INDEX NO.

VERIFIED COMPLAINT

THE CITY OF NEW YORK, and PO ALBERTO
TORRESCHAMORRO, SH. NO. 12122,

Defendants.

-----X

Plaintiff, by his attorneys, LAW OFFICES OF MILLER & MILLER, as and for their Verified Complaint, respectfully alleges, upon information and belief:

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION
(FALSE ARREST)

1. The Plaintiff, ROBERT JOHNSON, at all times herein mentioned was and is a resident of the County of Kings in the State of New York.
2. At all times herein mentioned, defendant THE CITY OF NEW YORK (hereinafter the "CITY"), was and still is a municipal corporation, created, organized and existing under and by virtue of the laws of the State of New York.
3. That at all times mentioned herein, defendant CITY operated, maintained, managed, and controlled the Police Department of the City of New York.
4. That the Police Department of the City of New York is an agency, instrumentality, department of defendant CITY, and/or defendant CITY derived benefit from the activities of the Police Department of the City of New York.

5. At all times herein mentioned the defendant, PO ALBERTO TORRESCHAMORRO, SH. No. 12122 (herein "TORRESCHAMORRO") was employed by the Police Department of the City of New York as a police officer.

6. That at all times mentioned herein, defendant TORRESCHAMORRO was acting within the scope of his employment as a police officer employed by the Police Department of the City of New York.

7. That at all times mentioned herein, defendant TORRESCHAMORRO was acting under color of law and authority as a police officer employed by the Police Department of the City of New York.

8. That the District Attorney is a policymaker of and for the CITY regarding the management, supervision, and training of Assistant District Attorneys in the Office of the District Attorney for the County of Kings, State of New York.

9. That the DA and/or the CITY effectively promulgated policy, practices and/or customs, amounting to the deliberate indifference to, and impacting upon, the Plaintiffs' civil rights, including but not limited to, those guaranteed by the Federal and State Constitutions, within the County of Kings.

10. That said policy, practices, and/or customs, include stopping, frisking and detaining individuals, especially those of the Plaintiff's ethnic background, without probable cause, the use of excessive and unreasonable force, the fabrication of criminal complaints, the coercion and manipulation of witnesses, the arrest and detention of individuals known to have not committed any criminal wrong doing, and a failure to properly instruct, train and/or supervise employees, including TORRESCHAMORRO, and others involved in the investigation and prosecution of Plaintiff in the underlying criminal action that is the subject hereof.

11. That the DA, and the CITY, perpetuated, or failed to take steps to terminate, said policy, practices and/or customs, did not discipline or otherwise properly supervise the individual personnel who were allowed to and did engage in them, did not effectively instruct, train and/or supervise such personnel, including individual police officers and Asst. District Attorneys, with regard to the proper constitutional and statutory requirements in the exercise of their authority, but instead ignored, condoned and/or sanctioned the offending policies, practices and/or customs with a deliberate indifference to their effect on the individual constitutional rights of the Plaintiff and persons similarly situated.

12. That according to the New York City Department of Investigation, Office of the Inspector General for the NYPD, the NYPD has maintained and continues to maintain a policy of allowing and condoning misconduct by its officers and, in particular, the violation of the civil rights of civilians. See OIG-NYPD, Police Use of Force in New York City: Findings and Recommendations on NYPD's Policies and Practices, Oct. 1, 2015. Further, OIG-NYPD has specifically found that the NYPD maintains a policy of failing to discipline officers for misconduct including, but not limited to, the violation of the civil rights of civilians. Id. In fact, in a sampling of 92 substantiated cases of misconduct, the NYPD departed downward from the CCRB's disciplinary recommendations - or imposed no disciplinary action whatsoever approximately 67.4% of the time. Id. Further, OIG-NYPD concluded that the NYPD as a matter of policy fails to discipline its officers even where they are provided with evidence of misconduct and, in particular, the violation of the civil rights of civilians. Id. That on information an belief, the polices and practices identified by OIG-NYPD continue unabated to today.

13. That the Plaintiff has served notice, in accordance with applicable statutes, on the Defendants and that at least 30 days have elapsed since the service of such notice and that adjustment or payment thereof has been neglected or refused.

14. That the Plaintiff has fully complied with defendants demand for examination or that said demand has been otherwise waived.

15. That their action is being commenced within one year and ninety days after the happening of the event upon which the claim is based.

16. On July 5, 2019, at approximately 7:08 PM, while in the residence known as 166 West 87th Street, Apt. 7N, in Manhattan, New York, Plaintiff was unlawfully, detained, assaulted, frisked, handcuffed, battered, arrested by agents, servants and/or employees of defendant CITY including Defendant TORRESCHAMORRO.

17. That the Plaintiff was unlawfully detained by the Defendants from July 5, 2019 until July 12, 2019, when the Defendant was released on bail.

18. That the aforesaid arrest and imprisonment was malicious, unlawful and not based upon a warrant, probable cause, and/or any other justification, and was therefore a false arrest and imprisonment.

19. That defendant CITY, through its agents, servants and/or employees, including defendant TORRESCHAMORRO, acted in bad faith and without probable cause in committing the aforesaid arrest and imprisonment of the Plaintiff.

20. On information and belief, that the conduct of the defendant CITY's agents, servants and/or employees, in the New York City Police Department, including TORRESCHAMORRO, in investigating the criminal allegations made against the Plaintiff did deviate so egregiously from acceptable police activity as to demonstrate an intentional or reckless disregard for proper police procedure.

21. On information and belief, the defendant CITY's agents, servants and/or employees, in the New York City Police Department, including defendant TORRESCHAMORRO, in investigating the criminal allegations made against the Plaintiff did fail to make further inquiry into the allegations set forth against the Plaintiff although a reasonable person would have done so and thereby established a lack of probable cause against the Plaintiff.

22. At the time of their unlawful arrest and imprisonment, the Plaintiff had not committed or attempted to commit any illegal act.

23. At the time of the Plaintiff's unlawful arrest and imprisonment, the defendants knew or should have known, through the exercise of proper procedure and reasonable investigation, that the aforementioned arrest and imprisonment was false and without probable cause.

24. That the aforesaid arrest and imprisonment was made with knowledge of and/or negligent and/or reckless disregard of the material falseness of the criminal complaint(s).

25. The aforesaid false arrest and imprisonment caused Plaintiff to suffer severe physical injuries, emotional and psychological distress, anguish, anxiety, fear, humiliation, loss of freedom, loss of wages, legal expenses, and damage to his reputation. In addition, Plaintiff was denied access to his child(ren) as a direct consequence of his illegal arrest and detention, thus violating the Plaintiff and his families' right to "remain together" without State interference. See Duchesne v. Sugarman, 566 F.2d 817, 825 (2nd Cir. 1977).

26. The defendants' conduct was willful, wanton, reckless, malicious and/or exhibited a gross indifference to, and a callous disregard for human life, safety and the rights of others, and more particularly, the rights, life and safety of the Plaintiff, and was motivated by consideration of profit, financial advantage, monetary gain, economic aggrandizement and/or cost avoidance, to the virtual exclusion of all other considerations.

27. Due to defendants' negligence, Plaintiff is entitled to damages and punitive damages in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limit of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(MALICIOUS PROSECUTION)

28. Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the allegations contained in the paragraphs numbered above as if fully set forth herein.

29. After the Plaintiff was forcibly brought to New York State, the defendants intentionally, knowingly, recklessly, negligently and with malice caused the commencement of a criminal prosecution against the Plaintiff in the Criminal Court of the City of New York, County of New York, upon the filing of an accusatory instrument without probable cause, under Dckt Number CR-022274-19NY. Said malicious prosecution continued until the matter was dismissed on December 16, 2019. During the course of the aforesaid malicious prosecution, Plaintiff was wrongfully and falsely imprisoned and detained from July 5, 2019, through July 12, 2019, when the Plaintiff was able to post bail.

30. In commencing and continuing the said malicious prosecution, defendants caused the Plaintiff to be falsely charged with acts in violation of the Penal Law of the State of New York.

31. The Plaintiff had not committed or attempted to commit any illegal act(s).

32. The Plaintiff had not given defendant CITY, its agents, servants and/or employees, including defendants TORRESCHAMORRO probable cause to believe that he had committed the falsely charged illegal acts.

33. The Defendants knew, or should have known through the exercise of reasonable care and proper police procedure, that the said investigation into this matter was flawed and incomplete.

34. On information and belief, the defendant CITY's agents, servants and/or employees, in the New York City Police Department, including defendant TORRESCHAMORRO, in investigating the criminal allegations made against the Plaintiff did fail to make further inquiry into the allegations set forth against the Plaintiff although a reasonable person would have done so and thereby established a lack of probable cause against the Plaintiff.

35. On information and belief, that the conduct of the defendant CITY's agents, servants and/or employees, in the New York City Police Department, including TORRESCHAMORRO, in investigating the criminal allegations made against the Plaintiff did deviate so egregiously from acceptable police activity as to demonstrate an intentional or reckless disregard for proper police procedure.

36. That the Defendants maliciously, knowingly, and intentionally caused and were otherwise deliberately indifferent to, the presentation of materially false testimony and evidence which resulted in the criminal complaint(s) being filed against the Plaintiff.

37. The defendant CITY, its agents, servants and/or employees, including defendants TORRESCHAMORRO, wilfully, negligently and wrongfully accused the Plaintiff of having committed acts in violation of the Penal Law of the State of New York.

38. The defendant CITY, its agents, servants and/or employees, including defendants TORRESCHAMORRO, wilfully, negligently and wrongfully continued to prosecute the Plaintiff for alleged violations of the Penal Law of the State of New York, even though the defendants knew or should have known of facts and circumstances that would have lead a reasonable person to conclude that the criminal complaint, upon which said criminal prosecution was based, contained material falsehoods and was otherwise improper, and that the continued prosecution of the Plaintiff was, therefore, improper under the circumstances.

39. That, on information and belief, the Defendants did negligently, willfully and maliciously fabricate inculpatory evidence and withhold exculpatory evidence and did manipulate, intimidate, and/or coerce witnesses to improperly implicate the Plaintiff in the underlying criminal action.

40. That, on information and belief, the Defendants did negligently, willfully and maliciously fabricate official records and documents, and did wrongfully file the same to cause, and in support of, the arrest and prosecution of the Plaintiff.

41. That the DA and/or the CITY effectively promulgated policy, practices and/or customs, amounting to the deliberate indifference to, and impacting upon, the Plaintiff's civil rights, including but not limited to, those guaranteed by the Federal and State Constitutions, within the County of Kings, and said policies include, but are not limited to, the withholding of exculpatory evidence by ADAs and employees and members of the New York City Police Department, stopping, frisking and detaining individuals, especially those of the Plaintiff's ethnic background, without probable cause, the use of excessive and unreasonable force, the fabrication of criminal complaints, the arrest and detention of individuals known to have not committed any criminal wrong doing, the manipulation, coercion and intimidation of witnesses and the countenance of acts of misbehavior by employees and members of the New York City Police Department and the Office of District Attorney, New York County, including the violation of the civil rights of the Plaintiff and persons similarly situated, and the failure to properly instruct, train and/or supervise employees, including defendant TORRESCHAMORRO, and others involved in the investigation and prosecution of Plaintiff in the underlying criminal action that is the subject hereof.

42. That the DA, and the CITY, perpetuated, or failed to take steps to terminate, said policy, practices and/or customs, did not discipline or otherwise properly supervise their personnel who were allowed to and did engage in them, did not effectively instruct, train and/or supervise such personnel, including defendant TORRESCHAMORRO, with regard to the proper constitutional and statutory requirements in the exercise of their authority, but instead sanctioned the offending policies, practices and/or customs with a deliberate indifference to their effect on the individual constitutional rights of the Plaintiff and persons similarly situated.

43. As a result of the malicious prosecution, the Plaintiff was caused to suffer and continue to suffer severe emotional and psychological distress, anguish, anxiety, fear, humiliation, loss of wages, legal expenses and damage to their reputations. In addition, Plaintiff was denied access to his child(ren) as a direct consequence of his illegal arrest and detention, thus violating the Plaintiff and his families' right to "remain together" without State interference. See Duchesne v. Sugarman, 566 F.2d 817, 825 (2nd Cir. 1977).

44. The defendants' conduct was willful, wanton, reckless, malicious and/or exhibited a gross indifference to, and a callous disregard for human life, safety and the rights of others, and more particularly, the rights, life and safety of the Plaintiff; and was motivated by consideration of profit, financial advantage, monetary gain, economic aggrandizement and/or cost avoidance, to the virtual exclusion of all other considerations.

45. Due to defendants' negligence, the Plaintiff is entitled to damages and punitive damages in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limit of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
(INFLECTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS)

46. The Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the allegations contained in the paragraphs numbered above as if fully set forth herein.

47. The aforementioned actions of defendants were so outrageous, malicious and shocking that it exceeded all reasonable bounds of decency tolerated by the average member of the community.

48. Defendants acted with the desire and intent to cause Plaintiff emotional distress or acted under circumstances known to them which made it substantially certain that they would cause such emotional distress.

49. Defendants intentionally, knowingly, wilfully, recklessly, negligently and wrongfully caused Plaintiffs emotional distress or acted under circumstances known to them which made it substantially certain that they would cause such emotional distress.

50. Defendants acted with utter disregard of the consequences of their actions.

51. As a result, Plaintiff was caused to suffer the infliction of emotional distress.

52. The Defendants' conduct was willful, wanton, reckless, malicious and/or exhibited a gross indifference to, and a callous disregard for human life, safety and the rights of others, and more particularly, the rights, life and safety of the Plaintiff; and was motivated by consideration of profit, financial advantage, monetary gain, economic aggrandizement and/or cost avoidance, to the virtual exclusion of all other considerations.

53. Due to defendants' negligence, the Plaintiff is entitled to damages and punitive damages in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limit of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(NEGLIGENCE)

54. The Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the allegations contained in the paragraphs numbered above as if fully set forth herein.

55. The actions of defendant CITY, through its agents, servants and/or employees, including defendant TORRESCHAMORRO, heretofore described constitutes negligence in that defendant CITY negligently trained or failed to train its agents, servants, or employees, especially including defendants TORRESCHAMORRO.

56. The actions of defendant CITY, through its agents, servants, or employees, including defendant TORRESCHAMORRO, heretofore described constitutes negligence in that defendant CITY negligently supervised or failed to supervise its agents, servants, or employees, especially including defendant TORRESCHAMORRO.

57. The actions of defendant CITY, through its agents, servants, or employees, including defendant TORRESCHAMORRO, heretofore described constitutes negligence in that defendant CITY negligently disciplined or failed to discipline its agents, servants, or employees, especially including defendants TORRESCHAMORRO.

58. Defendant CITY was negligent in its hiring of its agents, servants and/or employees, especially including defendant TORRESCHAMORRO, who defendant CITY knew, or in the course of adequate and proper investigation should have reasonably known, were unfit to hold their positions.

59. Defendant CITY was negligent in its retention of its agents, servants and/or employees, especially including defendant TORRESCHAMORRO, who defendant CITY knew, or in the course of adequate and proper investigation should have reasonably known, were unfit to hold their positions in that they refused or failed to perform within the statutory and constitutional limits of their authority and misused and abused their positions.

60. That the defendants, their agents, servants, and/or employees were otherwise, and in general, careless, reckless and negligent under the circumstances existing as previously described.

61. All of the causes of action of their complaint are specifically excepted under C.P.L.R. § 1602.

62. As a result of the negligence of defendants CITY, and TORRESCHAMORRO, without any negligence on the part of Plaintiff, Plaintiff was caused to suffer severe and permanent personal injuries, pain and suffering, emotional and psychological distress, anguish, anxiety, fear, humiliation, loss of freedom, and loss of wages, legal expenses, and damage to his reputation. In addition, Plaintiff was denied access to his child(ren) as a direct consequence of his illegal arrest and detention, thus violating the Plaintiff and his families' right to "remain together" without State interference. See Duchesne v. Sugarman, 566 F.2d 817, 825 (2nd Cir. 1977).

63. The defendants' conduct was willful, wanton, reckless, malicious and/or exhibited a gross indifference to, and a callous disregard for human life, safety and the rights of others, and more particularly, the rights, life and safety of the Plaintiff; and was motivated by consideration of profit, financial advantage, monetary gain, economic aggrandizement and/or cost avoidance, to the virtual exclusion of all other considerations.

64. Due to defendants' negligence, Plaintiff is entitled to damages and punitive damages in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limit of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(ASSAULT/BATTERY/NEGLIGENT CONTACT)

65. The Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the allegations contained in the paragraphs numbered above as if fully set forth herein.

66. Defendant TORRESCHAMORRO's acts, along with those acts of the other police officers who's identities are presently unknown to the Plaintiff who assisted in the arrest of the Plaintiff, caused the Plaintiff to apprehend and/or fear unfriendly contact.

67. That on or about July 5, 2019, Defendant TORRESCHAMORRO and other police officers who's identities are presently unknown to the Plaintiff, did without cause or justification, forcibly stop, frisk, handcuff and detain the Plaintiff, and during said stop, frisk, handcuffing and detention, did utilize acts amounting to excessive force, in violation of the Plaintiff's civil rights.

68. A reasonable person in the same circumstances as the Plaintiff, would have apprehended and/or feared unfriendly contact.

69. Defendant TORRESCHAMORRO and the other police officers who's identities are presently unknown to the Plaintiff who assisted in the arrest of the Plaintiff assaulted the Plaintiff.

70. Defendant TORRESCHAMORRO was in the employ of the defendants, when Plaintiff was assaulted.

71. The assault and battery, as aforesaid, were within the scope of Defendant TORRESCHAMORRO's employment.

72. The defendants assaulted and battered the Plaintiff.

73. Defendant TORRESCHAMORRO's acts along with those acts of the other police officers who's identities are presently unknown to the Plaintiff who assisted in the arrest of the Plaintiff, were intended to make contact with the Plaintiff.

74. Defendant TORRESCHAMORRO and the other police officers who's identities are presently unknown to the Plaintiff who assisted in the arrest of the Plaintiff made contact with the Plaintiff.

75. Defendant TORRESCHAMORRO and the other police officers who's identities are presently unknown to the Plaintiff who assisted in the arrest of the Plaintiff battered Plaintiff.

76. The battery as aforesaid, was within the scope of Defendant TORRESCHAMORRO's employment.

77. The defendants battered the Plaintiff.

78. At all times herein mentioned, the person of defendants Defendant TORRESCHAMORRO, and that of the other police officers who's identities are presently unknown to the Plaintiffs who assisted in the arrest of the Plaintiff, negligently, carelessly and recklessly came into harmful contact with the person of the Plaintiff.

79. The Plaintiff was thereby caused to be injured on or about July 5, 2019.

80. The defendants' conduct was willful, wanton, reckless, malicious and/or exhibited a gross indifference to, and a callous disregard for human life, safety and the rights of others, and more particularly, the rights, life and safety of the Plaintiff; and was motivated by consideration of profit, financial advantage, monetary gain, economic aggrandizement and/or cost avoidance, to the virtual exclusion of all other considerations.

81. Due to defendants' actions, Plaintiff is entitled to damages and punitive damages in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limit of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(VIOLATION OF CIVIL RIGHTS)

82. The Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the allegations contained in the paragraphs numbered above as if fully set forth herein.

83. The actions of defendants heretofore described resulting from arrest, detention, imprisonment, assault, use of excessive force, and prosecution of the Plaintiff, constitute an unlawful arrest, imprisonment, and malicious prosecution which deprived the Plaintiff of rights, privileges, and immunities as guaranteed under the United States Constitution, Amendments One, Four, Five, and Fourteen, the New York State Constitution, the Civil Rights Acts, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986, and 1988 and the complained of conduct was either the result of an official policy or unofficial custom, including but not limited to, policies and customs concerning the stopping, frisking and detaining individuals, especially those of the Plaintiff's ethnic background, without probable cause, the use of excessive and unreasonable force, the fabrication of criminal complaints, the manipulation, coercion and intimidation of witnesses, the arrest and detention of individuals known to have not committed any criminal wrong doing and the hiring, training, supervision, retention and discipline of the defendant CITY's agents, servants and/or employees, and those involving the arrest, detention and prosecution of individuals, including and especially, those persons who are of the Plaintiff's ethnic descent.

84. That the Defendants established a custom policy and/or practice of encouraging, approving and/or tolerating the use by the New York City Police Department ("NYPD") of acts of misconduct against civilians, and especially those civilians who are of the Plaintiff's ethnic descent, and subsequent attempts to conceal such actions by failing to adequately train, supervise, and discipline its agents, employees and offices.

85. That the DA and/or the CITY effectively promulgated policy, practices and/or customs, amounting to the deliberate indifference to, and impacting upon, the Plaintiff's civil rights, including but not limited to, those guaranteed by the Federal and State Constitutions, within the County of Bronx, and said policies include, but are not limited to, the filing of knowingly false and/or fabricated criminal complaints by ADAs and/or employees and members of the New York City Police Department, to protect employees and members of the New York City Police Department who have engaged in acts of misconduct towards civilians, especially those of the Plaintiff's ethnic background.

86. That the Defendants established a custom policy and/or practice of encouraging, approving and/or tolerating ADA's and members of the New York City Police Department ("NYPD") in their withholding of exculpatory evidence and their countenance of the use by the NYPD of fabricated evidence and criminal complaints and acts of misconduct against civilians, and especially those civilians who are of the Plaintiff's ethnic descent, and subsequent attempts to conceal such actions by failing to adequately train, supervise, and discipline its agents, employees and offices.

87. That the Defendants were deliberately indifferent to the use of improper procedures in the detention and arrest of civilians, and especially those civilians who are of the Plaintiff's ethnic descent, and established a custom policy and/or practice of encouraging, approving and/or tolerating the use of said improper procedures by ADAs and the NYPD, including but not limited to the stopping, assault and battery, frisking, handcuffing, detention and arrest of persons without probable cause, the fabrication of criminal complaints and evidence, the withholding of exculpatory evidence and subsequent attempts to conceal such actions by failing to adequately train, supervise, and discipline its agents, employees and offices.

88. The defendants have deprived the Plaintiff of his liberty in violation of their civil and constitutional rights as set forth in the United States Constitution, 42 U.S. C. § 1983 and the Constitution of the State of New York.

89. That the defendants improperly and illegally deprived the Plaintiff access to his child(ren) as a direct consequence of his illegal arrest and detention, thus violating the Plaintiff and his families' right to "remain together" without State interference. See Duchesne v. Sugarman, 566 F.2d 817, 825 (2nd Cir. 1977).

90. That the defendants improperly and illegally deprived the Plaintiff his right to a free and fair trial and/or criminal proceeding as said rights are guaranteed by the Federal and State Constitutions.

91. The defendants actions were undertaken under color of law and would not have existed but for said defendants' use of their official power.

92. That the defendants conspired with each other and acted in concert to discriminate against and deprive the Plaintiffs of their Constitutional and Civil rights.

93. The supervisors and policy making officers of defendant CITY and its Police Department, and the Office of the District Attorney, as a matter of policy, are deliberately indifferent to said practices and have failed to take steps to terminate the herein above detailed practices and have failed to discipline or otherwise properly supervise the individuals engaged in such practices.

94. The defendant CITY has failed to properly or effectively train its agents, servants and/or employees, with regard to proper constitutional and statutory limits on the exercise of their authority, and such failure continues to this day.

95. The defendant CITY has sanctioned the policy and practices heretofore described through its deliberate indifference to the effect of such policy and practices upon the constitutional rights of the Plaintiffs and others similarly situated.

96. That the defendants' motivations were in contravention of the United States Constitution and the Constitution of the State of New York.

97. By reason of the foregoing, the Plaintiff has been damaged and suffered serious and severe permanent physical injuries, emotional distress and emotional harm as a result of these deprivations of constitutional and civil rights.

98. The defendants' conduct was willful, wanton, reckless, malicious and/or exhibited a gross indifference to, and a callous disregard for human life, safety and the rights of others, and more particularly, the rights, life and safety of the Plaintiff; and was motivated by consideration of profit, financial advantage, monetary gain, economic aggrandizement and/or cost avoidance, to the virtual exclusion of all other considerations.

99. Due to defendants' actions, Plaintiff is entitled to damages and punitive damages in a sum which exceeds the jurisdictional limit of all lower Courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(ATTORNEYS' FEES)

100. The Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the allegations contained in the paragraphs numbered above as if fully set forth herein.

101. The actions of defendants heretofore described resulting from the arrest, detention, imprisonment, assault, use of excessive force, and prosecution of the Plaintiff, constitute an unlawful arrest, imprisonment, and malicious prosecution which deprived the Plaintiffs of rights, privileges, and immunities as guaranteed under the United States Constitution, Amendments One, Four, Five, and Fourteen, the New York State Constitution, the Civil Rights Acts, 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986, and 1988 and the complained of conduct was either the result of an official policy or unofficial custom, including but not limited to, policies and customs concerning the stopping, frisking and detaining of individuals, especially those of the Plaintiff's ethnic background, without probable cause, the use of excessive and unreasonable force, the fabrication of criminal complaints, manipulation, coercion and intimidation of witnesses, the arrest and detention of individuals known to have not committed any criminal wrong doing and the hiring, training, supervision, retention and discipline of the defendant CITY's agents, servants and/or employees, and those involving the arrest, detention and prosecution of individuals, including and especially, those persons who are of the Plaintiff's ethnic descent.

102. That the Plaintiff has incurred significant attorneys' fees in the prosecution of the above referenced claims against the defendants. That in the event that the Plaintiff is successful in the prosecution of the aforesaid claim(s), Plaintiff shall be prevailing parties within the meaning of 42 USC § 1988 and entitled to the recovery of said attorneys fees from the defendants.

103. As a result, the defendants became liable to the Plaintiff in a sum of money which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all courts of lesser jurisdiction.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully request judgment against the defendants in a sum of money which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all courts of lesser jurisdiction, together with the costs and disbursements of their action.
