Plaintiffs, ROSEMARY COLON and JORDAN MORALES, by their attorneys, Shulman-Hill, PLLC, as and for their Verified Complaint herein, allege upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violations of Plaintiffs' rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On March 15, 2023, at approximately 8:00 p.m., Plaintiffs, while lawfully at or around East 138th Street and Willis Avenue, County of Bronx, New York, were subject to unlawful stops, detentions, and arrests by the defendant police officers. In addition, Plaintiffs were subjected to grossly excessive force causing serious physical injuries, as well as approximately several hours of unlawful confinement at the NYPD 40th Precinct. Plaintiff, Colon, thereafter appeared in Bronx County Criminal Court and was charged with crimes she did not commit. All charges made against Plaintiff Colon were dismissed and sealed in their entirety on or around April 4, 2023. The Bronx County District Attorney's Office declined to prosecute Plaintiff, Morales. Plaintiffs were deprived of their rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802 and their constitutional, common law, and statutory rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, detained, passed along false accusations to prosecuting attorneys and engaged in the malicious prosecution of Plaintiffs, in violation of the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff Rosemary Colon (“Colon”) is a resident of the state of New York.
3. Plaintiff Jordan Morales (“Morales”) is a resident of the state of New York.
4. NYPD Police Officer Lamik Fitzgerald is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
5. NYPD Police Officer Lamik Fitzgerald is being sued in his individual and official capacities.
6. NYPD Police Officer Lamik Fitzgerald was at all times relevant herein assigned to the 40th Precinct, upon information and belief.
7. New York City Police Officers John Does Numbers One Through Ten are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
8. Police Officers John Does Numbers One Through Ten are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
9. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
10. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.
11. Plaintiffs in furtherance of their causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed timely Notices of Claim against the City of New York in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.
12. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, Plaintiffs testified at hearings held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H on August 8, 2023.

13. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notices of Claim were filed and the City of New York has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

14. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

15. Plaintiffs have sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

16. On March 15, 2023, at approximately 8:00 p.m., Plaintiffs were lawfully present in the vicinity of East 138th Street and Willis Avenue, County of Bronx, New York, when the defendant officers unlawfully arrested and injured them without probable cause or legal justification.

17. At the referenced place and time, Morales had just left from a visit at his grandmother's house with his younger brother.

18. The two were waiting for their stepfather at the family's car.

19. Being that it was still low in temperature, Morales followed the directions given to him and started the vehicle; he never operated the vehicle.

20. An unmarked police vehicle made a U-turn from across the street, pulled up beside him, and demanded that he turn off the vehicle, which he immediately did.

21. The defendant officers immediately began to place Morales under arrest, subjecting him to an unlawful search, and tightly restraining him with metal handcuffs causing him pain.

22. The unreasonably tight handcuffs would later result in a sprained left wrist.

23. Morales asked what he had done, but was ignored as the officers continued to push and pull him in their needless and reckless show of force.

24. The younger brother called for their mother, Plaintiff Colon, who came down and found Morales handcuffed begging for assistance.

25. When Colon asked the officers why her son was being arrested, the defendant officers, including upon information and belief NYPD Police Officer Lamik Fitzgerald, pushed her backward so forcefully that she fell to the ground and fractured her tailbone.

26. Realizing what they had done, and instead of lending her medical aid, the defendant officers began to place Colon under arrest, subjecting her to an unlawful search and tightly restraining her with painful metal handcuffs.

27. At no time relevant herein did either plaintiff commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective basis to accuse Plaintiffs of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

28. At no point did the defendant officers witness a crime or have a crime reported to them, nor did they recover any drugs, weapons, graffiti instruments, or other illegal contraband from Plaintiffs or from a location that was in Plaintiffs' possession, custody, or control.

29. Plaintiffs did not resist arrest.

30. Nevertheless, Plaintiffs were unlawfully arrested, handcuffed, and subjected to unlawful searches by the defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause.

31. Thereafter and despite their injuries, Plaintiffs were placed in the back of an NYPD vehicle and transported to the NYPD 40th Precinct.

32. Upon their arrival at the 40th Precinct, Plaintiffs were unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed, and placed in a holding cell.

33. Colon requested medical attention at the precinct as she was in excruciating pain.

34. After over an hour she was transported to Lincoln Hospital and released from police custody with a desk appearance ticket alleging disorderly conduct.

35. Morales was held at the 40th Precinct for approximately over eight (8) hours and was too released with a desk appearance ticket for driving with a suspended license.

36. After his release from custody, Mr. Morales went directly to Jacobi Hospital where he was diagnosed with hematoma and sprain to the left wrist and received treatment including a cast.

37. While Plaintiffs were in custody, the defendant police officers provided the Bronx County District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading, and/or incomplete information that Plaintiffs had committed crimes.

38. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the Bronx County District Attorney's Office that Plaintiffs were engaged in disorderly conduct (Colon) and driving with a suspended license (Morales).

39. Prior to his court appearance, Morales learned that the Bronx County District Attorney's Office had declined to prosecute him, as he had committed no crime.

40. Similarly, Colon received notice that her case had been dismissed on or about April 4, 2023, as there was indeed no basis for her arrest either.

41. Since the incident, Colon continues medical treatment for the injuries she suffered as a result of this incident, including but not limited to physical therapy.

42. Colon was unable to walk for approximately three (3) weeks and continued to walk thereafter using a cane.

43. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiffs' rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably arresting, confining, and using excessive force against Plaintiffs.

44. The unlawful arrest, confinement, and use of excessive force by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiffs to sustain mental and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligence

45. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

46. Defendants owed a duty of care to Plaintiffs.

47. To the extent defendants claim that the injuries to Plaintiffs by the defendant police officers were unintentionally caused and that the force used by the defendants against them was unintentional, then the defendants breached that duty of care by, among other things, seizing, pushing, shoving, and unnecessarily tightly handcuffing them.

48. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

49. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault or provocation by Plaintiffs.

50. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

51. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

52. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
Unlawful Stop, Question, and Search

53. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

54. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop and grab employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiffs' freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

55. The conduct of defendants in approaching, stopping, and grabbing Plaintiffs was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

56. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

57. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

58. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:
Unlawful Seizure and Deprivation of Liberty

59. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

60. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiffs to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiffs' right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

61. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
False Arrest/False Imprisonment

62. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

63. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiffs and, in fact, confined Plaintiffs, and Plaintiffs were conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiffs did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

64. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

65. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

66. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

67. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to loss of liberty, emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Violation of Plaintiffs' Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:
Excessive Force

68. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

69. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, twisting Mr. Morales's arm and pushing Ms. Colon to the ground causing permanent injury, constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiffs in violation of their rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

70. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

71. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

72. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiffs.

73. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiffs and violated Plaintiffs' statutory and common law rights as guaranteed Plaintiffs by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

74. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

75. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

76. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

77. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION
Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

78. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

79. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train, and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

80. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTIONFailure to Intervene

81. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

82. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiffs, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiffs' Constitutional Rights had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiffs, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

83. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

84. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiffs suffered permanent injury, their liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, they were put in fear for their safety, and they were humiliated and subject to other physical constraints.

85. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

86. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

87. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

88. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTIONViolation of Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights:*Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

89. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

90. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

91. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

92. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Bronx County District Attorney's Office.

93. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiffs, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, Defendants violated Plaintiffs' constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

94. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiffs sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of their constitutional rights.

95. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

96. The City, as the employer of the officer Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

97. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of Defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries including, but not limited to: economic, emotional, and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

42 U.S.C. § 1983 and New York State Law Malicious Prosecution

98. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

99. The acts and conduct of the Defendants constitute malicious prosecution under the United States Constitution.

100. Defendants commenced and continued a criminal proceeding against Plaintiffs with full knowledge that there existed no basis for the charges levied against them.

101. There was actual malice and an absence of probable cause for the criminal proceedings against Plaintiffs and for each of the charges for which they were prosecuted.

102. The prosecution and criminal proceedings terminated in Plaintiffs' favor on the aforementioned dates.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONAssault

103. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

104. Defendants, their agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully, and maliciously assaulted Plaintiffs in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the Plaintiffs, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the Plaintiffs.

105. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

106. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

107. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

108. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TWELFTH CAUSE OF ACTIONBattery

109. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in the foregoing paragraphs with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

110. Defendants, their agents, servants and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully and maliciously battered Plaintiffs, when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner pushed, shoved, and unreasonably tightly handcuffed Plaintiffs, brutally effecting their arrests without their consent and with the intention of causing harmful and/offensive bodily contact to the Plaintiffs and caused such batteries.

111. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

112. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

113. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

114. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

THIRTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Individual Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiffs' AC 8-802 Rights

115. The Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

116. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom, or usage.

117. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiffs to be deprived of their rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in their person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

118. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiffs, before detaining plaintiffs and further causing their detention for approximately eight (8) hours in total.

119. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiffs have endured mental and emotional injuries and were otherwise damaged and injured.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Individual Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiffs' AC 8-802 Rights

120. The Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

121. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom, or usage.

122. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiffs from violations of their rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in their person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

123. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiffs, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiffs' AC 8-802 right against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiffs, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

124. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiffs from violation of their rights.

125. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiffs have endured mental and emotional injuries and were otherwise damaged and injured.

FIFTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

City-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Violation of Plaintiffs' AC 8-802 Rights

126. The Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

127. Defendant Officers are "covered individuals," as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolman.

128. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiffs for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.

129. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

130. The acts of Defendant Officers caused Plaintiffs to be deprived of their rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in their person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

131. The Defendant Officers, while in uniform, unlawfully seized, frisked, and searched the Plaintiffs, before detaining plaintiffs and further causing their detention for approximately eight (8) hours in total.

132. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiffs have endured mental and emotional injuries and were otherwise damaged and injured.

SIXTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONCity-Employer's Liability for Defendant Officer's Failure to Intervene in Violation of Plaintiffs' AC 8-802 Rights

133. The Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege the foregoing paragraphs as if the same were fully set forth at length herein.

134. Defendant Officers are "covered individuals," as defined in 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 - 801 in that they are employees of the Police Department or persons appointed by the Police Commissioner as a Special Patrolman.

135. The City of New York, as the employer of the covered individual Defendant Officers, is liable to the Plaintiffs for the wrongdoing of the covered individual Defendant Officers.

136. The acts of Defendant Officers constituted conduct under color of any law, ordinance, rule, regulation, custom or usage.

137. Defendant Officers had a duty to protect Plaintiffs from violations of their rights under 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 802, to wit: to be secure in their person, house, papers, and effects against unreasonable searches and seizures, and to be secure against the use of excessive force regardless of whether such force is used in connection with a search or seizure.

138. The Defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiffs but were present when other officers violated Plaintiffs' AC 8 – 802 rights against unreasonable search and seizure and excessive force had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiffs, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

139. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein, thereby failed in their duty to intervene to protect Plaintiffs from violation of their rights.

140. By reason of the acts and omissions by Defendants described above, Plaintiffs have endured mental and emotional injuries and were otherwise damaged and injured.

SEVENTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTIONViolation of Article I, § 12 of the New York State Constitution

126. Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and re-allege each and every allegation contained in the above paragraphs with the same force and effect as if fully set forth herein.

127. Such conduct breached the protections guaranteed to plaintiffs by the New York State Constitution, including but not limited to, Article 1, §§ 1, 6, 8, 9, 11, and 12, and including the following rights:

- i. freedom from unreasonable search and seizure of their person and property;
- ii. freedom from arrest without probable cause;
- iii. freedom from false imprisonment, that being wrongfully detained without good faith, reasonable suspicion, or legal justification, and of which wrongful detention plaintiffs were aware and did not consent;
- iv. freedom from the lodging of false charges against them by police officers and prosecutors, including on information and belief, by some or all of the individual defendants; and
- v. freedom from deprivation of liberty without due process of law.

128. As a direct and proximate result of defendants' deprivations of Plaintiffs' rights, privileges, and immunities guaranteed by the New York State Constitution, Plaintiffs suffered mental, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

129. As a result of the above tortious conduct, Plaintiffs were caused to suffer mental, economic, and emotional injuries, as well as a deprivation of liberty.

130. As a result of the above unconstitutional conduct, the City of New York is liable for the conduct of the Individual Defendants and any damages they caused under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

JURY DEMAND

141. Plaintiffs hereby demand trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs, ROSEMARY COLON and JORDAN MORALES, demand judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law, and that the Plaintiffs recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988 and 2021 N.Y.C. Local Law No. 48, N.Y.C. Admin. Code §§ 8 – 801 et seq..
