AS AND FOR A FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST DEFENDANTS

22. Plaintiffs repeats, reiterates and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 21, as if more fully stated herein at length.

23. That Defendants acted with actual malice toward Plaintiff and with willful and wanton indifference to and deliberate disregard for the statutory and constitutional rights of the Plaintiff.

24. That the actions of the Defendants constituted unreasonable deprivation of liberty without due process of law.

25. That as a result of the actions by Defendants, Plaintiff was traumatized and fears his physical safety when he sees and encounters members of the New York City Police Department from that day and onward.

26. That as a result of the Defendants' actions, Plaintiff has been unable to sleep.

27. That as a result of the Defendants' actions Plaintiff sustained damage to his person in the sum within the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court and in excess of all inferior courts.

AS AND FOR A SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST DEFENDANTS

28. Plaintiffs repeats, reiterates and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 27, as if more fully stated herein at length.

29. The intentional verbal abuse, false arrest, false imprisonment and malicious prosecution by Defendants violated the rights of the Plaintiff as guaranteed by the Fourth, Fifth and Eighth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the corresponding sections of the New York State Constitution, for which Defendants are individually liable.

30. Defendants having no lawful authority to arrest Plaintiff, did, nevertheless, unlawfully arrest Plaintiff with actual malice toward him and with willful and wanton indifference to and deliberate disregard for his constitutional rights. Thus Plaintiff is entitled to both compensatory and exemplary damages.

AS AND FOR A THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION AGAINST DEFENDANTS

31. Plaintiffs repeats, reiterates and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 30, as if more fully stated herein at length.

32. Defendants conspired to violate Plaintiff's statutory civil rights in violation of 42 U.S.C. sec.1983, et al as well as the corresponding sections of the New York State Constitution, for which Defendants are individually liable. Thus Plaintiff is entitled to both compensatory and exemplary damages, as well as attorney's fees.

The verbal abuse, false arrest, false imprisonment and malicious prosecution on and of Plaintiff by Defendants were unjustified and done with actual malice and wanton indifference to and deliberate disregard for human life and the rights of Plaintiff. Plaintiff is thus entitled to compensatory and exemplary damages.

35. That during the pendency of the case, Defendants maliciously prosecuted Plaintiff by continuing to cooperate in a prosecution when Plaintiff should never have been arrested. Plaintiff is thus entitled to compensatory and exemplary damages.

36. That prior to the time of arrest, after the arrest and during the pendency of the criminal case against Plaintiff, OSWALD and DOES persisted in their false claim that Plaintiff possessed narcotics, specifically a synthetic cannabinoid/synthetic marijuana.

37. That OSWALD and DOES claimed that they tested the purported synthetic cannabinoid/synthetic marijuana and that it tested positive for a controlled substance when it had in fact not.

AS AND FOR A FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION AS AGAINST CITY OF NEW YORK AND NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

38. Plaintiffs repeats, reiterates and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 37, as if more fully stated herein at length.

39. At all times pertinent hereto, OSWALD and DOES were acting within the scope of her employment as officers of the New York City Police Department and City of New York.

40. The City of New York and New York City Police Department are each liable for compensatory damages under the doctrine of respondeat superior for the intentional torts that OSWALD and DOES committed within the scope of her employment.

41. That City of New York and New York City Police Department targeted the area of East 149 Street and Third Avenue, Bronx County in an effort to make arrests for synthetic cannabinoid/synthetic marijuana.

42. That City of New York and New York City Police Department maintained a policy wherein they directed police officers, including OSWALD and DOES to make arrests for synthetic cannabinoid/synthetic marijuana whether people did or did not have synthetic cannabinoid/synthetic marijuana.

AS AND FOR A SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION AS AGAINST CITY OF NEW YORK AND NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

43. Plaintiffs repeats, reiterates and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 42, as if more fully stated herein at length.

44. The City of New York and New York City Police Department's failure to provide adequate training and supervision to OSWALD and DOES constitutes a willful and wanton indifference and deliberate disregard for human life and the rights of private citizens, including Plaintiff. Plaintiff is thus entitled to compensatory exemplary damages.

45. The City of New York and New York City Police Department's failure to provide adequate training in the recognition of controlled substances to OSWALD and DOES constitutes a willful and wanton indifference and deliberate disregard for human life and the rights of private citizens, including Plaintiff. Plaintiff is thus entitled to compensatory exemplary damages.

46. The City of New York and New York City Police Department's failure to provide adequate supervision to OSWALD and DOES to ensure that Plaintiff's arrest was made upon probable cause to believe that she possessed a controlled substance constitutes a willful and wanton indifference and deliberate disregard for human life and the rights of private citizens, including Plaintiff. Plaintiff is thus entitled to compensatory exemplary damages.

AS AND FOR A SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION AS AGAINST CITY OF NEW YORK AND NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

47. Plaintiff repeats, reiterates and realleges the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 46 as if more fully stated herein at length.

48. Upon information and belief, the City of New York and New York City Police Department maintained a system of review of police conduct which was so untimely and cursory that it was ineffective and permitted and tolerated the unreasonable detention of Plaintiff.

49. Upon information and belief, the City of New York and New York City Police Department maintained a system of review of police conduct which was so untimely and cursory that it was ineffective and permitted the wanton indifference to and deliberate disregard for the statutory and constitutional rights of Plaintiff.
