VERIFIED COMPLAINT

CITY OF NEW YORK, Individually and in their official capacities as New York City Police Officers, MICHAEL THOMAS and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10,

Defendants.
-----X

Plaintiff, LAWRENCE NORMAN, by his attorneys, Sim & DePaola, LLP, for his complaint against the above Defendants, alleges as follows:

1. The claim arises from a February 24, 2018 incident in which defendants, acting under color of state law, unlawfully arrested and detained Mr. Norman. Mr. Norman was subsequently charged with Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the 3rd Degree and other related charges. As a result, Mr. Norman was deprived of his liberty, denied due process of law, and caused to sustain physical and emotional injuries. Mr. Norman was wrongfully incarcerated for approximately two (2) days approximately twenty-seven (27) hours, until he was released on February 25, 2018. He was maliciously prosecuted until the complete dismissal of all charges on February 19, 2019.
2. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against Defendants, as well as an award of costs and attorneys' fees, and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.

PARTIES

3. Plaintiff Lawrence Norman (“Norman”) resides at 2625 Third Avenue, Apt. 7H, Bronx County, State of New York.
4. The Defendant City of New York (or “the City”) is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York.
5. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant City, acting through the New York City Police Department (or “NYPD”) was responsible for the policy, practice, supervision, implementation, and conduct of all NYPD matters and was responsible for the appointment, training, supervision, discipline and retention and conduct of all NYPD personnel, including police officers, detectives and supervisory officers as well as the individually named Defendants herein.
6. In addition, at all times here relevant, Defendant City was responsible for enforcing the rules of the NYPD, and for ensuring that the NYPD personnel obey the laws of the United States and the State of New York.
7. Defendant Michael Thomas (“Thomas”) was, at all times here relevant, a police officer and/or detective employed by the NYPD and as such was acting in the capacity of an agent, servant and employee of the City of New York. Defendant Thomas was, at all times relevant herein, a Police Officer under Shield No. 3290, Tax Reg. No. 935840, at the 40th precinct located on 257 Alexander Ave, The Bronx, NY 10454. Defendant Thomas is being sued in his individual and official capacities.
8. At all times relevant Defendants John or Jane Doe 1 through 10 were police officers, detectives, supervisors, policy makers and/or officials employed by the NYPD. At

- this time, Plaintiff does not know the true names and/or tax registration numbers of Defendants John or Jane Doe 1 through 10 but is within knowledge of the defendants.
9. At all times relevant herein, Defendants John or Jane Doe 1 through 10 were acting as agents, servants and employees of the City of New York, the NYPD. Defendants John or Jane Doe 1 through 10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
10. At all times here mentioned Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.
11. Within 90 days of accrual dates for these claims, Plaintiff timely filed a written notice of claim with the New York City Office of the Comptroller.
12. Over 30 days have elapsed since the filing of those notices, and this matter has not been settled or otherwise disposed of.
13. Plaintiff has complied with municipal defendant's request for an oral examination pursuant to Section 50-H of the New York General Municipal Law.
14. This action has been commenced within one year and ninety days from the relevant accrual dates.

FACTUAL CHARGES

15. On February 24, 2018 at approximately 7:15 P.M. Mr. Norman was a visitor at 2595 Third Avenue, Apartment 5G, Bronx, New York.
16. Mr. Norman has gone to visit John Morales at his apartment to give him a haircut.
17. Mr. Norman had briefly fallen asleep in the living room when Defendants, including Thomas forced their entrance in the apartment without a warrant.

18. Defendants, including Thomas ordered Mr. Norman to get on the ground and proceeded to place metal handcuffs on Mr. Norman which were too applied in an excessively tight fashion.
19. Mr. Norman was illegally searched several times without his consent.
20. Plaintiff never committed any crimes or violations of the law, including the Criminal Sale of a Controlled Substance in the Third Degree, Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the Third Degree, criminal possession of controlled substance or criminally used paraphernalia.
21. Defendants, including Thomas, were fully aware, at all times, that they lacked probable cause to arrest Mr. Norman.
22. Defendant Thomas signed the criminal court complaint and testified in the Grand Jury knowingly and falsely accusing Mr. Norman of Criminal Sale of a Controlled Substance in the Third Degree, Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the 5th Degree, Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the 7th Degree, and Criminally Using Drug Paraphernalia in the Second Degree and Unlawful Possession of Marijuana.
23. Defendant Thomas knowingly and intentionally fabricated false allegations against Mr. Norman, namely that Mr. Norman was in custody and control of quantities of crack-cocaine and marihuana, to justify the otherwise unlawful arrest of Mr. Norman.
24. Defendant, including Thomas, procured Mr. Norman's indictment via fraud, perjury, the suppression of evidence and other conduct undertaken in bad faith, including, but not limited to entering the apartment without a valid warrant and offering knowingly

- false statements to the grand jury for purpose of creating a nexus between Mr. Norman and the alleged contraband recovered.
25. Defendants, including Thomas, committed gross deviations from proper police procedure throughout the course of their investigation of Mr. Norman, namely the failure to properly document their investigation, the use of improper identification procedures to better suit their purpose of arresting and convicting Mr. Norman for a crime defendants knew he did not commit.
26. Defendants, including Defendant Thomas, despite being fully aware of Mr. Normans' innocence and defendants' lack of probable cause to arrest to Mr. Norman, arrested and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against Mr. Norman for the sole purposes of gaining leverage over defendants' true suspect, acquiring overtime compensation and an additional arrest credit, and ascertaining information relating other crimes in the area.
27. At no point did Defendants, including defendant Thomas, ever observe Mr. Norman commit any crime or offense, including the possession of crack-cocaine and marihuana.
28. At no point were the Defendants, including defendant Thomas, ever told by any witnesses that Mr. Norman committed any crime or violation of the law.
29. The Defendants, including defendant Thomas, had no probable cause or reasonable suspicion to arrest, detain or stop Mr. Norman.
30. Mr. Norman did not violate any law or local ordinance.
31. Defendants, including defendants Thomas, were fully aware that there was no probable cause to believe a prosecution would succeed against Mr. Norman.

32. Defendants, including defendant Thomas, knowingly and intentionally forwarded false, misleading, incomplete and erroneous information, namely that Mr. Norman committed the crimes of alleged Sale of a Controlled Substance in the 3rd Degree, Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the 5th Degree, Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance in the 7th Degree, and other related charges, to prosecutors so that a prosecution would be initiated against Mr. Norman.
33. On February 19, 2019, all criminal charges related to Mr. Norman's arrest on February 24, 2018 were dismissed in favor of Mr. Norman.
34. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policy and decision makers and supervisors have imposed or acquiesced to policies or customs within the NYPD that resulted in Plaintiff's arrest without probable cause.
35. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policy and decision makers and supervisors have failed to provide adequate training in the identification of probable cause or reasonable suspicion.
36. The instant arrest of Plaintiff without the presence of probable cause was so egregious as to amount to the deliberate indifference by the policy and decision makers within the NYPD and City of New York, because the need for enhanced training and supervision is obvious due to the clear lack of any probable cause to arrest and prosecute Plaintiff.
37. Upon information and belief, further details and factual allegations will become available after discovery is completed, as the current policies and customs of the NYPD and City of New York are within the exclusive knowledge of defendants.

38. Upon information and belief, the personnel files and records of the individual officers involved in Plaintiff's arrest will reveal a history of Constitutional violations that will indicate that defendant City knew, or should have known that the individual officers were unfit for employment as NYPD police officers and would be likely to commit Constitutional violations similar to the violations that were committed against Mr. Norman.
39. At all times relevant hereto, defendants, including Thomas, acted maliciously and with intent to injure Plaintiff.
40. At all times relevant hereto, defendants, including Thomas, were involved in the decision to arrest Plaintiff without probable cause or failed to intervene when they observed others arresting Plaintiff without probable cause.
41. At all times relevant hereto, defendants, including defendants including, Police Officer Michael Thomas, engaged in fraud, perjury, the suppression of evidence and other actions conducted in bad faith, or failed to intervene when defendants observed others doing so, all in furtherance of Plaintiff's criminal prosecution.
42. As a direct and proximate result of the acts of defendants, including the City of New York, Plaintiff suffered the following injuries and damages: violations of his rights pursuant to the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment of the United States Constitution, violations of New York State law, physical injury, physical pain and suffering, emotional trauma and suffering, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, emotional distress, frustration, extreme inconvenience, anxiety, loss of liberty and harm to reputation.
