Initial Complaint Narrative

filed a complaint via the call-processing system about an incident that she did not witness. CCRB Investigator Bloom contacted and obtained the following additional information: was informed of the incident by a taxi driver who she uses two or three times a week. The driver informed her that on February 11, 2009, at an time, the driver and another "dollar van" driver were parked illegally in a bus lane somewhere on in the 77th Precinct. Officers approached both vehicles. The taxi driver provided his license and registration up request and was issued a summons, but the "dollar van" driver in front of him refused to provide his license and rolled up the window. The officers became "verbally aggressive," called for backup and broke the window of the "dollar van" driver's vehicle. He was taken out, handcuffed and beaten and kicked by eight to ten officers. At one point, he was on the ground in handcuffs and the officers were kicking him. The witness taxi driver and did not know any further details. Numerous witnesses approached the officers to protest the officers' actions. asked the cab driver why he would not file a complaint himself and the cab driver told her, "I don't want anything to do with it."
