POLICE COMMISSIONER'S PENALTY DEPARTURE

Re: CCRB Case No. 202107379 (Incident Date: December 5, 2021) regarding Police Officer Adam Rossi, Tax No. 965483 (DADS No. 2023-27982)

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed the facts and circumstances of this matter and determined that no disciplinary action is warranted in connection with the single allegation that Officer Rossi damaged an individual's property.

In this matter, Police Officer Rossi responded with his partner to a 311 call regarding a vehicle parked in front of a fire hydrant. Officer Rossi determined that the vehicle had no front license plate and the rear license plate was covered by some form of license plate cover, which rendered the plate completely impossible to view. In order to write a parking summons to the illegally parked vehicle, Officer Rossi had to remove the cover from the license plate, which he necessarily did, and issued the summons. The actions of Officer Rossi were completely appropriate, particularly in light of the obvious illegality of the license plate cover. There was no indication provided by CCRB that Officer Rossi did anything other than what was necessary and reasonable to take proper police action in this matter.

Therefore, based on the foregoing, Police Officer Rossi will receive no disciplinary action for the alleged violation of Patrol Guide Procedure 304-06 (1) (Prohibited Conduct/Property Damage).

Yours truly,

Lourdes Soto
Deputy Chief
Commanding Officer
Police Commissioner's Office
