Synopsis

On March 13, 2005, at approximately 5:45 PM, § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were finishing some construction work at § 87(2)(b), Brooklyn. A few of them were drinking some Guinness beer and § 87(2)(b) placed his beer in § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle as uniformed officers approached. Officers Daniel Insogna, Erik Worobey and Fakrul Islam stopped and questioned § 87(2)(b) about possessing an open container of alcohol (Allegations A, B and C). § 87(2)(b) refused to provide identification so PO Insogna placed him in handcuffs. § 87(2)(b) complained about the tightness of the handcuffs and alleged that PO Insogna responded by further tightening the handcuffs (Allegation D). PO Insogna searched § 87(2)(b) incident to his lawful arrest and obtained his identification. § 87(2)(b) then alleged that PO Insogna searched the vehicle for the bottle of Guinness (Allegation E). PO Islam issued § 87(2)(b) a summons for possessing an open container of alcohol and released him. Before the officers left, § 87(2)(b) requested the officers' names and shield numbers. PO Worobey and PO Islam provided their information. However, § 87(2)(b) alleged that PO Insogna refused to provide his information though it was requested of him many times (Allegation F).

§ 87(2)(g)

Summary of Complaint

On March 15, 2005, § 87(2)(b) a § 87(2)(b) Black male, was interviewed at the CCRB as a walk-in complainant (enclosure 5.0-5.5). On March 13, 2005, § 87(2)(b) was doing construction work at § 87(2)(b) at the home of § 87(2)(b) with his brother, § 87(2)(b) his cousin, § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b). When they finished working, § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were drinking Guinness beer inside the residence. § 87(2)(b) was not drinking. At approximately 5:44 PM, § 87(2)(b) replaced the top to his Guinness bottle and the males put the Guinness bottles in black plastic bags and tied them shut while they were still in § 87(2)(b) home. They left § 87(2)(b) home with the bags. § 87(2)(b) was the last one to leave the residence. § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were in § 87(2)(b)'s Jeep Cherokee when § 87(2)(b) approached the jeep. He had previously noticed a marked patrol car up the block that had a vehicle stopped. As § 87(2)(b) opened the jeep door, the patrol car pulled beside the jeep and someone shouted out the window, "Hey, hey you." The officers used no lights or sirens. § 87(2)(b) left the bag with his Guinness on the floor by the backseat of the jeep. He approached the patrol car and asked the officers what the problem was. All the officers exited and shouted at him asking, "Where's the bottle you had?" § 87(2)(b) told them that he just had a bag and did not have a bottle. The officers surrounded him and again asked for the bottle. An officer (m/w, 5'8, medium build, late 20s, small bald spot, blond, 2807 were the first 4 numbers on shield), who was determined to be PO Insogna through CCRB investigation, requested § 87(2)(b)'s ID. When § 87(2)(b) asked why his ID was needed, PO Insogna told him that he was under arrest and then placed him in handcuffs. § 87(2)(b) told PO Insogna that the handcuffs were tight and PO Insogna responded by telling him to shut his mouth and then squeezed the handcuffs tighter.

PO Insogna then entered § 87(2)(b)'s back pocket and removed his ID. PO Insogna did not enter any other pockets after obtaining his identification. Another officer (m/w, 5'9-5'10, slim, late 20s to 30s), who was determined to be PO Worobey through CCRB investigation, placed § 87(2)(b) in the back of the patrol car and closed the door. As § 87(2)(b) was being placed in the patrol car, PO Insogna went to the van and, without asking for permission, opened the door and picked up the bag with the bottle that § 87(2)(b) had placed inside. PO Insogna opened the bag but § 87(2)(b) did not see what became of either the bag or the beer. § 87(2)(b) contradicted himself when he stated that the bottle was removed from the jeep before he was handcuffed.) PO Insogna and PO Worobey were in the patrol car with § 87(2)(b) and he repeated that his hand was really hurting from the handcuff. An officer (unknown) told him to shut his mouth and that he was being irrational. PO Insogna instructed the third officer (male, dark skin Indian, short, muscular, short black hair), determined through CCRB investigation to be PO Islam, to issue him a summons and handed PO Islam § 87(2)(b)'s license. § 87(2)(b) observed PO Islam complete the summons. He was then removed from the patrol car, his handcuffs were removed and PO Islam issued him a summons.

§ 87(2)(b)'s wrist was red from being handcuffed so he informed the officers that he was going to contact his lawyer. § 87(2)(b) asked PO Insogna five times for his badge number but PO Insogna instructed him to leave and that the number would be on the summons. PO Insogna had his hand on the steering wheel and as a result, his shoulder blocked his badge number. However § 87(2)(b) was able to record the first four numbers as 2807. PO Worobey showed his badge number (which § 87(2)(b) wrote down as 10614) and PO Islam pointed out his badge number, which was noted on the summons. § 87(2)(b) was outside on the sidewalk throughout the incident. § 87(2)(b) did not seek medical treatment for his wrists.

Mediation was discussed with § 87(2)(b) however § 87(2)(b) he opted for investigation.

Photo Viewing

§ 87(2)(b) viewed single service officer photos on May 26, 2005 (enclosure 5.2). He did not positively identify either PO Worobey or PO Islam. However, § 87(2)(b) identified PO Insogna as the driver of the patrol car and the one who put him in handcuffs and placed him in the patrol car. Further, § 87(2)(b) stated that he told PO Insogna that the handcuffs were too tight and PO Insogna told him to sit down and be quiet.

Witness Statements

§ 87(2)(b) was interviewed at § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn on May 13, 2005 (enclosure 6.0-6.2). On March 13, 2005, at approximately 3:00 PM on § 87(2)(b) in East New York, Brooklyn, § 87(2)(b) witnessed an interaction between § 87(2)(b) and the police. § 87(2)(b) had been doing construction with § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) brought out the trash and § 87(2)(b) walked to a store on the corner to buy a 6-pack of Guinness for § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b). When § 87(2)(b) returned, he and § 87(2)(b) sat in the van. § 87(2)(b) sat in the driver's seat and drank a Snapple while § 87(2)(b) drank a Guinness in the front passenger's seat with his window open. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were outside when a marked police car flipped its siren and stopped near them. At that time, § 87(2)(b) was holding an open Guinness inside a black plastic bag, but he was not drinking it. § 87(2)(b) placed the bottle and bag in the back of the van, next to the door, when the officers arrived. § 87(2)(b) pushed his own Guinness under his seat. Three uniformed male police officers (two White, one Hispanic) exited the marked police vehicle and informed § 87(2)(b) that they had observed him with the bag in his hand. § 87(2)(b) did not know which officer spoke with § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) told the officers that he did not have anything, but then an officer (unknown) found the bag inside the van and removed it. § 87(2)(b) could not remember if the officer opened the door or if it was still open. An officer (unknown) said that he saw § 87(2)(b) put the bag in the van, however § 87(2)(b) raised his voice and denied that the bag was his.

An officer (unknown) asked § 87(2)(b) for his identification but § 87(2)(b) responded that he did not have any. An officer (unknown) rear cuffed § 87(2)(b) and placed him in the patrol car since he did not have any ID. § 87(2)(b) did not resist but complained that his handcuffs were too tight. § 87(2)(b) did not hear any officer respond verbally or see any officer touch or tighten § 87(2)(b)'s handcuffs after he complained about them. At some point when § 87(2)(b) was in the RMP the officers obtained his ID, but § 87(2)(b) did not know how. After approximately five minutes, § 87(2)(b) was uncuffed and released. He subsequently told the officers that he would take matters further because his hands had red spots on them. § 87(2)(b) then asked the officers for their badge numbers. At least one officer (unknown) told him, "No problem." § 87(2)(b) did not know if § 87(2)(b) obtained any or all of the names or badge numbers. He did not hear § 87(2)(b) complain of any officer refusing to provide his information. In § 87(2)(b) opinion, § 87(2)(b) should have been more careful when he was drinking on the street since they had seen the officers up the block.

Results of Investigation

Officer Identification

§ 87(2)(b) identified PO1 as PO Insogna in photo array as well as by partial shield number 2807. PO Insogna's shield number is 28713. He identified PO Worobey by complete shield number 10614, which is PO Worobey's correct number. Though § 87(2)(b) did not pick PO Worobey out of the photo array, he did correctly identify PO Worobey as the taller of the two White officers. Finally, PO Islam was identified as the only darker skinned officer and the writer of the summons. PO Islam has a darker complexion and was the issuer of the summons.

Officers Daniel Insogna, Erik Worobey and Fakrul Islam were interviewed at the CCRB on February 6, 2006 (enclosures 10.1-10.2; 11.4-11.5; 12.2-12.3). On March 13, 2005, they worked from 5:30 PM to 2:05 AM. They were assigned to precinct conditions, working in uniform and assigned to a marked RMP. § 87(2)(g)

At approximately 5:50 PM, the officers observed a male, who they later identified as § 87(2)(b) standing on the sidewalk in front of § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn, holding (but not drinking) a 12 oz bottle of Guinness beer. The beer was not in a bag. As the officers pulled up and stopped, § 87(2)(b) placed the bottle of beer on the floor inside the back passenger's side door in a nearby minivan. They stopped, all exited the vehicle and approached § 87(2)(b). There were a number of individuals in the area, but no one else was observed holding or drinking alcohol. PO Worobey and PO Islam admitted asking for § 87(2)(b)'s ID while PO Insogna stated that he did not. § 87(2)(b) refused to provide his ID, though he was asked for it twice. PO Worobey and PO Islam informed § 87(2)(b) that they had observed him with the bottle. § 87(2)(b) denied that he had any beer though because the door to the minivan remained open, they could see the alcohol sitting on the floor of the minivan. Neither PO Islam nor PO Insogna could recall which officer retrieved the Guinness bottle but PO Worobey admitted that, without asking for permission, he reached his hand inside the open minivan and confiscated the bottle. He then smelled the bottle and determined that it contained alcohol.

PO Insogna and PO Worobey agreed that at about the same time as the alcohol was retrieved from the minivan, PO Insogna placed § 87(2)(b) in handcuffs and under arrest. PO Islam however, claimed that he placed handcuffs on § 87(2)(b). PO Insogna explained that § 87(2)(b) was placed in handcuffs because he was acting belligerent (loud and obnoxious) and was possibly intoxicated, while PO Worobey and PO Islam stated that § 87(2)(b) was temporarily under arrest because they could not issue a summons without verifying his identification. § 87(2)(b) did not resist being handcuffed and none of officers heard him complain that the handcuffs were too tight. PO Worobey placed his hand into § 87(2)(b)'s right front pocket and obtained his identification. § 87(2)(b) was placed in the rear of the RMP and a warrant check was conducted. The warrant check revealed negative results thus PO Islam issued § 87(2)(b) a summons for possessing an open container of alcohol and he was released.

Neither PO Insogna nor PO Islam heard § 87(2)(b) request any officer's name or shield number. However, PO Islam (on his own) informed § 87(2)(b) that his name was on the summons and explained where he needed to report to rectify the summons. PO Worobey stated that § 87(2)(b) asked him for his name and shield number so he wrote the information on the rear of the summons. PO Insogna did not verbally provide his name or shield number, but noted that his shield was visibly displayed on his chest. He did not notice if § 87(2)(b) attempted to read the number off his shield.

Attempts to Interview Witnesses

§ 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) all provided telephone statements, but for various reasons did not provide in-person statements to the CCRB.

§ 87(2)(b) was contacted on April 20, 2005 (enclosure 7.0). He stated that he, § 87(2)(b) and two others were going to § 87(2)(b) house after buying some Guinness. § 87(2)(b) was in the driver's seat of the van and drinking a soda. They had two black bags, one of which contained multiple bottles of Guinness. Three officers (2 White, one Indian) in a marked patrol car approached § 87(2)(b) who was just about to get into the back passenger's seat in the van. § 87(2)(b) placed the bags in the van. The officers asked § 87(2)(b) what he was drinking from the bag. § 87(2)(b) stated that he did not see § 87(2)(b) open or drink any of the Guinness. PO Islam (who § 87(2)(b) described as the "Indian officer") opened the door to the van and removed the bag, which contained the Guinness. § 87(2)(b) came out of her house and tried to talk to the officers but they didn't listen to her. The officers did not ask anyone else about drinking anything. § 87(2)(b) did not know if § 87(2)(b) received a summons. § 87(2)(b) scheduled an appointment to provide a statement at CCRB on April 25, 2005, however he did not appear for the appointment and failed to respond to multiple attempts to reschedule.

§ 87(2)(b) provided a telephone statement on May 12, 2005 (enclosure 8.0). She stated that on March 13, 2005 there were some men including her son-in-law, § 87(2)(b) who were remodeling her kitchen. They were done for the day so they went outside. § 87(2)(b) heard a noise and went outside to see what was happening. One of the men, who she described as having braids and whose brother owned the vehicle that they were using, was raising his voice in protest to some officers (2-3 officers). One of the officers (unknown) asked § 87(2)(b) where the bottle was. § 87(2)(b) stated that the males were not drinking and do not drink anything other than juice.) § 87(2)(b) was carrying a "black paper bag" with his tools inside and informed the officers that he did not know what they were talking about. An officer (unknown) placed § 87(2)(b) in handcuffs. An officer also took § 87(2)(b)'s driver's license. The officers kept asking where the bottle was and § 87(2)(b) told them that they could look in the car. At least one of the officers (unknown) looked into the car and did not find a bottle. § 87(2)(b) was released from the handcuffs and his driver's license was returned. Neither § 87(2)(b) nor the other males spoke with the officers. She was not interested in providing an in-person statement to the CCRB.

§ 87(2)(b) provided a telephone statement on May 12, 2005 (enclosure 9.0). § 87(2)(b) stated that on March 13, 2005, he was remodeling the kitchen of his mother-in-law, § 87(2)(b) with § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b). They finished for the day and were leaving the house together. § 87(2)(b) walked across the street to his car and § 87(2)(b) was getting into the back of § 87(2)(b)'s 4x4 vehicle. § 87(2)(b) heard a siren and turned around and saw three male uniformed police officers (2 White, 1 Black) around § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) could not attribute any actions to a specific officer. An officer asked § 87(2)(b) for his ID. § 87(2)(b) did not hear § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) provide a response, but an officer then said that if § 87(2)(b) did not have any identification then he would be arrested. An officer placed § 87(2)(b) in handcuffs and retrieved his § 87(2)(b) wallet from his back pocket. § 87(2)(b) used a loud voice as he told the officers that his handcuffs were too tight. An officer responded that they would let him go as soon as they issued him a summons. The officers accused § 87(2)(b) of drinking alcohol. Two officers led § 87(2)(b) to the police car and placed him in the back passenger's seat. The Black officer completed a summons for § 87(2)(b). At some point § 87(2)(b) saw an officer with a bag in his hand and heard him say that he took the bag from § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle, though § 87(2)(b) did not witness that. § 87(2)(b) did not see what was in the bag and stated that none of them had been drinking. Once he was released, § 87(2)(b) began writing down the officers' visible names and shield numbers. § 87(2)(b) did ask one or two officers for their information but § 87(2)(b) did not know how or if they responded. § 87(2)(b) was unable to schedule an interview due to a busy work schedule and he failed to schedule an appointment at a later date.

Police Documents

Summons

PO Islam issued § 87(2)(b) a summons at 5:50 PM on March 13, 2005 for an open container of alcohol (enclosure 13.0).

Complaint's CCRB History

§ 87(2)(b) has made no other complaints at the CCRB beyond the one in question (enclosure 3).

Officers' CCRB Histories

PO Daniel Insogna has been a member of the NYPD for six years (enclosure 2.0). He has no substantiated allegations, but is the subject of one other CCRB complaint (#200600344). In that case, PO Insogna is facing two allegations of physical force.

PO Erik Worobey has been a member of the NYPD for two years (enclosure 2.1-2.2). He has no substantiated allegations, but is currently the subject in four other CCRB complaints (#200509945, #200510534, #200600344 and #200600424). The cases involve 18 allegations of force, abuse of authority and discourtesy.

PO Fakrul Islam has been a member of the NYPD for two years (enclosure 2.3). He has no substantiated CCRB allegations. He is currently the subject of two other CCRB complaints (#200509945 and #200603575).

Conclusions and Recommendations

Undisputed Facts

On March 13, 2005, § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) did construction work for § 87(2)(b) at her home located at § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn. When they were finished at approximately 5:45 PM, § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) (at minimum) were drinking bottles of Guinness beer. When § 87(2)(b) was outside with his Guinness, he noticed a marked patrol car up the block. As § 87(2)(b) was going to enter § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle, the patrol car stopped in front of § 87(2)(b) and Officers Insogna, Worobey and Islam exited and called out to § 87(2)(b). According to all of the verified statements, § 87(2)(b) left his Guinness in the back of § 87(2)(b)'s vehicle and spoke with the officers. The officers collectively asked § 87(2)(b) about possessing the Guinness and also requested his identification. § 87(2)(b) denied that he had any alcohol and refused to provide any identification. An officer placed § 87(2)(b) in

Allegation B: PO Fakrul Islam stopped and questioned § 87(2)(b)

Allegation C: PO Daniel Insogna stopped and questioned § 87(2)(b)

It is not disputed that Officers Worobey, Islam and Insogna stopped and questioned § 87(2)(b) about his possession of an open container of alcohol. § 87(2)(b) admitted that he had been drinking a Guinness beer and carried it outside onto the public sidewalk. He claimed that it was tied up in a black plastic bag when he was outside and he was not actively consuming the alcohol. § 87(2)(g)
