VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff Edgar Acuna, by his attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On October 1, 2021, at approximately 10:35 a.m., Plaintiff Edgar Acuna, while lawfully in the vicinity 115 Ocean Avenue, County of Kings, State of New York, was subject to an unlawful arrest, and detention by defendant Police Officers. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional, common law and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Edgar Acuna is a resident of the state of New York.
3. New York City Police Officer Tiffany Inniss, Shield No. 11166, is and was at all times relevant herein an Officer with the New York City Police Department.
4. New York City Police Officer Tiffany Inniss, Shield No. 11166, is being sued in their individual and official capacity.

5. Currently and at all times relevant herein, New York City Police Officer Tiffany Inniss, Shield No. 11166 was assigned to the 71st Police Precinct of the NYPD.
6. New York City Police Officers John Does Numbers One Through Ten are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
7. Police Officers John Does Numbers One Through Ten are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
8. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
9. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
10. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.
11. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, Plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on January 24, 2022.
12. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claims.
13. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.
14. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

15. On October 1, 2021, at approximately 10:35 a.m., Plaintiff was walking out of his apartment in the vicinity of 115 Ocean Avenue, County of Kings, State of New York, when the Defendant Police Officers unlawfully detained and arrested Plaintiff without legal justification.
16. Plaintiff was heading to work to pick up his paycheck before heading to see his daughters.
17. Approximately ten Defendant officers approached Plaintiff and stopped him.
18. One male Defendant officer had his gun drawn.
19. One female Defendant officer in a white shirt had her taser drawn.
20. Defendant officers grabbed Plaintiff by his collar and handcuffed him tightly without legal authority or probable cause to arrest.
21. A white female Defendant officer, approximately 5'4, handcuffed Plaintiff.
22. A male African American Defendant officer, approximately 5'9, handcuffed Plaintiff.
23. Defendant officers threw Plaintiff into their car.
24. Plaintiff's shoulders hit the side of the car injuring him.
25. Plaintiff asked Defendant officers why he was being arrested.
26. A male Defendant officer responded that he doesn't know and will tell Plaintiff at the Precinct.
27. Plaintiff told Defendant officers that the handcuffs were tight.
28. Defendant officers ignored Plaintiffs pleas to loosen the handcuffs.
29. Plaintiff was transported to the 71st Precinct where he was tossed into a cell with handcuffs on.
30. While Plaintiff was in custody, the Defendant police officers provided the Kings County District Attorney's Office with false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.
31. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Kings County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff resisted arrest and obstructed governmental administration.
32. Plaintiff remained at the 71st Precinct, handcuffed, for approximately 12 hours.
33. Plaintiff requested medical attention and was told by Defendant officers to be quiet.

34. Plaintiff was transferred to Central Booking where he stayed overnight.
35. Plaintiff saw the judge the next morning and was released on his own recognicence.
36. As a result of his arrest, Plaintiff suffered injuries to his left arm and both shoulders.
37. Plaintiff also suffered emotional trauma. Plaintiff has trouple sleeping and is scared of the police.
38. All charges were dismissed and sealed against Plaintiff on January 10, 2022.
39. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.
40. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.
41. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause, unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed and searched, and unlawfully detained.
42. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably assaulting, battering, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.
43. The unlawful assault, battery, and use of excessive force by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

44. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
45. Defendants owed a duty of care to Plaintiff.
46. Defendant Officer's breached that duty of care by deliberately restraining and injuring Plaintiff.
47. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, Defendant officers deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

48. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by Plaintiff.
49. Defendants officers were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
50. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
51. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

52. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
53. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.
54. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.
55. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
56. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
57. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:
Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

58. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
59. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

60. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

False Imprisonment

61. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
62. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.
63. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.
64. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
65. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
66. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

67. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
68. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
69. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

70. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
71. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
72. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
73. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

74. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
75. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.
76. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

77. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
78. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.
79. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.
80. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, his property was damaged, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

81. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
82. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
83. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
84. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

85. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
86. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.
87. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.
88. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.
89. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.
90. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.
91. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
92. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

93. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: economic, emotional, and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

94. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
95. The acts and conduct of the Defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the United States Constitution.
96. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.
97. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceedings against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.
98. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned date.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Excessive Force

99. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
100. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, throwing Plaintiff into the Jeep, causing him to hit the side of the car, injuring his shoulders, and suffer other injuries, constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.
101. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

103. Defendants, their agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously assaulted Plaintiff in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the Plaintiff, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the Plaintiff.

104. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
105. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
106. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
107. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Battery

108. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
109. Defendants, their agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered Plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner threw Plaintiff into the jeep, causing him to hit the side of the car the ground, injuring his shoulders and suffer other injuries, thereby brutally effecting an arrest of Plaintiff without his consent and with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the Plaintiff and caused such battery.
110. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
111. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
112. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
113. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.
