VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff CODY FORREST, by his attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On October 6, 2021, at approximately 8:00 p.m., Plaintiff Cody Forrest, while lawfully in the vicinity of Vanderbilt and Atlantic Avenue, County of Kings, New York, was subject to an unlawful arrest and detention by defendant Police Officers. In doing so, defendant Police Officers delayed Plaintiff's medical treatment and cause Plaintiff to suffer pain and emotional trauma. Plaintiff was deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802 and his constitutional, common law and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiff, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Cody Forrest is a resident of the state of New York.
2. NYPD Police Officer Taha A. Jahmi, Shield No. 31808 is and was at all times relevant herein an Officer with the New York City Police Department.

3. NYPD Police Officer Taha A. Jahmi, Shield No. 31808 is being sued in their individual and official capacity.
4. Currently and at all times relevant herein, NYPD Police Officer Taha A. Jahmi, Shield No. 31808 was assigned to the 68th Police Precinct of the NYPD.
5. NYPD Police Officers John Does Numbers One Through Ten are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
6. NYPD Police Officers John Does Numbers One Through Ten are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
7. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
8. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
9. Plaintiff in furtherance of his causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed a timely Notice of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.
10. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, Plaintiff testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on March 24, 2022.
11. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claims.
12. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.
13. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

14. On October 6, 2021, at approximately 8:00 p.m., Plaintiff was present in the vicinity of the intersection of Vanderbilt and Atlantic Avenue, County of Kings, New York, when the defendant Police Officers unlawfully arrested Plaintiff without legal justification.
15. Plaintiff, without warning or reason, was pulled over by an unmarked vehicle while heading home after grabbing lunch in Manhattan with a high school friend.
16. Plaintiff had no committed any traffic infractions, and there was no legal reason to effectuate the stop.
17. Two uniformed Defendant Officers and Two plain clothes Defendant Officers approached Plaintiff's vehicle.
18. Defendant Officer asked Plaintiff for licence and registration.
19. Plaintiff immediately complied and handed over the requested documentation.
20. Defendant Officers removed Plaintiff from the vehicle while they performed a search, without permission or authority.
21. No contraband was found on defendant's person or in the vehicle.
22. Defendant Officers handcuffed Plaintiff and placed him into the unmarked police vehicle.
23. Despite Plaintiff's pleas for information, none of his assailants told him that he was being arrested, what he was being arrested for, or where he was being taken.
24. Plaintiff was transported to the 68th Precinct where he was processed and placed into a holding cell.
25. Upon arrival at the Precinct, Plaintiff informed Defendant Officers of his medical condition. Plaintiff told them that unless he takes Dilantin twice a day he would get seizures.
26. Defendant Officers ignored Plaintiffs plea and did not transport Plaintiff to Maimonides Hospital until approximately 4 hours later.
27. In the time between Plaintiff's request and when he received his medication, Plaintiff had a headache and felt lightheaded.
28. The delay in medical treatment put Plaintiff in fear for his life and was traumatic. Plaintiff's mother had the same medical condition and had passed away because she was unable to take her medication.

29. After Plaintiff took his medication, Defendant Officers transported him back to the 68th Precinct before transferring him to Central Booking.
30. While Plaintiff was in custody, the defendant police officers provided the Kings County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiff committed a crime.
31. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Kings County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiff was engaged Criminal Possession of a Forged Instrument in the Third Degree, Criminal Possession of Stolen Property in the Fifth Degree, and other related charges.
32. Plaintiff remained in police custody for approximately 48 hours before he appeared before a judge and was released at arraignment.
33. Plaintiff's criminal case was dismissed and sealed on January 11, 2022.
34. Plaintiff's new Iphone and airpods were taken during the arrest, and a voucher was never given to Plaintiff to get them back.
35. As a result of his arrest, Plaintiff had to purchase a new phone and new airpods.
36. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiff of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.
37. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiff or from a location that was in Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.
38. Nevertheless, Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause, unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed and searched, and unlawfully detained.
39. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably assaulting, battering, and using excessive force against Plaintiff.
40. The unlawful assault, battery, and use of excessive force by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

41. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
42. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.
43. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiff was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.
44. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
45. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
46. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:
Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

47. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
48. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiff to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.
49. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTIONFalse Imprisonment

50. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
51. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiff and, in fact, confined Plaintiff, and Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.
52. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.
53. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
54. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
55. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTIONNegligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

56. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
57. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
58. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiff and violated Plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
59. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

60. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
61. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
62. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

63. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
64. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.
65. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

66. The Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
67. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.
68. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.
69. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, his medical condition worsened, he did not receive necessary medical treatment for an extended period of time, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.
70. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

71. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
72. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
73. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights: Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

74. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
75. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.
76. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.
77. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.
78. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiff, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.
79. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of his constitutional rights.
80. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
81. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
82. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries including, but not limited to: economic, emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTIONMalicious Prosecution

83. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
84. The acts and conduct of the Defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the United States Constitution.
85. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff.
86. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against Plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.
87. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTIONDeliberate Indifference to Medical Needs

88. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
89. Defendants despite being aware that Plaintiff suffered from chronic seizures and needed daily medication, delayed Plaintiff's medical treatment and refused to administer and properly procure immediate and adequate medical attention.
90. The delay in medical treatment to Plaintiff's injuries resulted in a month-long hospitalization, increased severity in Plaintiff's nephrological injuries that were suffered by Plaintiff that would have been prevented if Plaintiff received treatment in a timely manner.
91. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.
92. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
93. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.
94. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONIndividual Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

95. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
96. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.
97. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.
98. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiff, before detaining plaintiff and further causing his detention for approximately 24 hours in total.
99. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONIndividual Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

100. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.
101. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.
102. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.
103. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8-802 right against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.
104. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of his rights.

105. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

106. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

107. Defendant Officers are "covered individuals" as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolmen.

108. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.

109. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

110. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiff to be deprived of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

111. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiff, before detaining plaintiff and further causing his detention for approximately 48 hours.

112. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiff's AC 8-802 Rights

113. The Plaintiff repeats and realleges the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

114. Defendant Officers are "covered individuals" as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolmen.

115. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiff for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.

116. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.
117. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiff from violations of his rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in his person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.
118. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiff but were present when other officers violated Plaintiff's AC 8 – 802 rights against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.
119. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiff from violation of his rights.
120. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiff has endured physical and emotional injuries and was otherwise damaged and injured.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Article I, § 12 of the New York State Constitution

121. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates, and re-alleges each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.
122. Such conduct breached the protections guaranteed to plaintiff by the New York State Constitution, including but not limited to, Article 1, §§ 1, 6, 8, 9, 11, and 12, and including the following rights:
- i. freedom from unreasonable search and seizure of her person and property;
 - ii. freedom from arrest without probable cause;
 - iii. freedom from false imprisonment, that being wrongfully detained without good faith, reasonable suspicion, or legal justification, and of which wrongful detention plaintiff was aware and did not consent;
 - iv. freedom from the lodging of false charges against him by police officers and prosecutors, including on information and belief, by some or all of the individual defendants; and
 - v. freedom from deprivation of liberty without due process of law.
123. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' deprivations of Plaintiff's rights, privileges, and immunities guaranteed by the New York State Constitution, Plaintiff suffered physical, economic and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.
124. As a result of the above tortious conduct, Plaintiff was caused to suffer physical, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

125. As a result of the above unconstitutional conduct, the City of New York is liable for the conduct of the Individual Defendants and any damages they caused under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

JURY DEMAND

126. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff CODY FORREST demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law, and that the Plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988 and 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 801 et seq..
