POLICE COMMISSIONER'S PENALTY DEPARTURE

Re: CCRB Case No. 202404237 (Incident Date: April 30, 2024) regarding Police Officer Christopher Satriano, Tax No. 972946 (PODS Case No. C-035205)

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed the recommendation of the Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) regarding the disciplinary matter involving Police Officer Christopher Satriano and has determined that his actions do not warrant disciplinary action.

In this case, Respondent was approached by an individual who was in the waiting area of the 7th precinct. The individual asked him for a business card. Police Officer Satriano's cards were in his patrol vehicle, located outside the precinct. The individual followed Police Officer Satriano outside to the patrol vehicle, while continuing to argue about their earlier interaction. Once Police Officer Satriano presented the individual with the business card, the individual continued standing in the street, which prompted Police Officer Satriano to warn him to leave the street and stand on the sidewalk.

Considering that Police Officer Satriano had issued an earlier warning to the individual to not stand in the street, he would have been justified in issuing a summons for a violation of Vehicle and Traffic Law Section 1156 (Pedestrians in Roadways). Police Officer Satriano specifically told the individual that he was giving him a warning because he did not want to issue the individual a summons. I disagree with CCRB that this statement was a threat. Instead, it was more likely that the statement was made in order to gain compliance. It should also be noted that while Police Officer Satriano maintained a professional demeanor throughout his interaction with the individual, the individual's clear intention once he received the business card was to continue to engage the officer with taunts and insults, as demonstrated in the moments prior to the end of the interaction.

COURTESY • PROFESSIONALISM • RESPECT

Therefore, based on the foregoing, Police Officer Satriano will receive no disciplinary action for the sole allegation.

Sincerely,
