Plaintiffs, LADY FREITES, DELIO GUILLEN, DENIA GUILLEN and THOMAS GUILLEN, by and through the undersigned attorneys, Sim & DePaola, LLP, for their complaint against Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK, ORLANDO COLON, WILBERT MORALES, DANIEL COLLINS, ZORA STROTHERS, CHARLES AWANI, JOSE BATISTA, TIMOTHY HARRINGTON, ADAM ACOSTA and STEPHANIE CEPEDA, allege and state as follows:

1. This is a civil rights action, in which Plaintiffs seek relief and redress against defendants vis-à-vis sections 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988, of Title 42 to the Code of Laws of the United States, for the violations of their civil rights under the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, the constitution of the State of New York and the laws of the City and State of New York.
2. The following claims arise from a September 13, 2020, incident, in which defendants, acting under color of state law, caused Plaintiffs to be illegally stopped, searched, seized, detained and arrested through the application of excessive force.

3. As a result, Plaintiffs were detained over the course of multiple days and were maliciously prosecuted by the above-captioned defendants until the criminal proceedings were terminated in favor of Plaintiffs on, or about, December 5, 2019, when all adverse charges were unconditionally and summarily dismissed and sealed, pursuant to §§ 160.50 or 160.60 of the Criminal Procedure Law.

4. At all times here mentioned, defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

5. The above referenced acts caused Plaintiffs to be deprived of their rights to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures, in addition their rights to be afforded a Fair Trial, Due Process and Equal Protection of the Law.

6. Plaintiffs seek monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against Defendants, an award of costs and attorney's fees, with all interest then accrued, in addition to such other and further relief, as this Court may deem just and proper.

7. Plaintiffs served notice of the claims herein on Defendant City of New York, more than thirty (30) days have elapsed since the service of said notice, and this matter has not been settled or otherwise disposed of.

PARTIES

8. Plaintiffs, Ms. LADY FREITES ("Ms. Freitas") and Ms. DENIA GUILLEN ("Ms. Guillen"), are Latina or Hispanic female, who reside in Bronx County, New York.

9. Plaintiffs, Mr. DELIO GUILLEN ("Mr. D. Guillen") and Mr. THOMAS GUILLEN ("Mr. T. Guillen"), are Latino or Hispanic males, who reside in Bronx County, New York.

10. Defendant, City of New York ("City"), is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York.

11. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant City, acting through the New York City Police Department (“NYPD”), was responsible for the policy, practice, supervision, implementation, and conduct of all NYPD matters and was responsible for the appointment, training, supervision, discipline and retention and conduct of all NYPD personnel, including police officers, detectives, and supervisory officers, including the individually named Defendants herein.

12. In addition, at all times here relevant, Defendant City was responsible for enforcing the rules of the NYPD, and for ensuring that the NYPD personnel, including the individually named defendants herein, obey the laws of the United States, as well as the City and State of New York.

13. Defendants, ORLANDO COLON (“COLON”), WILBERT MORALES (“MORALES”), DANIEL COLLINS (“COLLINS”), ZORA STROTHERS (“STROTHERS”), CHARLES AWANI (“AWANI”), JOSE BATISTA (“BATISTA”), TIMOTHY HARRINGTON (“HARRINGTON”), ADAM ACOSTA (“ACOSTA”) and STEPHANIE CEPEDA (“CEPEDA”), were, at all relevant times herein, police officers, detectives, sergeants, lieutenants, or other supervisory officers employed by the NYPD and, as such, were acting as agents, servants or employees of the City of New York. Defendants were, at all relevant times herein, believed to be assigned to the 46th Precinct or Detective Squad of the NYPD. Defendants are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

14. At all relevant times herein, Defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA and CEPEDA, were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

FACTUAL CHARGES

15. On, or about, July 1, 2018, at approximately 5:00 p.m., inside of 2020 Grand Avenue, The Bronx, New York, Plaintiffs were approached by defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA and CEPEDA, who did so with their arms outstretched toward Plaintiffs in an overtly aggressive and threatening manner causing Plaintiffs to fear for their physical safety and wellbeing.

16. Defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA and CEPEDA, proceeded to grab, strike and restrain Plaintiffs all about their torso, arms and wrists.

17. Shortly thereafter, defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA and CEPEDA, forcibly affixed metal handcuffs to Plaintiffs' wrists in an excessively tight fashion, which defendants refused to loosen or remove, despite numerous complaints from Plaintiffs that they were too tightly applied and causing them substantial pain and discomfort.

18. Defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA and CEPEDA, did not possess a lawful reason to approach, stop, seize or arrest Plaintiffs at said stated date and time, as Plaintiffs were not observed to be committing crimes or violations of the law and defendants were not informed by any witnesses that Plaintiffs had committed any crimes or violations of the law.

19. As a result, Plaintiffs were caused to suffer substantial physical pain and injuries, including, but not limited to, lacerations, contusions, hematomas and a diminished range of movement to their arms, wrists and hands.

20. Defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA and CEPEDA, lacked any probable cause or reasonable suspicion to stop, seize or arrest Plaintiffs, because defendants never observed Plaintiffs commit any crime or violation of the law and were never informed that Plaintiffs committed any crime or violation of the law, including Unlawful Imprisonment.

21. Defendants, including, COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA and CEPEDA, then proceeded to illegally search Plaintiffs' persons by subjecting Plaintiffs to illegal strip-searches with attendant cavity inspections of their persons or other gratuitously invasive physical inspections or bodily searches, despite the clear lack of any indicia of secreted contraband or unlawful activity to justify such violative procedures.

22. Due to the lack of probable cause for the searches or seizures of Plaintiffs' persons or property, the aforementioned conduct constituted the completed torts of assault and battery by defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA and CEPEDA

23. Prior to Plaintiffs being arraigned in criminal court, defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA and CEPEDA, caused criminal court complaints to be filed against Plaintiff in Bronx County Criminal Court, which falsely accused Plaintiffs of various criminal acts, including Unlawful Imprisonment in the Second-Degree.

24. Defendants, including, COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA and CEPEDA, knowingly, maliciously and intentionally engaged in the fabrication of false and fictitious evidence, observations, events and occurrences, which defendants falsely attributed to Plaintiffs before forwarding to prosecutors of the Bronx County District Attorney's Office, namely that Plaintiffs acted in concert to confine Ms. Channell Pena to an apartment bedroom against her will and refuse to let her call the police, when defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA and CEPEDA, knew such observations to be completely untrue and baseless fabrications.

25. Defendants, including, COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA and CEPEDA, engaged in fraud, the suppression of evidence, perjury, the gross deviation from acceptable police conduct and other conduct undertaken in bad faith, including the withholding of video surveillance and witness statements that directly contradict the false allegations against them by defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA and CEPEDA

26. Defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA AND CEPEDA, were fully aware that they never possessed a lawful reason to stop, arrest or apply the level of force that was used against Plaintiffs, but knowingly chose to do so anyway.

27. As a result, Plaintiffs were caused to be unlawfully detained over the course of multiple days and nights, until they were finally released from the physical custody of defendants several days after they were wrongfully arrested.

28. Defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA AND CEPEDA, therefore, maliciously prosecuted and denied Plaintiffs their rights to Fair Trial and Due Process from the time they were arraigned, until the underlying criminal court proceedings were terminated in favor of Plaintiffs on December 5, 2019, when all charges were summarily and unconditionally dismissed and sealed, upon consideration of the merits thereof, pursuant to §§ 160.50 or 160.60 of the New York Criminal Procedure Law.

29. At all times relevant hereto, the Defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA AND CEPEDA, were involved in the decisions to arrest, initiate criminal prosecutions or use excessive force against Plaintiffs without probable cause, or failed to intervene when they observed others falsely arresting, maliciously prosecuting or applying excessive force against Plaintiffs.

30. Defendant City has engaged in a policy, custom, or pattern and practice of illegally stopping, searching, arresting and criminally prosecuting Latina, Latino or Hispanic females or males, based upon allegations by individuals known to be incredible and possess ulterior motives to make such false accusations, thereby severely impugning the veracity thereof.

31. Plaintiffs assert that the aforementioned unlawful acts committed by defendants are representative of a pervasive policy, custom or pattern and practice within the City of New York and the NYPD in particular.

32. Plaintiffs assert that defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA AND CEPEDA, illegally approached, stopped, searched, and then falsely arrested them, due solely to their racially discriminatory prejudices against Latina, Latino or Hispanic females or males, which includes equating race or color with criminality or other unlawful conduct, their intent to use the instant arrest as leverage against Plaintiffs, so that they would provide defendants with information regarding defendants' true and only suspects, or other unrelated crimes or criminal suspects, their desires to fulfill an unconstitutional arrest quota and to benefit from increased overtime compensation.

33. Plaintiffs further assert that defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA AND CEPEDA, acted in such an unlawfully reprehensible manner, due to their unsubstantiated and unreasonable presumptions that Plaintiffs would be able provide said defendants with information pertaining to unrelated criminal activity or suspects, solely because of their status as Latina, Latino or Hispanic females or males.

34. Defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA AND CEPEDA, arrested and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiffs, because of their racially discriminatory beliefs, which compelled defendants to equate to Plaintiffs' race, ethnicity or national origin to criminal guilt or criminal knowledge, despite the absence of any cognizable probable cause or reasonable suspicion to believe Plaintiffs were violating the law.

35. Defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA AND CEPEDA, perpetrated multiple overt acts in furtherance of their obviously discriminatory inclinations and biases, namely the stop, search, assault, battery, seizure, arrest, and malicious prosecution of Plaintiffs, despite possessing no evidence, credible or otherwise, to justify such conduct.

36. Defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA AND CEPEDA, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, seized, arrested, and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiffs, due solely to defendants' perception or consideration of Plaintiffs' race, ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender or age.

37. Defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA AND CEPEDA, subjected Plaintiffs to disparate treatment compared to other non-Hispanic individuals similarly situated, because defendants did not stop, accuse, search, seize, arrest or cause criminal prosecutions to be initiated against any White or Asian individuals, who were engaged in activity identical or substantially similar to the kind that resulted in the illegal search, seizure, detention, and prosecution of Plaintiffs, namely those who were present inside of their residences while in obedience of all local, state and federal laws.

38. Defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA AND CEPEDA, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, seized, arrested, and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiffs, because of their improper and pernicious desires to prevent Plaintiffs from exerting his First Amendment right to engage in protected speech and activities, such as Plaintiffs' right to refuse to yield to defendants' unreasonably coercive demands to utter false confessions or assist defendants in the fabrication of evidence against defendants' true suspects or other persons of interest.

39. Defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA AND CEPEDA, possessed no valid reason to approach, stop, question, search or arrest Plaintiffs, which gives rise to the strong inference that such conduct resulted from defendants' unjust motivations or proclivities, including defendants' invidious and biased based discriminatory predilections against Latino or Hispanic males, such as Plaintiffs, defendants' desire to retaliate, punish or otherwise penalize Plaintiffs for their refusals to submit to the will of defendants by answering questions to the satisfaction of defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA AND CEPEDA.

40. Defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA AND CEPEDA, engaged in a conspiracy to falsely arrest and maliciously prosecute Plaintiffs by personally conferring with each other, regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned nonexistent evidence, the suppression of exculpatory evidence, as well the manner and means by which said fabrications would be forwarded to prosecutors.

41. Plaintiffs assert that the defendants, including COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA AND CEPEDA, who violated their civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission of such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers.

42. The individually named defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers or supervisors.

43. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculcated via incontrovertible evidence, such as video evidence.

44. The Constitutionally repugnant behavior that persists within the ranks of the NYPD results from the NYPD's own policies, rules and procedures, namely the NYPD's incredibly flawed and illegal use of arrest quotas. Despite its illegality, such policies remain systemic throughout the NYPD and its individual commands. Additionally, the NYPD promulgated various subsets of quotas, which are predicated on race, color or ethnicity. Additionally, the NYPD, its supervisors or policymakers would assign varying point values to arrests, which were, again, impermissibly based upon the arrestee's race, color or ethnicity. Unsurprisingly, officers would be better rewarded for minority arrests or summonses. This egregious conduct has been reported by numerous respected media outlets and publications and has even formed the basis for federal lawsuits against the City and the NYPD, which were commenced by its own employee police officers.

45. On June 17, 2020, the New York Daily News published an article, by Graham Rayman, entitled "Brooklyn Cop Claims he was Punished for not Meeting Arrest Quotas, Refusing to Take Responsibility for Controversial Arrest in which he Wasn't Involved," describing allegations from an NYPD Police Officer, Terrence Dickerson, that he was retaliated against by the NYPD for refusing to adhere to mandatory racially based arrest quotas and for his refusal to accept responsibility for a controversial and publicized arrest via the excessive force, despite the fact that he was not even at the scene.

46. Another article with a title that speaks for itself, also published by the New York Daily News, on December 5, 2019, and written by Graham Rayman, is entitled "Ex-Cop Details NYPD 'Collar Quotas'—Arrest Black and Hispanic Men, 'No Cuffs on Soft Targets' of Jews, Asians, Whites: Court Docs."

47. The New York Times, on December 6, 2019, published an article by Joseph Goldstein and Ashley Southall, entitled "I Got Tired of Hunting Black and Hispanic People," which revealed a disturbing account from a different NYPD Police Officer, Anthony Diaz, describing a police force that measures the quality of police work by the quantity of minority arrests.

48. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled "Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying," written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers' intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

49. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled "Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars." Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

50. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "Detective's Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge," by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco's lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

51. Other articles include: (i) "Testilying' by Police: A Stubborn Problem.," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) "New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) "He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) "Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers' False Statement," by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) "In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police," by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) "Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs,” by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) “The Drugs? They Came from the Police,” by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

52. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD’s commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

53. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in the violations to Plaintiff’s civil rights, as described herein.

54. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

55. Defendants’ actions were so blatantly violative of Plaintiffs’ civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with Defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

56. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of Defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

57. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer Defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named Defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

58. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of Defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including defendants, COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA AND CEPEDA.

59. Upon information and belief, the individually named Defendants have combined to be named as Defendants in numerous lawsuits that have accused them of committing violations similar or identical to those alleged herein, all of which have resulted in no disciplinary or corrective action of any kind.

60. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named Defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct.

61. The aforementioned acts of defendants, including the CITY, COLON, MORALES, COLLINS, STROTHERS, AWANI, BATISTA, HARRINGTON, ACOSTA and CEPEDA, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of Plaintiffs' civil rights, as enumerated and set forth by the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, the constitution of the State of New York and the laws of the City and State of New York.

62. As direct or proximate results of said acts, Plaintiffs were caused to suffer the loss of their liberty, irreparable reputational harm, the loss of earnings and potential earnings, substantial and permanent physical and psychological injuries, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience and anxiety.
