Plaintiff MARKEL RILEY, by his attorneys LOVELACE LAW, PLLC, by KAWAN A. LOVELACE, ESQ., principal, complaining of the Defendant, respectfully shows to this Court and alleges the following upon information and belief:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action, in which Plaintiff seeks relief, vis-a-vis 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988, the laws of the State of New York, in addition to the self- executing clauses or implied private causes of action within the constitution of the State of New York, for the violations of their civil rights and the deprivations to his liberties, as enumerated and promulgated by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, as well as the laws and constitution of the State of New York.

2. This action arose from a Malicious Prosecution claim that began accruing on May 23, 2023, when false criminal charges against Plaintiff were finally dismissed by the Bronx County District Attorney's Office. Plaintiff was arrested on or about December 4, 2020, when Defendants, acting under color of state law, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, assaulted, battered, arrested, and detained Plaintiff without a valid judicially authorized arrest warrant, reasonable suspicion, probable cause, or any other legal justification to do so.

3. Defendant City, POLICE OFFICER SCOTT SMITH shield# 10427 (“P.O. SMITH”), and POLICE OFFICER KIERAN BRENNAN shield# 30990 (“P.O. BRENNAN”) then provided false information to the District Attorney’s Office and a Bronx Grand Jury causing a criminal prosecution to commence against Plaintiff.

4. The above referenced acts caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his liberty in violation of his rights to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures and to be afforded Equal Protection under the law.

5. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against Defendants, an award of costs and attorney's fees, with all interest then accrued, together with such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

JURISDICTION

6. This action arises under the First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, under 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988 and pursuant to the Laws and constitution of the State of New York.

7. The jurisdiction of this Court is predicated upon 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331, 1343(a)(3) and (4), 1367(a) and the doctrine of supplemental jurisdiction.

VENUE

8. Venue is laid within the Supreme Court State of New York, County of Bronx in that Defendant City of New York is located within and a substantial part of the events giving rise to the claims occurred within the boundaries of the Supreme Court.

15. At all relevant times herein, Defendants, P.O. SMITH and P.O. BRENNAN, were acting as agents, servants and employees of the City of New York, or the NYPD, and

FACTUAL CHARGES

17. On, or about, December 4, 2020, at approximately 12:30 a.m., Plaintiff, Mr. Riley, exited his grandmother's residence and sat down in the driver's seat of his vehicle, which was parked in front of 1365 Ogden Avenue, County of Bronx, State of New York, when upon starting the ignition of said vehicle, Defendants, including P.O. SMITH and P.O. BRENNAN, Individually and officially in their capacities as police officers, unlawfully approached and illegally seized, assaulted, detained, searched, and arrested Plaintiff.

18. Plaintiff had not committed any crimes or violations of law, nor had there been any indication of such, and nor had Plaintiff been accused of such by any identified civilian witnesses.

19. On said date and time, Defendants aggressively approached, assaulted, questioned, and illegally detained Mr. Riley.

20. Defendants, including P.O. SMITH and P.O. BRENNAN, Individually and officially in their capacities as police officers, then aggressively pulled Mr. Riley out of his vehicle and onto the ground, punched and kicked Mr. Riley about his head and body, and caused Mr. Riley to suffer numerous injuries as well as experience severe humiliation, degradation, and the loss of his dignity at the shock of the sudden unprovoked infliction of violence upon Mr. Riley by Defendants while in front of his grandmother's residence.

21. Defendants, including P.O. SMITH and P.O. BRENNAN, Individually and officially in their capacities as police officers, then accused Mr. Riley of numerous criminal offenses without any probable cause.

22. Due to the lack of probable cause, the aforementioned conduct by Defendants, including P.O. SMITH and P.O. BRENNAN, Individually and officially in their capacities as police officers, constitute the completed torts of Assault, Battery, Excessive Force, and Malicious Prosecution.

23. Defendants, including P.O. SMITH and P.O. BRENNAN, Individually and officially in their capacities as police officers, never observed Plaintiff committing any crime or violation of the law, or any act that could reasonably be suspected as such.

24. Plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted on said charges until all charges were dismissed.

25. Defendants, including P.O. SMITH and P.O. BRENNAN, Individually and officially in their capacities as police officers, had no probable cause or reasonable suspicion to justify their seizure, assault/battery, search, questioning, detention, or arrest of Plaintiff, as Defendants did not possess any credible evidence that would lead a reasonable officer to believe that Plaintiff had committed any crime or violation of the law.

26. Defendants, including P.O. SMITH and P.O. BRENNAN, Individually and officially in their capacities as police officers, engaged in a gross deviation from acceptable police conduct and other conduct undertaken in bad faith.

27. Plaintiff asserts that Defendants, including P.O. SMITH and P.O. BRENNAN, Individually and officially in their capacities as police officers, falsely arrested Mr. Riley and wrongfully detained Plaintiff altogether with the full knowledge that the Plaintiff had not actually committed any crimes or violations of the law.

28. Subsequent to taking Mr. Riley to the hospital to get treatment for his injuries,

Defendants, including P.O. SMITH and P.O. BRENNAN, Individually and officially in their capacities as police officers, then passed along false information to the Bronx District Attorney's Office causing Plaintiff to be arraigned in Criminal Court where, subsequent to bail being set, Plaintiff was taken to Riker's Island where he remained for approximately fourteen (14) days during the COVID-19 pandemic.

29. As a result, Plaintiff was caused to be unlawfully, involuntarily, and continuously detained by Defendants, including P.O. SMITH and P.O. BRENNAN, Individually and officially in their capacities as police officers, until his release from physical custody subsequent to Mr. Riley's family having to post bail for him.

30. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including P.O. SMITH and P.O. BRENNAN, Individually and officially in their capacities as police officers, were involved in the decision to seize, search, detain, and arrest Plaintiff without reasonable suspicion or probable cause, or failed to intervene when they observed others doing do in the absence of any reasonable suspicion or probable cause.

31. At all times relevant hereto, Defendants, including P.O. SMITH and P.O. BRENNAN, Individually and officially in their capacities as police officers, subjected Plaintiff to excessive force, or failed to intervene when they observed others subjecting Plaintiff to excessive force.

32. Defendants, including P.O. SMITH and P.O. BRENNAN, Individually and officially in their capacities as police officers, engaged in a conspiracy to falsely arrest Mr. Riley by personally conferring with each other regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned non-existent evidence, the suppression of exculpatory evidence, as well as the manner and means by which said fabrications could be used to deprive Plaintiff of his liberty and violate his civil rights.

33. Plaintiff assert that Defendants, including P.O. SMITH and P.O. BRENNAN, Individually and officially in their capacities as police officers, illegally approached, seized, assaulted/battered, searched, and then falsely arrested him, due to their discriminatory prejudices against African Americans, their intent to use the instant arrest as leverage against Plaintiff so that he would provide Defendants with information regarding other crimes or criminal suspects, their desires to fulfill an unconstitutional arrest quota, and to benefit from increased overtime compensation.

34. Defendants, including P.O. SMITH and P.O. BRENNAN, Individually and officially in their capacities as police officers, arrested Plaintiff, because of their racially discriminatory beliefs, which compelled Defendants to equate to Plaintiff's ethnic or national origin to criminal guilt or criminal knowledge.

35. Defendants, including P.O. SMITH and P.O. BRENNAN, Individually and officially in their capacities as police officers, perpetrated multiple overt acts in furtherance of their obviously discriminatory inclinations, namely the complained-of stop, searches, assaults, batteries, seizure, arrest, and detention of Plaintiff, even after they were unable to discover any evidence to justify such conduct.

36. Defendants, including P.O. SMITH and P.O. BRENNAN, Individually and officially in their capacities as police officers, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, seized, arrested, assaulted and battered Plaintiff, due to Defendants' perception or consideration of Plaintiff's ethnicity or national origin.

37. Defendants, including P.O. SMITH and P.O. BRENNAN, Individually and officially in their capacities as police officers, possessed no valid reason to stop, question, search, or arrest Plaintiff, which gives rise to the strong inference that such conduct resulted from Defendants' unjust motivations or proclivities.

38. Defendants, including P.O. SMITH and P.O. BRENNAN, Individually and officially in their capacities as police officers, subjected Plaintiff to disparate treatment compared to other individuals similarly situated, because defendants did not stop, seize, search, detain, arrest, or accuse any white individuals who had engaged in activity identical to the kind that resulted in Plaintiff's illegal search and seizure, namely being lawfully present and sleeping in their home.

39. Plaintiff assert that the Defendants, including P.O. SMITH and P.O. BRENNAN, Individually and officially in their capacities as police officers, who violated Plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City, NYPD, have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers.

40. The individually named Defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently, and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD and the City of New York, in addition to their respective policymakers and supervisors.

41. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved, or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in Plaintiffs' arrests without probable cause.

42. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

43. Defendants' actions, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of his civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with Defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

44. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of Defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

45. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer Defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of Defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named Defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

46. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and NYPD were fully aware of Defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Defendants P.O. SMITH and P.O. BRENNAN.

47. Upon information and belief, the individually named Defendants have combined to be named as Defendants in numerous lawsuits that have accused them of committing violations similar or identical to those alleged herein, all of which have resulted no disciplinary or corrective action of any kind.

48. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named Defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct.

49. The aforementioned acts of Defendants, including P.O. SMITH and P.O.

BRENNAN, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of Plaintiffs' civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

50. As a direct or proximate result of said acts, Plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of their liberty, irreparable reputational harm, loss of earnings and potential earnings, physical injury, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience and anxiety.
