VERIFIED COMPLAINT

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

Plaintiff JULIAN SHARPE, by his attorneys, Jacobs & Hazan, LLP, as and for his Verified Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiff's rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On October 15, 2018, at approximately 5:00 a.m., plaintiff was lawfully present inside of his apartment located at 671 Westchester Avenue, Apt. 7A, Bronx, New York, when the defendant police officers unlawfully entered the apartment and searched the apartment and the individuals present without probable cause or any legal justification. The defendants unlawfully seized, unlawfully handcuffed, falsely imprisoned and falsely arrested plaintiff without probable cause or any legal justification to believe plaintiff committed a crime or violated the law in any manner. The defendant police officers subjected plaintiff to excessive force when they grabbed him, threw him down to the ground and ripped out his hair, causing plaintiff to suffer serious physical injuries. Thereafter, the defendants denied plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial and maliciously prosecuted plaintiff until all charges were dismissed on May 29, 2019. Plaintiff was deprived of his constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully searched, confined, arrested, imprisoned, denied him rights to a fair trial, and maliciously prosecuted and subjected him to excessive force in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

26. On October 15, 2018, at approximately 5:00 a.m., plaintiff was lawfully present inside of his apartment located at 671 Westchester Avenue, Apt. 7A, Bronx, New York.

27. On October 15, 2018, at approximately 5:00 a.m., the defendant police officers unlawfully entered 671 Westchester Avenue, Apt. 7A, Bronx, New York, and unlawfully searched the apartment.

28. At no time relevant herein did defendants recover any illegal drugs, weapons, or contraband from plaintiff's person, or from a location that was in plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

29. At no time relevant herein did plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any manner, nor did the defendant officers have probable cause to believe he committed a crime or violated the law.

30. The plaintiff lawfully began filming the defendant police officers with his cell phone inside of his apartment, as plaintiff is lawfully allowed to do.

31. Suddenly, without provocation or legal justification, the defendant police officers slapped plaintiff's phone out of his hands, grabbed plaintiff and forcibly threw him down to the ground and began kicking and punching him causing him to suffer serious physical injuries, including but not limited to injuries to his wrists, shoulder, head, and the officers ripped plaintiff's hair out of his head.

32. Despite not committing any crime, the defendant police officers unlawfully handcuffed plaintiff and arrested him without legal justification or probable cause.

33. At no point in time did plaintiff resist arrest in any way.

34. As a result of the excessive force used by the defendant police officers, plaintiff had to immediately be transported to Lincoln Hospital for medical treatment.

35. Plaintiff was treated at Lincoln Hospital for injuries to his head, wrists, shoulders and body.

36. On October 15, 2018, plaintiff was discharged from Lincoln Hospital and transported to the 40th precinct.

37. Upon arrival at the 40th precinct, plaintiff was searched, photographed, fingerprinted, and placed in a holding cell.

38. On October 15, 2018, plaintiff was transported from the 40th Precinct to Bronx Central Booking and placed in a holding cell.

39. The defendant police officers intentionally provided the Bronx County District Attorney's Office with false, misleading and incomplete information regarding their basis for arresting and prosecuting plaintiff and falsely charged plaintiff with crimes he did not commit.

40. Specifically, in order to cover up the use of excessive force by the defendant police officers, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Bronx County District Attorney's Office that plaintiff assaulted the defendant police officers.

41. Based upon the false, misleading and/or incomplete information provided to the District Attorney's Office by the defendant police officers, a prosecution was initiated against plaintiff.

42. On October 16, 2018, after approximately 30 hours in unlawful custody, plaintiff was arraigned in Bronx Criminal Court and charged with crimes he did not commit and was released on his own recognizance.

43. Plaintiff was unlawfully charged with Assault, amongst other charges.

44. Thereafter, plaintiff was required to make approximately four additional court appearances until May 29, 2019 when all charges against him were dismissed.

45. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of plaintiff's rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent the unjustifiable search, seizure, false arrest, denial of the right to due process/fair trial and malicious prosecution and excessive force of plaintiff.

46. The unlawful search, false arrest/ imprisonment, denial of a right to fair trial, and malicious prosecution and excessive force against plaintiff by the individually named defendants caused plaintiff to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth Amendment, Fifth Amendment and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

47. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 46 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

48. The individually named police officer defendants while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused plaintiff to be unlawfully seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, denied of his right to fair trial and maliciously prosecuted without probable cause in violation of plaintiff's right to be free of unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States, denial of his right to due process under the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

49. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment

50. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 49 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

51. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiff and, in fact, confined plaintiff, and plaintiff was conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiff did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

52. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

53. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Search

54. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 53 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

55. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and search employed by defendants herein terminated plaintiff's freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

56. Defendants lacked probable cause to search plaintiff.

57. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

58. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Malicious Prosecution

59. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 58 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

60. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the laws of the State of New York and New York State common law.

61. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against plaintiff.

62. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceeding against plaintiff and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.

63. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in plaintiff's favor on the aforementioned dates.

64. Plaintiff was subjected to a post-arraignment deprivation of liberty sufficient to implicate plaintiff's Fourth Amendment rights.

65. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived plaintiff of his rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

66. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

67. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

68. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 67 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

69. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiff, Julian

Sharpe. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiff and violated plaintiff's statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

70. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff was deprived of liberty and sustained great emotional injuries.

71. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

72. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 71 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

73. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

74. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 73 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

75. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

76. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

77. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

78. In withholding/creating false evidence against plaintiff Julian Sharpe, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, defendants violated plaintiff's constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

79. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff Julian Sharpe, sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, lost earnings and deprivation of his constitutional rights.

80. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

81. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

82. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, plaintiff sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiff's Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment

Rights

83. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 82 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

84. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, by grabbing plaintiff, throwing him down to the ground, punching, kicking, hitting and ripping his hair out of his head causing him to suffer a sprained wrist constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of plaintiff in violation of his rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

85. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of his employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

86. The plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 85 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

87. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiff, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

88. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

89. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiff's liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, he was put in fear of her safety, and she was humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

90. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

JURY DEMAND

91. Plaintiff hereby demands trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, plaintiff Julian Sharpe demands judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the plaintiff recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorneys fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
