VERIFIED COMPLAINT

CITY OF NEW YORK, MARY CUNNINGHAM, AND Defendants.

-----X

Plaintiff, ALISSA RUIZ, by and through the undersigned attorneys, LAW OFFICES OF SAMEER NATH, PLLC, as and for her complaint against the Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK, MARY CUNNINGHAM, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, alleges and states as follows:

1. This is a civil rights action, in which Plaintiff seeks relief, vis-à-vis 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988, the laws of the State of New York, in addition to the self-executing clauses or implied private causes of action within the New York State Constitution, for the violations of his civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the First, Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, as well as the Laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
2. The following claims arose on May 10, 2021, when Defendants, acting under color of state law, unlawfully assaulted, battered, and applied excessive force toward Plaintiff inside the K-Mart store located at 300 Baychester Avenue Bronx, New York. As a result, Plaintiff was deprived of her liberty and suffered various physical, emotional and psychological injuries. Plaintiff required ambulance transport to Jacobi Hospital where she was examined and treated for her injuries.

3. At all times here mentioned, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

4. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against Defendants, an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

6. Defendant, City of New York ("City"), is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing organized under the laws of the State of New York.

7. At all relevant times herein, the New York City Police Department ("NYPD") was a wholly owned subsidiary which was further wholly operated, managed, maintained and controlled by Defendant City.

8. 9. At all relevant times herein, Defendant, City, was responsible for enforcing the rules and regulations of the NYPD, and for ensuring that the NYPD personnel obey the laws and constitutions of the United States and the State of New York.

10. At all relevant times herein, Defendant MARY CUNNINGHAM was a police officer, supervisor, policymaker or official employed by the NYPD or City of New York, under NYPD Shield No. 17931 and further assigned to the 44th NYPD Precinct. As such Defendant MARY CUNNINGHAM was acting in the scope of her employment and under color of state law. Defendant MARY CUNNINGHAM is being sued in her official and individual capacities.

11. At all relevant times herein, Defendants JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 were police officers, detectives, sergeants, supervisors, policymakers or officials employed by the NYPD or City of New York. At this time, Plaintiff does not know the true names or tax registry numbers of Defendants, JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, as such knowledge is within the exclusive possession of Defendants.

14. Plaintiff's Notice of Claim was filed in compliance with the General Municipal Law.

15. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since the filing of the Notice of Claim and this matter has neither been adjusted nor settled.

16. Plaintiff gave sworn testimony at a hearing held pursuant to G.M.L. 50-h.

17. This action was filed within one (1) year and ninety (90) days since the causes of action alleged herein arose.

FACTUAL CHARGES

18. On May 10, 2021, at approximately 5:30 p.m., inside the K Mart store located at 300 Baychester Avenue Bronx, New York, Ms. Ruiz was illegally targeted, because of her race, religion, national origin or other improper characteristic for adverse police action, by Defendants, including MARY CUNNINGHAM, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10.

19. Plaintiff, then a minor under the age of eighteen (18), had been stopped by a Loss Prevention Officer with whom she was involved in a dispute.

20. Defendant MARY CUNNINGHAM, while wearing plainclothes, approached Plaintiff and, without warning and without identifying herself as a police officer, grabbed Plaintiff and violently and excessively slammed Plaintiff into the floor.

21. At the time Plaintiff was slammed into the ground, Plaintiff was not physically punching, kicking or otherwise striking anyone, had no weapons on her person, and was not an imminent physical threat to Defendants, or anyone else.

22. The force of the impact caused Plaintiff's left humerus to sustain a fracture.

23. When Plaintiff protested that her arm had been broken, Defendant MARY CUNNINGHAM taunted her and said "this is what people like you deserve." The words "people like you" were spoken in a racially demeaning degrading, and otherwise discriminatory manner.

24. Plaintiff was handcuffed despite the fact that her arm was broken.

25. Plaintiff was thereafter transported to Jacobi Hospital for emergency surgery.

26. Plaintiff asserts that the Defendants, including MARY CUNNINGHAM, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, who violated Plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers.

27. The individually named Defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil

28. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in Plaintiff's arrest without probable cause.

29. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

30. Defendants' actions, which occurred without even the semblance of justification, were so blatantly violative of Plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with Defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

31. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of Defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

32. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer Defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of Defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named Defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

33. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of Defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Defendants, JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10.

34. Upon information and belief, the individually named Defendants have combined to be named as Defendants in numerous lawsuits that have accused them of committing violations similar or identical to those alleged herein, all of which have resulted no disciplinary or corrective action of any kind.

35. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named Defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct

36. The aforementioned acts of Defendants, including MARY CUNNINGHAM and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of Plaintiff's civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

37. As a direct or proximate result of said acts, Plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of her liberty, irreparable reputational harm, physical injury, surgery, protracted disability, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience, and anxiety.
