report noted, “This tolerance, or willful blindness, extends to supervisors as well. This is because many supervisors share the perception that nothing is really wrong with a bit of unnecessary force and because they believe that this is the only way to fight crime today.” Mollen Comm. Report, at 49; The City of New York Commission to Combat Police Corruption, passim.

60. Plaintiff asserts that the Defendants who violated Plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar conduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD, and the City of New York that the commission of such constitutionally violent behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD, and the City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City, NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the Civil Rights of those who may come into contact with police officers.
61. The individually named Defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employee of the NYPD, and the City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently, and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by the Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, or without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, The City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors
62. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption with the NYPD, and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to engage in the fabrication or misrepresentation or subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead reward and promote these officers including those who are implicated via some incontrovertible form of evidence.

63. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article entitled Promotions, Not Punishments For Officers Accused of Lying, written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines the light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity of this type of evidence, in alarmingly small percentage of officers' misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's reluctance or to investigate or disciplines officers who lie and posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusation relating to the officers intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.
64. On September 12th 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein entitled Officers Said They Smelled Pot, The Judge Called Them Liars. Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics what has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judge to credit the line officers, and the increasing rates of occurrence

65. On April 24 2019, The New York Times published an article entitled Detectives Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charged by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD second-grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Detective Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Detective Franco's lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one year
66. Other articles include: (i) Testifying by Police a Stubborn Problem by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18th 2018; (ii) New York Detective Charged With Faking Lineup Results by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17th 2018; (iii) He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutor Stop Believing Him by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17th 2017; (iv) Review Board Notes Rise in the New York Police Officers False Statement by David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14th 2015; (v) In Brooklyn Gun Cases Suspicion Turns to the Police by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11th 2014 (vi) Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs, by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times November 1, 2014; (vii) The Drugs? They Came From The Police, by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

67. The NYPD has a long-standing and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article entitled 2495 Reports of Police Bias. One was deemed valid by the NYPD worried that within the last five years almost 2,500 several individuals have filed formal complaint with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with biased towards them, would not one single being substantiated by the NYPD such a finding is playing the incredible and obviously the result of a deliberately poor or non-existent investigatory protocol the report commitment to combat the prejudices and the bias is exhibited by many of his officers.
68. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in Plaintiff's arrest without probable cause
69. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the city of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reason suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.
70. Defendant's actions, pursuant to plaintiff's underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD, and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the right of any individuals who may come into contact with dependents, should be inferred, because such makers deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers were supervisors of the NYPD, and city of New York.

71. Upon information and belief further details and facts relating to the unlawful policies customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers supervisors police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of Discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of defendants, the NYPD, and the City of New York
72. Upon information and belief, the personal files, records and disciplinary histories of the officers Defendants will reveal a history of constitutional violations indicative of Defendant City's, knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or poor employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named defendant committed similar violations in the future was extremely high.
73. Upon information and belief said personnel files records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the city, and the NYPD were fully aware Defendant passed constitutional violations, unacceptably high probability for the reoccurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as Law Enforcement Officers, or for employment in general, and not the NYPD, and the City of New York to engage in any preventative or corrective action in the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the city of tacit approval of such misconduct or the city's deliberate indifference towards civil rights of those who may interact with employees including Plaintiff

74. As a direct and proximate result of the acts of Defendants, Plaintiff suffered the following injuries and damages: violation of his rights pursuant to the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution, physical injury, physical pain and suffering, emotional trauma and suffering, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, emotional distress, frustration, extreme inconvenience, anxiety, loss of liberty and harm to reputation.
