Case Summary

On November 3, 2023, § 87(2)(b) filed the following complaint with the CCRB via the website.

On November 2, 2023, at approximately 10:04pm, § 87(2)(b) waited for the bus near the intersection of New Lots Avenue and Dumont Avenue in Brooklyn. § 87(2)(b) had just left his godmother, § 87(2)(b) home, located two blocks away at § 87(2)(b). Sergeant Sandeep Thomas, Detective James Argila, and Police Officers Sergio Castillo and Joseph Reyes, all of the 75th Precinct, drove past § 87(2)(b) in an unmarked police vehicle. Sgt. Thomas and PO Castillo stopped § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) fled for approximately two blocks to § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn, and ran up the stairs to the § 87(2)(b) floor (Allegation A, B: Abuse of Authority, Substantiated). Upon reaching § 87(2)(b) both PO Castillo and PO Reyes frisked § 87(2)(b) left, exterior jacket pocket, and PO Reyes frisked § 87(2)(b) right, exterior coat pocket (Allegation C: Abuse of Authority, Unable to Determine, Allegations D-E: Abuse of Authority, Substantiated). Sgt. Thomas frisked and searched § 87(2)(b) left, external coat pocket (Allegations F, G: Abuse of Authority, Substantiated). § 87(2)(b) and her children, § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) (ages unknown), opened the apartment door and observed the stop. At the conclusion of the incident, Sgt. Thomas failed to provide § 87(2)(b) with a business card (Allegation H: Abuse of Authority, Substantiated).

No arrests or summonses resulted from this incident.

The investigation received body-worn camera (BWC) footage from Sgt. Thomas, Det. Argila, PO Castillo, and PO Reyes; and cell phone footage from § 87(2)(b) the relevant aspects of which are addressed in further detail below.

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation (A) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Sergio Castillo stopped § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (B) Abuse of Authority: Sergeant Sandeep Thomas stopped § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) stated (BR 01) that in the moments leading up to this incident, he waited for the bus at the intersection of Dumont Avenue and New Lots Avenue. § 87(2)(b) had just come from § 87(2)(b) home, located at § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn. As he waited for the bus, § 87(2)(b) noticed a white, unmarked car with tinted windows drive slowly past the bus stop. After a few moments, the same car circled back and drove slowly past § 87(2)(b) a second time. § 87(2)(b) was concerned for his safety as he was unaware the vehicle contained police officers. § 87(2)(b) began to walk away from the bus stop, back in the direction of § 87(2)(b) house. After approximately four steps, § 87(2)(b) heard the white car reverse, and he began to run. § 87(2)(b) ran roughly two blocks to § 87(2)(b) house. § 87(2)(b) did not see any police officers exit the car, nor did he hear any police officers issue any commands. At one point while running, § 87(2)(b) accidentally dropped his cell phone and bent down to pick it up. § 87(2)(b) did not intentionally drop any object as he ran. Upon arriving at § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) ascended to the § 87(2)(b) floor, knocked on § 87(2)(b) door and yelled out for § 87(2)(b). Just as § 87(2)(b) opened the door, the officers caught up to § 87(2)(b) and PO Castillo grabbed him by the arm.

Det. Argila's BWC footage (BR 02) captures the following: At 0:00, Det. Argila is in the rear driver side seat of the vehicle. PO Reyes is operating the car, Sgt. Thomas in the front passenger seat, and PO Castillo is in the rear passenger seat. At 0:09, the vehicle slows, and Sgt. Thomas and PO Reyes are captured stretching their necks out of the right side of the car at something out of frame. At 0:19, PO Reyes speeds up slightly before reversing (0:33) in the direction from which they came. At 0:46, PO Reyes speeds up significantly, continuing to reverse down Dumont Avenue, and at 0:48, the vehicle stops, and all officers exit the car.

PO Castillo's BWC footage (BR 03) captures the following: At 0:45, the police vehicle reverses rapidly, and PO Castillo exits at 0:57. PO Castillo sprints after § 87(2)(b) is captured entering § 87(2)(b) at 1:09. PO Castillo chases § 87(2)(b) up the stairs, reaching him on the landing of the § 87(2)(b) floor (1:11-1:24). When PO Castillo arrives on the landing, § 87(2)(b) stands with his back facing § 87(2)(b) apartment door. § 87(2)(b) hands are raised upwards with palms out, and he is clutching his phone in his left hand. § 87(2)(b) states, “What did I do?” (1:27). PO Castillo grabs onto § 87(2)(b) wrists and pulls him away from the apartment door. PO Reyes arrives moments later, and § 87(2)(b) stands between the two officers with the staircase banister in front of him.

A Stop Report prepared by PO Castillo for this incident (BR 04) documented the following narrative: “At TPO, officers observed a male sitting by the bus stop...as officers drove by, male’s eye widened and looked back with a nervous look. Officers then put the vehicle in reverse, and male immediately stood up, and continue looking over his shoulders at officers at officers’ location. Officers could observed the male had a heavy weighted object in left jacket pocket. As the male continue walking away from bus stop, he kept grabbing, and blading the left side of his body. Male then went in between parked vehicles and started adjusting his waist band and the left side jacket pocket. Officers exited their vehicle and the male started running eastbound on Dumont.”

PO Castillo (BR 05) stated that at the time of the incident he rode in the rear passenger seat of the police vehicle. As they travelled westbound on Dumont Avenue, PO Castillo observed § 87(2)(b) sitting on a large rock, waiting for the bus for less than one minute. As they drove past, § 87(2)(b) eyes widened, which led PO Castillo to believe that § 87(2)(b) was nervous. From inside the vehicle, approximately 20-40 feet away, PO Castillo observed that § 87(2)(b) had a bulge on his left side jacket pocket. PO Reyes put the car in reverse and backed up towards § 87(2)(b). PO Castillo observed § 87(2)(b) go between parked cars but could not estimate the distance from the bus stop where officers initially observed § 87(2)(b). PO Castillo observed § 87(2)(b) adjusting the left side of his body or possibly jacket but could not provide additional details. All officers were still inside the vehicle at this point. PO Castillo exited the vehicle, and § 87(2)(b) began to flee.

PO Reyes stated (BR 06) that after driving past the bus stop, he observed § 87(2)(b) eyes widen and § 87(2)(b) began to walk in the opposite direction of the vehicle. PO Reyes’ suspicion was heightened because of the behavior described above and he suspected that § 87(2)(b) could have been in criminal possession of a weapon. PO Reyes reversed, and officers immediately exited the vehicle. § 87(2)(b) began to run; PO Reyes could not recall if it was before or after officers exited the car. After officers began pursuing § 87(2)(b) PO Reyes observed § 87(2)(b) briefly change direction and duck behind some cars, but was unable to see what § 87(2)(b) was doing.

Det. Argila stated (BR 07) that as the vehicle drove past the bus stop, an officer stated that they observed § 87(2)(b) become nervous. PO Reyes reversed, at which point § 87(2)(b) began walking in the opposite direction of the vehicle. As the vehicle reversed, Det. Argila observed § 87(2)(b) looking over his shoulder at the car. As soon as the officers opened the vehicle doors, § 87(2)(b) began to run. After a few seconds of flight, Det. Argila briefly lost sight of § 87(2)(b) as § 87(2)(b) either ducked or fell behind a car.

Sgt. Thomas stated (BR 08) that the officers observed § 87(2)(b) sitting at the incident location. Sgt. Thomas made no observations about § 87(2)(b) or his behavior that led him to believe that § 87(2)(b) was armed. § 87(2)(b) ran from the officers and PO Castillo gave chase. Sgt. Thomas did not personally observe § 87(2)(b) go between any cars or attempt to hide an object, but PO Castillo later informed Sgt. Thomas of this behavior. Sgt. Thomas drove closely behind as PO Castillo gave chase; Sgt. Thomas’ primary focus was on following his fellow officer.

As PO Castillo generated the Stop Report, provided the greatest number of detailed observations, this allegation was pleaded to PO Castillo. As Sgt. Thomas was the ranking supervisor on scene, this allegation was pleaded to Sgt. Thomas.

Per People v. De Bour, 40 N.Y.2d 210 (1976) (BR 09), an officer may ask pointed or accusatory questions when the officer has founded suspicion that criminal activity is afoot. Refusal to answer questions and/or walking or running away does not escalate the encounter. An officer may forcibly stop and detain a person if the officer has reasonable suspicion that the person has committed, is committing or is about to commit a felony or misdemeanor. During this encounter, a reasonable person would not feel free to disregard the officer and walk away. An officer may frisk the individual if the officer reasonably suspects that he is in danger of physical injury by virtue of the detainee being armed.

In People v Crawford, 89 A.D.3d 422 (BR 10), officers stopped their car next to an individual they observed adjusting/cupping the outside of his pocket, in which an officer observed an object creating a weighted bulge. Officers made several commands to the individual, including asking him to remove his hands from his pockets and the individual complied. Upon observing the weighted bulge more closely, an officer testified that it appeared to be a hard, five-or six-inch-long oblong object. The officer then began to exit his vehicle. The individual fled the location, disposing of a firearm, and officers pursued him. The court found that while the officers may have possessed an objective credible reason to request information and instruct the individual to remove his hands from his pockets, they were not justified in stopping the individual, as the “defendant’s flight, when accompanied by nothing more than the presence of an object in his pocket that was unidentifiable even at close range, did not raise a reasonable suspicion that he had a gun or was otherwise involved in a crime.”

In People v. Garcia, 20 N.Y.3d 317 (BR 11), officers stopped a vehicle during which time the occupants “made furtive movements and acted nervous.” After the officers asked the vehicle occupants if anyone in the vehicle had a weapon, they recovered a knife and two airsoft rifles from the vehicle. The court found that, “while the evidence demonstrated only that the occupants of the vehicle appeared nervous, the officers could not, without founded suspicion for the inquiry, ask the occupants if they possessed weapons...and nervousness is not an indication of criminality.”

While the officers’ statements vary slightly on what exactly was observed prior to exiting the vehicle, PO Castillo, PO Reyes, and Det. Argila were consistent that they observed § 87(2)(b) at a bus stop and that upon his observation of their vehicle, he displayed signs of nervousness and began to walk in the opposite direction of their vehicle. § 87(2)(g)

Allegation (C) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Sergio Castillo frisked § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (D) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Joseph Reyes frisked § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (E) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Joseph Reyes frisked § 87(2)(b)

PO Castillo's BWC (BR 03) captures the following: PO Castillo is the first officer to reach § 87(2)(b) on the stairway landing (1:26). At 1:28, PO Castillo grabs § 87(2)(b) right wrist and pulls him away from the apartment door, toward the center of the landing. PO Reyes arrives seconds later (1:29), followed shortly thereafter by Sgt. Thomas. At 1:43, Sgt. Thomas is captured frisking § 87(2)(b) left, external coat pocket. At 1:46, Sgt. Thomas narrows his fingers and appears to begin placing them inside § 87(2)(b) left coat pocket, but PO Castillo's BWC camera does not capture Sgt. Thomas' hand inside the pocket (see Allegations F-G). The footage does not clearly capture PO Castillo conducting a frisk of § 87(2)(b). The footage does not capture any officer going inside § 87(2)(b) pants pockets.

PO Reyes' BWC (BR 12) captures his arrival on the stairway landing, at which point he immediately conducts a frisk of § 87(2)(b) right, external coat pocket. At 1:41, PO Reyes again frisks § 87(2)(b) right, external coat pocket, followed by § 87(2)(b) left, external coat pocket (1:41-1:43). After standing for a moment, PO Reyes leads § 87(2)(b) down the stairs and § 87(2)(b) begins to cry (2:10). The footage does not capture PO Castillo conducting a frisk of § 87(2)(b). The footage does not capture any officer going inside § 87(2)(b) pants pockets.

The UF-250 Stop Report PO Castillo prepared for this incident states the following under Narrative (Describe the circumstances that led to the frisk and/or search): "Officers... observed a long straight edge and three points of contact resembling a firearm in the male's left side jacket pocket. Officers then frisked the male's left side jacket pocket with negative results for a firearm."

PO Castillo and PO Reyes stated that they frisked § 87(2)(b) left, external coat pocket. PO Reyes stated he also frisked § 87(2)(b) right, external coat pocket. Both PO Reyes and PO Castillo denied searching § 87(2)(b) pockets.

PO Castillo stated that while observing § 87(2)(b) from roughly 20-40 feet away, § 87(2)(b) walked between two parked vehicles and appeared to be adjusting the left side of his jacket. PO Castillo could not recall any other details about § 87(2)(b) movements. PO Castillo could not recall if he observed § 87(2)(b) hands touch his jacket pocket, waistband, or any other part of his body. After reaching § 87(2)(b) on the landing of the apartment building stairwell, PO Castillo more clearly observed the bulge in § 87(2)(b) left jacket pocket. It appeared to be an L-shaped object with "three points of contact," which PO Castillo believed to be a firearm. PO Castillo then frisked § 87(2)(b) left exterior jacket pocket to determine the contents. PO Castillo felt an object inside the pocket but could not provide any details about what the object resembled.

During his CCRB interview, PO Castillo was shown his own BWC frame-by-frame for the 1:25-1:26 minute mark on the player timestamp. PO Castillo affirmed that he was able to see the L-shaped object in these moments of the BWC footage, pointing out § 87(2)(b) left coat pocket. Specifically, PO Castillo stated that he believed the barrel of a firearm sat at the base of the pocket, with the handle protruding upwards towards the left side of the pocket. A screenshot of the BWC which PO Castillo referenced has been added to the casefile for ease of reference (BR 13).

PO Reyes stated that he did not observe any bulges on § 87(2)(b) person during the initial observation or pursuit. PO Reyes could not recall if any other officer on scene communicated that they had seen a bulge on § 87(2)(b) person. PO Reyes initially stated that he could not recall if he observed any bulges in any of § 87(2)(b) pockets as he approached him inside the apartment building. After reviewing the Stop Report (BR 04), PO Reyes amended his statement to reflect that he did observe something in § 87(2)(b) left pocket, but could provide no further information about his observations. In addition to frisking § 87(2)(b) left, exterior jacket pocket, PO Reyes also frisked § 87(2)(b) right, exterior jacket pocket because of the possibility that § 87(2)(b) had moved an object from one pocket to another.

Per People v. De Bour, 40 N.Y.2d 210 (1976) (BR 09), an officer may frisk the individual if the officer reasonably suspects that he is in danger of physical injury by virtue of the detainee being armed.

While PO Castillo was not captured on BWC frisking § 87(2)(b) PO Castillo confirmed to the investigation during his CCRB interview that he frisked § 87(2)(b) left, exterior jacket pocket. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g) It is therefore recommended that Allegation C be closed as Unable to Determine.

§ 87(2)(g) It is therefore recommended that Allegation D be closed as Substantiated. § 87(2)(g)

Allegation (F) Abuse of Authority: Sergeant Sandeep Thomas frisked § 87(2)(b)

Allegation (G) Abuse of Authority: Sergeant Sandeep Thomas searched § 87(2)(b)

At 1:43 on the player timestamp of PO Castillo's BWC footage (BR 03), Sgt. Thomas is captured frisking § 87(2)(b) left, external coat pocket. At 1:46, Sgt. Thomas narrows his fingers and appears to begin placing them inside § 87(2)(b) left coat pocket, but PO Castillo's BWC camera does not capture Sgt. Thomas' hand inside the pocket. Neither Sgt. Thomas nor any other officers are captured searching § 87(2)(b) left or right jeans pockets.

At 1:22 on the player timestamp of Sgt. Thomas' BWC footage (BR 14), Sgt. Thomas reaches the apartment landing where PO Castillo and PO Reyes have stopped § 87(2)(b) Sgt.

Thomas extensively frisks § 87(2)(b) left, exterior jacket pocket (1:25). At 1:31, Sgt. Thomas' fingers appear to enter the side of the exterior jacket pocket. Sgt. Thomas is not captured entering or searching § 87(2)(b) left or right jeans pockets.

Sgt. Thomas stated that he frisked § 87(2)(b) left, external jacket pocket. Sgt. Thomas believed § 87(2)(b) was armed due to the behavior he observed, such as § 87(2)(b) flight. However, Sgt. Thomas could not recall why he specifically frisked § 87(2)(b) left, external coat pocket. Sgt. Thomas' decision to frisk § 87(2)(b) left, exterior jacket may have been based on his observing PO Reyes and PO Castillo frisking that area. Upon frisking the pocket, Sgt. Thomas did not feel any firearm, and he no longer had reason to believe that § 87(2)(b) was armed. Sgt. Thomas stated that he may have unintentionally put his fingers inside § 87(2)(b) left, external coat pocket. Sgt. Thomas did not recall whether he ever entered § 87(2)(b) jean pockets or pants pockets of any kind, nor did he recall observing any other officer do so.

Per People v. De Bour, 40 N.Y.2d 210 (1976) (BR 09), an officer may frisk the individual if the officer reasonably suspects that he is in danger of physical injury by virtue of the detainee being armed. In the context of the investigative encounters described in this section, a search occurs when the officer places her/his hands inside a pocket or other interior portions of a person's clothing or personal property to remove an object that the member felt during a frisk and reasonably suspects is a weapon or dangerous instrument.

As such, it is recommended that Allegation F be closed as Substantiated.

Sgt. Thomas' statement that his fingers went inside § 87(2)(b) jacket pocket was consistent with his BWC footage and § 87(2)(b) that an officer searched his pockets, albeit a different location. § 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegation G be closed as Substantiated.

Allegation (H) Abuse of Authority: Sergeant Sandeep Thomas failed to provide § 87(2)(b) with a business card.

Sgt. Thomas' BWC footage captures the following: At 12:36 on the player timestamp, PO Castillo, PO Reyes, and Det. Argila are seen offering their business cards to § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) accepts a business card from PO Reyes. Sgt. Thomas is not captured offering § 87(2)(b) a business card, and his BWC footage ends at 13:02 as Sgt. Thomas and the other officers leave the incident location.

Sgt. Thomas stated that he frisked and searched § 87(2)(b). Sgt. Thomas stated that on the date of the incident, he was equipped with pre-printed business cards bearing his name. Officers are required to offer civilians a business card at the conclusion of a stop resulting in a frisk or search. Sgt. Thomas did not offer § 87(2)(b) a business card because the other officers on scene offered him their business cards, and Sgt. Thomas believed this was sufficient.

Administrative Code 14-174 (BR 15) states that during law enforcement activity that does not result in an arrest or summons, including frisks and searches of persons, an officer shall offer a business card to any person requesting identifying information, or provide such information verbally to such person and allow such person sufficient time to record such information when such officer does not have an adequate number of pre-printed business cards or hand-written cards on his or her person at the time of such law enforcement activity.
