Initial Complaint Narrative

§ 87(2)(b) drove down Union Avenue in the Bronx when he was pulled over. He asked why he had been pulled over, and a female officer who approached the vehicle said that he had not signaled. She asked him for his identification, which he provided to her. She yanked his car door open and made him get out. I asked her why he had to get out of his vehicle. She replied that she smelled weed. § 87(2)(b) believed that she was lying because he did not smoke and had just come home from work and no one was smoking around him. The female officer searched his vehicle. He did not consent to this search. After she was done, she provided § 87(2)(b) with his identification and then drove away with her male partner. PO1: an approximately 5'6" tall plainclothes Hispanic female officer in her 30's, 160 pounds, with dark brown hair and brown eyes. PO2: an approximately 5'7" tall plainclothes Hispanic male officer in his 30's, 170 pounds. He assisted PO1 with pulling § 87(2)(b) out of his vehicle. He was in a vehicle with plate #§ 87(2)(b)
