MALIK CAMPBELL,

Plaintiff,

VERIFIED COMPLAINT

-against-

THE CITY OF NEW YORK, NYPD OFFICER IMRON BARAKAT (Shield # 8093), NYPD OFFICER KARL CAMPBELL (Shield # 12839) and NYPD OFFICERS JOHN and JANE DOE #'s 1-8 (names and numbers are unknown at present) and Other Unidentified members of the New York City Police Department, Defendants.

-----X

Plaintiff Malik Campbell, by his attorney, SYDNEY O'HAGAN, ESQ., as and for the Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, the rights secured by the First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York. Plaintiff was unlawfully arrested by the defendants. Plaintiff was deprived of his federal constitutional and state constitutional and common law rights when the individually named police officer defendants unlawfully confined plaintiff, caused the unjustifiable arrest of plaintiff and malicious prosecution and denial of a fair trial of the plaintiff.

PARTIES

2. Malik Campbell is a resident of the State of New York, Kings County.
3. Defendant City of New York is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York, which violated plaintiff's rights as described herein.
4. NYPD OFFICER IMRON BARAKAT, assigned Shield # 8093, NYPD OFFICER KARL CAMPBELL, assigned Shield # 12839, employed with the 69th Precinct, are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
5. NYPD DETECTIVE IMRON BARAKAT (Shield # 8093), NYPD OFFICER KARL CAMPBELL (Shield # 12839) are being sued in their individual capacity and official capacity.

6. Police Officer John Doe Number 1 is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
7. Police Officer John Doe #1 is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.
8. New York Police Officers John and Jane Doe #'s 2-8 are and were at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
9. Police Officers John and Jane Doe #'s 2-8 are being sued in his/her individual capacity and official capacity.
10. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents, and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
11. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department which acts as agents in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

12. On June 7, 2019, after midnight at East 105th Street and Farragut Road, in Brooklyn, New York, several NYPD police officers, including upon information and belief, defendant NYPD Officers Imron Barakat, Karl Campbell, and John and Jane Doe #'s 1-8, and other as yet unknown police officers, at times acting in concert and at times acting independently, committed the following illegal acts against Plaintiff Campbell.
13. After midnight on June 7, 2019, Plaintiff Campbell was walking to the subway train station when, without consent, an arrest warrant, a lawful search warrant, probable cause, or reasonable suspicion that plaintiff had committed a crime, the defendants unlawfully stopped and searched plaintiff.
14. Once the defendant officers stopped Plaintiff Campbell, he was not free to walk away or leave the scene.
15. Defendants alleged that plaintiff had committed a robbery of a cab driver inside his cab at approximately 11:50 p.m. on June 6, 2019. At the time this robbery allegedly occurred, Plaintiff

Campbell was at his god brother Marcel's house, located approximately 2 blocks from where he was arrested, celebrating his own surprise graduation party. A text message Marcel sent to plaintiff's mother at 12:03 a.m. verifies plaintiff's presence at the party. Moreover, evidence in defendant police officers' possession negated any indication that plaintiff was the perpetrator of this crime. The cab driver alleged his cell phone and other papers were stolen by the perpetrator, yet neither item was in plaintiff's possession when he was unlawfully stopped and searched. Furthermore, defendant police officers were in possession of video surveillance that clearly identified the perpetrator. This video showed the perpetrator running down a street and turning into a property with a gate. This individual had long dreadlocks that bounced as he ran. Plaintiff Campbell hair was short and close cut, as verified by defendant officers in their arrest paperwork. Finally, a DNA test was completed on the recovered weapon and analysis revealed that plaintiff Campbell's DNA was not on the weapon.

16. Defendants disregarded this information and arrested plaintiff for robbery, menacing, and criminal possession of a weapon. Plaintiff denies this charge and provided testimony and objective proof at the time of his arrest demonstrating he was not the perpetrator of any crime.
17. Plaintiff was transported to the 69th precinct where police officers told Plaintiff that the perpetrator had a scar on his right cheek. Plaintiff clearly had no such scar on his face. Plaintiff was then transferred to the 63rd precinct where he was made to change his clothes into a dark t-shirt and wear a black hat before undergoing a line-up. He was never identified as the perpetrator in the line-up. Plaintiff was then transferred to New York Central Booking.
18. While plaintiff was incarcerated at the 69th and 63rd precincts and Central Booking, defendants falsely and maliciously told the New York County District Attorney's Office that plaintiff had committed the crime of Robbery, Possession of a Loaded Firearm, Menacing and Petit Larceny, among other crimes. Defendants knew this allegation to be false based on information provided at the time of plaintiff's arrest negating his identity as the perpetrator and information gathered at the 69th and 63rd precinct.
19. Based on the defendant's false statements, the New York County District Attorney's office chose to prosecute plaintiff under docket CR-021964-19KN.
20. Plaintiff Campbell had bail set on him at arraignment and was transferred to Riker's Island.
21. Plaintiff was incarcerated for approximately 3 days. During his confinement he was subject to depraved, filthy, unsafe and inhumane conditions.
22. On September 12, 2019, the above-stated malicious prosecution terminated in plaintiff's favor when the case against him was dismissed and sealed in its entirety.
23. Prior to dismissal, plaintiff attended 1 court appearance.
24. Plaintiff Campbell arrest and confinement prevented him from graduating from high school as anticipated in June 2019. He was forced to attend summer school and graduated in September 2019.

He also missed his high school prom. He has suffered mental anguish, anxiety, and depression and has sought therapy to help him cope with his ongoing mental health issues relating to this arrest.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

FALSE ARREST AND FALSE IMPRISONMENT

25. Plaintiff repeats and alleges paragraphs 1 through 25 as if fully set forth herein.
26. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.
27. The individually named defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
28. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

MALICIOUS PROSECUTION

29. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 28 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
30. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the State of New York.
31. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiff with malice and without probable cause, caused him a serious deprivation of liberty as a result, and Plaintiff obtained a favorable termination on the fabricated charges.
32. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against plaintiff.
33. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against plaintiff and for each of the charges for which he was prosecuted.
34. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated favorably to plaintiff on September 12, 2019.
35. Plaintiff was subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate his state constitutional and tort rights.

36. The individually named defendant Police Officers were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT HIRING, RETENTION, TRAINING AND SUPERVISION

37. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 36 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
38. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise the individually named defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of NYPD duties.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO INTERVENE

39. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 38 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
40. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other members of the NYPD.
41. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein despite having had a reasonable opportunity to do so, and full knowledge of the unlawful conduct.
42. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was subjected to an illegal search and undue force upon his person over the course of the false arrest.
43. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York, the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
44. The City, as the employer of defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENCE

45. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 44 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

46. Defendants owed a duty of care to plaintiff.
47. Defendants breached that duty of care by subjecting him to an illegal search and undue force and unprivileged deprivation of his liberty without sufficient or any cause to do so.
48. As a direct and proximate cause of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
49. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault by plaintiff.
50. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

51. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 50 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
52. By the actions described herein, the individually named police officer defendants, each acting individually and in concert with one another, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiff. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
53. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was deprived of liberty and sustained great emotional injuries.
54. The City, as the employer of the defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat behavior.

SEVENTH, EIGHTH, NINTH, TENTH CAUSES OF ACTION

42 U.S.C. § 1983 and 42 U.S.C. 1988

Violation of First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of US Constitution pursuant to Court's concurrent jurisdiction over Plaintiff's federal first-amendment-retaliation claim (9th claim); false-arrest/unlawful-search claims (10th claim); malicious-prosecution claim (11th claim) and deprivation-of-fair-trial claim (12th claim).

55. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 54 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
56. Defendants, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that violated Plaintiff's federal constitutional rights as protected by 42 USC Section 1983.

57. New York State courts have concurrent jurisdiction to hear federal claims such as Plaintiff's Section 1983 ones here.
58. Plaintiff's federal constitutional claims—brought pursuant to 42 USC 1983 and 1988—allege the violation of his First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment rights.
59. In particular, Plaintiff alleges that Defendants' retaliatory and harassing false arrest, use of undue and excessive force upon him causing physical injury, unlawful search, malicious prosecution and fabrication of evidence violated his First, Fourth, Fifth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendment rights insofar as Defendants had no cause or legal privilege to submit Plaintiff to deprivation of his liberty, seizure and search of his person, and other constitutional injuries, yet they did so with malice and retaliatory intent.
60. Insofar as Plaintiff's federal claims, brought pursuant to the court's concurrent jurisdiction over them, mirror state constitutional tort and tort elements, Plaintiff repeats and reiterates the above allegations in support of the federal claims here.
61. In the event Plaintiff prevails at trial on one, some or all of his 42 USC Section 1983 claims pursuant to the court's concurrent jurisdiction, he also seeks reasonable fees and costs as prevailing party pursuant to 42 USC Section 1988.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Municipal liability pursuant to 42 USC Section 1983

62. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 61 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
63. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of defendant City of New York, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.
64. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department included, but were not limited to policies, customs and practices wherein New York City Police officers arrest individuals without probable cause and create false versions of events to justify their actions to achieve remunerative ends through overtime, to achieve professional advancement through arrest numbers, and to satisfy personal whims through retaliatory use of their authority.
65. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department were the moving force behind the violation of plaintiff's constitutional rights as described herein. As a result of the failure of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department to properly recruit, screen, train, discipline, and supervise its officers, including the individual defendants, defendant City of New York has tacitly authorized, ratified, and has been deliberately indifferent to, the acts and conduct complained of herein.

66. Similarly, the City of NY is on notice of the obvious risk that their failure to train, discipline and supervise its officers—and in particular these specific Defendants who discovery will show to have been the subject of misconduct allegations that went uncorrected—proximately caused the constitutional violations suffered by Plaintiff here.
67. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the Constitutional violations suffered by plaintiff as alleged herein.
68. As a result of the foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department, plaintiff was unlawfully arrested, subjected to undue force and unlawful search, and prosecuted.
69. Defendants collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law were directly and actively involved in violating plaintiff's constitutional rights.

WHEREFORE, MALIK CAMPBELL, plaintiff, demands a judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this actions which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorney's fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as appropriate under the law.

ATTORNEY'S VERIFICATION

I, SYDNEY O'HAGAN, an attorney duly admitted to practice before the Courts of the State of New York, affirms the following to be true under the penalties of perjury:

I am attorney at the law firm of SYDNEY O'HAGAN, ESQ., I have read the annexed VERIFIED COMPLAINT and know the contents thereof, and the same are true to my knowledge, except those matters wherein which are stated to be alleged upon information and belief, and as to those matters I believe them to be true. My belief, as to those matters therein not stated upon knowledge, is based upon facts, and other pertinent information contained in my files. The reason this verification is made by me and not Plaintiff's is that Plaintiff is out of the county.
