COMPLAINT

-against-

THE CITY OF NEW YORK, NYPD DETECTIVE SEAN CARROLL (Tax Reg. # 946831), and POLICE OFFICERS JOHN and JANE DOE #'s 1-8 (names and numbers are unknown at present) and Other unidentified members of the New York City Police Department, Defendants.

-----X
Plaintiff Latrice Anderson, by her attorney, SYDNEY O'HAGAN, ESQ., as and for the Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, the rights secured by the First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York. Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested by the defendants. Plaintiff was deprived of her federal constitutional and state constitutional and common law rights when the individually named police officer defendants subjected her to, among other things, false arrest, unlawful search and seizure, federal and state law malicious prosecution, denial of medical treatment, conspiracy, negligence, gross negligence, intentional and negligent infliction of emotional distress and implementation and continuation of an unlawful municipal policy, practice, and custom. In addition, plaintiff was subjected to conversion of chattels. Plaintiff seeks compensatory and punitive damages, declaratory relief, an award of costs and attorney's fees and such other relief as the Court deems just and proper.

PARTIES

2. Latrice Anderson is a citizen the United States and a resident of Queens County, New York.
3. Defendant City of New York is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York, which violated plaintiff's rights as described herein.
4. NYPD DETECTIVE SEAN CARROLL, assigned Tax Reg. # 946831, is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.

5. NYPD DETECTIVE SEAN CARROLL (Tax Reg. # 946831) is being sued in his/her individual capacity and official capacity.
6. Police Officer John Doe Number 1 is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
7. Police Officer John Doe #1 is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.
8. New York Police Officers John and Jane Doe #'s 2-8 are and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
9. Police Officers John and Jane Doe #2-8 are being sued in his/her individual capacity and official capacity.
10. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents, and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
11. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department which acts as agents in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
12. Plaintiff in furtherance of her State causes of action filed a timely Notice of Claim upon the City of New York in compliance with Municipal Law Section 50.
13. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claim.
14. The City of New York held a 50(h) hearing examination of the plaintiff on January 23, 2020.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

15. On October 2, 2019 at approximately 6:30 a.m., at 118-16 154th Street, in Queens, New York, several police officers from the Tactical Narcotics Team, and other unknown police commands, including upon information and belief, defendant NYPD Detective Sean Carroll, P.O. John and Jane Does #1-8, and other as yet unknown police officers, at times acting in concert and at times acting independently, committed the following illegal acts against Plaintiff Anderson.

16. On October 2, 2019, at approximately 6:30 a.m., Ms. Anderson was in the bathroom of her sister's apartment when, without consent, an arrest warrant, a lawful search warrant, probable cause, or reasonable suspicion that plaintiff (or any third person) had committed a crime, the defendants unlawfully entered the apartment by breaking through the door and flashing lights and firearms.
17. Defendant officers never displayed or provided proof of a search warrant to plaintiff or any other individuals arrested at the scene.
18. Once the defendant police officers entered the apartment, plaintiff was not free to disregard their questions, or walk away, or leave the scene.
19. While inside the apartment, defendants, without consent, an arrest warrant, a lawful search warrant, probable cause, or reasonable suspicion to believe that the plaintiff had committed a crime, falsely arrested the plaintiff. Her sister, her sister's boyfriend, and her boyfriend were also arrested
20. Plaintiff Anderson denies all criminal charges and allegations. Defendant NYPD officers were aware she was not in possession of drugs or a weapon because her boyfriend, Rene Towles, told the police that any and all illegal substances or weapons in the home belonged to him. There were no weapons or drugs found on or near her person.
21. While conduct the search of the apartment, defendant police officers destroyed plaintiff's clothing and confiscated $317 in cash. These items were never replaced or returned.
22. Plaintiff suffered with knee problems and was transported to the 113th precinct and Central Booking without her knee brace. As a result, she suffered physical pain, yet received no medical intervention for the pain in her knee while at the precinct or Central Booking. Upon information and belief, she did not receive any medical treatment for the knee pain during her entire time in custody.
23. While plaintiff was incarcerated at 113th precinct and Central Booking, defendants falsely and maliciously told the New York County District Attorney's office that plaintiff had committed the crimes of possession of weapon and possession of a controlled substance, among other crimes.
24. Based on the defendants' false statement, the Queens County District Attorney's office chose to prosecute Plaintiff Anderson under docket CR-030819-19QN.
25. Bail was set on Plaintiff Anderson at arraignment. She remained in custody for 6.5 days. During her confinement, she was subjected to depraved, filthy, and inhumane conditions.
26. Plaintiff Anderson received an Adjournment in Contemplation of Dismissal ("ACD") for the charges of unlawful possession of pistol or revolver ammunition and unlawful possession of marijuana on October 8, 2019. All other charges contained in the complaint were dismissed and sealed on October 8, 2019.
27. Prior to dismissal, plaintiff attended 3 court appearances. She was unable to work for 6 days during her incarceration and lost a total of at least $739 in wages.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTIONFALSE ARREST AND FALSE IMPRISONMENT

28. Plaintiff repeats and alleges paragraphs 1 through 28 as if fully set forth herein.
29. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.
30. The individually named defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
31. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTIONMALICIOUS PROSECUTION

32. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 32 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
33. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the State of New York.
34. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff with malice and without probable cause, caused her a serious deprivation of liberty as a result, and Plaintiff obtained a favorable termination on the fabricated charges.
35. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against plaintiff.
36. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against plaintiff and for each of the charges for which he was prosecuted.
37. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated favorably to plaintiff on October 8, 2019.
38. Plaintiff was subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate her state constitutional and tort rights.
39. The individually named defendant Police Officers were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT HIRING, RETENTION, TRAINING AND SUPERVISION

- 40. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 40 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
- 41. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise the individually named defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of NYPD duties.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO INTERVENE

- 42. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 41 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
- 43. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other members of the NYPD.
- 44. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein despite having had a reasonable opportunity to do so, and full knowledge of the unlawful conduct.
- 45. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was subjected to an illegal search and undue force upon her person over the course of the false arrest.
- 46. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York, the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
- 47. The City, as the employer of defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENCE

- 48. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 47 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
- 49. Defendants owed a duty of care to plaintiff.
- 50. Defendants breached that duty of care by subjecting her to an illegal search and undue force and unprivileged deprivation of her liberty without sufficient or any cause to do so.

51. As a direct and proximate cause of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
52. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault by plaintiff.
53. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

INTENTIONAL AND NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

54. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 45 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
55. By the actions described herein, the individually named police officer defendants, each acting individually and in concert with one another, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
56. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was deprived of liberty and sustained great emotional injuries.
57. The City, as the employer of the defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat behavior.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

CRUEL AND UNUSUAL PUNISHMENT

58. The plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 58 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
59. By actions described herein, the individually named police officer defendants and correction officers, each acting individually and in concert with one another, intentionally disregarded plaintiff's medical needs. Defendants refused to provide any medical treatment to the plaintiff, despite her repeated requests they do so. This failure to provide treatment inflicted unnecessary and wanton pain upon plaintiff. As a result, plaintiff suffered severe pain and prolonged physical harm.
60. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was subjected to cruel and unusual punishment.
61. The City, as the employer of the defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

EIGHTH, NINTH, TENTH, ELEVENTH CAUSES OF ACTION42 U.S.C. § 1983 and 42 U.S.C. 1988

Violation of First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of US Constitution pursuant to Court's concurrent jurisdiction over Plaintiff's federal first-amendment-retaliation claim (8th claim); false-arrest/cruel and unusual punishment/unlawful-search claims (9th claim); malicious-prosecution claim (10th claim) and deprivation-of-fair-trial claim (11th claim).

62. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 61 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
63. Defendants, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that violated Plaintiff's federal constitutional rights as protected by 42 USC Section 1983.
64. New York State courts have concurrent jurisdiction to hear federal claims such as Plaintiff's Section 1983 ones here.
65. Plaintiff's federal constitutional claims—brought pursuant to 42 USC 1983 and 1988—allege the violation of her First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment rights.
66. In particular, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' retaliatory and harassing false arrest, use of cruel and unusual punishment, unlawful search, malicious prosecution and fabrication of evidence violated her First, Fourth, Fifth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendment rights insofar as Defendants had no cause or legal privilege to submit Plaintiff to deprivation of her liberty, seizure and search of her person, and other constitutional injuries, yet they did so with malice and retaliatory intent.
67. Insofar as Plaintiff's federal claims, brought pursuant to the court's concurrent jurisdiction over them, mirror state constitutional tort and tort elements, Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the above allegations in support of the federal claims here.
68. In the event Plaintiff prevails at trial on one, some or all of her 42 USC Section 1983 claims pursuant to the court's concurrent jurisdiction, she also seeks reasonable fees and costs as prevailing party pursuant to 42 USC Section 1988.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Municipal liability pursuant to 42 USC Section 1983

69. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 68 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
70. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of defendant City of New York, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.
71. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department included, but were not limited to policies, customs and practices wherein New York City Police officers arrest individuals without probable cause and create false versions of events to justify their actions to achieve remunerative ends through overtime, to achieve professional advancement through arrest numbers, and to satisfy personal whims through retaliatory use of their authority.

72. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department were the moving force behind the violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights as described herein. As a result of the failure of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department to properly recruit, screen, train, discipline, and supervise its officers, including the individual defendants, defendant City of New York has tacitly authorized, ratified, and has been deliberately indifferent to, the acts and conduct complained of herein.
73. Similarly, the City of NY is on notice of the obvious risk that their failure to train, discipline and supervise its officers—and in particular these specific Defendants who discovery will show to have been the subject of misconduct allegations that went uncorrected—proximately caused the constitutional violations suffered by Plaintiff here.
74. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the Constitutional violations suffered by plaintiff as alleged herein.
75. As a result of the foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department, plaintiff was unlawfully arrested, subjected to undue force and unlawful search, and prosecuted.
76. Defendants collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law were directly and actively involved in violating plaintiff's constitutional rights.

WHEREFORE, LATRICE ANDERSON, plaintiff, demands a judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this actions which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorney's fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as appropriate under the law.
