Plaintiff VANCE BROCKINGTON, by his attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for his

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On May 7, 2021, at approximately 4:45 p.m., Plaintiff Vance Brockington, while lawfully in the vicinity of the southeast corner of Washington Avenue and East 183rd Street, County of Bronx, New York, was subject to an unlawful arrest, detention, and excessive use of force by defendant Police Officers. In addition, Plaintiff was subjected to denial of medical treatment which exacerbated his already painful and dangerous physical condition. Plaintiff was deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802 and his constitutional, common law and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, subjected to excessive force, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Vance Brockington is a resident of the state of New York.

3. New York City Police Officer Edin Bacovic, Shield No. 4993, is and was at all times relevant herein an Officer with the New York City Police Department.

4. New York City Police Officer Edin Bacovic, Shield No. 4993, is being sued in their individual and official capacity.

5. Currently and at all times relevant herein, New York City Police Officer Edin Bacovic, Shield No. 4993, was assigned to the 48th Police Precinct of the NYPD.

6. New York City Police Officers John Does #1-10 are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.

7. Police Officers John Does #1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

8. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

9. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

10. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.

11. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, Plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on March 30, 2022.

12. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

13. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

14. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

15. On May 7, 2021, at approximately 4:45 p.m., Plaintiff was present in the vicinity of the southeast corner of Washington Avenue and East 183rd Street, County of Bronx, New York, when the defendant Police Officers unlawfully arrested Plaintiff without probable cause or legal justification.

16. Plaintiff was sitting on a park bench at the aforementioned location.

17. After sitting for some time, the plaintiff observed approximately eight (8) uniformed police officers approaching him, with their firearms displayed.

18. The defendant officers ordered the plaintiff to stay seated and not to move, with which the plaintiff complied.

19. It was at this point that the defendant officers began to arrest the plaintiff, restraining him with metal handcuffs.

20. Plaintiff pleaded with the officers that he had a recent gunshot wound with stitches in his abdomen, which made him incapable of moving or walking quickly.

21. However, defendant officers ignored Plaintiff and proceeded to intentionally slam him up against the police vehicle.

22. Defendant officers then subjected Plaintiff to unlawful pat-down search.

23. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

24. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

25. Plaintiff did not resist arrest.

26. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by the defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause, placed in the back of an NYPD van, and transported to the 48th Precinct against his will.

27. Upon his arrival at the 48th Precinct, the Plaintiff was unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed and placed in a holding cell.

28. Defendant officers subjected Plaintiff to an unlawful and unnecessary strip search in the precinct bathroom.

29. The plaintiff made several requests to defendant officers for medical attention, as he was on an aggressive course of antibiotics to prevent infection for his gunshot wound; his requests were ignored.

30. Plaintiff remained at the 48th Precinct for approximately 48 hours before being transported to Central Bookings.

31. Again at Central Bookings, the plaintiff made several requests for medical attention and his antibiotics, and again he was ignored.

32. While Plaintiff was in custody, the defendant police officers provided the Bronx County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.

33. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Bronx County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff was engaged in Criminal Possession of a Firearm.

34. After approximately 48 hours in custody at Central Bookings, the plaintiff appeared in criminal court and was charged with crimes he did not commit. His bail was set at $80,000.00, and he was remanded to Rikers Island Correctional Facility.

35. At Rikers, the plaintiff again made requests for medical attention, which were continually denied.

36. Plaintiff was released from custody after approximately 6 days in custody at Rikers.

37. The personal items that were taken from the plaintiff during processing at the precinct, including approximately $1200.00 in cash, his ID, and his cell phone, were never returned to him

38. Upon his release, the plaintiff went directly to St. Barnabas hospital to seek medical attention for his gunshot wound; by this time, after over a week in unlawful custody without medical treatment, he was urinating blood and his wound was severely infected.

39. On or about October 8, 2021, all charges against the plaintiff were dismissed and sealed.

40. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably arresting, confining, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.

41. The unlawful arrest, confinement, and use of excessive force by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

42. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

43. Defendants owed a duty of care to Plaintiff.

44. To the extent defendants claim that the injuries to Plaintiff by the defendant police officers were unintentionally caused and that the force used by the defendants against him was unintentional, then the defendants breached that duty of care by, among other things, tightly handcuffing him, ignoring his pleas for medical attention and leaving him to suffer in custody without medical assistance.

45. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

46. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by Plaintiff.

47. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

48. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

49. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

50. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

51. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

52. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

53. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

54. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

55. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

56. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

57. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

58. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

False Imprisonment

59. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

60. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

61. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

62. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

63. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

64. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Excessive Force

65. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

66. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, roughly handcuffing, grabbing, and slamming Plaintiff into a police vehicle, and subjecting him to unlawful strip search, which constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

67. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

68. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

69. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff.

70. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

71. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

72. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

73. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

74. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

75. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

76. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

77. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION Failure to Intervene

78. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

79. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

80. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

81. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's suffered serious, debilitating and permanent injury, his liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear for his safety, his injuries worsened, he did not receive necessary medical treatment, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

82. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

83. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

84. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

85. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

86. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

87. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

88. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

89. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

90. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

91. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

92. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

93. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

94. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: economic, emotional, and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

95. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

96. The acts and conduct of the Defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the United States Constitution.

97. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.

98. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Deliberate Indifference to Medical Needs

100. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

101. Defendants, despite being aware that Plaintiff was suffering from a pre-existing gunshot wound and required medication and additional treatment from medical professionals, delayed Plaintiff's medical treatment and refused to administer and properly procure immediate and adequate medical attention.

102. The delay in medical treatment to Plaintiff's injuries resulted in extreme and excruciating pain, suffering, and infection, an exacerbation to his injuries that were suffered by Plaintiff that would have been prevented if Plaintiff received treatment in a timely manner.

103. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

104. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

105. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

106. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Individual Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

107. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

108. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom, or usage.

109. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

110. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiff, before detaining plaintiff and further causing his detention for approximately one (1) week.

111. Defendant Officers also used excessive force in arresting plaintiff, including ignoring his weakened state and gunshot wound and slamming him up against a vehicle.

112. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Individual Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

113. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

114. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

115. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

116. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8-802 right against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

117. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of his rights.

118. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

126. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

127. Defendant Officers are "covered individuals" as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolmen.

128. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.

129. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

130. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

131. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiff, used excessive force against the Plaintiff, and unlawfully detained plaintiff and further caused his detention for approximately one (1) week.

132. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

FIFTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

133. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

134. Defendant Officers are "covered individuals," as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolman.

135. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.

136. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

137. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

138. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8 – 802 rights against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

139. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of his rights.

140. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

SIXTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Article I, § 12 of the New York State Constitution

119. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

120. Such conduct breached the protections guaranteed to plaintiff by the New York State Constitution, including but not limited to, Article 1, §§ 1, 6, 8, 9, 11, and 12, and including the following rights:

- i. freedom from unreasonable search and seizure of his person and property;
- ii. freedom from arrest without probable cause;
- iii. freedom from false imprisonment, that being wrongfully detained without good faith, reasonable suspicion, or legal justification, and of which wrongful detention plaintiff was aware and did not consent;
- iv. freedom from the lodging of false charges against him by police officers and prosecutors, including on information and belief, by some or all of the individual defendants; and
- v. freedom from deprivation of liberty without due process of law.

121. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' deprivations of Plaintiff's rights, privileges, and immunities guaranteed by the New York State Constitution, Plaintiff suffered physical, economic and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

122. As a result of the above tortious conduct, Plaintiff was caused to suffer physical, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

123. As a result of the above unconstitutional conduct, the City of New York is liable for the conduct of the Individual Defendants and any damages they caused under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

JURY DEMAND

124. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff VANCE BROCKINGTON demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law, and that the Plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988 and 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 801 et seq..
