Synopsis

§ 87(2)(b) filed the following complaint via the CCRB's call processing system on October 26, 2008. On October 25, 2008 at approximately 11:59 p.m., § 87(2)(b) was inside of her house, located at § 87(2)(b) in Brooklyn. Her nephew § 87(2)(b) who § 87(2)(b), was talking loudly outside with a friend named § 87(2)(b) and another unknown teenager. § 87(2)(b) was watching them from an upstairs window.

A marked police car arrived. Two white male officers exited the car. The driver was 36 years old, 6' tall, with dark hair. The passenger, identified via investigation as Sergeant Erik Worobey, Badge 2712 (seen on his shield by § 87(2)(b)) was 35 years old, under 6' tall, with a slim build and blond hair. § 87(2)(b), § 87(2)(b) and their friend walked quickly into the house. The officers followed the teenagers into the hallway of the house. § 87(2)(b) ran downstairs and asked the officers what was going on. Sergeant Worobey told § 87(2)(b) "I think we were supposed to go to § 87(2)(b)." The officers walked out of the house and left.

The investigator reached § 87(2)(b) via phone on October 29, 2008 and took a phone statement, but § 87(2)(b) stated that she would call the investigator back to schedule an interview. The investigator reached § 87(2)(b) on November 7, 2008, via phone, but § 87(2)(b) stated that she was sleeping and disconnected the call. The investigator left please call voicemails for § 87(2)(b) on November 13, 2008, November 18, 2008 and December 3, 2008. The investigator mailed § 87(2)(b) please call letters on November 13, 2008 and December 29, 2008. Neither of these letters were returned by the United States Postal Service. A check of the NYC Department of Correction website on December 29, 2008, revealed that § 87(2)(b) is not currently incarcerated in NYC. § 87(2)(g)
