TAKE NOTICE, the Plaintiff, Alvaro Tabas, hereby appears in this action by his attorneys, Umoh Law Firm, PLLC and demands that all papers be served upon him, at the address below, in this matter.

Plaintiff, Alvaro Tabas by her attorney, Uwem Umoh Esq., complaining of the defendants, The City of New York, Officer Beraltal, and "John Does" collectively referred to as the Defendants, upon information and belief alleges as follows:

NATURE OF THE ACTION

1. This is an action at law to redress the deprivation of rights secured to the plaintiff under color of statute, ordinance, regulation, custom, and or to redress the deprivation of rights, privileges, and immunities secured to the plaintiff by the Fourth, Fifth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, and by Title 42 U.S.C. § 1983 [and § 1985], and arising under the law and statutes of the State of New York.
2. This is an action to further seek compensation for the serious and permanent personal injuries sustained by the plaintiff, as a result of the conduct of the defendants, perpetrated while said defendant officers were in the process of illegally and unlawfully arresting plaintiff.

JURISDICTION

3. This action is brought in New York County as the venue where the relevant facts of this action occurred.

PARTIES

4. Plaintiff Alvaro Tabas is a resident of the State of New York.
5. Defendants "John Doe" and "Jane Doe" 1'through'10 are unknown police officers for the City of New York, acting under color of state law. They are being sued in both their individual and official capacity.
6. The Defendant, City of New York is a municipality in the State of New York and employs the Defendant Police Officers.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS COMMON TO ALL CAUSES OF ACTION

7. The incident occurred on or about March 18, 2020. Officers employed by the NYPD arrested plaintiff and refused to give him a reason for his arrest despite plaintiff asking why he was being arrested.
8. The arrest took place at 175th and Broadway, NY, NY on or about 7:30pm. Claimant was later charged with possession of a fraudulent instrument. The officers also refused to allow claimant to speak to his lawyer, who called the precinct on various occasion.
9. Tabas was injured by reason of the negligence, recklessness and carelessness of the NYPD and NYC, its agents, servants, employees and/or licensees in the control, supervision, hiring and training of the officers who destroyed claimant's property while searching his premises without a warrant.
10. The claim is for personal injuries and economic loss due to the false arrest and malicious prosecution of claimant
11. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' actions, plaintiff suffered and continues to suffer injuries, including but not limited to emotional distress, nightmares, panic attacks, mental anguish and unwarranted severe anger bouts some or all of which may be permanent.
12. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' actions, plaintiffs suffered and continue to suffer, mental anguish, repetitive injury, psychological and emotional distress, and physical pain and suffering, some or all of which may be permanent.
13. As a direct and proximate result of their unlawful arrest, Plaintiff has lived in terror of their attack, and continues to suffer from nightmares, are fearful of going outside and when he sees the police, and suffer various emotional attacks, in addition, and have been unable to function normally which has caused a severe strain and breakdown in his personal relationships, in and outside of their homes.
14. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' actions, plaintiffs were deprived of rights, privileges and immunities under the Fourth, Fifth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the laws of the City of New York and the State of New York.
15. Defendant City of New York, as a matter of policy and practice, has with deliberate indifference failed to properly sanction or discipline officers including the defendants in this case, for violations of the constitutional rights of citizens, thereby causing officers including defendants in this case, to engage in unlawful conduct.

16. Defendant City of New York, as a matter of policy and practice, has with deliberate indifference failed to sanction or discipline police officers including the defendants in this case, who are aware of and subsequently conceal violations of the constitutional rights of citizens by other police officers thereby causing and encouraging officers including defendants in this case, to engage in unlawful conduct.
17. The actions of defendants, acting under color of State law, deprived plaintiff of his rights, privileges and immunities under the laws and Constitution of the United States; in particular, the rights to be secure in his person and property, to be free from the excessive use of force and from malicious prosecution, abuse of process, and the right to due process.
18. By these actions, defendants have deprived plaintiff of rights secured by the Fourth, Eighth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, in violation of 42 U.S.C. Section 1983.
19. A written claim was filed upon the City of New York, and at least thirty-days have elapsed since the service of the Notice of Claim and the adjustment or the payment of the claim has been neglected or refused.
20. This action has been commenced within one year and ninety days after the happening of the event upon which the claim is based.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION:

42 U.S.C Section 1983-against All Defendants

21. Plaintiff hereby restates all paragraphs above of this complaint, as though fully set forth below
22. By unlawfully arresting and prosecuting Plaintiff without justification, probable cause or reasonable suspicion, the Officers, Defendants deprived Plaintiff of rights, remedies, privileges, and immunities guaranteed to every citizen of the United States, in violation of 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, including, but not limited to, rights guaranteed by the Fourth, Fifth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments of the United States Constitution.
23. In addition, the Defendants officers conspired among themselves to deprive plaintiff of his constitutional rights secured by 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, and by the Fourth, Fifth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to United States Constitution, and took numerous overt steps in furtherance of such conspiracy, as set forth above.

24. The Defendant Officers acted under pretense and color of state law and in their individual and official capacities and within the scope of their respective employment as NYPD Officers. Said acts by the Defendants Officers were beyond the scope of their jurisdiction, without authority of law, and in abuse of their powers, and said Defendants acted willfully, knowingly, and with the specific intent to deprive the Plaintiff of his constitutional rights secured by 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, and by the Fourth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.
25. As a direct and proximate result of the misconduct and abuse of authority detailed above, Plaintiff sustained the damages herein before stated.

New York State Constitution, Art. 1 Section 12

26. Plaintiff hereby restates all paragraphs of this complaint, as though fully set forth below.
27. By unlawfully arresting plaintiff, without probable cause or reasonable suspicion, the Defendant Officers deprived Plaintiff of rights, remedies, privileges, and immunities guaranteed to every New Yorker by Article 1, Section 12 of the New York Constitution.
28. In addition, the Defendant Officers conspired among themselves to deprive plaintiff of her constitutional rights secured by Article 1, Section 12 of the New York Constitution, and took numerous overt steps in furtherance of such conspiracy, as set forth above.
29. The Defendants Officers acted under pretense and color of state law and in their individual and official capacities and within the scope of their respective employment as NYPD Officers. Said acts by the Defendants Officers were beyond the scope of their jurisdiction, without authority of law, and in abuse of their powers, and said Defendants acted willfully, knowingly, and with the specific intent to deprive the Plaintiffs of his constitutional rights secured by Article 1, Section 12 of the New York Constitution.
30. Defendants, their officers, attorneys, agents, servants and employees were responsible for Plaintiff's deprivation of his state constitutional rights. Defendant City, as employer of each of the Officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
31. As a direct and proximate result of the misconduct and abuse of authority detailed above, plaintiffs sustained the damages herein-before alleged.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION:

Common Law False Arrest

32. Plaintiff hereby restates all paragraphs of this complaint, as though fully set forth below.
33. By unlawfully arresting plaintiff, without probable cause or reasonable suspicion, the Defendant Officers falsely arrested plaintiff.
34. The Defendants Officers acted under pretense and color of state law and in their individual and official capacities and within the scope of their respective employment as NYPD Officers.
35. Defendants, their officers, attorneys, agents, servants and employees were responsible for Plaintiff's deprivation of his state constitutional rights. Defendant City, as employer of each of the Officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
36. As a direct and proximate result of the misconduct and abuse of authority detailed above, plaintiffs sustained the damages herein-before alleged

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION:

Common Law Malicious Prosecution

37. Plaintiff hereby restates all paragraphs of this complaint, as though fully set forth below.
38. By unlawfully prosecuting plaintiff, without probable cause or reasonable suspicion, the Defendants violated plaintiff's rights to be free from malicious prosecution.
39. The Defendants acted under pretense and color of state law and in their individual and official capacities and within the scope of their respective employment as NYPD Officers.
40. Defendants, their officers, attorneys, agents, servants and employees were responsible for Plaintiff's deprivation of his state constitutional rights. Defendant City, as employer of each of the Officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
41. As a direct and proximate result of the misconduct and abuse of authority detailed above, plaintiffs sustained the damages herein-before alleged

WHEREFORE, plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against the Defendants as follows:

1. On the First Cause of Action against all the defendants, compensatory and punitive damages in an amount to be determined at trial, and reasonable attorneys' fees and costs under 42 U.S.C. Section 1988;
2. On the Second Cause of Action, against all Defendants, compensatory damages in an amount to be determined at trial, and punitive damages against the Officers Defendants in an amount to be determined at trial;
3. Such other and further relief as this Court may deem necessary in the interest of justice.
