Plaintiff STEPHON BAINES, by his attorneys, Caitlin Robin & Associates, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On May 31, 2020, at approximately 8:00 p.m., plaintiff STEPHON BAINES, while lawfully in the vicinity of the Barclays Center, in Brooklyn, New York, was subject to an unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, and false imprisonment by the defendant New York City police officers. In addition, Plaintiff was subjected to an assault, battery, and use of excessive force by the defendant Officers, when they tackled him to the ground and slammed him into the pavement, kicking him and punching him, causing him to suffer physical injuries and treatment at St. Barnabas Hospital. Plaintiff was then unlawfully imprisoned at the One Police Plaza for approximately six (6) hours until plaintiff was issued a Desk Appearance Ticket. Plaintiff was denied the right to due process and a fair trial until the criminal charges against Plaintiff were dismissed and sealed on or about October 9, 2020. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, confined, assaulted, battered, subjected to excessive force, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, and denied plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff, STEPHON BAINES, is and was at all times relevant herein a resident of the state of New York.

3. POLICE OFFICER CRISTIAN HERNANDEZ, Shield No. 961813, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

4. POLICE OFFICER CRISTIAN HERNANDEZ, Shield No. 961813, was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the NYPD SRG4 Precinct.

5. POLICE OFFICER CRISTIAN HERNANDEZ, Shield No. 961813, is being sued in his individual and official capacity.

6. NYPD POLICE OFFICER URBANEK YANDEIRY, Tax # 936058, is and was at all times relevant herein, an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

7. NYPD POLICE OFFICER URBANEK YANDEIRY, Tax # 936058, was at all times relevant herein, assigned to the Bronx Criminal Court Section.

8. NYPD POLICE OFFICER URBANEK YANDEIRY, Tax # 936058, is being sued in his individual and official capacity.

9. New York City Police Officers John Does #1-10 are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.

10. Police Officers John Does #1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

11. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

12. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

13. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the CITY OF NEW YORK in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.

14. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on October 15, 2020.

15. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and THE CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

16. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

17. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

18. On May 31, 2020 at approximately 8:00 P.M., plaintiff was lawfully present in the vicinity of the Barclays Center, in Brooklyn, New York, when the defendant police officers unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, and falsely arrested plaintiff without probable cause or legal justification.

19. Plaintiff was lawfully attending a peaceful protest at the Barclays Center in Brooklyn, New York.

20. Plaintiff was standing in an area where there were no police barricades or police vehicles parked.

21. The Defendant Police Officers grabbed Plaintiff, tackled him to the ground and slammed his body against the pavement.

22. Plaintiff was then kicked and punched by Defendant Police Officers while face down on the pavement and his hands were cuffed behind his back.

23. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

24. Plaintiff did not resist or physically retaliate against the police officers while being pinned to the ground and zip cuffed.

25. Plaintiff's cuffs were excessively tightened causing plaintiff to suffer numbness, tingling, and swelling of his wrists, hands and arms.

26. Defendants then transported Plaintiff to the police station located at One Police Plaza in Manhattan against his will, where plaintiff was unlawfully photographed, fingerprinted and detained in a holding cell.

27. Plaintiff was then searched by Defendants Officers, and no contraband was found.

28. At no point did defendants recover any drugs, weapons, or other illegal contraband from plaintiff or from a location that was in plaintiff's possession, custody or control.

29. At no time prior to his release from One Police Plaza in Manhattan was Plaintiff informed of the charges against him.

30. Upon being released from police custody, the Plaintiff was issued a Criminal Court Desk Appearance Ticket with a return date of September 28, 2020, charging him with Assault in the Second Degree.

31. After Plaintiff was released from custody he sought medical treatment at St. Barnabas Hospital to be treated for the physical injuries to his wrists, torso, hips and legs.

32. As a result of the arrest, Plaintiff was also suspended from work at the MTA.

33. Plaintiff was not allowed to return to work at the MTA until all criminal charges were dismissed.

34. The incident also had a profound effect on the mental well-being of Plaintiff as well.

35. Plaintiff began receiving professional psychiatric treatment from Dr. Gitelson, at Jacobi Medical Center to cope with the emotional trauma that the event caused.

36. On or about October 9, 2020, all criminal charges were dismissed against Plaintiff.

37. The Kings County District Attorneys office declined to prosecute Plaintiff because they determined that Plaintiff did not commit a crime.

38. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably searching, seizing, assaulting, battering, using excessive force, falsely arresting and imprisoning, and denying plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial

39. The unlawful, search, seizure, assault, battery, use of excessive force, false arrest and imprisonment, and denial of plaintiff's right to a fair trial by the individually named defendants caused plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights

40. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 39 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

41. The individually named police officer defendants while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

42. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, psychological and economic injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest And False Imprisonment

43. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 42 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

44. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

45. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

46. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

47. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

48. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
Unlawful Stop, Question, and Frisk

49. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 48 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

50. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop, questioning and frisk employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

51. The conduct of defendants in stopping, frisking, and searching plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

52. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

53. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

54. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Unlawful Search

55. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 54 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

56. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

57. Defendants lacked probable cause to search plaintiff.

58. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

59. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

60. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

61. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fifth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

62. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 61 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein

63. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

64. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

65. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

66. In withholding/creating false evidence against plaintiff STEPHON BAINES, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, defendants violated plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

67. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff STEPHON BAINES, sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, lost earnings and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

68. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

69. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

70. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTIONNegligence

71. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 70 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

72. Defendants owed a duty of care to plaintiff.

73. To the extent defendants claim that the injuries to plaintiff by the defendant police officers was unintentionally caused and that the force used by the defendants against him was unintentional, then the defendants breached that duty of care by tackling, pushing, and punching him, throwing Plaintiff to the ground, and excessively tightening his handcuffs.

74. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

75. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by plaintiff.

76. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

77. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

78. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONViolation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights

79. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 78 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

80. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, by pushing, striking, punching him, and searching constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

81. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTIONAssault

82. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 81 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

83. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously assaulted plaintiff in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the plaintiff, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the plaintiff.

84. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

85. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

86. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

87. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTIONBattery

88. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 87 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

89. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner tackled, pushed, and punched him, throwing Plaintiff to the ground, and excessively tightening his handcuffs, with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the plaintiff and caused such battery.

90. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

91. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

92. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

93. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

94. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 93 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

95. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the State of New York and New York State common law.

96. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against plaintiff.

97. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.

98. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

99. Plaintiff was subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate plaintiff's Fourth Amendment rights.

100. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

101. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

102. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

103. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 102 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

104. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiff,

STEPHON BAINES. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

105. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

106. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

107. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

108. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

109. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TWELTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

110. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 109 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

111. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

112. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

113. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 112 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

114. The defendants that did not physically touch plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

115. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

116. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of her safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

117. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

118. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

119. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

120. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FORTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Deliberate Indifference to Medical Needs

121. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 120 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

122. Defendants despite being aware that plaintiff was suffering through severe wrist, torso, hip and leg pain while in their custody and required medication and additional treatment from medical professionals, they delayed plaintiff's medical treatment and refused to administer and properly procure, immediate and adequate medical attention.

123. The delay in medical treatment to plaintiff's injuries resulted in permanent additional ongoing anxiety attacks suffered by plaintiff that would have been prevented if plaintiff received treatment in a timely manner.

124. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of her rights under the laws of the State of New York.

125. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

126. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

127. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

JURY DEMAND

128. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff STEPHON BAINES demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
