Plaintiff DURELL YOUNG, by his attorneys, Caitlin Robin & Associates, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On February 26, 2020, at approximately 3:00 p.m., plaintiff DURELL YOUNG, while lawfully in the vicinity of 488 Glenmore Avenue in Brooklyn, New York, was subject to an unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, and false imprisonment by the defendant New York City police officers. In addition, Plaintiff was subjected to use of excessive force and neglect by the defendant Officers, causing him to suffer physical injuries. Plaintiff was then unlawfully imprisoned at the 75th Precinct Police Station and Kings Central Booking for approximately 40 hours until plaintiff was arraigned in Criminal Court, charged with crimes he did not commit, and released on his own recognizance. Plaintiff was denied the right to due process and a fair trial until the resisting arrest charges against Plaintiff were dismissed and sealed on or about June 17th, 2020. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, confined, subjected to excessive force, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, and denied plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff DURELL YOUNG is a resident of the state of New York.
3. NYPD POLICE OFFICER YURIY DEMCHENKO, Shield No. 4740, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
4. NYPD POLICE OFFICER YURIY DEMCHENKO, Shield No. 4740, was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the SRG3 Precinct.
5. NYPD POLICE OFFICER YURIY DEMCHENKO, Shield No. 4740, is being sued in his individual and official capacity.
6. New York City Police Officers John and Jane Does are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
7. Police Officers John Does and Jane Does are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
8. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
9. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
10. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the CITY OF NEW YORK in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.
11. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on October 5, 2020.
12. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and THE CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

13. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

14. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

15. On February 26, 2020, at approximately 3:00 P.M., Plaintiff was lawfully present in the vicinity of 488 Glenmore Avenue, in Brooklyn, New York, when the defendant police officers unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, and falsely arrested Plaintiff without probable cause or legal justification.

16. Plaintiff was in the neighborhood to check on his grandmother before heading to a job interview on the afternoon of February 26, 2020.

17. Plaintiff had parked his new Mercedes Benz C300 in a legal parking spot at 488 Glenmore Avenue.

18. While walking on the sidewalk around the corner from his vehicle at approximately 3:00 P.M., Plaintiff noticed Defendant Officers appeared to be following him, at which time Plaintiff began to record the officers on his phone.

19. Plaintiff walked back toward where his car was parked, and saw Defendant Officers Demchenko and his partner pull up behind his Mercedes and exit their NYPD vehicle.

20. Defendant Officer Demchenko and his partner approached Plaintiff on the sidewalk and asked for ID, at which time Plaintiff asked the officers on what grounds he was being stopped and questioned.

21. It was at this time that Defendant Officer Demchenko grabbed the Plaintiff and told him that he was under arrest.

22. The Plaintiff asked on what grounds he was being arrested and no answer was given.

23. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officer have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

24. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause.

25. Plaintiff did not resist arrest.

26. Plaintiff was then placed in the back of the police vehicle in handcuffs, and waited there as he watched the Defendant Officers perform a complete and unlawful search of his brand new Mercedes Benz, at one point even ripping the seats open.

27. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody or control.

28. Plaintiff made at least two requests for the defendant officers to loosen his handcuffs as his hands were starting to go numb, but his requests were ignored.

29. Defendants then transported Plaintiff to the 75th Precinct police station against his will, where Plaintiff was unlawfully photographed, fingerprinted, and detained in a holding cell.

30. Plaintiff was subject to an unlawful pat-down search while in custody at the 75th precinct, and once again no illegal contraband was found.

31. Plaintiff continued to ask for the handcuffs to be loosened because they were excessively tight, but the Defendants refused.

32. The excessively tight handcuffing caused pain and physical injury to both of Plaintiff's wrists, including marks and bleeding.

33. Plaintiff asked the Defendant Officers for medical treatment for his now bleeding wrists, but was denied.

34. Plaintiff repeatedly asked what he was being arrested for, but the Defendants refused to tell him.

35. Plaintiff was then transported from the 75th Precinct to Kings County Central Bookings.

36. Once at Central Bookings, the Plaintiff was finally granted medical treatment and transported to Kings County Hospital.

37. Plaintiff received treatment at the hospital for the lacerations on his wrists, tightening in his chest, headache, and was also given a psychological evaluation due to the high stress and anxiety of the events inflicted by the Defendant Officers.

38. The defendant police officers provided the District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.

39. On February 28, 2020 after approximately 40 hours in unlawful custody, Plaintiff was arraigned in Kings County Criminal Court, charged with crimes that the defendant officers had no basis to allege that he committed, and was released from custody on his own recognizance.

40. Thereafter, on or about June 17, 2020, all criminal charges against Plaintiff were dismissed and sealed in their entirety.

41. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably searching, seizing, assaulting, battering, using excessive force, falsely arresting and imprisoning, and denying Plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial.

42. The unlawful search, seizure, use of excessive force, false arrest and imprisonment, and denial of Plaintiff's right to a fair trial by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

43. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 42 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

44. The individually named police officer defendants while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

45. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, psychological and economic injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment

46. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 45 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

47. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

48. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

49. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

50. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

51. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Stop, Question, and Frisk

52. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 51 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

53. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop, questioning and frisk employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

54. The conduct of defendants in stopping, frisking, and searching Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

55. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

56. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

57. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Search

58. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 57 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

59. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

60. Defendants lacked probable cause to search Plaintiff.

61. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

62. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

63. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

64. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

65. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 64 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein

66. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

67. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

68. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

69. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff DURELL YOUNG, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, defendants violated plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

70. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff DURELL YOUNG sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

71. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

72. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

73. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

74. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 73 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

75. Defendants owed a duty of care to Plaintiff.

76. To the extent defendants claim that the injuries to Plaintiff by the defendant police officers was unintentionally caused and that the force used by the defendants against him was unintentional, then the defendants breached that duty of care by tightly handcuffing him causing injury to both wrists.

77. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

78. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by Plaintiff.

79. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

80. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

81. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights

82. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 81 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

83. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, tightly handcuffing him, constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

84. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

85. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 84 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

86. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the State of New York and New York State common law.

87. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.

88. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.

89. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

90. Plaintiff was subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate Plaintiff's Fourth Amendment rights.

91. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

92. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

93. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

94. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 93 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

95. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff, DURELL YOUNG. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

96. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

97. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

98. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

99. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

100. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

101. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 100 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

102. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

103. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

104. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 103 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

105. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

106. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

107. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

108. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

109. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

110. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

111. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

JURY DEMAND

112. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff DURELL YOUNG demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the Plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
