22. Plaintiff has sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

23. On July 6, 2012, at approximately 1:00 p.m., plaintiff was unlawfully pulled over by the defendants while driving his motor vehicle in the vicinity of Rockaway Avenue and Somers Street, Brooklyn, NY.

24. After unlawfully pulling over plaintiff, approximately 4 defendant police officers approached the motor vehicle and asked plaintiff whether they could search his motor vehicle.

25. Plaintiff told the defendant police officers that they could not search his motor vehicle.

26. The defendant police officers then ordered plaintiff to exit the motor vehicle.

27. The officers ordered plaintiff to put his hands in the air and not to move.

28. Plaintiff complied with all of the defendant police officers' orders.

29. The defendant police officers then ordered plaintiff to the rear of his vehicle, and then without reasonable suspicion, probable cause, or legal justification, searched plaintiff.

30. While two defendant police officers searched plaintiff's person, two other defendant police officers searched plaintiff's motor vehicle, without reasonable suspicion, probable cause or any legal justification.

31. At no time did the defendant police officers recover any illegal drugs, weapons or contraband of any kind from plaintiff's person or from plaintiff's motor vehicle.

32. At no time did plaintiff commit a crime, nor did the defendant police officers have any reason to believe he commit a crime.

33. After approximately 15 minutes of searching plaintiff's person and plaintiff's vehicle, the defendant police officers released the plaintiff from police custody without issuing him a summons or charging him with any crime.

34. Plaintiff then got back in his car and began to drive towards his home.

35. Approximately 15 minutes later, at approximately 1:30 p.m., plaintiff saw the same police officers that had stopped him in an NYPD van in the vicinity of Broadway and Hull Street, Brooklyn, New York.

36. Plaintiff lawfully parked his vehicle and then approached the defendant police officers' van and asked them for their names and badge numbers.

37. One of the defendant police officers responded, "1-2-3 fuck you, boy."

38. Then, approximately 4 defendant police officers exited the NYPD vehicle and surrounded plaintiff in an extremely aggressive manner, causing plaintiff to fear for his safety.

39. The defendant police officers then unlawfully grabbed plaintiff in a rough and aggressive manner and physically shoved plaintiff against the side of the NYPD vehicle, and unlawfully handcuffed plaintiff without probable cause or legal justification.

40. The defendant police officers then threw plaintiff onto the ground and proceeded to repeatedly punch and kick plaintiff all over his head and torso, without probable cause or any legal justification.

41. At no time did plaintiff commit a crime, nor did the defendant police officers have probable cause or reason to believe he committed a crime.

42. At no time did the defendant police officers recover any guns, drugs, or contraband of any kind from plaintiff.

43. Defendants did not have an objective factual basis to believe plaintiff committed a crime or violated the law in any way.

44. Nevertheless, plaintiff was handcuffed, assaulted, battered, and placed under arrest by the defendant police officers without legal justification or probable cause.

45. The defendant police officers then placed plaintiff in the back of the NYPD van, shut the door, forced plaintiff to lay face down on the floor of the van and applied extreme pressure to his legs for approximately 30 seconds, causing plaintiff to suffer severe pain.

46. A defendant police officer then said to plaintiff, "you think you are tough? Let's see just how tough you are." The defendant police officer forced plaintiff to open his mouth and then placed his NYPD firearm inside of plaintiff's mouth, counted to three, and pulled the trigger.

47. Plaintiff feared for his life because the defendant police officer placed a firearm inside of his mouth and pulled the trigger.

48. After the defendant police officer removed the firearm from plaintiff's mouth, plaintiff told him that what he had done was wrong and that he was going to file a complaint against him.

49. In response, the defendant police officers told him he better, "shut the fuck up," and then the 4 defendant police officers punched plaintiff all over his head and torso.

50. The defendant police officers then transported plaintiff in a NYPD police vehicle to the 73rd precinct, located at 1470 E New York Ave, Brooklyn, NY.

51. When plaintiff arrived at the 73rd precinct, the defendant police officers shoved plaintiff very aggressively into a holding cell while plaintiff was still handcuffed, causing plaintiff to lose his balance and fall head-first into the wall.

52. After several hours in the holding cell, plaintiff was transported to the Emergency Department at Brookdale University Hospital Medical Center. Plaintiff received several staples to his head to close a large laceration. Plaintiff was also treated for pain to his head, back and right elbow.

53. Plaintiff was then transported back to the 73rd precinct and placed into a holding cell.

54. While at the precinct, the defendant police officers falsely communicated to the Brooklyn District Attorney's Office that plaintiff had committed a crime.

55. After many hours in the holding cell at the 73rd precinct, plaintiff was transported to Brooklyn Central Booking and placed into a holding cell.

56. After approximately 18 hours in police custody, on July 7, 2012 at approximately 7:30 a.m., plaintiff was arraigned and released on his own recognizance.

57. Plaintiff was forced to return to court on numerous occasions before all charges against plaintiff were dismissed on October 15, 2013.

58. The incident was extremely psychologically damaging to plaintiff. Furthermore, as a result of the incident, plaintiff has a permanent scar on his head, and plaintiff suffered extreme pain in his head, back and legs for a significant period of time.

59. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent the unjustifiable stop, question, frisk, search, seizure, use of excessive force, false arrest and malicious prosecution of plaintiff.

60. The unlawful stop, search, false imprisonment, false arrest, assault, battery and use of excessive force on plaintiff by the individually named defendants caused plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth Amendment and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

61. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 60 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

62. The individually named police officer defendants while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused plaintiff to be unlawfully seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, and falsely imprisoned and maliciously prosecuted without probable cause in violation of plaintiff's right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

63. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

64. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment

65. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 64 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

66. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

67. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

68. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Search

69. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 68 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

70. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

71. Defendants lacked probable cause to search plaintiff.

72. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York.

73. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

74. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

75. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 74 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

76. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

77. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 76 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

78. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

79. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

80. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of his safety, and he was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

81. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

82. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

83. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 82 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

84. Defendants owed a duty of care to plaintiff.

85. Defendants breached that duty of care by stopping, searching, assaulting, battering, falsely arresting, and falsely imprisoning plaintiff.

86. As a direct and proximate cause of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

87. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by plaintiff.

88. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

89. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 88 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

90. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiff, Blayn Crosson. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed plaintiff by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

91. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was deprived of liberty and sustained great emotional injuries.

92. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Assault

93. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 92 as if fully set forth herein.

94. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of his employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously assaulted plaintiff in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the plaintiff, and that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the plaintiff.

95. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

96. The City, as the employer of defendants, is responsible for his wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Battery

97. Plaintiff repeats and realleges paragraphs 1 through 96 as if fully set forth herein.

98. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered plaintiff, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner struck plaintiff without his consent and with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the plaintiff and caused such battery.

99. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for his conduct.

100. The City, as the employer of defendants, is responsible for his wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment

Rights

101. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 100 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

102. The use of excessive force by defendants in throwing plaintiff onto the ground, repeatedly punching and kicking plaintiff in the head and torso, putting a gun in plaintiff's mouth and pulling the trigger, and shoving him into a holding cell while handcuffed causing him to hit his head against the wall, was an objectively unreasonable physical seizure of plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

103. The individually named police officer defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

104. The City, as the employer of defendants, is responsible for his wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

105. Plaintiffs repeat and reallege paragraphs 1 through 104 as if fully set forth herein.

106. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the State of New York and New York State common law.

107. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against plaintiff.

108. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against plaintiff and for each of the charges for which he was prosecuted.

109. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in plaintiffs' favor on the aforementioned dates.

110. Plaintiff was subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate plaintiff's Fourth Amendment rights.

111. The individually named defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

112. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

JURY DEMAND

113. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff BLAYN CROSSON demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorneys fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
