Plaintiff Gilbert Martinez, by his attorney, ILISSA BROWNSTEIN, ESQ., as and for the Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, the rights secured by the First, Fourth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York. Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested by the defendants. Plaintiff was deprived of his federal constitutional and state constitutional and common law rights when the individually named police officer defendants unlawfully confined plaintiff, caused the unjustifiable arrest of plaintiff and malicious prosecution of plaintiff. Defendants additionally used excessive force in violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights protected by the Eighth Amendment and the state tort laws.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Gilbert Martinez is a citizen of the United States and a resident of Astoria, New York.
3. Police Officer Shelon Morgan (Tax Reg # 933060) is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
4. Police Officer Shelon Morgan (Tax Reg # 933060) is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.

5. Police Office Kristal Diaz (Shield #10069) is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
6. Police Office Kristal Diaz (Shield #10069) is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.
7. Police Officer John Doe #1 is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
8. Police Officer John Doe #1 is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.
9. New York Police Officers John Doe #2-4 are and were at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
10. Police Officers John Doe #2-4 are being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.
11. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents, and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
12. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department which acts as agents in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
13. Plaintiff in furtherance of his State causes of action filed a timely (with regard to some claims) Notice of Claim upon the City of New York in compliance with Municipal Law Section 50.
14. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claim.
15. The City of New York held a 50(H) hearing examination of the Plaintiff on May 18, 2015.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

16. Gilbert Martinez is 48 years old.
17. Mr. Martinez has been employed at Clairvoyant Security Systems (CSI) since 2014 as a technician and installer. He works in Hicksville, Long Island, installing alarm systems. He received his Electronic Technician Certificate from Albert Merrill School.
18. Mr. Martinez has never been convicted of a crime.
19. On January 22, 2015, at approximately 12am, Hallet's Cove Park in Astoria, Queens, New York, Mr. Martinez was walking across the park on his way home from work when he was approached by members of the NYPD.
20. Officers claimed Mr. Martinez was in Hallet's Cove Park after hours.
21. Hallet's Cove Park is a 24-hour park.
22. Mr. Martinez was arrested for being in the park after 9pm.
23. Mr. Martinez received an ACD at arraignment on January 22, 2015.
24. Mr. Martinez was incarcerated for approximately 22 hours.
25. On account of the arrest and incarceration, Mr. Martinez missed work.
26. On account of his arrest, Mr. Martinez's boss found out about his arrest.
27. Plaintiff filed a notice of claim on March 13, 2015.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

VIOLATION OF PLAINTIFF'S FOURTH AMENDMENT AND FOURTEENTH AMENDMENT RIGHTS

28. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 27 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
29. The individually named defendants who were acting in concert and within the scope of their authority at the NYPD arrested and caused plaintiff to be imprisoned without probable cause, maliciously prosecuted, and subjected to excessive forced based as well as an unlawful search in violation of plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty and the right to privacy under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

FALSE ARREST AND FALSE IMPRISONMENT

30. Plaintiff repeats and alleges paragraphs 1 through 29 as if fully set forth herein.
31. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.
32. The individually named defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
33. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT HIRING, RETENTION, TRAINING AND SUPERVISION

34. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 33 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
35. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise the individually named defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of NYPD duties.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO INTERVENE

36. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 35 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
37. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other members of the NYPD.
38. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.
39. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was subjected to an illegal search.
40. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York, the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
41. The City, as the employer of defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENCE

42. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 41 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
43. Defendants owed a duty of care to plaintiff.
44. Defendants breached that duty of care by subjecting him to an illegal search.
45. As a direct and proximate cause of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
46. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault by plaintiff.
47. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

48. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 47 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
49. By the actions described herein, the individually named police officer defendants, each acting individually and in concert with one another, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
50. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was deprived of liberty and sustained great emotional injuries.
51. The City, as the employer of the defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat behavior.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

MUNICIPAL LIABILITY UNDER 42 U.S.C. § 1983

52. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 51 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
53. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of defendant City of New York, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.
54. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department included, but were not limited to policies, customs and practices wherein New York City Police officers arrest individuals without probable cause and create false versions of events to justify their actions.
55. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department were the moving force behind the violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights as described herein. As a result of the failure of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department to properly recruit, screen, train, discipline, and supervise its officers, including the individual defendants, defendant City of New York has tacitly authorized, ratified, and has been deliberately indifferent to, the acts and conduct complained of herein.
56. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the Constitutional violations suffered by plaintiff as alleged herein.
57. As a result of the foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department, plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and prosecuted.
58. Defendants collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law were directly and actively involved in violating plaintiff's constitutional rights.

WHEREFORE, GILBERT MARTINEZ, plaintiff, demands a judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this actions which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorney's fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as appropriate under the law.
