Plaintiff was arrested, detained at the 46th NYPD Precinct. Subsequently, Plaintiff was removed to the Bronx County Central Booking.

3. As a result, Plaintiff was deprived of his liberty and suffered various physical, emotional and psychological injuries. 7. The above-referenced acts caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his liberty, his right to be from unreasonable searches and seizures, in addition to his rights to Due Process and Equal Protection of the laws.

8. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against Defendants, an award of costs and attorney's fees, with all interest then accrued, in addition to such other or further relief, as this Court may deem just and proper.

FACTUAL CHARGES

17. On, or about, August 10, 2021, at approximately 9:00 a.m., in the vicinity of 2120 Ryer Avenue, Bronx New York, Plaintiff was illegally stopped, seized, arrested and detained by, or at the direction of, defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, although Plaintiff had not committed any crime or violation of law and exhibited no indicia of such.

18. Defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, never observed Plaintiff committing any crime or violation of the law.

19. Around three days prior to the above date, Plaintiff's mother received a phone call from a Defendant police officer who requested Plaintiff to come to the Precinct. On, or about, August 10, 2021, Plaintiff went to the 46th NYPD Precinct voluntarily.

20. At the 46th Precinct, Plaintiff was caused to be wrongfully arrested despite the fact that he had not committed any crime or violation of the law Defendants had no probable cause to arrest him.

21. Defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, violently contorted Plaintiff's arms behind his back before they finally affixed metal handcuffs to Plaintiff's wrists in an excessively tight fashion, which caused Plaintiff to sustain substantial physical pain and injuries to his back, neck, arms, hands and wrists.

22. Plaintiff complained to defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, several times that the handcuffs were too tight and causing to Plaintiff suffer substantial pain but said defendants either ignored or outright refused Plaintiff's requests to loosen the handcuffs.

23. Defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, proceeded to illegally search Plaintiff's person, then placed Plaintiff in a cell where he was handcuffed to a bench.

24. Afterwards, Defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, illegally questioned Plaintiff about a crime that Plaintiff was/is not aware of.

25. When Plaintiff requested for what he was being arrested and questioned, Defendants, including RODRIGUEZ ignored his request.

26. Defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, lacked any probable cause or reasonable suspicion to stop, seize or arrest Plaintiff, because defendants never observed Plaintiff commit any crime or violation of the law.

27. Subsequently, Plaintiff was removed to Bronx County Central Booking where he was criminally processed, searched, fingerprinted, photographed, and placed in a dirty cell.

28. Defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, either ignored or outright refused Plaintiff's requests for water, food, and medical assistance.

29. Defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, engaged in fraud, the suppression of evidence, perjury, the gross deviation from acceptable police conduct and other conduct undertaken in bad faith, including the withholding of other video surveillance recordings, witness statements or accounts, which all directly contradict the false allegations against him by defendants, including RODRIGUEZ.

30. Plaintiff asserts that defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, falsely arrested, wrongfully detained and arrested Plaintiff with the full knowledge that he had committed no crime or violation of the law.

31. As a result, Plaintiff was caused to be unlawfully, involuntarily and continuously detained by defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, over the course of two (2) days, until his release eventual from physical custody on, or about, August 11, 2021.

32. At all times relevant hereto, the defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, were involved in the decision to stop, seize and arrest Plaintiff without reasonable suspicion or probable cause, or failed to intervene when they observed others doing so in the absence of any reasonable suspicion or probable cause.

33. At all times relevant hereto, the defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, subjected Plaintiff to excessive force, or failed to intervene when they observed others subjecting Plaintiff to excessive force.

34. Defendant City and the individually named police officers herein, have engaged in a policy, custom, or pattern and practice of illegally stopping, searching and arresting African American, Black, Latino or Hispanic males, who are only observed in the mere presence of suspected criminality, without more, due solely to their impermissible and uncorroborated belief that such presence is tantamount to the commission of such suspected criminality.

35. Plaintiff asserts that the aforementioned unlawful acts committed by defendants are representative of a pervasive policy, custom or pattern and practice within the City of New York and the NYPD in particular.

36. Plaintiff assert that Defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, illegally approached, stopped, searched, and then falsely arrested him, due solely to their racially discriminatory prejudices against African American or Hispanic males, their intent to use the instant arrest as leverage against Plaintiff, so that he would provide defendants with information regarding defendants' true and only suspects, or other unrelated crimes or criminal suspects, their desires to fulfill an unconstitutional arrest quota and to benefit from increased overtime compensation.

37. Plaintiff further assert that Defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, acted in such an unlawfully reprehensible manner, due to their unsubstantiated and unreasonable presumptions that Plaintiff would be able provide said defendants with information pertaining to unrelated criminal activity or suspects, solely because of his status as African American or Hispanic male.

38. Defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, arrested Plaintiff, because of their racially discriminatory beliefs, which compelled defendants to equate to Plaintiff's race, ethnicity or national origin to criminal guilt or criminal knowledge.

39. Defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, perpetrated multiple overt acts in furtherance of their obviously discriminatory inclinations and biases, namely the stop, search, assault, battery, seizure and arrest of Plaintiff, despite possessing no evidence, credible or otherwise, to justify such conduct.

40. Defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, seized and arrested Plaintiff, due solely to defendants' perception or consideration of Plaintiff's race, ethnicity, national origin, sex, gender or age.

41. Defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, subjected Plaintiff to disparate treatment compared to other nonblack individuals similarly situated, because defendants did not stop, accuse, search, seize or arrest to be initiated against any nonblack pedestrians, who were engaged in activity identical or substantially similar to the kind that resulted in the illegal search, seizure, detention and arrest of Plaintiff, namely being a young adult Black male residing in a low-income neighborhood, despite acting in obedience of all local, state and federal laws.

42. Defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, seized and arrested Plaintiff, because of their improper and pernicious desires to prevent Plaintiff from exerting his First Amendment right to engage in protected speech and activities, such as Plaintiff's right to refuse to yield to defendants' unreasonably coercive demands to utter false confessions or assist defendants in the fabrication of evidence against defendants' true suspects or other persons of interest.

43. Defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, possessed no valid reason to approach, stop, question, search or arrest Plaintiff, which gives rise to the strong inference that such conduct resulted from defendants' unjust motivations or proclivities, including defendants' invidious and biased based discriminatory predilections against African American or Hispanic males, such as Plaintiff, defendants' desire to retaliate, punish or otherwise penalize Plaintiff for his refusal to submit to the will of defendants by answering questions to the satisfaction of defendants, including RODRIGUEZ

44. Plaintiff asserts that the defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, who violated his civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission of such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers, including the individually named defendants herein.

45. The individually named defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

46. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculcated via incontrovertible evidence, such as video evidence.

47. The constitutionally repugnant behavior that persists within the ranks of the NYPD results from the NYPD's own policies, rules and procedures, namely the NYPD's incredibly flawed and illegal use of arrest quotas. Despite its illegality, such policies remain systemic throughout the NYPD and its individual commands. The NYPD, however, was not content in compelling its officers to effect as many arrests as possible, regardless of the presence of any legal right to do, it promulgated various subsets of quotas, which are predicated on race, color or ethnicity. Additionally, the NYPD, its supervisors or policymakers would assign varying point values to arrests, which were, again, impermissibly based upon the arrestee's race, color or ethnicity. Unsurprisingly, officers would be better rewarded for minority arrests or summonses. This egregious conduct has reported by numerous respected media outlets and publications and has even formed the basis for federal lawsuits against the City and the NYPD, which were commenced by its own employee officers.

48. On June 17, 2020, the New York Daily News published an article, by Graham Rayman, entitled “Brooklyn Cop Claims he was Punished for not Meeting Arrest Quotas, Refusing to Take Responsibility for Controversial Arrest in which he Wasn’t Involved,” describing allegations from an NYPD Police Officer, Terrence Dickerson, that he was retaliated against by the NYPD for refusing to adhere to mandatory racially based arrest quotas and for his refusal to accept responsibility for a controversial and publicized arrest via the excessive force, despite the fact that he was not even at the scene.

49. Another article with a title that speaks for itself, also published by the New York Daily News, on December 5, 2019, and written by Graham Rayman, is entitled “Ex-Cop Details NYPD ‘Collar Quotas’—Arrest Black and Hispanic Men, ‘No Cuffs on Soft Targets’ of Jews, Asians, Whites: Court Docs.”

50. The New York Times, on December 6, 2019, published an article by Joseph Goldstein and Ashley Southall, entitled “I Got Tired of Hunting Black and Hispanic People,” which revealed a disturbing account from a different NYPD Police Officer, Anthony Diaz, describing a police force that measures the quality of police work by the quantity of minority arrests.

51. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled “Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying,” written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers' intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

52. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled "Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars." Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

53. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "Detective's Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge," by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco's lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

54. Other articles include: (i) "Testilying' by Police: A Stubborn Problem.," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) "New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) “He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) “Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers’ False Statement,” by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) “In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police,” by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) “Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs,” by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) “The Drugs? They Came from the Police,” by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

55. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD’s commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

56. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in the arrest and criminal prosecution of Plaintiff without probable cause.

57. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

58. Defendants' actions with respect to the underlying arrest of Plaintiff, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of Plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with Defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

59. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of Defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

60. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer Defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named Defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

61. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of Defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Defendant RODRIGUEZ.

62. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named Defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct.

63. The aforementioned acts of defendants, including RODRIGUEZ, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of Plaintiff's civil rights, as enumerated and set forth by the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, the constitution of the State of New York and the laws of the City and State of New York.

64. As direct or proximate results of said acts, Plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of his liberty, irreparable reputational harm, the loss of earnings and potential earnings, substantial and permanent physical and psychological injuries, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience and anxiety.
