Plaintiff, MR. THOMAS SCOTT, by and through the undersigned attorneys, SIM & DEPAOLA, LLP, for his complaint against the Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK, BRIAN BYRNES, NICHOLAS CALANDRO, JUSTIN CRISTIANO, BRIAN HICKEY, and JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, alleges and states as follows:

1. This is a civil rights action, in which Plaintiff seeks relief vis-à-vis 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988, the laws of the City and State of New York, including but not limited to New York City Human Rights Law under NYC Admin Code §§ 8-801 – 8-806, in addition to the self-executing clauses or implied private causes of action within the constitution of State of New York, for the violations of his civil rights, as enumerated by the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, the New York State Constitution, in addition to the Laws of the City and State of New York.

2. The following claims arise from an incident that occurred on March 16, 2020, in which defendants, acting under color of state law, caused Plaintiff to be unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, battered and assaulted, arrested and detained in the vicinity of 1 Washington Square South, County, City, and State of New York. As a result, Plaintiff was deprived of his liberty and suffered various physical, emotional and psychological injuries. Plaintiff was wrongfully detained over the course of approximately twenty-seven (27) days until his release from physical custody on or about April 12, 2020. Plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted and denied Due Process and Equal Protection of the law, until all criminal charges under New York County Criminal Court Docket No. CR-007182-20NY were unconditionally dismissed and sealed, pursuant to §§ 160.50 and 160.60 of the Criminal Procedure Law on or about November 3, 2021, constituting a termination of the criminal proceedings in favor of Plaintiff.

3. At all times here mentioned, defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

4. Plaintiff has timely served the City of New York, Office of the Comptroller, with notice of his claims within 90 days of the date(s) from which they arose.

5. Over 30 days have elapsed since the filing of the Notice of Claim and this matter has not been adjudicated or settled.

6. Plaintiff has complied with the municipal defendant's request for an oral examination, pursuant to section 50-H of the New York General Municipal Law even though under New York City Human Rights Law under NYC Admin Code §§ 8-801 – 8-806, the Plaintiff is not required to file his Notice of Claim or submit to an oral examination pursuant to section 50-H of the New York General Municipal Law.

7. This action and associated claims have been filed within three (3) years upon the occurrences which they are based.

8. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against defendants, an award of costs and reasonable attorney's fees, with all interest then accrued, together with such other or further relief, as this venerable Court may deem just and proper.

PARTIES

9. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff, Mr. Thomas Scott ("Mr. Scott"), is an adult black or African American male, who resides in New York, New York.

10. Defendant CITY is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing, under the laws of the State of New York.

11. At all relevant times herein, the NYPD was a wholly owned subsidiary which was further wholly operated, managed, maintained and controlled by Defendant CITY.

12. At all relevant times herein, NYCDOC was a wholly owned subsidiary which was further wholly operated, managed, maintained and controlled by Defendant CITY.

13. At all relevant times herein, Defendant CITY, acting through its NYPD, was responsible for the policy, practice, supervision, implementation, and conduct of all NYPD matters and was responsible for the appointment, screening, hiring, training, supervision, discipline, retention and conduct of all NYPD personnel, including police officers, detectives, investigators, sergeants, lieutenants, captains, correctional officers, and other supervisory officers or officials, as well as the individually named NYPD Defendants herein.

14. At all relevant times herein, Defendant CITY was responsible for enforcing the rules and regulations of the NYPD and for ensuring that the NYPD personnel obey the laws and constitutions and laws of the United States, State of New York and City of New York.

15. At all relevant times herein, Defendant BRIAN BYRNES (“BYRNES”), was a police officer, detective, sergeant, policymaker or official employed by the NYPD, or CITY under Shield No. 00969 and Tax No. 917357. Defendant BYRNES is currently retired or resigned from the NYPD as a sergeant and is being sued in their individual and official capacities.

16. At all relevant times herein, Defendant NICHOLAS CALANDRO (“CALANDRO”), was a police officer, detective, sergeant, policymaker or official employed by the NYPD, or CITY under Shield No. 04386 and Tax No. 955266. Defendant CALANDRO is currently retired or resigned from the NYPD as a sergeant and is being sued in their individual and official capacities.

17. At all relevant times herein, Defendant JUSTIN CRISTIANO (“CRISTIANO”), was a police officer, detective, sergeant, policymaker or official employed by the NYPD, or CITY under Shield No. 11366 and Tax No. 951891. Defendant CRISTIANO is currently assigned to the NYPD 49th Detective Squad and is being sued in their individual and official capacities.

18. At all relevant times herein, Defendant BRIAN HICKEY (“HICKEY”), was a police officer, detective, sergeant, policymaker or official employed by the NYPD, or CITY under Shield No. 06833 and Tax No. 950586. Defendant HICKEY is currently assigned to NYPD 6th Detective Squad as a detective and is being sued in their individual and official capacities.

19. At all relevant times herein, Defendants, JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, were police officers, detectives, sergeants, policymakers or officials employed by the NYPD, or CITY. At this time, Plaintiff does not know the true names, identities or tax registry numbers of Defendants JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, as such knowledge is within the exclusive possession of Defendants. The names, JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, are fictitious and are intended as placeholders for the employees, agents or other personnel who caused to Plaintiff to be falsely arrested, assault, battered, maliciously prosecuted, who subjected Plaintiff to excessive force or who aided, abetted, assisted or acted in concert with any other defendants to do the same.

20. At all relevant times herein, Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City or State of New York.

FACTUAL CHARGES

21. On March 16, 2020, at approximately 4:00 p.m., Plaintiff, Mr. Scott was in obedience of all local, state and federal rules, regulations, statutes and laws, when he was caused to be unlawfully stopped, detained, battered and assaulted, seized and searched, and falsely arrested by or at the direction of Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 in the vicinity of 1 Washington Square South, County, City, and State of New York.

22. Before said date and time, on or about January 1, 2020, Plaintiff was a victim of assault and lawfully defended himself from his attacker.

23. On said date and time, Plaintiff was lawfully present in the vicinity of this complained-of incident.

24. On said date and time, Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, then appeared in the vicinity of this complained-of incident and illegally approached and stopped Plaintiff without probable cause, reasonable suspicion, valid search or arrest warrant, or any legal justification whatsoever as to the commission of unlawful conduct on the part of Plaintiff.

25. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, then illegally questioned Plaintiff without probable cause, reasonable suspicion, valid search or arrest warrant, or any legal justification whatsoever as to the commission of unlawful conduct.

26. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, then falsely accused Plaintiff of the criminal offense of being in criminal possession of a weapon from a previous date and illegally seized his person with their outstretched hands aggressively grabbing him about his head and body before unlawfully searching his person by rifling their hands in and out of Plaintiff's clothing and personal belongings, without probable cause, reasonable suspicion, valid search or arrest warrant, or any legal justification whatsoever as to the commission of a crime on the part of Plaintiff.

27. Thereafter, Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, recovered no contraband from Plaintiff's person or belongs to indicate that he committed any crime.

28. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, then grabbed Plaintiff about his body and extremities before violently contorting his arms and wrists behind his back and applying excessively tightened metal handcuffs, causing plaintiff to experience significant pain and discomfort.

29. Plaintiff complained to Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, and requested that the handcuffs be loosened, but said defendants ignored plaintiff's pleas.

30. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, then placed Plaintiff in a police vehicle and transported him against his will to the NYPD 13th Precinct where he was fingerprinted, photographed, questioned as to his pedigree, illegally interrogated without being Mirandized or presence of counsel, and illegally detained in a dank and dirty cell for a period of time before being placed into a police vehicle and transported to Central Booking, where Plaintiff was fingerprinted, photographed, searched or strip-searched, questioned as to his pedigree, illegally interrogated without presence of counsel and being Mirandized, and illegally detained in a dank and dirty cell for a length of time until Plaintiff was transported against his will to Rikers Island Correctional Facility until his release from physical custody on or about April 12, 2020.

31. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, were reckless, careless, and or negligent in causing Plaintiff to suffer substantial physical and emotional injuries.

32. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, intentionally, negligently, and/or recklessly caused Plaintiff to injure or reinjure himself during his arrest.

33. The actions of Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, demonstrated their deliberate indifference to the safety of Plaintiff in violation of his constitutional rights. Defendants subjected Plaintiff to such deprivations, either in a malicious or reckless disregard of Plaintiff's rights or with deliberate indifference to those rights protected under the fifth, eight, and fourteenth amendments.

34. The direct and proximate result of the above Defendants' acts are that the Plaintiff suffered severe and permanent injuries of a psychological and physical nature.

35. Due to the lack of probable cause, the aforementioned conduct constituted the completed torts of Assault and Battery by Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10.

36. Defendants HICKEY signed and forwarded the criminal court complaint to the District Attorney's Office, in which they knowingly affirmed the truth of fabricated allegations against Plaintiff, namely that plaintiff committed the criminal offense of assault and criminal possession of weapon, when said Defendant observed no such conduct.

37. As a result, Plaintiff was caused to endure to the attendant indignities associated with long-term incarceration at Rikers Island Correctional Facility, including, inter alia, poor living conditions, poor nutritional diet, negligent exposure to COVID-19, exposure to chemical spray, smoke inhalation, mandatory strip searches with attendant cavity inspection, gratuitous assaults and batteries, fear of bodily harm posed by inmates and correction officers over the course of approximately twenty-seven (27) days until his release from physical custody of defendants on or about April 12, 2020.

38. The criminal prosecution initiated by Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, was terminated in Plaintiff's favor when all adverse charges under New York County Criminal Court Docket No. CR-007182-20NY were unconditionally dismissed and sealed, pursuant to §§ 160.50 and 160.60 of the Criminal Procedure Law on or about November 3, 2021, likely due to a lack of probable cause to believe Plaintiff committed any criminal offense.

39. Plaintiff asserts that he was illegally targeted for violent retaliation by Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, because of his race, color, ethnicity or national origin, as said defendants falsely accused, assaulted and battered Plaintiff because of their biased, prejudiced and otherwise impermissible feelings towards Black or African American males, such as Plaintiff.

40. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, did not have a valid arrest warrant, search warrant or any legal authority to arrest Plaintiff.

41. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, did not have probable cause to or reasonable suspicion to arrest, detain, or stop Plaintiff.

42. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, did not observe Plaintiff commit any crimes or violations of the law and did not possess any credible or reliable information or evidence indicative of such.

43. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, illegally subjected Plaintiff to custodial interrogation without advising Plaintiff of his rights and in the absence of requested legal counsel.

44. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, caused Plaintiff to be wrongfully arrested by swearing and attesting to observations they each knew to be false or otherwise completely fabricated, failing to further investigate incredulous allegations that lacked any evidentiary support, and which defied all rational logic.

45. As such, Plaintiff was caused to be wrongfully arrested and maliciously prosecuted for crimes he was clearly innocent of and which no probable cause or reasonable suspicion ever existed to believe that said crimes were perpetrated by Plaintiff.

46. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, intentionally provided said false information to the District Attorney's Office, so that criminal prosecutions would be initiated against Plaintiff.

47. At no point did Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 ever observe Plaintiff commit any crime or offense.

48. At no point were the defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, ever told by any witnesses that Plaintiff committed any crime or violation of the law.

49. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, never possessed probable cause to believe a prosecution would succeed against Plaintiff, or that Plaintiff was guilty of any crime, as they each were not only fully aware that Plaintiff ever committed criminal offenses.

50. While Plaintiff was unlawfully detained, defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, conveyed the aforementioned false, misleading and incomplete information to prosecutors in order to have Plaintiff maliciously prosecuted.

51. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, suppressed evidence and engaged in conduct undertaken in bad faith, namely the fabrications of the false accounts stating that Plaintiff's committed criminal offenses.

52. During all of the events described, Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, acted maliciously and with intent to injure Plaintiff.

53. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, were involved in the decisions to arrest Plaintiff without probable cause or failed to intervene when they observed others arresting Plaintiff without probable cause.

54. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, engaged in fraud, perjury, the suppression of evidence and other actions conducted in bad faith or failed to intervene when defendants observed others doing so, all in furtherance of Plaintiff's criminal prosecution.

55. Defendant CITY has engaged in a policy, custom, or pattern and practice of stopping vehicles occupied by members of protected classes, especially African Americans and Hispanic or Latino individuals, without probable cause or reasonable suspicion to do so and then using excessive force in the process of unlawfully arresting said individuals.

56. Defendant CITY has also engaged in a policy, custom, or pattern and practice of concealing their unlawful arrests by fabricating false accounts that black or African American or Latino or Hispanic males were observed committing criminal acts, when no such acts were ever committed.

57. Plaintiff asserts that defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, falsely arrested, assaulted, and maliciously prosecuted him, due solely to their racial discriminatory prejudices against African American or black males and Hispanic or Latino males and their desire to satisfy an unconstitutional and unlawful arrest quota.

58. Plaintiff further asserts that Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10 acted in such a sadistic and reprehensible manner, due to their assumption that defendants' version of events would undoubtedly and unduly be credited over Plaintiff's, solely because Plaintiff is a black male.

59. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, arrested, assaulted, battered and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiff, not because of any probable cause to believe Plaintiff had committed any crimes, violations of the law, but because Plaintiff is an African American or black male.

60. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, discriminated against Plaintiff by arresting, assaulting, battering, and maliciously prosecuted Plaintiff, solely due to defendants' perception or consideration of Plaintiff's race, ethnicity, national origin, immigration status, religion, gender or age.

61. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, perpetrated multiple overt acts in furtherance of their obviously discriminatory inclinations, namely the unlawful stops, searches, assaults, seizures, arrests and malicious prosecutions against Plaintiff.

62. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, possessed no valid reason to restrict Plaintiff's movements, which gives rise to the strong inference that the unlawful acts committed by defendants against plaintiff, were discriminatorily motivated and enacted upon.

63. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, subjected Plaintiff to disparate treatment compared to other individuals similarly situated, because defendants do not question, arrest or maliciously prosecute other victims of gang assaults who were not members of a protected class, especially victims who are visibly injured, distressed, and fleeing for their safety.

64. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, would not have arrested Plaintiff and fabricated false accounts of plaintiff committing criminal offenses, if plaintiff was not an African American or Hispanic male.

65. As a direct and proximate result of the acts of defendants, including the CITY, BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, Plaintiff suffered the following injuries and damages: violations of his rights pursuant to the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States Constitution, violations of New York State law, physical injury, physical pain and suffering, emotional trauma and suffering, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, emotional distress, frustration, extreme inconvenience, anxiety, loss of liberty and harm to reputation.

66. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, arrested and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against Plaintiff, because of their desires to use Plaintiff's arrest and criminal prosecution to incur additional overtime compensation, benefits and career favor from the superior officers, to avoid adverse consequences associated with failing to meet NYPD departmental arrest quotas, and also to conceal their egregious violations of proper police procedures and gross misconduct, including their fabrications of non-existent observations, evidence and information.

67. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, arrested, applied excessive force and initiated a malicious prosecution against Plaintiff in retaliation for Plaintiff's exertion of his constitutional right to freely express his opinion and inquiries, namely Plaintiff's displeasure with the manner in which Defendants addressed him and his request for an explanation as to why Defendants acted so discourteously toward Plaintiff.

68. As a result of Defendants actions, Plaintiff does not feel secured of his constitutional rights, which has prevented him from venturing from his house for a prolonged period of time and has effectively permanently chilled his desire and ability to communicate with police officers.

69. Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, engaged in a conspiracy to arrest and maliciously prosecute Plaintiff by personally conferring with each other, regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned non-existent evidence and observations, as well the manner and means by which said fabrications would be forwarded to the District Attorney's Office.

70. Plaintiff asserts that the Defendants, including BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, who violated Plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and Defendant CITY that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and CITY or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the CITY and NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers or are incarcerated in their facilities.

71. The individually named defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

72. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculpated via incontrovertible evidence, such as video evidence.

73. The constitutionally repugnant behavior that persists within the ranks of the NYPD results from the NYPD's own policies, rules and procedures, namely the NYPD's incredibly flawed and illegal use of arrest quotas. Despite its illegality, such policies remain system in throughout the NYPD and its individual commands. The NYPD, however, was not content in compelling its officers to effect as many arrests as possible, regardless of the presence of any legal right to do, it promulgated various subsets of quotas, which are predicated on race, color or ethnicity. Additionally, the NYPD, its supervisors or policymakers would assign varying point values to arrests, which were, again, impermissibly based upon the arrestee's race, color or ethnicity. Unsurprisingly, officers would be better rewarded for minority arrests or summonses. This egregious conduct has reported by numerous respected media outlets and publications and has even formed the basis for federal lawsuits against the City and the NYPD, which were commenced by its own employee officers.

74. On June 17, 2020, the New York Daily News published an article, by Graham Rayman, entitled "Brooklyn Cop Claims he was Punished for not Meeting Arrest Quotas, Refusing to Take Responsibility for Controversial Arrest in which he Wasn't Involved," describing allegations from an NYPD Police Officer, Terrence Dickerson, that he was retaliated against by the NYPD for refusing to adhere to mandatory racially based arrest quotas and for his refusal to accept responsibility for a controversial and publicized arrest via the excessive force, despite the fact that he was not even at the scene.

75. Another article with a title that speaks for itself, also published by the New York Daily News, on December 5, 2019, and written by Graham Rayman, is entitled “Ex-Cop Details NYPD ‘Collar Quotas’—Arrest Black and Hispanic Men, ‘No Cuffs on Soft Targets’ of Jews, Asians, Whites: Court Docs.”

76. The New York Times, on December 6, 2019, published an article by Joseph Goldstein and Ashley Southall, entitled “I Got Tired of Hunting Black and Hispanic People,” which revealed a disturbing account from a different NYPD Police Officer, Anthony Diaz, describing a police force that measures the quality of police work by the quantity of minority arrests.

77. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled “Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying,” written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD’s persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers' intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

78. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled "Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars." Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

79. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "Detective's Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge," by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco's lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

80. Other articles include: (i) "Testilying' by Police: A Stubborn Problem.," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) "New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) "He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) "Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers' False Statement," by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) "In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police,” by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) “Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs,” by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) “The Drugs? They Came from the Police,” by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

81. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD’s commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

82. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in Plaintiff’s arrest without probable cause and injuries while in custody of CITY.

83. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion, the appropriate amount of force to be used, and the proper care of arrestees.

84. Defendants’ actions, pursuant to Plaintiff’s underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of Plaintiff’s civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with Defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

85. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD and City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of Defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

86. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer Defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of Defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named Defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

87. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City of New York or NYPD were fully aware of Defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement or correctional officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including the above-named defendants.

88. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named Defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct.

89. The aforementioned acts of defendants, including CITY, BYRNES, CALANDRO, CRISTIANO, HICKEY, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of Plaintiff's civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth or Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and constitution of the State of New York.

90. As a direct or proximate result of said acts, Plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of his liberty, irreparable reputational harm, loss of earnings and potential earnings, physical injury, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience and anxiety.

42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

234. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

235. Defendants deliberately fabricated evidence against the Plaintiff and that as a result of this evidence being used against him, he was deprived of his rights to Due Process of Law or Fair Trial.

236. As a result, Plaintiff sustained injuries to his person, was deprived of his liberty or was deprived of rights or privileges of citizens of the United States.

237. Defendants fabricated evidence in order to support their false arrest, detention and prosecution of the Plaintiff.

238. Defendants used this fabricated evidence and informed the prosecution that the fabricated evidence was true and accurate despite the fact that knew that the fabricated evidence was not true.

239. As a result, the Plaintiff was deprived of his rights, pursuant to the Fifth, Sixth or Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

240. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Training, Retention or Supervision Under
New York State Law

241. The above paragraphs are hereby incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

242. Defendants CITY owed duties of care to Plaintiff to adequately hire, train, retain or supervise their employees, including the individually named defendants herein.

243. Defendants CITY breached those duties of care.

244. Defendants CITY placed the individually named defendants in positions where they could inflict foreseeable harm.

245. Defendants CITY knew or should have known of that their employees, including the individually named defendants herein, exhibited substantial propensities for committing civil rights violations against members of the public, such as Plaintiff.

246. Defendants CITY failed to take reasonable measures in hiring, training, retaining or supervising their employees, including the individually named defendants herein, that would have prevented the aforesaid injuries to Plaintiff.

247. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

TWENTY-THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Victims of Violent Crime Protection Act Under
New York City Law

248. The above paragraphs are hereby incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

249. Defendants' acts or series of acts constituted a misdemeanor or felony against Plaintiff, as defined in state or federal law which presented a serious risk of physical injury to Plaintiff, whether or not such acts have actually resulted in criminal charges, prosecution or conviction.

250. Accordingly, Defendants committed a crime of violence against Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the section 10-403 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York.

251. Defendants are subject to liability for violations of the constitution of the State of New York and violations New York City Human Rights Law under NYC Admin Code §§ 8-801 – 8-806.

TWENTY-FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Municipal “Monell” Liability Under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Defendant City

254. The above paragraphs are hereby incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

255. Defendant CITY maintained a policy or custom that caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his civil rights, tacitly approved of such violative conduct or was deliberately indifferent toward the potential exposure of individuals, such as Plaintiff, to such violative behavior.

256. Defendant CITY’s employee police officers have engaged in an illegal pattern and practice of misconduct, so consistent and widespread that it constitutes a custom or usage, of which a supervisor or policymaker must have been aware of.

257. Defendant CITY, its policymakers and supervisors failed to provide adequate training or supervision to their subordinates, to such an extent that is tantamount to the City’s deliberate indifference toward the rights of those who may come into contact with Defendant City’s employees.

258. Defendant CITY’s employees engaged in such egregious and flagrant violations of Plaintiff’s Constitutional rights that the need for enhanced training or supervision is obvious and equates to a display of deliberate indifference by Defendant CITY and its policymakers toward the rights of individuals, who may come into contact with Defendant CITY's employees.

259. Defendant CITY's repeated refusal or failure to install or apply corrective or preventive measures constitutes the tacit approval of such violative behavior or a deliberate indifference to the rights of those who may be affected by such behavior.

260. Defendant CITY's conduct caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his civil rights, as guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States vis-à-vis the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth or Fourteenth Amendments thereto.

261. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged

ATTORNEY VERIFICATION

I, Ataur Raquib, an attorney admitted to practice in the courts of New York State, state that I am an associate with the firm of Sim & DePaola, LLP, the attorneys of record for Plaintiff in the within action; I have read the foregoing and know the contents thereof; the same is true to my own knowledge, except as to the matters therein stated to be alleged on information and belief, and as to those matters I believe it to be true. The reason this verification is made by me and not by Plaintiff, because Plaintiff resides outside the county where deponent maintains his office. I affirm that the foregoing statements are true, under the penalties of perjury.
