4. The above referenced acts caused Mr. Rivera to be deprived of his liberty, denied the due process of the laws and to sustain various emotional and physical injuries.

5. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against Defendants, as well as an award of costs and attorneys' fees, and such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper. FACTUAL CHARGES

20. On, or about, December 5, 2019, at approximately 4:55 p.m., in the vicinity of East 169th Street and Jerome Avenue, Bronx, New York, Plaintiff was lawfully riding a pedal operated bicycle with an electric motor on his way to work.

21. As Plaintiff crossed in front of the 44th police precinct building, the Plaintiff struck by a marked police vehicle which was turning right into the police precinct parking lot without first signaling its turn.

22. Upon information and belief, at the time the aforesaid police vehicle cut the Plaintiff off, it was not engaged in emergency operation and further did not have its emergency lights or sirens engaged.

23. Plaintiff attempted to avoid the collision but was struck by the aforesaid police vehicle on his left side.

24. The Defendant Officer who was sitting in the passenger seat got out of the police vehicle, apologized to Plaintiff and asked if Plaintiff was injured.

25. Defendant Officer who was driving exited the police vehicle and demanded Plaintiff's driver's license and falsely claimed that Plaintiff's bicycle was illegal. Plaintiff informed him that his bicycle was legal and that a driver's license was not required to operate said bicycle.

26. Plaintiff provided the Defendant Police Officers with his New York State ID card.

27. Defendant Police Officers then falsely claimed that Plaintiff had a suspended driver's license.

28. Plaintiff does not have a driver's license and a driver's license is not required to operate the bicycle that Plaintiff was using.

29. Defendant Officers then unlawfully arrested Plaintiff on the completely erroneous charge of driving with a suspended license.

30. Defendants Officers, unlawfully and without probable cause physically restrained and removed plaintiff by rear handcuffing him in an excessively tight fashion, which resulted substantial pain and physical discomfort to plaintiff's wrists.

31. At no time did Defendants, including SAMBRATO, RAMIREZ, VINVENZI and JOHN or JANE DOE1-10 observe Plaintiff commit any crimes nor violations of local ordinances.

32. At no Time did Plaintiff commit any crimes nor violation of local ordinances.

33. Defendant Officers, including SAMBRATO, RAMIREZ, VINVENZI and JOHN or JANE DOE1-10 forcibly removed plaintiff to the 44th precinct by grabbing his person and roughly walking him into the police station that was located approximately ten yards away.

34. Defendants, including SAMBRATO, RAMIREZ, and VINVENZI, then proceeded to criminally process plaintiff, which included unlawfully searching, fingerprinting and photographing Plaintiff.

35. Plaintiff was then placed in a cell for approximately three (3) hours.

36. Plaintiff was given a Desk Appearance Ticket for his false charges of Operating a Motorized Bicycle within New York City and was compelled to attend court on January 22, 2020. The charges against Plaintiff were dismissed at his first court appearance.

37. Plaintiff's bicycle was impounded and not returned until January 24, 2020. When Plaintiff's bicycle was finally returned to him it was in a heavily damaged condition.

38. Plaintiff's bicycle had been in excellent condition before it was impounded by Defendants, including SAMBRATO, RAMIREZ and VINVENZI and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10.

39. Defendants, including SAMBRATO, RAMIREZ and VINVENZI and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, retaliated against plaintiff by forwarding fabricated evidence to prosecutors, namely that Plaintiff had a suspended license and that his bicycle was not a permissible street vehicle

40. Defendants, including SAMBRATO, RAMIREZ and VINVENZI and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, proceeded to suppress exculpatory evidence from prosecutors, so that plaintiff would be criminally prosecuted, namely that Plaintiff's bicycle was allowed by law and that it did not require a driver's license to operate.

41. Defendants, including SAMBRATO, RAMIREZ and VINVENZI and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, arrested and attempted cause a criminal prosecution to be initiated against plaintiff, because of their desires to use plaintiff's arrest and criminal prosecution to mitigate their own negligent behavior in operating a vehicle without due care, to incur additional overtime compensation, benefits and career favor from the superior officers, to avoid adverse consequences associated with failing to meet NYPD departmental arrest quotas and also to conceal their egregious violations of proper police procedures and gross misconduct, including their fabrications of non-existent observations, evidence and information.

42. Defendants, including SAMBRATO, RAMIREZ and VINVENZI and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, engaged in a conspiracy to falsely arrest and maliciously prosecute plaintiff by personally conferring with each other, regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned non-existent evidence and observations, as well the manner and means by which said fabrications would be forwarded to the District Attorney's Office.

43. Plaintiff asserts that the Defendants, including SAMBRATO, RAMIREZ and VINVENZI and JOHN or JANE DOE 1-10, who violated Plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers.

44. The individually named defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

45. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculcated via some incontrovertible form of evidence.

46. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled "Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying," written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers' intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

47. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled "Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars."

Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

48. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "Detective's Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge," by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco's lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

49. Other articles include: (i) "Testilying' by Police: A Stubborn Problem.," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) "New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) "He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) "Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers' False Statement," by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) "In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police," by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) "Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs," by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) "The Drugs? They Came From the Police," by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

50. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D." This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD's commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

51. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in plaintiff's arrest without probable cause.

52. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

53. Defendants' actions, pursuant to plaintiff's underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

54. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

55. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

56. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Defendants, SAMBRATO, RAMIREZ and VINVENZI.

57. Upon information and belief, the individually named defendants have combined to be named as defendants in numerous lawsuits that have accused them of committing violations similar or identical to those alleged herein, all of which have resulted no disciplinary or corrective action of any kind.

58. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct

59. The aforementioned acts of Defendants, including SAMBRATO, RAMIREZ and VINVENZI, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of plaintiff's civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

60. As a direct or proximate result of said acts, plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of his liberty, irreparable reputational harm, loss of earnings and potential earnings, physical injury, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience, and anxiety.
