

CCRB INVESTIGATIVE RECOMMENDATION

Investigator: Clifford Tucker	Team: Team # 6	CCRB Case #: 200809524	☒ Force	☒ Discourt.	☐ U.S.
			☐ Abuse	☒ O.L.	☐ Injury
Incident Date(s) Friday, 06/13/2008 4:00 PM	Location of Incident: 369 East Fordham Road	Precinct: 52	18 Mo. SOL 12/13/2009	EO SOL 12/13/2009
Date/Time CV Reported Thu, 07/03/2008 1:11 PM	CV Reported At: CCRB	How CV Reported: On-line website	Date/Time Received at CCRB Thu, 07/03/2008 1:11 PM

Complainant/Victim	Type	Home Address

Witness(es)	Home Address

Subject Officer(s)	Shield	TaxID	Command
1. POM Mannix Teng	28619	939566	052 PCT
2. POF Filastin Abedrabbo	23392	933550	052 PCT

Officer(s)	Allegation	Investigator Recommendation
A.POM Mannix Teng	Force: PO Mannix Teng used physical force against § 87(2)(b)
B.POF Filastin Abedrabbo	Force: PO Filastin Abedrabbo used physical force against § 87(2)(b)
C.POF Filastin Abedrabbo	Discourtesy: PO Filastin Abedrabbo spoke obscenely to § 87(2)(b)
D.POF Filastin Abedrabbo	Off. Language: PO Filastin Abedrabbo made remarks to § 87(2)(b) based upon the sex of § 87(2)(b)

Synopsis

§ 87(2)(b) filed the following complaint with the CCRB on July 3, 2008 via the On-line website (Encl. 4A-D).

On June 13, 2008 at approximately 4:00pm in the vicinity of 369 East Fordham Road in the Bronx, § 87(2)(b) was involved in a heated verbal dispute with an unidentified Hispanic female. PO Mannix Teng and PO Filastin Abedrabbo of the 52nd Precinct arrived in an RMP and exited their car as § 87(2)(b) and the other female parted. Both officers approached § 87(2)(b) and PO Abedrabbo allegedly asked for § 87(2)(b) identification. § 87(2)(b) allegedly punched PO Abedrabbo in her face at which point both officers grabbed § 87(2)(b) arms and backed her against a storefront. Then both officers put § 87(2)(b) on the ground (Allegations A and B). Both officers handcuffed § 87(2)(b) who was struggling at the time, then helped her to her feet. PO Abedrabbo allegedly called § 87(2)(b) a, “fucking animal” and “fucking bitch” (Allegations C and D). Then PO Abedrabbo escorted § 87(2)(b) to the RMP. § 87(2)(b) allegedly struggled at this point and PO Abedrabbo pushed § 87(2)(b) into the RMP such that § 87(2)(b) allegedly fell on her stomach on the floor of the RMP (Subsumed in allegation B). PO Abedrabbo also said “Get in there bitch” (subsumed in allegation D). As the officers were driving § 87(2)(b) to the precinct, PO Abedrabbo allegedly said, “Don’t even talk to that bitch. She’s an animal. I can’t believe she tried to hit me in my face,” (subsumed in allegations C and D).

§ 87(2)(g)

The case was originally assigned to Investigator David Ferris. Following Investigator Ferris’ resignation, the case was assigned to Investigator Clifford Tucker on December 10, 2008 (Encl. 30A-I).

Summary of Complaint

§ 87(2)(b) made several statements regarding this incident which included statements to medical personnel on § 87(2)(b) a sworn statement at the CCRB on July 24, 2008 (Encl. 7A-D), a statement in a Notice of Claim she filed against the City on August 11, 2008 and additional phone statements to the CCRB on March 5, 2009 and April 3, 2009 (Encl. 8A-B).

According to the ACR filed on § 87(2)(b) for § 87(2)(b) she told EMS personnel that police slammed her against a car and on the ground on her abdomen. She complained of abdominal pressure and had an abrasion on her shoulder, left side of her forehead, but was not bleeding (Encl. 18A-B). On the same day, § 87(2)(b) told Medical personnel from § 87(2)(b) that she was under NYPD custody when she was pushed to a wall by the NYPD officers arresting her then thrown into a car and was struck in the stomach while in the car (Encl. 19A-E, 20A-E).

On § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b) was treated at § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx. § 87(2)(b) wrote on the Emergency Department Record at § 87(2)(b), “I was assaulted by the police § 87(2)(b) I have abdominal pressure.” The objective assessment shows she had an abrasion on her left elbow and left side of her face. The nursing observations are as follows for § 87(2)(b) “I was pushed down on the floor on my stomach. I was pressed on my back” (Encl. 22A-J).

It is documented by medical personnel at § 87(2)(b) that § 87(2)(b) stated the following on June § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) chief complaint was that she was, “beat up by the cops.” Medical Personnel showed in their report that § 87(2)(b) stated she was pushed against a wall by NYPD officers while she was being arrested, then she was thrown into a car. She stated to medical personnel in her medical complaint history that she recalls being struck in her stomach by an officer while in the police car, but did not make this allegation in her testimony to the CCRB (Encl. 22A-J).

CCRB Statements

§ 87(2)(b) is a black, female, 5'4", 130lbs, with long black and braided hair, with black eyes. § 87(2)(g)

On June 13, 2008, § 87(2)(b) was about eighteen weeks pregnant. At approximately 4:00pm, § 87(2)(b) was walking on the sidewalk in the vicinity of 369 East Fordham Road in the Bronx when she became involved in a verbal dispute with an unknown Hispanic female (described as possibly Dominican, 32 years old, 5'7", with dark, disheveled hair, wearing flip-flops) who rolled over § 87(2)(b) foot with a stroller or shopping cart. § 87(2)(b) asked the woman for an apology. They yelled loudly and cursed at each other for two minutes but had no physical contact. Three or four people stood around to watch. In her statement attached to her Notice of Claim, which she filed against the City of New York, § 87(2)(b) did not mention that she was involved in a dispute with anyone else and said that, "I was walking on the street, going to work, when they stopped me."

The argument ended when § 87(2)(b) began to walk away, holding her cell phone in her hand. The other woman walked away in a different direction; § 87(2)(b) did not see her after that. At that point, PO Teng (a male officer) and PO Abedrabbo (a female officer), who were identified by their nameplates and physical descriptions, approached § 87(2)(b) on foot. PO Teng asked if there was a problem; § 87(2)(b) responded there was no longer a problem and continued walking. PO Abedrabbo stood in front of her to block her path and asked if she had identification. § 87(2)(b) reached in her handbag for her identification. At that moment, PO Abedrabbo tried to grab § 87(2)(b) cell phone or hand, causing § 87(2)(b) to pull her hand back. Then § 87(2)(b) said she was going to call 911 because she felt she was being harassed, but her demeanor remained calm. She took two steps back and began to call 911 when PO Abedrabbo grabbed § 87(2)(b) left arm and PO Teng grabbed her right hand. Both officers pushed her against a glass storefront, pressing their forearms against her neck area to restrain her with § 87(2)(b) back pressed against the glass storefront. In her phone statement on April 3, 2009, § 87(2)(b) said that only PO Abedrabbo used her forearm against § 87(2)(b) upper chest to hold her against the storefront for about thirty seconds to a minute and neither officer pressed on her neck. At the CCRB interview, she denied attempting to strike either officer.

The officers pushed her to the ground such that she fell on her stomach. Both officers were on top of § 87(2)(b) at this point and may have had their knees pressed against her back. § 87(2)(b) yelled repeatedly that she was pregnant and urged them to get off of her. She also called out her phone number and asked bystanders to call her husband and tell him what happened. The officers told her to stop resisting. A crowd of 15 to 20 people congregated. § 87(2)(b) tried to shift her weight off her stomach and asked what she did. The officers pulled her hands behind her back and handcuffed her.

PO Abedrabbo stood § 87(2)(b) up and called her a "fucking animal" and "fucking bitch." § 87(2)(b) did not respond. PO Abedrabbo walked her to the patrol car, opened the door, and said "Get in there bitch." PO Abedrabbo pushed § 87(2)(b) in the car, and § 87(2)(b) fell on her stomach against the footstep. En route to the precinct, PO Teng told § 87(2)(b) that if she had answered their questions, it would not have happened. PO Abedrabbo said, "Don't even talk to that bitch. She's an animal. I can't believe she tried to hit me in my face." § 87(2)(b) remained silent. In her initial complaint narrative, but in no other statement, § 87(2)(b) alleged that both officers told § 87(2)(b) "You black bitch; you fucking black bitch; see what you are doing you fucking animal, get in the car." Although § 87(2)(b) alleged in her Notice of Claim that PO Abedrabbo punched her while handcuffed, she did not make this allegation in any statement to the CCRB.

At the precinct, she was placed in the cell, she told them she felt abdominal pressure and requested medical attention. About an hour later, an ambulance arrived and took her to § 87(2)(b). She was treated for bruises and minor lacerations on her left temple, shoulder, elbows, and knees. The doctors took a sonogram and examined her unborn fetus, which appeared to be unharmed. They gave her Tylenol and Bacitracin for the cuts. She also went to § 87(2)(b) the following day to check up on the pregnancy.

Results of Investigation

Civilian Witness Statement: § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) was present for when officers arrested § 87(2)(b) on June 13, 2008. He provided a phone statement to the CCRB in person on September 9, 2008 (Encl. 9A). He also provided an in-person statement on October 6, 2008 and video footage taken from his cell phone of the incident (Encl. 10A-B). § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) did not recall the exact incident date, but recalled the incident and that it involved a pregnant woman named § 87(2)(b) who was identified via investigation as § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) was walking down Fordham Road close to Webster Avenue. While walking in front of a clothing store on Fordham Road named Signature, § 87(2)(b) noticed § 87(2)(b) engaged in an “aggressive conversation with another female.” The unidentified female was Hispanic and did not speak English. § 87(2)(b) described her as not “really trying to get into it” with § 87(2)(b) whereas § 87(2)(b) was the more “argumentative of the two.” § 87(2)(b) did not witness this, but based on the argument between the two females, believed that the argument began after the unidentified female stuck § 87(2)(b) with a carriage. § 87(2)(b) described § 87(2)(b) as the more aggressive of the two females and possibly referred to the female as a “Spanish bitch.” § 87(2)(b) was not yelling at the top of her voice, but she was loud and aggressive. The argument caused a crowd, including people from within the Signature clothing store, to gather and watch the argument.

After approximately two minutes, a patrol car pulled up next to the women, which prompted them to separate from one another. § 87(2)(b) screamed out “fuck you too” and continued to walk away towards Webster Avenue. Two officers exited their RMP. The male officer was identified via investigation as PO Mannix Teng and the female officer as PO Filastin Abedrabbo. PO Abedrabbo and PO Teng approached § 87(2)(b) and had a conversation that lasted about three minutes, which § 87(2)(b) did not hear. He was about twenty feet away. § 87(2)(b) did not hear the details of the conversation and was between ten and twenty feet away, but then PO Abedrabbo grabbed § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) by the arm. PO Teng also grabbed § 87(2)(b)

As the officers grabbed § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) pulled out his cell phone and recorded the interaction. § 87(2)(b) could not recall what occurred next but stated that an “incident” occurred where both officers brought § 87(2)(b) face down onto the ground. He denied that § 87(2)(b) struck either officer at any point. While on the ground, the officers were on § 87(2)(b)'s side and likely placed their knees on her arms in order to handcuff her. At some point after the officers grabbed § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) said to them that § 87(2)(b) was pregnant.

On the ground, § 87(2)(b) continued to “struggle, fight and resist” the officers by moving around and yelling for someone to call her husband. The officer handcuffed § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) put his camera phone away. When the officers attempted to put § 87(2)(b) into the patrol car, she resisted going inside. Once § 87(2)(b) was placed into a patrol car PO Abedrabbo thrust with her palm in a pushing motion on § 87(2)(b). PO Abedrabbo made contact with the face/front of § 87(2)(b)'s head and her body. As PO Abedrabbo pushed or “hit” § 87(2)(b) as § 87(2)(b) initially described the motion, § 87(2)(b) still had one leg outside of the patrol car. § 87(2)(b) attempted to pull out his cell phone to record the assault, but by the time he pulled his phone out PO Abedrabbo had stopped “hitting” § 87(2)(b) and closed the patrol car door.

§ 87(2)(b) did not know § 87(2)(b) before this incident and stated that at some point after the incident--possibly that same day--he was walking down the same street when he saw § 87(2)(b) and her attorney. § 87(2)(b) identified himself as a witness and told them that he had video footage of the incident on his cell phone. It is as that point that he believed he spoke with § 87(2)(b)'s husband to tell him that he was a witness.

Video Evidence

§ 87(2)(b) recorded two portions of the encounter on his cellular phone. The footage was obtained by the CCRB via email from § 87(2)(b) attorney, § 87(2)(b) on April 6, 2009 (Encl. 30A-I).

The first video shows two officers, identified by the investigation as PO Abedrabbo and PO Teng holding § 87(2)(b) by her arms and pushing her quickly about three steps back until her back hit a glass storefront, then both officers, holding her entirely by her arms direct § 87(2)(b) to the ground such that she falls face first on the front of her body. She was against the glass for a split second and was not held there. While on the ground, § 87(2)(b) was first down with both officers holding her arms. She twists her body up to one side and yells continually, but what she said is unclear. She pulls her arms away from the officers who are trying to draw them behind her. She puts both hands on the ground and pushes her torso up and yells more. PO Teng holds one of her arms and tries to bring it back behind her, but she turns onto her side. Then the video ends and it is not shown how she is actually handcuffed.

The second video begins with PO Abedrabbo drawing her arm and body back out of the RMP slowly as she stands outside the open rear door of the RMP. Then she stands at the doorway for about five seconds, not moving much then she closes the door.

Identification of Officers Interviewed

§ 87(2)(b) arrest report for this incident shows that PO Abedrabbo was the arresting officer (Encl. 29A-C). The 52nd Precinct Roll Call for June 13, 2008 tour 3 shows that PO Teng was PO Abedrabbo's partner (Encl. 26A-K). § 87(2)(g)

Subject Officer Interview: PO Mannix Teng

PO Teng provided the following statement to the CCRB on September 9, 2008 and another statement on May 7, 2009 (Encl. 13A-C, 14A-B). PO Teng also provided a signed written statement regarding an injury to a member of service, PO Abedrabbo, on June 13, 2008, which states, “While affecting an arrest I did observe the defendant punch officer Abedrabbo in the face in her right eye” (Encl. 12A) PO Teng is an Asian, 37 year old male, 5’7” 170 lbs. § 87(2)(g)

On June 13, 2008, PO Teng worked 3:00pm to 11:35pm. He was assigned to Patrol sector A. He was working with PO Abedrabbo. He was dressed in uniform and in a marked car #2771. The June 13, 2008 roll call for the 52nd Precinct tour 3 shows that the patrol car which PO Teng was assigned was changed. PO Teng had the following entries in his memo book regarding this incident, “1610 pickup of a 52 at 269 E Fordham Rd. 1617: 1 under for § 87(2)(b) by PO Abedrabbo, 1715: 84 § 87(2)(b) for injured prisoner, 1830 98 stationhouse security” (Encl. 11A-B).

On June 13, 2008, PO Teng and PO Abedrabbo were driving westbound down Fordham Road heading to their sector, when about four adults with kids waved them over and pointed at § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) yelled, “Fuck you, go back to your country” to someone.

PO Abedrabbo and PO Teng exited the car and confronted § 87(2)(b) who yelled, “Fuck you” to another civilian. The people in the crowd continued pointing at § 87(2)(b) When PO Teng and PO Abedrabbo approached § 87(2)(b) she said, “Fuck you. Don’t touch me. I don’t want to talk with you.” PO Teng estimated that there were about 15 people gathered around at this time. PO Teng told § 87(2)(b) to relax and then his partner took over because she was a female.

§ 87(2)(b) was still yelling and cursing while walking back toward a display window. Near the window, she reached into her shoulder bag that was on her right-hand shoulder. PO Abedrabbo reached for § 87(2)(b)’s right hand and grabbed her. While holding § 87(2)(b) right hand, § 87(2)(b) punched PO Abedrabbo in the face on her right cheek using her left hand. Both officers put § 87(2)(b) on the ground, but “not hard.” He described the motion wherein § 87(2)(b) was first brought to her knees then they put her body on the ground face down. According to PO Teng, it is standard police procedure to place people face down on the ground to control them. Then PO Teng put his knee on § 87(2)(b) shoulder to stop her from getting up. § 87(2)(b) pulled her arms away from the officers and screamed. She would not give up her left hand to be cuffed. PO Teng did not know she was pregnant at the time.

Once she was handcuffed, § 87(2)(b) “dragged her feet and did not want to go into the RMP. Only PO Abedrabbo escorted § 87(2)(b) to and into the RMP. § 87(2)(b) would not get into the RMP and PO Abedrabbo “pushed” her head down because § 87(2)(b) would not bend down and continued to stand up. By the time PO Teng got there, § 87(2)(b) was already in the car and he did not know if she was ever on her stomach. He did not know if PO Abedrabbo ever pushed § 87(2)(b) such that § 87(2)(b) fell on her stomach. PO Teng did not recall if PO Abedrabbo ever called § 87(2)(b) a “bitch” or a “fucking animal” and did not recall if PO Abedrabbo spoke discourteously or offensively at any point to § 87(2)(b)

When they arrived at the precinct, they called an ambulance to check on her because § 87(2)(b) was yelling that she was pregnant.

Subject Officer: PO Filastin Abedrabbo

PO Abedrabbo provided the following statement at the CCRB on October 15, 2008 (Encl. 16A-B). She also provided a written statement following the incident on June 13, 2008 on the Aided Worksheet, which states “At T/P/O officer did get punched in the right eye/face while affecting an arrest. EMT from § 87(2)(b) ACR. § 87(2)(b) L.O.D. 3952” (Encl. 17A) She is a white, § 87(2)(b) old female, 5’4”, 130 lbs.

On June 13, 2008, PO Abedrabbo worked from 1600 to 2400 with PO Mannix Teng. They were assigned to a marked patrol vehicle, RMP number 2692, which PO Teng was operating. They were working in sectors A, B and C that day. PO Abedrabbo made the following entries in her memo book that day: “1610—pickup dispute at 369 East Fordham Road; 1617—1 under” (Encl. 15A-B).

§ 87(2)(g)
§ 87(2)(b) PO Abedrabbo asked § 87(2)(b) for identification in order to issue her a disorderly conduct summons. § 87(2)(b) did not provide her identification, and instead cursed at PO Abedrabbo and began to walk away. PO Abedrabbo did not recall what § 87(2)(b) said specifically. At this, PO Abedrabbo grabbed § 87(2)(b) by her arm. With her free arm, § 87(2)(b) punched PO Abedrabbo in one of her eyes (PO Abedrabbo could not recall which one). PO Abedrabbo brought § 87(2)(b) to the ground by pulling her arm and possibly grabbing her shirt, but she could not specify further about how she brought § 87(2)(b) down. She did not recall how § 87(2)(b) landed.

§ 87(2)(g)
§ 87(2)(b). PO Abedrabbo and PO Teng brought her to their RMP after she was cuffed, but she continued to struggle by “yanking” and moving her shoulders as they walked her to the car. Both officers placed her in the vehicle and § 87(2)(b) calmed down in the car. They transported her back to the 52nd Precinct. At no point did PO Abedrabbo say anything to the effect of, “This bitch tried to hit me,” or “I can’t believe this bitch tried to punch me.”

PO Abedrabbo went “line of duty” following this incident, as she developed a black eye (swelling and some discoloration) from when § 87(2)(b) punched her. EMS responded to the precinct and examined PO Abedrabbo there and gave her an ice pack; PO Abedrabbo did not go to the hospital because she was processing § 87(2)(b)’s arrest. She wrote on the aided worksheet, “At T/P/O officer did get punched in the right eye/face while affecting an arrest.”

Police Department Documents

PO Abedrabbo sustained a contusion to her right eye during this incident, but refused medical aid. An Aided Report Worksheet was prepared for her (Encl. 17A-B). PO Abedrabbo prepared arrest report number § 87(2)(b) (Encl. 29A-C). She also prepared UF61 number § 87(2)(b) for § 87(2)(b) which shows that § 87(2)(b) was charged with assault (Encl. 29A-C). The 52nd Precinct Roll Call for June 13, 2008 tour 3 shows that both PO Abedrabbo and PO Teng were assigned to the same RMP (Encl. 26A-K). The Command Log for the 52nd Precinct, June 13, 2008 shows that PO Abedrabbo brought § 87(2)(b) to the precinct. An officer recorded in the Command Log on June 13, 2008 that § 87(2)(b) apparent physical condition was pregnant with a scratch on her arm when she was at the stationhouse under arrest at 4:25pm (Encl. 27A-I). The Line of Duty paperwork for PO Abedrabbo shows in the vicinity of 369 East Fordham Road in the Bronx on June 13, 2008 in the patrol supervisor’s report of injury, “Preliminary investigation reveals that PO Abedrabbo sustained contusion to right eye when struck in the face by closed fist while attempting to effect (sic) an arrest on duty in uniform.” Sgt. Barone is listed as the supervisor and PO Teng is listed as a witness (Encl. 25A).

Medical Documents

The Ambulance Call Report filed on § 87(2)(b) for § 87(2)(b) shows that § 87(2)(b) was sitting in her cell crying when the EMS arrived. She said the police slammed her against a car and on the ground on her abdomen. She complained of abdominal pressure and had an abrasion on her shoulder, left side of her forehead, but was not bleeding (Encl. 18A-B).

§ 87(2)(b) was treated at § 87(2)(b). The Emergency Triage Report which received § 87(2)(b) showed that she suffered pain in her abdomen, had multiple abrasions on her left shoulder, left side of her face, below her knee and denied vaginal bleeding. She was alert (Encl. 19A-E).

A handwritten note from § 87(2)(b) prenatal care physician accompanied the medical records from the § 87(2)(b), stated that there is evidence of assault on § 87(2)(b) body. There is no independent evaluation or medical examination record that accompanied this note and the doctor’s first name is illegible, but her last name is § 87(2)(b). The note also states that § 87(2)(b) is a “§ 87(2)(a) PHL § 18(6)” (Encl. 21A).

On June 14, 2008, § 87(2)(b) went to the § 87(2)(b) in the Bronx. The objective assessment shows she had an abrasion on her left elbow and left side of her face. The nursing observations are as follows, “I was pushed down on the floor on my stomach. I was pressed on my back.” The radiology report for § 87(2)(b) stated that § 87(2)(b) is 18 weeks pregnant (Encl. 22A-J, 23A-B).

Complainant Criminal Conviction History

§ 87(2)(b)] [§§ 86(1)(3)&(4)] [§ 87(2)(c)]
[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]

Complainant CCRB History

This is § 87(2)(b) first and only CCRB complaint (Encl. 3A).

Subject Officer CCRB History

PO Abedrabbo was the subject officer in four CCRB complaints. Six CCRB allegations have been substantiated against PO Abedrabbo, 3 of which were in CCRB case number 200500348—abusing her authority by refusing to provide her name and shield number, detaining an individual and speaking discourteously. In that case, it was recommended she receive instructions, which were issued by the NYPD. Regarding the substantiated charges of detainment and discourtesy in that case, it was also recommended that she receive instructions, but there was no NYPD penalty.

In CCRB case number 200508600, allegations that PO Abedrabbo refused to provide her name and shield upon request, spoke discourteously, and seized an individual’s property were substantiated against her. In this case, it was recommended she receive instructions for the aforementioned substantiated allegations. The NYPD issued instructions pressed her forearm against § 87(2)(b) upper chest. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b) was very specific that PO Abedrabbo called her a “fucking bitch,” and a “fucking animal.” She was also specific in quoting PO Abedrabbo as having said, “Don’t even talk to that bitch.” The last statement was allegedly addressed to PO Teng while they were all in the patrol car driving to the precinct. In her initial complaint narrative that was filed via the CCRB website, § 87(2)(b) alleged that both officers called her a “fucking black bitch,” but § 87(2)(b) did not make any mention in her official statement or in any other statement of racially charged language used against her during the incident. § 87(2)(b) did not make mention of any discourteous, racially or sexually charged remarks that PO Abedrabbo may have used towards § 87(2)(b) but he stood between ten and twenty feet away from § 87(2)(b) and the officers and could not hear the conversation they had before the officers moved to handcuff § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g) PO Teng could not recall if PO Abedrabbo made discourteous or offensive remarks § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b) PO Abedrabbo also denied speaking discourteously and offensively to § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegations not Pleaded

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation A) PO Mannix Teng used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

Allegation B) PO Filastin Abedrabbo used physical force against § 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(g)

Allegation C) PO Filastin Abedrabbo obscenely and rudely to § 87(2)(b) Allegation D) PO Filastin Abedrabbo made remarks to § 87(2)(b) based upon her sex.

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

Investigator:

Date:

Supervisor:

Date:

Reviewed by:

Date:

Reviewed by:

Date: