The Defendant, jointly and severally without any warrant, order or other legal process and without any legal right, wrongfully and unlawfully arrested the Plaintiff, restrained her and her liberty and then took her into custody to the 34th precinct in the County of New York. The Defendants intentionally confined the Plaintiff without her consent and the confinement was not otherwise privileged by law and, at all times, the Plaintiff was conscious of her confinement.

AS AND FOR THE FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION IN FAVOR OF DIANA P. FARROW

13. The Plaintiff, DIANA P. FARROW, repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges all of the allegations contained in paragraphs "1" through "12" as it set forth at length herein.

14. The Defendants, P.O. "JOHN DOE I" and P.O. "JOHN DOE II," were at all times relevant, duly appointed and acting as officers of the City of New York Police Department.

15. At all times mentioned herein, said police officers were acting under color of law, to wit: the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies and customs and usage of the State of New York and/or City of New York.

16. The Plaintiff, DIANA P. FARROW, is and at all times relevant herein a resident of Bronx County in the State of New York and brings this cause of action pursuant to 42 United States Code, Section 1983 and 42 United States Code, Section 1988.

17. The Defendant, CITY OF NEW YORK, is a municipality duly incorporated under the laws of the State of New York.

18. On or about June 22, 2012, the Defendants, armed police, while effectuating the seizure of the Plaintiff, DIANA P. FARROW, did search, seize, assault and commit a battery and grab the person of the Plaintiff without a court authorized arrest or search warrant. They did physically seize the person of the Plaintiff during the arrest process in an unlawful and excessive manner. The Plaintiff was falsely arrested without the Defendants possessing probable cause to do so; also, she had to seek medical attention as a result of the excessive force used by Defendants herein against her person. In arresting and detaining a claimant against her will by use of a quota system for arrest, which is practice and customary system used by the New York City Police Department. The plaintiff was stopped while leaving a taxi through a check point by New York City Police Department and P.O. John Doe I and P.O. John Doe II.

19. The above action of the Defendants resulted in the Plaintiff, DIANA P. FARROW, being deprived of the following rights under the United States Constitution:

- a. Freedom from summary punishment; and
- b. Freedom from cruel and inhuman punishment; and
- c. Freedom from illegal search and seizure; and
- d. Freedom from false arrest; and
- e. Freedom from the use of excessive force during the arrest process.

20. The Defendants subjected the Plaintiff to such deprivations, either in a malicious or reckless disregard of the Plaintiff's rights or with deliberate indifference to those rights under the fourth and fourteenth amendments of the United States Constitution.

21. The direct and proximate result of the Defendants' acts are that the Plaintiff has suffered severe and permanent injuries of a psychological nature. She was forced to endure pain and suffering, all to her detriment.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH CAUSE OF
ACTION IN FAVOR OF DIANA P. FARROW

22. The Plaintiff, DIANA P. FARROW, incorporates, repeats and re-alleges all of the allegations contained in Paragraphs "1" through "21" with full force and effect as though set forth at length herein.

23. The Defendant, CITY OF NEW YORK, has grossly failed to train and adequately supervise its police officers in the fundamental law of arrest, search and seizure especially when its police officers are not in possession of a court authorized arrest and a search warrant and where an individual, especially as here, has not committed a crime and has not resisted arrest, that its police officers should only use reasonable force to effectuate an arrest and the arrest should be based on probable cause.

24. The Defendant, CITY OF NEW YORK, was negligent by failing to implement a policy with its Police Department and instruct police officers who, absent the consent of the Plaintiff (or similarly situated individuals) or without the possession of a court authorized arrest search warrant, said police officers of the City of New York are not to arrest individuals such as the Plaintiff here where probable cause is lacking and the use of force should only be reasonable when an individual resists arrest and should not be used where a criminal defendant is not resisting arrest.

25. THE CITY OF NEW YORK is negligent due to its failure to implement a policy with its Police Department or actively enforce the law, if any of the following are lacking:

1. Probable cause must be present before an individual such as the Plaintiff herein can be arrested.
2. Force cannot be used against an individual who does not physically resist arrest.
3. An individual who sustains physical injury at the hands of the police during the arrest process should receive prompt medical attention.

26. The foregoing acts, omissions and systemic failures are customs and policies of the defendant, CITY OF NEW YORK, which caused the police officers to falsely arrest, seize illegally and search the Plaintiff, commit an assault/battery to her person and deny her prompt medical attention under the belief that they would suffer no disciplinary actions for their failure to take proper or prudent steps in this case.

31. That by reason of the aforesaid unlawful arrest, the plaintiff was deprived of her liberty, was subjected to great indignity, humiliation, pain and great distress of mind and body and was held up to scorn and ridicule, was injured in her character and reputation, was prevented from attending her usual business and avocation, was injured in her reputation in the community and the said plaintiff has been otherwise damaged.
