Case Summary

On August 30, 2017, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint in-person at the CCRB.

On September 12, 2016, at approximately 5:46 p.m., § 87(2)(b) the leaseholder of § 87(2)(b) in Manhattan, called 911 to report that § 87(2)(b) was violating an order of protection by being inside the apartment. Police Officer Sicelin Ortiz and Police Officer Daniel Shaw, of the 34th Precinct, responded to the location. After receiving consent from § 87(2)(b) PO Ortiz and PO Shaw entered the apartment (Allegations A and B: Abuse of Authority-Premises entered and/or searched, exonerated). § 87(2)(b) was subsequently arrested for violating an order of protection and while being handcuffed, § 87(2)(b) was placed against a wall and PO Ortiz allegedly kicked her left ankle (Allegation C: Force-Punched/kicked/kneel, unsubstantiated). § 87(2)(b) suffered ankle pain but never requested medical attention. She was then transported to the 34th Precinct stationhouse for processing. § 87(2)(b)'s husband, § 87(2)(b) was present inside the apartment during this incident.

On February 4, 2017, at approximately 8:14 p.m., § 87(2)(b) called 911 to report that § 87(2)(b) was inside of his apartment and violating the order of protection once again. Police Officer Marcos Gonzalez, Police Officer Patrick Duffy, Police Officer Vanessa Rivera, Police Officer Geoffrey Bartalsky, also of the 34th Precinct, and PO Ortiz and PO Shaw, responded to the location and entered the apartment to arrest § 87(2)(b) after § 87(2)(b) invited them inside. While inside the apartment, § 87(2)(b) gave the officers permission to force entry into § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b)'s locked bedroom and PO Gonzalez, PO Duff, PO Ortiz, PO Shaw, and PO Bartalsky subsequently entered (Allegations D, E, F, G, H: Abuse of Authority-Premises entered and/or searched, substantiated) while PO Rivera waited outside (Allegation I: Abuse of Authority, Premises entered and/or searched, exonerated). Neither § 87(2)(b) nor § 87(2)(b) were inside the apartment and the officers left (38 Board Review).

§ 87(2)(g), § 87(2)(b)

There is no video evidence for the incident on September 12, 2016.

§ 87(2)(b) provided security footage of the incident on February 4, 2017, which she watched after the incident (02 Board Review; 37 Board Review).

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation A – Abuse of Authority: On September 12, 2016, Police Officer Sicelin Ortiz entered and/or searched § 87(2)(b) in Manhattan.

Allegation B – Abuse of Authority: On September 12, 2016, Police Officer Daniel Shaw entered and/or searched § 87(2)(b) in Manhattan.

It is undisputed that § 87(2)(b) and his wife, § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) had an order of protection against § 87(2)(b) and that § 87(2)(b) lived in § 87(2)(b)'s apartment for at least five years prior to the incident date. It is undisputed that § 87(2)(b) gave PO Ortiz and PO Shaw consent to enter the apartment and they then arrested § 87(2)(b) for § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) said that she was in the living room with § 87(2)(b) heard a knock on the front door, and heard PO Ortiz and PO Shaw announce themselves outside. § 87(2)(b) remained quiet and did not open the door (01 Board Review). Approximately 15 minutes later, § 87(2)(b) entered the apartment through her bedroom window via the fire escape, opened the front door, and allowed PO Shaw and PO Ortiz inside.

In a phone statement, § 87(2)(b) confirmed that § 87(2)(b) entered the apartment through a window, and subsequently opened the door for PO Ortiz and PO Shaw (03 Board Review).

In his first phone statement, § 87(2)(b) said that upon arriving at his apartment, he found his key no longer worked and that the locks and dialed 911 (04 Board Review). In his second phone statement, § 87(2)(b) said that when PO Ortiz and PO Shaw responded, he showed them his state ID and his order of protection to prove that he lived in the apartment, and that he had an order of protection against § 87(2)(b) (05 Board Review). § 87(2)(b) entered the apartment through a window via the fire escape, and opened the door for PO Ortiz and PO Shaw who he invited into the apartment.

PO Ortiz said that when he and PO Shaw arrived at the location, they met § 87(2)(b) who showed them his state ID, his lease to the apartment, and an order of protection to prove that he lived in the apartment (06 Board Review). PO Ortiz read the order of protection, confirmed that it was valid and that it stated that § 87(2)(b) was not allowed in the apartment. § 87(2)(b) subsequently invited PO Ortiz and PO Shaw inside the apartment and opened the front door with a key. PO Ortiz never saw § 87(2)(b) enter the apartment through a window.

PO Shaw's statement was generally consistent with PO Ortiz's, but he did not mention seeing § 87(2)(b)'s state ID (07 Board Review).

People v. Cosme, 48 N.Y.2d 286 (1979) The court held that police may lawfully conduct a warrantless search when they have obtained the voluntary consent of a party who possesses the requisite degree of authority and control over the premises or personal property in question (08 Board Review).

§ 87(2)(g)
[REDACTED]

Therefore it is recommended that Allegations A and B be exonerated.

Allegation C – Abuse of Authority: On September 12, 2016, at § 87(2)(b), in Manhattan, Police Officer Sicelin Ortiz used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

It is undisputed that when PO Ortiz and PO Shaw informed § 87(2)(b) that she was under arrest for § 87(2)(b). It is undisputed that upon learning that she was under arrest, § 87(2)(b) tried to run away, but was grabbed by the officers and placed against a wall (09 Board Review).

§ 87(2)(b) said PO Ortiz grabbed both of her wrists, pushed her up against a wall in the living room, kicked her left ankle, and handcuffed her. § 87(2)(b)'s ankle hurt after sustaining PO Ortiz's kick, but she never complained of pain or requested medical attention. When § 87(2)(b) arrived at the 34th Precinct stationhouse she told PO Ortiz and PO Shaw that she was unable to exit their vehicle because her ankle hurt and PO Ortiz helped her out of the vehicle. § 87(2)(b) walked into the stationhouse without any assistance. After the incident, § 87(2)(b) saw her primary care physician for her ankle pain and he prescribed her with ibuprofen (01 Board Review).

During his phone statement, § 87(2)(b) said that during § 87(2)(b)'s apprehension, PO Ortiz pushed § 87(2)(b) up against a wall, and kicked her foot. § 87(2)(b) said that as of September 13, 2016, § 87(2)(b) was unable to walk on her left ankle. While providing this statement via telephone, § 87(2)(b) said he had difficulty remembering the incident because of a chronic illness and § 87(2)(b) was heard in the background reminding him of the kick (02 Board Review).

In his second phone statement, § 87(2)(b) said that § 87(2)(b) pushed PO Ortiz and PO Shaw and attempted to run away. In response, PO Ortiz and PO Shaw grabbed § 87(2)(b)'s arms and handcuffed her. When PO Ortiz and PO Shaw escorted § 87(2)(b) out of the apartment, § 87(2)(b) refused to walk and went limp in the handcuffs (05 Board Review).

PO Ortiz said that § 87(2)(b) ran past them in the hallway toward her bedroom, but he and PO Shaw grabbed both her arms and placed her against a wall and then PO Ortiz handcuffed her. PO Ortiz never kicked § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) never said she was hurt or unable to walk, and PO Ortiz never observed any injuries on her (06 Board Review).

PO Shaw's statement was generally consistent with PO Ortiz's (07 Board Review).

§ 87(2)(a) PHL § 18(6)

§ 87(2)(g)

Therefore, it is recommended that this Allegation C be unsubstantiated.

Allegation D – Abuse of Authority: On February 4, 2017, Police Officer Marcos Gonzalez entered and/or searched § 87(2)(b) in Manhattan.

Allegation E – Abuse of Authority: On February 4, 2017, Police Officer Sicelin Ortiz entered and/or searched § 87(2)(b) in Manhattan.

Allegation F – Abuse of Authority: On February 4, 2017, Police Officer Daniel Shaw entered and/or searched West 181st Street, Apt. 55, in Manhattan.

Allegation G – Abuse of Authority: On February 4, 2017, Police Officer Patrick Duffy entered and/or searched § 87(2)(b) in Manhattan.

Allegation H– Abuse of Authority: On February 4, 2017, Police Officer Geoffrey Bartalsky entered and/or searched § 87(2)(b) in Manhattan.

Allegation I– Abuse of Authority: On February 4, 2017, Police Officer Vanessa Rivera entered and/or searched § 87(2)(b) in Manhattan.

It is undisputed that on February 4, 2017, § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b)'s order of protection against § 87(2)(b) remained valid, but § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) still resided in the apartment. It is also undisputed that § 87(2)(b) dialed 911, reported that § 87(2)(b) was inside the apartment and violating an order of protection (12 Board Review). It is undisputed that § 87(2)(b) used a key to enter the apartment, invited officers inside. It is undisputed that § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were never present on this incident date, but an unidentified male civilian entered the apartment after the officers. It is undisputed that there were no search warrants for the apartment for this date (15 Board Review).

§ 87(2)(b) said she was away from her apartment and received an alert on her cellphone that her home security camera picked up movement. When § 87(2)(b) looked at her security footage, she saw § 87(2)(b) entering her apartment with PO Duffy, PO Gonzalez, PO Ortiz, PO Shaw, PO Rivera, and PO Bartalsky, who then broke her bedroom door after being told to do so by § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) said that when she returned to apartment on February 5, 2017, she observed that her bedroom door handle was broken (01 Board Review).

During his first phone statement, § 87(2)(b) said that he and the officers were inside “his apartment” on February 4, 2017, but he did not remember any details (04 Board Review).

§ 87(2)(b) was not present during this incident (03 Board Review)

PO Gonzalez said that after responding to the location with PO Duffy, they were met by § 87(2)(b) outside of the apartment building, who told them that he had an order of protection against § 87(2)(b) and showed them the lease to the apartment, the order of protection, and a vacate order for § 87(2)(b) (18 Board Review). § 87(2)(b) then invited the officers inside the apartment and they searched for § 87(2)(b). Before viewing the video, PO Gonzalez said he searched a bedroom inside of the apartment to look for § 87(2)(b). After viewing the video, PO Gonzalez said that he did not know that the bedroom was § 87(2)(b)'s. PO Gonzalez did not remember himself or any other officer breaking a door inside of the apartment. He could not identify the officer asking about “popping” the door at 1:10.

PO Duffy’s statement was generally consistent with PO Gonzalez’s statement, but he added that the valid order of protection listed the apartment as § 87(2)(b)'s address (19 Board Review). Before viewing the video, PO Duffy said that he did not remember which room inside of the apartment belonged to § 87(2)(b) and that he did not know if he or other officers entered § 87(2)(b)'s bedroom. After viewing the video, PO Duffy identified himself inside of § 87(2)(b)'s room, but said that he did not know who the room belonged to. PO Duffy did not know which officer said “Do you want us to pop the door?” at the 1:10 minute mark. PO Duffy said that no rooms required forcible entry.

During PO Ortiz’s CCRB interview (06 Board Review), he did not have his memo book from this incident date and did not recall responding on this date or any time after § 87(2)(b) s September 12, 2016 arrest. After watching the video, PO Ortiz’s memory was refreshed and he said he responded to the location as backup and entered to search for § 87(2)(b) after § 87(2)(b) invited the officers inside. PO Ortiz did not remember additional details from this incident. PO Ortiz could not identify which officer said, “Do you want us to pop the door?” PO Ortiz heard the sound of a door “popping,” but he did not remember himself or any other officers forcibly opening a door when they entered the location. PO Ortiz entered § 87(2)(b) s room, but he did not know that it was § 87(2)(b) s room. He did not know whether other officers knew it was § 87(2)(b) s room.

On February 4, 2017, at 8:14 p.m., PO Ortiz wrote in his memo book, (which was later provided to the CCRB) (20 Board Review), that he backed Sector B2 for a dispute regarding a violation of an order of protection at § 87(2)(b) s apartment.

During PO Shaw’s CCRB interview (07 Board Review), he did not have his memo book from the incident, and it was later sent to the CCRB. Before viewing the video, PO Shaw did not recall responding to the location at any time after September 12, 2016. After viewing the video, PO Shaw provided a statement generally consistent with PO Ortiz, but he said that § 87(2)(b) s room was searched to ensure no one was in her room.

PO Shaw’s memo book entries from the incident, (later provided to the CCRB) (21 Board Review), mirrored those of PO Ortiz.

During PO Rivera’s CCRB interview, PO Rivera did not recall any details of any incident on February 4, 2017 because she did not have her memo book, which was later sent to the CCRB (22 Board Review). After viewing the video, PO Rivera said that she responded to the location as backup with PO Bartalsky after receiving a call for a dispute between § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) involving an order of protection (23 Board Review). When § 87(2)(b) invited PO Gonzalez and PO Duffy inside the apartment, PO Rivera and PO Bartalsky followed. PO Rivera was familiar with § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) because she witnessed § 87(2)(b) s arrest at the same location on June 26, 2016. To PO Rivera’s understanding, § 87(2)(b) was a tenant in § 87(2)(b) s apartment, and § 87(2)(b) was her landlord. PO Rivera said that she did not know why the door to § 87(2)(b) s bedroom was forcibly opened and she did not know who asked § 87(2)(b) if he wanted officers to forcibly open the door. PO Rivera did not recall entering § 87(2)(b) s bedroom.

PO Bartalsky § 87(2)(g) but said that he had no prior knowledge of the landlord/tenant dispute between § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) (24 Board Review). PO Bartalsky also never saw an order of protection, a lease to the apartment, or § 87(2)(b) s ID and did not recall ever personally interacting with § 87(2)(b) during the incident. After viewing the video, PO Bartalsky acknowledged entering § 87(2)(b) s bedroom to look for § 87(2)(b) but he did not know who asked § 87(2)(b) if he wanted officers to force her door open.

CCRB Case # 201707130

Upon reviewing § 87(2)(b)'s video of the incident, the video begins with § 87(2)(b) opening the front door with a key, turning on the lights, and saying, "They must have run out," (37 Board Review). At 0:05 in the video, PO Duffy enters the apartment behind § 87(2)(b) and asks where § 87(2)(b) is. At 0:08, PO Gonzalez enters the apartment, and § 87(2)(b) turns on the lights. At 0:11, PO Ortiz enters the apartment and PO Shaw enters behind him. At 0:14, PO Rivera enters the apartment. At 0:15, § 87(2)(b) says that § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) must have went out. At 0:16, PO Bartalsky enters the apartment. At 0:22 PO Gonzalez, PO Duffy, PO Bartalsky, PO Rivera, PO Shaw, and PO Ortiz, and § 87(2)(b) are all standing outside of § 87(2)(b)'s bedroom. An unseen officer near § 87(2)(b)'s bedroom door asks § 87(2)(b) whether he has a key, because the door is locked. At 0:30, another officer, also out of view, replies, "No, that's where they stay, so." At 0:31, an unseen officer asks who lives in the locked room. At 0:33, § 87(2)(b) replies, "Just, that's probably where they're staying at." At 0:34, PO Gonzalez walks to § 87(2)(b)'s bedroom, knocks on the door and shakes the lock. At 0:41, PO Gonzalez asks, "Who's the owner of the apartment?" At 0:43, § 87(2)(b) replies, "We are," while an unidentified civilian male enters the apartment. At 0:44, PO Gonzalez asks § 87(2)(b) "They're not allowed to be here?" At 0:45, § 87(2)(b) replies to PO Gonzalez, "They're not allowed to be here, no." At 0:48, § 87(2)(b) says to PO Gonzalez, "That's why the order of protection. She got arrested twice already. "We were down in housing court." At 0:54, PO Duffy says to § 87(2)(b) "Did you see her today?" At 0:55, § 87(2)(b) replied, "Yeah. She was there." At 1:01, the unidentified male stands in the hallway and blocks the view of the officers gathered with § 87(2)(b) by § 87(2)(b)'s bedroom.

(25 Board Review)

At 1:02, an unseen officer asks § 87(2)(b) if § 87(2)(b)'s door is usually locked and § 87(2)(b) replied that it was not supposed to be (37 Board Review). At 1:05, an officer blocked from view says, "It's their apartment. What do you want to do?" At 1:07, another officer, also blocked from view, asks § 87(2)(b) "Do you want us to pop the door?" At 1:11, § 87(2)(b) says, "Yeah." At 1:13, an unseen officer asks § 87(2)(b) if he has a key for the door and § 87(2)(b) says that he does not. At 1:18, an unseen officer says, "Go ahead guys, I broke in it," and at 1:20, a "pop" sound is heard. At 1:35, officers are seen standing inside of § 87(2)(b)'s room, with the light on, and § 87(2)(b) is standing outside of § 87(2)(b)'s door. At 1:37, PO Bartalsky walks toward § 87(2)(b)'s room. At 1:43, PO Bartalsky enters § 87(2)(b)'s bedroom while PO Rivera speaks to § 87(2)(b) outside it. At this point, all the officers except PO Rivera are inside § 87(2)(b)'s bedroom. At 2:34, PO Rivera walks from § 87(2)(b)'s bedroom doorway toward the front door. PO Duffy, PO Bartalsky, PO Ortiz, PO Shaw, and PO Gonzalez are seen exiting § 87(2)(b)'s bedroom and following behind.

Upon reviewing police radio communications for this incident, the 911 operator communicated that § 87(2)(b) was inside of the location, that no injuries or weapons were present, and that there was an EDP history at the location (13 Board Review).

Upon reviewing the detailed EVENT for this incident, it was shown that sector B2 (identified by the investigation as PO Gonzalez and PO Duffy) responded to the location as their primary job, and sector B1 and A1 (identified by the investigation as PO Shaw, PO Ortiz, PO Bartalsky, and PO Rivera responded as backup (14 Board Review)).

People v. Cosme, 48 N.Y.2d 286 (1979) The court held that police may lawfully conduct a warrantless search when they have obtained the voluntary consent of a party who possesses the requisite degree of authority and control over the premises or personal property in question (08 Board Review).

People v. Ketcham 93 N.Y.2d 416 (1999) information officers receive from another police officer is presumptively reliable (27 Board Review).

People v. Ponto, 103 A.D.2d 573 (1984) The court held that the third party consent exception to the Fourth Amendment warrant requirement requires the voluntary consent of a person possessing common authority over the premises, and thus, the lessor of real or personal property lacks the requisite authority to consent to a warrantless search of the leased property (28 Board Review).
