Case Summary

On October 6, 2014, § 87(2)(b) filed the following complaint over the CCRB's website (encl. C1-8).

On October 2, 2014, at approximately 4:10 p.m., § 87(2)(b) was stopped by PO Justin Jamison, PO Kellan O'Neill, PO Alan Rosenthal, and PO Alvaro Menjivar, all from PSA5, for violating park rules. As a result of the incident, the following allegations arose:

Allegation A—Abuse of Authority: PO Alan Rosenthal refused to provide his name and shield number to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegation A be substantiated.

Allegation B—Abuse of Authority: PO Alan Rosenthal searched § 87(2)(b)'s cellphone.

§ 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegation B be unsubstantiated.

Allegation C—Abuse of Authority: PO Kellan O'Neill detained § 87(2)(b)

Allegation D—Abuse of Authority: PO Justin Jamison detained § 87(2)(b)

Allegation E—Abuse of Authority: PO Justin Jamison issued summonses to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegations C, D, and E be substantiated.

§ 87(2)(b) declined to mediate this case.

Results of Investigation

Civilian Statement

Complainant/Victim: § 87(2)(b)

- § 87(2)(b), black, male, § 87(2)(b), bald, and brown eyes. § 87(2)(b)

CCRB Statement

In addition to the on-line complaint § 87(2)(b) initially filed (encl. C1-8), § 87(2)(b) provided an in-person statement at the CCRB on October 10, 2014 (encl. C9-15). § 87(2)(g)

On October 2, 2014, at approximately 4:10 p.m., § 87(2)(b) walked to Commodore Barry Park in Brooklyn. § 87(2)(b) recently obtained an iPhone 5s and he wanted to test the panoramic camera function on the phone at the park. He wore a black jacket with a zipper down the middle, two breast pockets, and two pockets at the waist.

Upon arriving at the benches, § 87(2)(b) noticed on the ground a brown paper bag with a glass bottle of "Malta," a non-alcoholic drink, inside of it. § 87(2)(b) did not want the bottle in his picture and he picked up the bottle and set it on the table behind him. § 87(2)(b) prepared his phone. § 87(2)(b) took a panoramic photograph of the park and uploaded this photograph to Facebook (encl. E57). He noticed a patrol vehicle pull in front of him. He had in his hand a nicotine vaporizer (encl. C12), his phone, and nothing else.

PO O'Neill, whose name § 87(2)(b) obtained from his shield, was described as a 5'10" tall white male with blonde hair and an average build, and PO Jamison, whose name was also obtained from his shield, was described as a 6'0" tall black male with black hair and an average build, were in the vehicle. PO O'Neill and PO Jamison questioned § 87(2)(b) regarding the contents of the bottle in the brown paper bag. § 87(2)(b) refused to answer their questions and refused to provide them with his identification by telling the officers that he did not have identification. § 87(2)(b) did have identification, but he did not believe he had to provide it. The officers told him that having a glass bottle in the park was a violation of the park's rules and that they were going to take him to the stationhouse to verify his identity and summons him. PO Jamison removed § 87(2)(b)'s phone from his hand and set it on the table. PO Jamison handcuffed § 87(2)(b). The handcuffing went without incident. PO O'Neill looked inside of the bag and discovered that the bottle did not contain an alcoholic beverage.

PO Rosenthal, identified by name by § 87(2)(b) and described as a 5'5" tall white male with an average build and short hair, and PO Menjivar, identified by the investigation and described as a 5'7" tall white male with an average build and dark black hair, drove a patrol vehicle into the park.

§ 87(2)(b) asked PO Rosenthal for his name and his shield number, and PO Rosenthal stated that § 87(2)(b) could read it off of his shield. PO Rosenthal was standing behind § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) requested his name and shield again, saying that the Patrol Guide requires that officers state their name and shield numbers to civilians. PO Rosenthal told § 87(2)(b) that he was not a civilian, but a prisoner, as he was in handcuffs. PO Rosenthal again told § 87(2)(b) that he could look at his shield. § 87(2)(b) wanted PO Rosenthal to say it aloud, as he could not see it. § 87(2)(b) was eventually able to glean PO Rosenthal's name from his name plate on his shield by turning around to look at it. He was not able to obtain PO Rosenthal's shield number.

PO O'Neill and PO Rosenthal searched § 87(2)(b)'s pockets and placed him in the police vehicle. PO Rosenthal took § 87(2)(b)'s phone to his vehicle, and § 87(2)(b) asked what he was doing with his property. He could see PO Rosenthal touching the screen, but he could not see what PO Rosenthal was doing with his phone. Soon after, PO Rosenthal set the cellphone on PO O'Neill's windshield. PO O'Neill and PO Jamison transported § 87(2)(b) to the PSA3 stationhouse on Central Avenue. § 87(2)(b) was lodged in a holding cell where he waited for two hours until he was released with three summonses. PO Jamison gave § 87(2)(b) the three summonses. The summonses were issued for having a glass bottle in the park, blocking access to a park bench, and being in the park unaccompanied by a child. § 87(2)(b) plans to contest these summonses in court.

Photographs and maps

On October 16, 2014, § 87(2)(b) sent a map and photographs corresponding to locations on the map, detailing his position and the officers' position (E1-57). The park is bounded on the east by Elliott Place, on the south by Park Avenue, on the west by Navy Street, and on the north by Flushing Avenue. § 87(2)(b) entered the park from the intersection of Elliott Place and Park Avenue. § 87(2)(b) described the park as being broken into four sections, separated by two paths that bisect the park and meet perpendicularly near the center of the park. In the northwest quadrant, there is a playground, in the northeast quadrant there is a playground, in the south east quadrant there is a walking and picnic area, and in the southwest quadrant there is a field for ball play. § 87(2)(b) walked through the picnicking area of the park. He stopped at a set of benches near the intersection of the two paths. He remained in the picnicking area and did not cross into the swimming pool area.

Numerous photographs depict signs at different entrances into the park (encl. E6-9, 12-14, 16, 20, 21, 25-28). These signs list the posted rules of the park. None of these rules state that glass bottles were prohibited in the park. None of these rules list that entering the park without a child was prohibited.

Another set of photographs (encl. E36-38) depict the entrance to a playground, which does prohibit glass bottles and entry without a child.

Video Footage

§ 87(2)(b) filmed the interaction § 87(2)(b). The following is a synopsis (encl. D1-3).

PO O'Neill and PO Jamison approached § 87(2)(b). PO O'Neill asked § 87(2)(b) if the bottle on the table was a beer. § 87(2)(b) responded that it was not the officers business and he asked the officers why they were stopping him. PO O'Neill told him that he had a brown glass bottle in the park and he was not allowed to have a glass bottle in the park. He told § 87(2)(b) that this rule was written on all the signs around the park. The cellphone was placed on the table and the screen became dark. Audio could still be heard. PO O'Neill says, "You're not even drinking alcohol." PO Rosenthal's voice can be heard and the following exchange occurs:

§ 87(2)(b) Who are you? Who are you?

PO Rosenthal: What do you mean, who am I? My name is right here.

§ 87(2)(b) I cannot see your name. Can you tell me your name and your shield number?

PO Rosenthal: Its right here. Turn around.

§ 87(2)(b) No, no, no, no. You read your Patrol Guide. Tell me your name and your shield number.

PO Rosenthal: It's right here. I am not hiding it.

§ 87(2)(b) That is not what your Patrol Guide says. I asked you your name and your shield number.

PO Rosenthal: Okay what is your name?

§ 87(2)(b) I asked you your name and your shield number.

PO Rosenthal: And I just told you.

§ 87(2)(b) No you didn't. You said look. That is not what your Patrol Guide tells you. What does your Patrol Guide tell you to do when a civilian asks for your name and they tell you to identify yourself?

PO Rosenthal: You don't know our Patrol Guide. You're not a civilian, you're in handcuffs, now you are a prisoner.

§ 87(2)(b) Oh okay. I'm a prisoner now. And you are...Rosenthal.

PO Rosenthal: Yeah.

§ 87(2)(b) You PSA3 too?

PO Rosenthal: Yeah.

NYPD Statements:

Subject Officer: PO ALAN ROSENTHAL

- § 87(2)(b) old, male, white, § 87(2)(b), black hair, and brown eyes.
- On the date of incident, PO Rosenthal was assigned to housing conditions with PO Menjivar from 12:00 p.m. to 10:35 p.m. He was dressed in uniform and assigned to a marked patrol vehicle.

Memo Book

At 4:10 p.m., one male was stopped in the vicinity of 36 St. Edwards by vehicle number 9152 for an open container. At 4:17 p.m., one male was placed under arrest by officers in vehicle number 9152. Male was highly uncooperative. Male was asked for identification and he refused, stating, “Go to hell.” His name was § 87(2)(b) (encl. F1-3).

CCRB Statement

PO Rosenthal was interviewed at the CCRB on October 23, 2014 (encl. F4-5).

On October 2, 2014, at approximately 4:10 p.m., PO Rosenthal was in the passenger seat and PO Menjivar was driving the patrol vehicle on Park Avenue. PO Rosenthal was performing routine patrol when he noticed PO Jamison and PO O’Neill’s vehicle stopped in Commodore Barry Park in Brooklyn. He could not recall where exactly the vehicle was parked. PO Menjivar drove the vehicle into the park on a wide pathway. When PO Rosenthal approached PO Jamison and PO O’Neill, § 87(2)(b) was handcuffed standing next to a bench. PO Rosenthal observed a brown paper bag containing a glass bottle on the table next to § 87(2)(b). PO Rosenthal did not see what was in the bottle. There was also a cellphone on the table and a hat. PO Jamison and PO O’Neill asked § 87(2)(b) for his identification. § 87(2)(b) told the officers to “Go to Hell,” and he stated that he wanted to make it hard on the officers.

PO Rosenthal spoke with § 87(2)(b). He asked § 87(2)(b) if he wanted to make it easier on himself and simply provide his identification so he did not have to go to the stationhouse. § 87(2)(b) responded, “Go to Hell.” PO Menjivar did not interact with § 87(2)(b). PO Jamison and PO O’Neill were searching § 87(2)(b) during this exchange. PO Rosenthal stood on § 87(2)(b)’s right-hand side. § 87(2)(b) asked for PO Rosenthal to state his name and shield number. PO Rosenthal pointed at his shield, but he did not state his name and shield. He did not state it aloud as he felt that he had adequately provided it. § 87(2)(b) requested that he state his name aloud. PO Rosenthal, who was still standing to the right of § 87(2)(b), turned his body and faced § 87(2)(b). PO Rosenthal showed § 87(2)(b) his shield. § 87(2)(b) continued to ask PO Rosenthal to state his name aloud. § 87(2)(b) said, “Officer Rosenthal.” PO Rosenthal picked up the cellphone from the table and gave it PO Jamison. He did not turn on the cellphone. He did not touch the buttons on the cellphone. He was not aware that the cellphone was recording the incident. He did not take it to the patrol vehicle and he did not do anything with the cellphone other than hand it to PO Jamison.

PO O’Neill and PO Jamison transported § 87(2)(b) to the PSA3 stationhouse. PO Rosenthal did not go to the stationhouse with them.

PO Rosenthal reviewed the video footage that § 87(2)(b) took at the scene. He identified the voice of the officer who said, “Sir, you know if you don’t provide identification, you get arrested,” as PO Menjivar’s voice. He did not recall anything further after reviewing the footage. He acknowledged that the exchange with § 87(2)(b) regarding his name and shield number was the above referenced conversation.

Subject Officer: PO KELLAN O’NEILL

- § 87(2)(b) old, male, white, § 87(2)(b), brown hair, and hazel eyes.
- On October 2, 2014, PO O’Neill was assigned to conditions with PO Jamison from 12:00 p.m. to 10:35 p.m. He was dressed in uniform and assigned to a marked motor vehicle.

Memo book

At 4:10 p.m., one male was stopped near 36 St. Edwards Street for failure to comply with NYC Park sign—glass bottle in park. He refused to produce identification several times. He was highly uncooperative. At 4:17 p.m., PO Jamison placed § 87(2)(b) under arrest and PO Jamison and PO O'Neill responded to the stationhouse. At 4:40 p.m., § 87(2)(b) was released with three summonses. (encl. G1-4).

CCRB Statement

PO O'Neill was interviewed at the CCRB on October 23, 2014 (encl. G5-6).

On October 2, 2014, PO O'Neill was driving while he and PO Jamison were performing routine patrol in Commodore Barry Park. He observed § 87(2)(b) sitting on the top portion of a park bench near the middle of the park, with a glass bottle in a brown paper bag next to him on the table. Other than the bottle and the manner that § 87(2)(b) sat on the bench, PO O'Neill did not suspect § 87(2)(b) of any other violations.

PO O'Neill and PO Jamison approached § 87(2)(b) and asked him if the bottle contained beer. § 87(2)(b) refused to answer that question. He was irate, refused to comply with orders, would not answer their questions, asked for the justification for the stop, refused to provide identification, and his tone of voice indicated that he was angry. PO O'Neill and PO Jamison asked him for identification several times and informed him that if he did not produce identification, they would have to take him to the stationhouse to verify his identity. PO O'Neill looked at the bottle and determined it was not an alcoholic beverage. He threw the bottle away on the scene.

PO Rosenthal and PO Menjivar responded to the scene. PO Jamison handcuffed § 87(2)(b) and searched him without incident. § 87(2)(b) was handcuffed as he committed a violation and stated that he did not have identification.

§ 87(2)(b) asked PO Jamison for his name and shield number, which PO Jamison provided verbally. § 87(2)(b) asked PO Rosenthal for his name and shield number. PO Rosenthal did not respond verbally, but he pointed at his shield. PO Rosenthal was standing to the right of § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) asked again for his name and shield. § 87(2)(b) turned and looked at PO Rosenthal's shield and said, "Officer Rosenthal."

PO O'Neill did not recall if § 87(2)(b) had a cellphone in his hand during the stop, but he did see a cellphone on the table next to § 87(2)(b). He did not know that § 87(2)(b) recorded the incident. He did not search § 87(2)(b)'s cellphone and he did not see any other officer search § 87(2)(b)'s cellphone. He did not see any officer pick up the cellphone, but he assumed that PO Jamison took the cellphone to the stationhouse with § 87(2)(b).

PO O'Neill and PO Jamison transported § 87(2)(b) to the PSA3 stationhouse. § 87(2)(b) was issued three summonses.

Subject Officer: PO JUSTIN JAMISON

- § 87(2)(b) old, male, Hispanic, black hair, and brown eyes.
- On October 2, 2014, PO Jamison was assigned to conditions with PO O'Neill from 12:00 p.m. to 10:35 p.m. He was dressed in uniform and assigned to a marked motor vehicle.

Memo book

At 4:10 p.m., one male was stopped near 36 St. Edwards Street for failure to comply with NYC Park sign—glass bottle in park and obstructing a park bench. He refused to produce identification several times. He was highly uncooperative. At 4:17 p.m., PO Jamison placed § 87(2)(b) under arrest and transported him to the stationhouse. At 6:10 p.m., § 87(2)(b) was released with three summonses. His name was § 87(2)(b) (H1-4).

Summonses

PO Jamison issued three summonses to § 87(2)(b). Summons § 87(2)(b) was issued for being in a playground without a child under the age of 12, summons § 87(2)(b) was issued for obstructing a park bench, and summons § 87(2)(b) was issued for possession of a glass bottle in the park (encl. H5-7).

CCRB Statement

PO Jamison was interviewed at the CCRB on October 23, 2014 (encl. H8-9). § 87(2)(g)

PO Jamison approached § 87(2)(b) after observing a brown bottle in a paper bag. Other than the brown bottle and the fact that § 87(2)(b) was sitting on the top portion of the bench where a person's back typically goes, PO Jamison did not suspect § 87(2)(b) of violating any other rules.

After PO Jamison handcuffed § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) asked PO Rosenthal for his name and shield number. PO Rosenthal did not respond verbally, but he pointed at his shield. PO Rosenthal was standing to the right of § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) asked again for his name and shield. PO Rosenthal shifted his body so that § 87(2)(b) could see his name and shield number. § 87(2)(b) turned and looked at PO Rosenthal's shield and said, "Officer Rosenthal."

PO Jamison did not search § 87(2)(b) cellphone and he did not see any other officer search § 87(2)(b) cellphone. He did not see any officer pick up the cellphone, but he assumed that PO O'Neill took the cellphone to the stationhouse with § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) was taken to the stationhouse as he claimed not to have any identification and he was intending on summoning § 87(2)(b) for the glass bottle in the park, obstructing a park bench, and being in the park without a child under 12 years old.

Witness Officer: PO ALVARO MENJIVAR

- § 87(2)(b) old, male, Hispanic, § 87(2)(b), black hair, and brown eyes.
- On the date of incident, PO Menjivar was assigned to housing conditions with PO Rosenthal from 12:00 p.m. to 10:35 p.m. He was dressed in uniform and assigned to a marked patrol vehicle.

Memo Book

PO Menjivar's memo book entry was consistent with PO Rosenthal's entry (encl. I1-3).

CCRB Statement

PO Menjivar was interviewed at the CCRB on October 30, 2014 (encl. I4-5).

PO Menjivar did not recall this incident, even after viewing the video of the incident.

Conclusion

Allegations not Pled

§ 87(2)(g) [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Identification of Subject Officer

§ 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] identified PO Rosenthal by name as the subject of the allegations and PO Rosenthal acknowledged that he had a discussion with § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] regarding his name and shield number. § 87(2)(g) [REDACTED].

PO Jamison and PO O'Neill acknowledged detaining § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] and transporting him to the stationhouse. PO Jamison issued the summons to § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] § 87(2)(g) [REDACTED].

Investigative Findings and Recommendations

Allegation A—Abuse of Authority: PO Alan Rosenthal refused to provide his name and shield number to § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]

It is not disputed that § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] requested PO Rosenthal's name and shield number numerous times and that PO Rosenthal never spoke his name and shield number aloud, even though § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] requested that he state this information aloud. § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] stated that PO Rosenthal told him that he could look at his name and shield number on his shield, but he stood behind § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] so that § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] could not see it. § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] was able to obtain PO Rosenthal's name from his shield by turning around, but he did not obtain PO Rosenthal's shield number.

The video footage did not show PO Rosenthal's position in relation to § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED]. The video footage recorded the exchange whereby § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] requested PO Rosenthal state his name and shield number aloud and PO Rosenthal telling him he could turn around and look at it. § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] asked again for PO Rosenthal to state his name aloud and PO Rosenthal did not state his name and shield number, instead responding that § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] did not know the Patrol Guide and that he was a prisoner, not a civilian. § 87(2)(b) [REDACTED] stated the officer's name, but he did not state his shield number.

PO Rosenthal stated that he was standing on the right side of § 87(2)(b) when § 87(2)(b) asked for his name and shield number. PO Jamison and PO O'Neill also stated that he was standing to the right of § 87(2)(b) at first. When § 87(2)(b) asked for him to state his information aloud, PO Rosenthal stood in front of § 87(2)(b) and pointed at his shield, and § 87(2)(b) said the officer's name out loud.

Patrol Guide Procedure 203-09 (encl. A1) states that an officer must courteously and clearly state his name, rank, shield, and command to any civilian who asks for it, or otherwise provide this information.

§ 87(2)(g)

it is recommended that Allegation A be substantiated.

Allegation B—Abuse of Authority: PO Alan Rosenthal searched § 87(2)(b)'s cellphone.

§ 87(2)(b) alleged that after he was handcuffed, PO Rosenthal accessed his cellphone which was recording the interaction.

None of the officers interviewed saw PO Rosenthal access § 87(2)(b)'s cellphone and PO Rosenthal denied that he did so.

§ 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegation B be unsubstantiated.

Allegation C—Abuse of Authority: PO Kellan O'Neill detained § 87(2)(b)

Allegation D—Abuse of Authority: PO Justin Jamison detained § 87(2)(b)

Allegation E—Abuse of Authority: PO Justin Jamison issued summonses to § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b)

It is not disputed that there was a non-alcoholic drink in a glass bottle on a table in the park near § 87(2)(b). It is also not disputed that § 87(2)(b) was not in the playground area of the park. According to the officers, § 87(2)(b) was sitting on the upper portion of the park bench when they approached him. It is not in dispute that § 87(2)(b) was handcuffed, taken to the stationhouse, and summonsed for being in the playground without a child, obstructing a park bench, and being in possession of a glass bottle after he refused to provide his identification.

§ 87(2)(b) provided numerous photographs of the signs surrounding the park that do not state a prohibition on being in the park without a child and being in the park with a glass bottle. He provided photographs of the playground section of the park that does not permit glass and adults unaccompanied by an adult.

NYC Park Rules section 1-04 "Prohibited Uses" (encl. A14-16) states that the Commissioner may designate certain parks, or portions thereof, wherein no glass bottles are permitted. It also states that no person may use a bench such that it may interfere with its use by other persons.

NYC Park Rules section 1-05 "Regulated Uses" (encl. A8-13) states that the Commissioner can designate playgrounds as areas for exclusive use by children accompanied by an adult.

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegations C, D, and E be substantiated.
