Plaintiffs, LATISHA MALDONADO, and JOHN GUERRA, Individually and as Parent and Natural Guardian of Minor, E.G., by their attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for their Verified Complaint herein, allege upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiffs' rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On April 24, 2023, at approximately 11:10 p.m., Plaintiffs, while lawfully at or around 185 Woodruff Avenue, County of Kings, New York, were subject to unlawful detentions and arrests by the defendant officers. Plaintiffs would appear in Kings County Criminal Court where they were charged with crimes they did not commit. Worse, Plaintiffs, in the course of their arrests, were subjected to assaults, batteries, excessive force, caused physical injuries, and denied their liberty for approximately twenty-seven (27) hours in total at the NYPD 70th Precinct and Kings County Central Booking. All charges made against Plaintiffs were dismissed and sealed in their entirety on or about July 26, 2023 (Maldonado) and August 1, 2023 (Guerra). Plaintiffs were deprived of their rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802 and their constitutional, common law, and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, assaulted, battered, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiffs, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff, Latisha Maldonado (hereafter “Ms. Maldonado”), is a resident of the State of New York.

3. Plaintiff, John Guerra (hereafter “Mr. Guerra”), individually and as Parent and Natural Guardian of Minor, E.G., is a resident of the State of New York.

4. New York City Police Officer Tony Xie, Shield No. 14466, is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

5. New York City Police Officer Tony Xie, Shield No. 14466, is being sued in his individual and official capacities.

6. Upon information and belief, New York City Police Officer Tony Xie, Shield No. 14466, was at all times relevant herein assigned to the NYPD 70th Precinct.

7. New York City Police Officers John and Jane Does Numbers One Through Ten are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.

8. Police Officers John and Jane Does Numbers One Through Ten are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

9. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

10. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

11. Plaintiffs in furtherance of their causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.

12. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

13. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

14. Plaintiffs have sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

15. On April 24, 2023, at approximately 11:10 p.m., Plaintiffs were lawfully present in the vicinity of 185 Woodruff Avenue, County of Kings, New York, when the defendant officers unlawfully arrested Plaintiffs without probable cause or legal justification.

16. At the referenced place and time, Ms. Maldonado was outside near the men's shelter near her home.

17. Ms. Maldonado provided small toys for the children of the single fathers who resided within the shelter, among them, Mr. Guerra and his infant child, E.G.

18. Ms. Maldonado played low children's music on a portable speaker as the fathers entertained their children on the street where they lived.

19. Defendant officers approached Plaintiffs and instructed them to turn the music off, which Ms. Maldonado did without question.

20. A short time thereafter, defendant officers returned to the scene and confiscated the speaker, despite Ms. Maldonado's earlier compliance, before violently attacking Plaintiffs.

21. The defendant officers engaged in their needless and violent streak completely disregarding the fact that Mr. Guerra was holding his infant son, Minor, E.G.

22. Bystanders and onlookers filmed the incident and shouted for the defendant officers to stop the violence.

23. These pleas from members of the public were ignored.

24. Ms. Maldonado was pushed and pulled to the ground by various male officers.

25. Mr. Guerra, while holding the infant, E.G. was pushed backward into the metal grate of the storefront, causing him to strike his back and head on the metal and causing E.G. to strike his head against the metal.

26. Plaintiffs felt alarm, annoyance, and physical pain as a result of the defendant officers' unjustified actions.

27. Plaintiffs were caused injuries including abrasions, lacerations, and bruises about the face and body.

28. It was at this point that the defendant officers began to arrest the Plaintiffs, subjecting them to unlawful pat-down search and tightly restraining them with metal handcuffs.

29. During the course of their arrests, Plaintiffs were significantly injured as a result of the excessive and violent force of defendant officers.

30. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiffs commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective basis to accuse Plaintiffs of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

31. At no point did the defendant officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiffs or from a location that was in Plaintiffs' possession, custody, or control.

32. Plaintiffs did not resist arrest at any point herein.

33. Nevertheless, Plaintiffs were unlawfully arrested, handcuffed, and subjected to unlawful pat-down searches by the defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause.

34. E.G. was forcibly taken from Mr. Guerra, screaming throughout the process.

35. E.G. was forced to observe his father's arrest and the physicality associated therewith.

36. Mr. Guerra was forced to observe E.G.'s agony as E.G. was torn from Mr. Guerra's arms to be held by a stranger.

37. Thereafter, Plaintiffs were placed in the back of NYPD vehicles and transported to the NYPD 70th Precinct.

38. Upon their arrival at the 70th Precinct, Plaintiffs were unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed, and placed in a holding cell.

39. From the 70th Precinct, Ms. Maldonado was transported to a nearby emergency room to be treated for her injuries.

40. After being treated, Ms. Maldonado was released back into police custody and transported back to the 70th Precinct.

41. While at the 70th Precinct, Mr. Guerra suffered a seizure triggered by the stress and anxiety of this needless incident.

42. Mr. Guerra was transported to Maimonides Hospital, where he was treated for various lacerations and abrasions about his face and body, as well as examined for the seizure he had suffered while in custody.

43. Thereafter, Mr. Guerra was transported back to the precinct.

44. The following day, Plaintiffs were transported to Kings County Central Booking, where they were again fingerprinted, photographed, and placed in holding cells.

45. While Plaintiffs were in custody, the defendant police officers provided the Kings County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading, and/or incomplete information that Plaintiffs had committed crimes.

46. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Kings County District Attorney's Office that Ms. Maldonado was engaged in Obstructing Governmental Administration, Disorderly Conduct, and Criminal Mischief, and that Mr. Guerra was engaged in Obstructing Governmental Administration, Child Endangerment, and Disorderly Conduct.

47. On April 25, 2023, Plaintiffs were arraigned in criminal court, charged with crimes they did not commit, and thereafter released on their own recognizances, despite the defendant officers' false representations.

48. Upon his release, Mr. Guerra would desperately contact the precinct and individual witnesses searching for E.G. and to learn what the police had done with his son.

49. Mr. Guerra would learn that E.G. was held at the precinct and would not be released to Mr. Guerra's closest relative, his cousin, but instead, the child's mother in Texas was contacted and elected to return.

50. The child's mother, upon information and belief, rejected the child at birth, and relinquished custody to Mr. Guerra, E.G.'s natural father.

51. Mr. Guerra alone cared for the child up to the point of his arrest.

52. This arrest was the first time Mr. Guerra was separated from E.G. and has resulted in an ongoing interstate custody dispute.

53. As a result of the specific charges brought against Mr. Guerra, custody of E.G. was awarded to the child's mother by a magistrate in Texas, who had presented the charges against Mr. Guerra.

54. Due to Mr. Guerra's ongoing legal battle in New York as a result of this baseless arrest, he was unable to return to Texas for the family court proceedings.

55. On or about July 26, 2023, all charges against Ms. Maldonado were dismissed and sealed in their entirety.

56. On or about August 1, 2023, all charges against Mr. Guerra were dismissed and sealed in their entirety.

57. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiffs' rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably arresting, confining, and using excessive force against Plaintiffs.

58. The unlawful arrest, confinement, and use of excessive force by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiffs to sustain mental and emotional trauma.

59. To date, as a direct result of the defendant officers' actions and false representations, Mr. Guerra has not seen E.G., resulting in extreme detriment to his physical and psychological health.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

60. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

61. Defendants owed a duty of care to Plaintiffs.

62. To the extent defendants claim that the injuries to Plaintiffs by the defendant police officers were unintentionally caused and that the force used by the defendants against them was unintentional, then the defendants breached that duty of care by, among other things, seizing and tightly handcuffing them and endangering Mr. Guerra's infant son, Minor, E.G.

63. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

64. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by Plaintiffs.

65. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

66. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

67. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

68. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

69. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiffs' freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

70. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiffs was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

71. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

72. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

73. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

74. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

75. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiffs to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiffs' right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

76. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
False Arrest/False Imprisonment

77. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

78. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiffs and, in fact, confined Plaintiffs, and Plaintiffs were conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiffs did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

79. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

80. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

81. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

82. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of Plaintiffs' Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:
Excessive Force

83. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

84. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, violently attacking them by pushing, pulling, hitting and dragging, and endangering Mr. Guerra's infant son, Minor, E.G., constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiffs in violation of their rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

85. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

86. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

87. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiffs.

88. The defendant officers caused E.G. to be torn from Mr. Guerra's arms as the each had to watch the agony and suffering of the other without recourse.

89. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiffs and violated Plaintiffs' statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiffs by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

90. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

91. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

92. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

93. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

94. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

95. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train, and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

96. Upon information and belief, the officers involved had known histories of civilian complaints and/or departmental discipline.

97. Nevertheless, the defendant officers were permitted to continue public-facing duties and enabled to engage in the conduct described herein.

98. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

99. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

100. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiffs, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiffs' Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiffs, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

101. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

102. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiffs suffered permanent injury, their liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, they were put in fear for their safety, and they were humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

103. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

104. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

105. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

106. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:

Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

107. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

108. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

109. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

110. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

111. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiffs, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiffs' constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

112. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiffs sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of their constitutional rights.

113. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

114. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

115. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries including, but not limited to: economic, emotional, and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
42 U.S.C § 1983 and New York State Law
Malicious Prosecution

116. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

117. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York.

118. Defendants commenced and continued criminal proceedings against Plaintiffs.

119. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceedings against Plaintiffs and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.

120. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiffs' favor on the aforementioned dates.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Assault

121. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

122. Defendants, their agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully, and maliciously assaulted Plaintiffs in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the Plaintiffs, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the Plaintiffs.

123. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

124. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

125. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

126. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Battery

127. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

128. Defendants, their agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully, and maliciously battered Plaintiffs when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner, violently attacked them causing physical injury and endangering Mr. Guerra's infant son, Minor, E.G., brutally effecting an arrest of Plaintiffs without their consent and with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the Plaintiffs and caused such battery.

129. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

130. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

131. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

132. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Individual Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiffs' AC 8-802 Rights

133. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

134. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom, or usage.

135. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiffs to be deprived of their rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in their person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

136. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiffs, before detaining plaintiffs and further causing their detention for approximately twenty-seven (27) hours in total.

137. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiffs have endured mental and emotional injuries and were otherwise damaged and injured.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Individual Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiffs' AC 8-802 Rights

138. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

139. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom, or usage.

140. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiffs from violations of their rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in their person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

141. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiffs, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiffs' AC 8-802 right against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiffs, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

142. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiffs from violation of their rights.

143. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiffs have endured mental and emotional injuries and were otherwise damaged and injured.

FIFTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiffs' AC 8-802 Rights

126. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

127. Defendant Officers are "covered individuals," as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolman.

128. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiffs for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.

129. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

130. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiffs to be deprived of their rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in their person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

131. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiffs, before detaining plaintiffs and further causing their detention for approximately twenty-seven (27) hours in total.

132. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiffs have endured mental and emotional injuries and were otherwise damaged and injured.

SIXTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONCity-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiffs' AC 8-802 Rights

133. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

134. Defendant Officers are "covered individuals," as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolman.

135. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiffs for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.

136. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

137. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiffs from violations of their rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in their person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

138. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiffs but were present when other officers violated Plaintiffs' AC 8 – 802 rights against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiffs, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

139. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiffs from violation of their rights.

140. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiffs have endured mental and emotional injuries and were otherwise damaged and injured.

SEVENTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONViolation of Article I, § 12 of the New York State Constitution

144. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

145. Such conduct breached the protections guaranteed to plaintiffs by the New York State Constitution, including but not limited to, Article 1, §§ 1, 6, 8, 9, 11, and 12, and including the following rights:

- i. freedom from unreasonable search and seizure of their person and property;
- ii. freedom from arrest without probable cause;
- iii. freedom from false imprisonment, that being wrongfully detained without good faith, reasonable suspicion, or legal justification, and of which wrongful detention plaintiffs were aware and did not consent;
- iv. freedom from the lodging of false charges against them by police officers and prosecutors, including on information and belief, by some or all of the individual defendants; and
- v. freedom from deprivation of liberty without due process of law.

146. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' deprivations of Plaintiffs' rights, privileges, and immunities guaranteed by the New York State Constitution, Plaintiffs suffered mental, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

147. As a result of the above tortious conduct, Plaintiffs were caused to suffer mental, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

148. As a result of the above unconstitutional conduct, the City of New York is liable for the conduct of the Individual Defendants and any damages they caused under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

JURY DEMAND

141. Plaintiffs hereby demand trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs LATISHA MALDONADO, and JOHN GUERRA, Individually and as Parent and Natural Guardian of Minor, E.G., demand judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law, and that the Plaintiffs recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988 and 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 801 et seq..

ATTORNEY'S VERIFICATION

OMAR RUSSO, an attorney duly admitted to practice before the Courts of the State of New York, affirms the following to be true under the penalties of perjury:

I am a partner of the law firm of SHULMAN-HILL PLLC, I have read the annexed VERIFIED COMPLAINT and know the contents thereof, and the same are true to my knowledge, except those matters therein which are stated to be alleged upon information and belief, and as to those matters I believe them to be true. My belief, as to those matters therein not stated upon knowledge, is based upon facts, records, and other pertinent information contained in my files. The reason this verification is made by me and not Plaintiffs is because Plaintiffs do not reside in the county wherein I maintain my office.
