Plaintiff AHMED ASKEW, by his attorneys LOVELACE LAW, PLLC, by KAWAN A. LOVELACE, ESQ., principal, complaining of the Defendant, respectfully shows to this Court and alleges the following upon information and belief:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of Defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law, and the laws of the State of New York. On October 27, 2022, at approximately 2:35 p.m., Plaintiff Ahmed Askew, while lawfully inside of 450 Cross Bronx Expressway, County of the Bronx, State of New York, was subject to an unlawful arrest, and detention by Defendant Police Officers. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional, common law, and statutory rights when the individual Defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law, and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. At all times hereinafter mentioned, Plaintiff AHMED ASKEW was a resident of Bronx County in the City and State of New York.

3. Defendant City of New York ("CITY") is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The Defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
4. At all times hereinafter mentioned, THE NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT ("POLICE"), was and is an agency of Defendant CITY.
5. At all times hereinafter mentioned, Defendant POLICE OFFICER CHRISTOPHER MALZAHN ("P.O. MALZAHN"), Shield No. 18645, was and is, a police officer employed by Defendants.
6. At all times hereinafter mentioned, Defendant POLICE OFFICER ARIEL MALLOL ("P.O. MALLOL"), Shield No. 4008, was and is, a police officer employed by Defendants.
7. At all times hereinafter mentioned, Defendant POLICE OFFICER ASHLEY DELIA ("P.O. DELIA"), Shield No. 15411, was and is, a police officer employed by Defendants.
8. At all times hereinafter mentioned, Defendant SERGEANT BRYAN ORTIZ ("SGT. ORTIZ"), Shield No. 34582, was and is, a police officer employed by Defendants.
9. At all times relevant herein, the individual Defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents, and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

10. On October 27, 2022, at approximately 2:35 p.m., Plaintiff was inside the 48th Precinct located at 450 Cross Bronx Expressway, County of the Bronx, State of New York, when the Defendant Police Officers, including P.O. MALZAHN, unlawfully detained and arrested Plaintiff without legal justification, and falsely accused Plaintiff of having committed the crime of Assault in the Second Degree, and other related offenses.

11. Subsequent to Plaintiff calling 911 numerous times for POLICE to respond to his home to report a case of harassment, and after waiting for hours without the POLICE ever showing up, Plaintiff went to the 48th Precinct to make his complaint in person.
12. Upon arriving at the 48th Precinct, Plaintiff waited in the public waiting area until he was called to the desk by a Defendant Police Officer.
13. As Plaintiff explained the facts of his issue to make a complaint, the Defendant Police Officer instructed Plaintiff that he will have to return to his home and wait for POLICE to respond in order to make his complaint.
14. When Plaintiff asked the Defendant Officer why he could not make the complaint at the Precinct in person, the officer told Plaintiff that he had to leave the Precinct.
15. Plaintiff asked the police officer if he could speak to a supervisor.
16. Then, as multiple police officers approached Plaintiff, Plaintiff backed into a corner and put his hands up in the air.
17. At no time did Plaintiff commit an infraction, or crime, or give the Defendants any reason to approach him.
18. Defendant Officers grabbed Plaintiff's wrists, arms, and waist, and slammed Plaintiff to the floor of the lobby.
19. Defendant Officers handcuffed Plaintiff and placed him under arrest.
20. Defendant Officers then threatened to use an electronic taser device on Plaintiff.
21. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the Police Officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.
22. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff.
23. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by Defendant Officers without legal justification or probable cause, unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed and searched, and unlawfully detained.
24. Plaintiff was then transported from the 48th Precinct to Central Booking.
25. While Plaintiff was in custody, the Defendant Police Officers provided the Bronx County District Attorney's Office with false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.

26. Specifically, the Defendant Police Officers falsely stated to the Bronx County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff assaulted a police officer, trespassed, resisted arrest, and obstructed governmental administration.
27. Plaintiff appeared before a judge for arraignment and was released on October 28, 2022.
28. Plaintiff was unlawfully detained for approximately twenty-eight (28) hours.
29. On May 8, 2023, Plaintiff's criminal case was ordered to be dismissed and sealed by motion of the District Attorney.
30. Some of the police officer Defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably assaulting, battering, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.
31. The unlawful assault, battery, and use of excessive force by the individually named Defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological, and emotional trauma.

PROCEDURAL POSTURE

32. On February 27, 2023, Plaintiff served a Notice of Claim in writing sworn to on Plaintiff's behalf upon the Defendant CITY, by delivering a copy thereof to the officer designated to receive such process personally, which Notice of Claim advised the Defendant CITY of the nature, place, time, and manner in which the claim arose, and the items of damage and injuries sustained so far as was then determinable.
33. On March 2, 2023, Plaintiff filed an Order to Show Cause and Request for Judicial Intervention in Bronx County Supreme Court, Hon. Mitchell J. Danziger, under Index No. 803455/2023E, requesting permission to file a late notice of claim to include the causes of action: False Arrest and Excessive Force.
34. On March 17, 2023, the Defendant City stipulated to Plaintiff's request to file said late notice of claim, and on March 23, 2023, the Court executed and filed said So-Ordered Stipulation to file a late notice of claim.
35. More than thirty days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim, prior to the commencement of this action, and defendant CITY has failed to pay or adjust this claim.
36. This action has been commenced within one year and ninety days after the cause of action of Plaintiff accrued.

37. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, Plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on April 20, 2023.
38. The Plaintiff has duly complied with all conditions precedent to the commencement of this action.
39. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.
40. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

41. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
42. Defendants owed a duty of care to Plaintiff.
43. Defendant officers breached that duty of care by deliberately restraining and injuring Plaintiff.
44. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, Defendant officers deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
45. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by Plaintiff.
46. Defendant officers were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
47. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
48. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

49. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
50. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by Defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.
51. The conduct of Defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.
52. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, Defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
53. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
54. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:
Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

55. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
56. The individually named police officer Defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.
57. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTIONFalse Imprisonment

58. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
59. The acts and conduct of the Defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.
60. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, Defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.
61. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
62. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
63. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTIONNegligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

64. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
65. By the actions described herein, Defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the Defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
66. The acts and conduct of the Defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

67. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, Defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
68. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
69. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
70. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

71. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
72. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise Defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.
73. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

74. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
75. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose Constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.
76. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.
77. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, his property was damaged, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

78. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, Defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
79. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
80. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
81. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

82. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
83. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.
84. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.
85. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.
86. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.
87. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his Constitutional rights.
88. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

89. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
90. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to economic, emotional, and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

91. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
92. The acts and conduct of the Defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the United States Constitution.
93. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.
94. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceedings against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.
95. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned date.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Excessive Force

96. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
97. The use of excessive force by Defendants by, amongst other things, yanking Plaintiff by the arms and torso, throwing Plaintiff to the ground, placing handcuffs upon Plaintiff's wrists in an excessively and abusively tight manner, threatening the use of an electronic taser device despite the fact that Plaintiff was not resisting arrest and was already handcuffed, and suffer other injuries, constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.
98. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONAssault

99. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
100. Defendants, their agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously assaulted Plaintiff in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the Plaintiff, including threatening to use an electronic taser device on Plaintiff, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the Plaintiff.
101. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, Defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
102. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
103. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
104. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTIONBattery

105. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
106. Defendants, their agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully, and maliciously battered Plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner grabbed Plaintiff by his arms and waist while pushing Plaintiff from behind causing Plaintiff to slam down onto the floor, handcuffing Plaintiff in an excessively tight manner causing bruising, pain, and damage to Plaintiff's wrists, thereby brutally effecting an arrest of Plaintiff without his consent and with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the Plaintiff, and caused such battery.
107. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, Defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

108. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
109. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
110. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Article I, § 12 of the New York State Constitution

111. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and, re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.
112. Such conduct breached the protections guaranteed to plaintiff by the New York State Constitution, including but not limited to, Article 1, §§ 1, 6, 8, 9, 11, and 12, and including the following rights:
- i. freedom from unreasonable search and seizure of her person and property;
 - ii. freedom from arrest without probable cause;
 - iii. freedom from false imprisonment, that being wrongfully detained without good faith, reasonable suspicion, or legal justification, and of which wrongful detention Plaintiff was aware and did not consent;
 - iv. freedom from the lodging of false charges against him by police officers and prosecutors, including on information and belief, by some or all of the individual Defendants; and
 - v. freedom from deprivation of liberty without due process of law.
113. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' deprivations of Plaintiff's rights, privileges, and immunities guaranteed by the New York State Constitution, Plaintiff suffered physical, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.
114. As a result of the above tortious conduct, Plaintiff was caused to suffer physical, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.
115. As a result of the above unconstitutional conduct, the City of New York is liable for the conduct of the Individual Defendants and any damages they caused under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
116. As a result of the above unconstitutional conduct, the City of New York is liable for the conduct of the Individual Defendants and any damages they caused under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

JURY DEMAND

117. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Ahmed Askew demands judgment against the Defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law, and that the Plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
