VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff LEO SIMMONES, by his attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On July 12, 2022, at approximately 5:20 p.m., Plaintiff LEO SIMMONES, while lawfully in the vicinity of the Southwest corner of Third Avenue and East 182nd Street, County of Bronx, New York, was subject to an unlawful arrest and detention by defendant Police Officers. Plaintiff was deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802 and his constitutional, common law and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Leo Simmones is a resident of the state of New York.

3. New York City Police Officer Christina Rice, Shield No. 28941, is and was at all times relevant herein an Officer with the New York City Police Department.

4. New York City Police Officer Christina Rice, Shield No. 28941, is being sued in their individual and official capacity.

5. Currently and at all times relevant herein, New York City Police Officer Christina Rice, Shield No. 28941, was assigned to the Strategic Response Group 4 of the NYPD.

6. New York City Police Officer Louis Diaz, Shield No. 8006, is and was at all times relevant herein an Officer with the New York City Police Department.

7. New York City Police Officer Louis Diaz, Shield No. 8006, is being sued in their individual and official capacity.

8. Currently and at all times relevant herein, New York City Police Officer Louis Diaz, Shield No. 8006, was assigned to the Strategic Response Group 4 of the NYPD.

9. New York City Police Officers John/Jane Does #1-10 are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.

10. Police Officers John/Jane Does #1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

11. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

12. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

13. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.

14. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, Plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on October 25, 2022.

15. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

16. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

17. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

18. On July 12, 2022, at approximately 5:22 p.m., Plaintiff was present in the vicinity of the Southwest corner of Third Avenue and East 182nd Street, County of Bronx, New York, when the defendant Police Officers arrested Plaintiff without legal justification.

19. At the above date and time, Plaintiff was sitting in the passenger seat of his friend, Jarell Stuckey's, Toyota. They were on their way home from playing basketball at a gym on Williamsbridge.

20. Jarell Stuckey was the driver of the vehicle and Plaintiff was a passenger in the front passenger seat of the vehicle. Both parties were wearing seatbelts, and Stuckey was driving the car in compliance with all vehicle and traffic laws. The car was registered in New York, with New York license plates, with current, valid insurance and registration.

21. As Stuckey drove the vehicle, an unmarked police vehicle activated its lights and sirens behind them, and Stuckey immediately complied and pulled the car over to the side of the road. Approximately three officers in uniform exited the police car approached the Toyota..

22. Defendant officers asked Stuckey for his license and registration, which he provided, and defendant officers took the documents back to their car to check them.

23. Defendant officers returned to the Toyota and informed Stuckey that his license was suspended.

24. Plaintiff was unaware that Mr. Stuckey was driving with a suspended license.

25. Defendant Officers approached Mr. Stuckey first and instructed him to get out of the vehicle. Stuckey complied immediately and stepped out of the vehicle.

26. Plaintiff watched the defendant officers pat down Mr. Stuckey; no contraband, weapons or drugs were recovered from Stuckey's person.

27. After speaking with Stuckey, defendant officers instructed Plaintiff to get out of the vehicle. Plaintiff immediately complied and stepped out of the car.

28. Defendant officers informed Plaintiff that they were taking Stuckey's car and that Plaintiff would have to find his own way home. Plaintiff responded "All right. Can I just get my bag?" Plaintiff explained to defendant officers that his house keys, phone, chain and wallet were in his backpack, which was in the back seat of the Toyota.

29. Defendant Officers told Plaintiff he was not allowed to retrieve his bag from the vehicle, despite the fact that there was no legal basis for their refusal to let him retrieve his belongings

30. Plaintiff repeated to the Defendant Officers that he needed his bag because it contained his essential belongings, including his identification, phone and keys to his home—he would not have been able to get into his home without those items

31. Rather than treat Plaintiff with common decency, and allow him to retrieve his belongings, Defendant Officers yelled at Plaintiff, threatening to arrest him for asking about his belongings.

32. Several more officers then arrived at the scene.

33. Defendant officers then unlawfully pinned Plaintiff's hand behind his back and handcuffed Plaintiff in the absence of probable cause or reasonable suspicion that he was engaged in any sort of criminality. Plaintiff did not resist the unlawful arrest..

34. Plaintiff was then placed in a police vehicle and transported to the 48th Police Precinct.

35. At the 48th Police Precinct, Plaintiff was fingerprinted, photographed and searched again. Plaintiff was placed in a holding cell.

36. At the precinct, Plaintiff was taken out of the holding cell and brought to an interrogation room and questioned by Defendant Officers.

37. Plaintiff remained at the 48th Precinct for approximately 9 hours before being transported to Central Booking.

38. While Plaintiff was in custody, defendant officers knowingly submitted false evidence to the Bronx County District Attorney's Office falsely claiming that Plaintiff had obstructed governmental administration Plaintiff remained at Central Booking for approximately 19 hours before he went before a Judge and was released.

39. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Bronx County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff was engaged in Disorderly Conduct and Obstructing Governmental Administration.

40. Plaintiff remained at Central Booking for approximately 19 hours before being brought to Bronx Criminal Court and arraigned on the false charges. Plaintiff plead not guilty and was released on his own recognizance.

41. Plaintiff returned to court on August 25, 2022, where all charges were dismissed and sealed.

42. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective credible reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

43. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

44. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause, unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed and searched, and unlawfully detained.

45. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably assaulting, battering, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.

46. Plaintiff's unlawful detention, search, arrest and deprivation of rights caused Plaintiff to sustain psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

47. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

48. Defendants owed a duty of care to Plaintiff.

49. To the extent defendants claim that the injuries to Plaintiff by the defendant police officers was unintentionally caused and that the force used by the defendants against his was unintentional, then the defendants breached that duty of care.

50. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

51. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by Plaintiff.

52. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

53. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

54. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

55. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

56. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

57. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

58. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

59. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

60. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:

Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

61. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

62. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

63. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
False Imprisonment

64. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

65. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

66. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

67. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

68. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

69. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

70. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

71. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

72. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

73. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

74. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

75. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

76. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

77. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

78. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

79. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

80. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

81. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

82. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

83. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

84. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

85. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

86. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights:

Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

87. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

88. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

89. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

90. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

91. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

92. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

93. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

94. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

95. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

96. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

97. The acts and conduct of the Defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the United States Constitution.

98. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.

99. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.

100. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Individual Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

101. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

102. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

103. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

104. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiff, before detaining plaintiff and further causing his detention for approximately 28 hours in total.

105. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONIndividual Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

106. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

107. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

108. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

109. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8-802 right against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

110. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of his rights.

111. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTIONCity-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

126. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

127. Defendant Officers are "covered individuals" as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolmen.

128. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.

129. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

130. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

131. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiff, before detaining plaintiff and further causing his detention for approximately 28 hours.

132. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

133. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

134. Defendant Officers are “covered individuals” as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolmen.

135. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.

136. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

137. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

138. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8 – 802 rights against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

139. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of his rights.

140. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Article I, § 12 of the New York State Constitution

141. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

142. Such conduct breached the protections guaranteed to plaintiff by the New York State Constitution, including but not limited to, Article 1, §§ 1, 6, 8, 9, 11, and 12, and including the following rights:

- i. freedom from unreasonable search and seizure of her person and property;
- ii. freedom from arrest without probable cause;
- iii. freedom from false imprisonment, that being wrongfully detained without good faith, reasonable suspicion, or legal justification, and of which wrongful detention plaintiff was aware and did not consent;
- iv. freedom from the lodging of false charges against him by police officers and prosecutors, including on information and belief, by some or all of the individual defendants; and
- v. freedom from deprivation of liberty without due process of law.

143. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' deprivations of Plaintiff's rights, privileges, and immunities guaranteed by the New York State Constitution, Plaintiff suffered physical, economic and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

144. As a result of the above tortious conduct, Plaintiff was caused to suffer physical, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

145. As a result of the above unconstitutional conduct, the City of New York is liable for the conduct of the Individual Defendants and any damages they caused under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

JURY DEMAND

146. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.
