Plaintiff, RAHIEM FENNELL, by his attorneys THE BAGLEY FIRM, P.C. as for his Verified Complaint, alleges the following, upon information and belief:

PARTIES

1. At all times hereinafter mentioned, Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, was and still is a municipal corporation duly organized and existing under the laws of the State of New York.

2. At all times hereinafter mentioned, Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, its agents, servants and employees operate, maintained and controlled the Police Department of the City of New York, including all police officers thereof.

3. At all times hereinafter mentioned, on March 5, 2016, Defendant DETECTIVE
JEFFREY MEENAGH, SHIELD NO. 005682 ("MEENAGH") was employed by Defendants
THE CITY OF NEW YORK, as a police officer.

4. At all times hereinafter mention, Defendant MEENAGH, was acting within the scope of his employment as a police officer with THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

5. At all times hereinafter mentioned, on March 5, 2016, Defendant DETECTIVE RICHARD SIMPLICIO (“SIMPLICIO”) was employed by Defendants THE CITY OF NEW YORK, as a police officer.

6. At all times hereinafter mention, Defendant SIMPLICIO, was acting within the scope of his employment as a police officer with THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

7. At all times hereinafter mentioned, on March 5, 2016, Defendant SGT. MICHAEL J. LOPUZZO (“LOPUZZO”) was employed by Defendants THE CITY OF NEW YORK, as a police officer.

8. At all times hereinafter mention, Defendant LOPUZZO, was acting within the scope of his employment as a police officer with THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

9. At all times hereinafter mentioned, Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK has established and maintains a Department of Police as a constituent department or agency of the defendant.

10. Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, is and was at all times relevant herein a Municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risk attaches to the public consumers of the services provided by The New York City Police Department.

11. At all times hereinafter mentioned Defendants, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, employed DETECTIVE JEFFREY MEENAGH, SHIELD NO. 005682, DETECTIVE RICHARD SIMPLICIO and SGT. MICHAEL J. LOPUZZO.

12. At all relevant times, the individual defendants were acting pursuant to their authority as NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT employees. Notwithstanding their unconstitutional and unlawful conduct, the actions of the individual defendants were taken in the course of their duties and were incidental to their otherwise lawful function as agents, servants and employees of the New York City Police Department.

13. The plaintiff, RAHIEM FENNELL (“FENNELL”) was, on March 5, 2016, and at all relevant times, a resident of the State of New Jersey, residing at 22 East 108th Street, Bergenfield, NJ 07621.

CONDITIONS PRECEDENT

14. On or about July 9, 2017, and within ninety (90) days of the occurrence complained of hereinafter, Plaintiff FENNELL duly served a Notice of Claim upon the City of New York in the manner and mode required by law.

15. At least thirty (30) days have elapsed since the service of the claim prior to the commencement of this action and adjustment of payment thereof has been neglected or refused, and this action has been commenced within one year and ninety (90) days after the happening of the event upon which the claims are based.

16. The Plaintiff has complied with the request of the municipal Defendants for an oral examination pursuant to Section 50-H of the General Municipal Law and/or the Public Authorities Law and/or no such request was made within the applicable period.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

17. The Plaintiff brings this action in the Supreme Court, State of New York, County of Bronx, because the plaintiff has been injured for a sum that exceeds the jurisdiction of all lower courts.

18. The Plaintiff properly designates Bronx County as the place of trial. The basis of the venue is the locus of the occurrence.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

19. On or about March 5, 2016, at approximately 2:27 a.m., plaintiff was a lawful patron at Club Miami located at 26 Bruckner Boulevard, Bronx, NY 10454.

20. Upon information and belief, prior to the above specified time, plaintiff, arrived at Club Miami alone and who was searched by security upon entry to the club.

21. Upon information and belief, as plaintiff exited the club, he was assaulted by security members outside of Club Miami.

22. Upon information and belief, while plaintiff was being assaulted or immediately thereafter, a separate altercation occurred resulting in a shooting.

23. Upon information and belief, the perpetrator of the shooting, a rival security member, shot two members of Club Miami security.

24. The entire shooting and the perpetrator of the shooting were captured on video camera footage.

25. Upon information and belief, this video camera footage clearly shows that plaintiff was not the perpetrator of the shooting.

26. The NYPD was in possession of the video camera footage upon the commencement of their investigation.

27. The NYPD interviewed witnesses and victims of the shooting, who on March 5, 2016, informed them that a group of several men were refused entry to Club Miami because they did not want to be subjected to a search, and they were the perpetrators of the shooting.

28. These witnesses and victims also informed the NYPD, on March 5, 2016, that the perpetrators of the shooting were a rival group of security members.

29. Upon information and belief, that despite this evidence that plaintiff was not the perpetrator of the crime, he was still arrested on March 6, 2016 and charged with attempted murder, assault and criminal possession of a weapon.

30. Upon information and belief, defendants edited portions of the security videos which proved that plaintiff was not the shooter.

31. Upon information and belief, DNA evidence excluded plaintiff as the shooter as early as August 9, 2016, yet defendants continued to maliciously prosecute plaintiff.

32. Upon information and belief, plaintiff's criminal defense attorney was able to locate the entire, unedited video footage and presented it to the Bronx District Attorney prior to hearings and trial.

33. Upon information and belief, that upon viewing the unedited video footage, the Bronx District Attorney requested a dismissal of all charges against plaintiff.

34. That without justification or provocation and without a warrant, the defendants, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, MEENAGH, SIMPLICIO and LOPUZZO, assaulted, accosted, battered, arrested, confined, unduly restrained, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned and wrongfully prosecuted plaintiff FENNELL.

35. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees maliciously prosecuted the plaintiff, FENNELL.

36. Plaintiff FENNELL was held at a New Jersey police station and jail, 40th Precinct, Central Booking, and other New York City Department of Correction Facilities.

37. Plaintiff FENNELL was released from custody immediately prior to hearings and trial in April 2017.

38. On April 13, 2017, all charges against Plaintiff FENNELL were dismissed.

AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

39. Plaintiff repeats, realleges and reiterates the allegations in paragraphs “1” through “38,” inclusive, as though each were set forth at length herein.

40. On or about March 6, 2016, and thereafter, in the City of New York, State of New York, the Defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees wrongfully arrested, imprisoned, detained, assaulted and battered plaintiff, FENNELL, without any right or grounds thereof.

41. Defendant MEENAGH injured and maimed the plaintiff FENNELL such that he was unable to move freely or otherwise leave the scene without apprising him as to why he was being placed under arrest.

42. Defendant SIMPLICIO injured and maimed the plaintiff FENNELL such that he was unable to move freely or otherwise leave the scene without apprising him as to why he was being placed under arrest.

43. Defendant LOPUZZO injured and maimed the plaintiff FENNELL such that he was unable to move freely or otherwise leave the scene without apprising him as to why he was being placed under arrest.

44. Plaintiff was detained, arrested, imprisoned, assaulted and battered by the defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees without probable cause and/or justification.

45. Defendants, through their agents, servants and/or employees, acted in bad faith in committing the aforementioned the arrest, detention, imprisonment, assault and battery of plaintiff, FENNELL.

46. Defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees, intended to confine the Plaintiff, FENNELL, in that Plaintiff was conscious of the confinement; plaintiff did not consent to the confinement; and that the confinement was not privileged.

47. At the time of his unlawful arrest, detention and imprisonment, plaintiff, FENNELL, had not committed or attempted to commit any illegal act or crime.

48. At the time of plaintiff, FENNELL's unlawful arrest, defendants knew or should have known, through the exercise of proper police procedure and reasonable investigation, that the aforementioned arrest and detention were false and without probable cause.

49. That said false arrest and false imprisonment caused plaintiff, FENNELL, to suffer emotional and psychological distress, anguish, anxiety, fear, humiliation, loss of freedom and damage to his reputation.

50. Defendants placed plaintiff FENNELL under arrest, and falsely charged him with assault, attempted murder and criminal possession of a weapon. Defendants further acted maliciously by falsely testifying against the plaintiff at the time of indictment.

51. Plaintiff FENNELL, was in police custody, was unlawfully detained and falsely imprisoned. The unlawful search and seizure was without due process of law and was done to deprive plaintiff of his rights guaranteed by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States.

52. It is alleged that Defendants THE CITY OF NEW YORK, MEENAGH, SIMPLICIO, LOPUZZO, their agents, servants and employees, failed to investigate the facts, and therefore maliciously and intentionally detained, falsely detained, falsely imprisoned, and humiliated plaintiff, FENNELL, in violation of his constitutional rights.

53. Upon information and belief, plaintiff FENNELL was released from custody and all criminal charges were dismissed on April 13, 2017 when plaintiff's criminal defense attorney brought the malfeasance of the investigating NYPD officers to light.

54. As a direct result of the above defendants' actions, plaintiff, FENNELL, suffered and continues to suffer severe mental anguish, humiliation, shame, emotional distress and change to reputation, some or all of which may be permanent.

55. Plaintiff, FENNELL, suffered – and continues to suffer – greatly and was and is physically and emotionally traumatized by this excessive detention and imprisonment.

56. The false criminal arrest and wrongful imprisonment of plaintiff, FENNELL, because of defendants' knowledge of lack of any legitimate cause or justification, were intentional, malicious, reckless, and in bad faith.

57. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' actions, plaintiff, FENNELL, was deprived of rights, privileges and immunities under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the laws of the City and the State of New York.

58. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff, FENNELL, demands judgment against Defendants, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, MEENAGH, SIMPLICIO and LOPUZZO, in a sum of money which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all courts of lesser jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

59. Plaintiff repeats, realleges and reiterates the allegations contained in paragraphs "1" through "58," inclusive, as though each were set forth fully at length herein.

60. On March 6, 2016, plaintiff was lawfully outside his home in New Jersey when he was assaulted and battered by police officers employed by or acting at the behest of defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK.

61. As a result of the above mentioned unprovoked assault and battery, the plaintiff, FENNELL, was injured, intentionally and externally, became sick, sore, lame, and disabled, and belief, will continue to suffer pain and discomfort; and was caused to obtain medical care and attention in an attempt to be cured of said injuries.

62. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff, FENNELL, demands judgment against Defendants, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, MEENAGH, SIMPLICIO and LOPUZZO, in a sum of money which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all courts of lesser jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

63. Plaintiff repeats, realleges and reiterates the allegations contained in paragraphs “1” through “62,” inclusive, as though each were set forth fully at length herein.

64. Th actions of defendants heretofore described constitute an unlawful arrest, unlawful detention, false imprisonment, wrongful imprisonment, assault and battery, all in violation of plaintiff, FENNELL’s civil rights.

65. Defendants deprived plaintiff, FENNELL, of his liberty in violation of his civil and constitutional rights, as set forth in the United States Constitution, 42 U.S.C. §1983 and the Constitution of the State of New York.

66. Defendants violated the civil and constitutional rights of plaintiff, FENNELL, as set forth in the United States Constitution, 42 U.S.C. §1983 and the Constitution of the State of New York.

67. Defendants actions were undertaken under color of law and would not have existed but for said defendants using their official power.

68. The supervisors and policy making officers of Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, and its Police Department, as a matter of policy, have failed to take steps to terminate the above detailed practices and have failed to discipline or otherwise properly supervise the individuals engaged in such practices.

69. Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, and its Police Department, has sanctioned the above described policy and practices through its deliberate indifference to the effect of said policy upon the constitutional and civil rights of plaintiff, FENNELL, and others similarly situated.

70. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff, FENNELL, has suffered serious and severe emotional distress, personal injuries and loss to his reputation.

71. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff, FENNELL, demands judgment against defendants, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, MEENAGH, SIMPLICIO and LOPUZZO, in a sum of money which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all courts of lesser jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

72. Plaintiff repeats, realleges and reiterates the allegations contained in paragraphs “1” through “71,” inclusive, as though each were set forth fully at length herein.

73. Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, hired and retained in its employ Police Officers, including defendants MEENAGH, SIMPLICIO and LOPUZZO, with knowledge that said police officer lacked the experience to be employed by the aforementioned defendant, and therefor, were unfit to be a police officer.

74. Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, hired and retained in its employ Police Officers, including defendants MEENAGH, SIMPLICIO and LOPUZZO, with knowledge that said police officers lacked the deportment to be employed by the aforementioned defendant, and were, therefore, unfit to be police officers.

75. Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, hired and retained in its employ Police Officers, including defendants MEENAGH, SIMPLICIO and LOPUZZO with knowledge that said police officers lacked the experience to be employed by the aforementioned defendant, and therefore, were unfit to be police officers.

76. Defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, hired and retained in its employ Police Officers, including defendants MEENAGH, SIMPLICIO and LOPUZZO, with knowledge that said police officers had vicious propensities and were therefore unfit to be police officers.

77. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff FENNELL, has suffered serious and severe emotional distress, personal injuries and loss to his reputation.

78. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff FENNELL, demands judgment against defendants, THE CITY OF NEW YORK and MEENAGH in a sum of money which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all courts of lesser jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

79. Plaintiff repeats, realleges and reiterates the allegations contained in paragraphs “1” through “78,” inclusive, as though each were set forth at length herein.

80. On March 6, 2016, defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, through its agents, servants and/or employees, did maliciously cause a criminal prosecution to be commenced against plaintiff, FENNELL, by filing an accusatory instrument, without probable cause and in bad faith.

81. Plaintiff had not committed any illegal acts.

82. Plaintiff had not given Defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees probable cause to believe that he had committed the illegal acts hereinafter complained of.

83. Defendants knew or should have known through the exercise of reasonable care and proper police procedure, that said investigation was flawed or incomplete.

84. As a result of the foregoing malicious prosecution, Plaintiff FENNELL, suffered and continues to suffer, substantial and permanent damages.

85. Said malicious prosecution cause Plaintiff FENNELL to sustain severe emotional distress, emotional disturbances, humiliation and damage to his reputation, including the stigma of having a criminal record.

86. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff, FENNELL, demands judgment against defendants THE CITY OF NEW YORK, MEENAGH, SIMPLICIO and LOPUZZO, in a sum of money which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all courts of lesser jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

87. Plaintiff repeats, realleges and reiterates the allegations contained in paragraphs “1” through “86,” inclusive, as though each were set forth fully at length herein.

88. Defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees negligently, carelessly and recklessly performed their police duties in that they failed to exercise such care in the performance of their police duties as a reasonably prudent police officer would have used under similar circumstances.

89. That the aforementioned occurrences, to wit: the false arrest, detainment, unlawful arrest, unlawful and false imprisonment of plaintiff, FENNELL,; the assault and battery committed by defendants against plaintiff, FENNELL; the violation of plaintiffs civil and constitutional rights; the malicious prosecution of plaintiff, FENNELL; and the resulting injuries to the mind and body therefrom; were caused solely by reason of the negligence of the defendants, their agents, servants and/or employees, without any negligence on the part of the plaintiff, FENNELL.

90. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff, FENNELL, demands judgment against defendants THE CITY OF NEW YORK, MEENAGH, SIMPLICIO and LOPUZZO, in a sum of money which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all courts of lesser jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR A SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

91. Plaintiff repeats, realleges and reiterates the allegations contained in paragraphs “1” through “90,” inclusive, as though each were set forth fully at length herein.

92. Defendants’ conduct towards Plaintiff, was so outrageous and shocking that it exceeded all reasonable bounds of decency tolerated by the average member of the community.

93. Defendants’ acted with the desire to cause plaintiff, FENNELL, mental distress and physical distress and pain or acted under circumstances known to them which made it substantially certain that they would cause such mental and physical distress.

94. Defendants acted with utter and reckless disregard of the consequences of their actions.

95. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff, FENNELL, has sustained severe and debilitating physical, emotional, and psychological distress, anguish, anxiety, fear, humiliation, and soreness.

96. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff, FENNELL, demands judgment against defendants THE CITY OF NEW YORK, MEENAGH, SIMPLICIO and LOPUZZO in a sum of money which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all courts of lesser jurisdiction.

AS AND FOR AN EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

97. Plaintiff repeats, realleges and reiterates the allegations contained in paragraphs “1” through “96,” inclusive, as though each were set forth fully herein.

98. Upon information and belief, defendant, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, through other police officers who are unknown at this time, by their conduct and under color of state law, it is believed that these officers had opportunities to intercede on behalf of plaintiff FENNELL to prevent the excessive use of force but due to their intentional conduct or deliberate indifference declined or refused to do so.

99. As a direct and proximate result, Plaintiff suffered injuries and damages described above.

100. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiff, FENNELL, demands judgment against defendants THE CITY OF NEW YORK, MEENAGH, SIMPLICIO and LOPUZZO, in a sum of money which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all courts of lesser jurisdiction.

THE ITEMS OF DAMAGE OR INJURIES CLAIMED

101. That by reason of the forgoing, plaintiff, FENNELL, was severely injured and damaged, sustained personal injuries, bruises, contusions, trauma, mental distress and other injuries; his civil rights were violated. Plaintiff was rendered sick, sore, lame and disabled, sustained severe nervous shock and mental anguish, great physical pain and emotional upset, some of which injuries are permanent in nature and duration, and plaintiff will be permanently caused to suffer pain, inconvenience, and other effects of such injuries, and Plaintiff has suffered and in the future will necessarily suffer additional loss of time and earnings from employment; and plaintiff will be unable to pursue the usual duties with the same degree of efficiency as prior to this occurrence, all to plaintiff's great damage.

102. Plaintiff FENNELL suffered a deprivation of his civil rights and liberty, was falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, the use of excessive and unnecessary force was used against him, beaten, battered, assaulted, humiliated, embarrassed, unlawfully detained, suffered emotional harm, shock, was falsely imprisoned, loss of reputation in the community, loss of self-esteem, fear and anxiety as a result of this incident.

103. Plaintiff was deprived of his freedom.

104. As a result of the aforementioned, Defendants violated the rights of Plaintiff, FENNELL, secured to him under the 8th Amendment and 14th Amendment of the Constitution of the United States of America, and under 42 U.S.C. §1983.

105. Plaintiff, FENNELL, was caused to be injured, and to undergo pain and suffering as a result of the aforementioned willful, wanton and deliberate indifference on the part of defendants.

106. The above constitutional are all actionable under and pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §§1981, 1983, 1985, 1986 and under New York State Law.

107. As a result of the aforesaid, Plaintiff, FENNELL, was damaged in an amount exceeding the jurisdictional limits of all lower courts which would otherwise have jurisdiction.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff, RAHIEM FENNELL, respectfully demands judgment against defendants, THE CITY OF NEW YORK, DETECTIVE JEFFREY MEENAGH, SHIELD NO. 005682, DETECTIVE RICHARD SIMPLICIO and SGT. MICHAEL J. LOPUZZO, and request the following relief: compensatory and punitive damages in a sum of money which exceeds the jurisdictional limits of all courts of lesser jurisdiction; an award of reasonable attorney's fee, costs and disbursements of this action; such other and further relief as this Court may deem just, fair and proper under the circumstances.
