Initial Complaint Narrative

On June 28, 2014, ██████ was cleaning up after a block party, when NYPD officers approached his motorcycles which were parked in an authorized spot. An NYPD sergeant asked who's bikes those were and ██████ responded that they were his. The sergeant told ██████ to move them. ██████ replied that he had been drinking and was not going to move the bikes because they were in an authorized parking spot. The sergeant continued to argue, and after some time ██████ requested to speak to someone who was higher in command. At that point, the sergeant grabbed ██████, threw him on the ground, and the sergeant along with other officers began punching ██████ everywhere while yelling "stop resisting." ██████ stated that he was not resisting and that the officers even ripped his shirt while arresting him. Lastly, ██████ stated that he knows the officer whom he interacted is a sergeant because of the three stripes on his uniform, and that he cannot described the officers at the incident location because it was dark.
