CCRB Statement

On December 6, 2013, § 87(2)(b) provided a phone statement with the CCRB (encl. 5a). On December 11, 2013, § 87(2)(b) was interviewed at the CCRB (encl. 6a-e). § 87(2)(g)

On September 28, 2013, shortly before 7:29 a.m., § 87(2)(b) was in her home at § 87(2)(b), in Brooklyn when she received a call from her girlfriend § 87(2)(b) who stated that she was at the Beverly Road 2 and 5 train station located at the intersection of Beverly Road and Nostrand Avenue. § 87(2)(b) stated that she bought a $5 Metrocard at a vending machine and an individual later identified by the investigation as § 87(2)(b) had taken her Metrocard. § 87(2)(b) heard over the phone that § 87(2)(b) was upset and engaged in an argument with § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) dressed in a t-shirt, basketball shorts and a jacket, left her home and walked to the train station, § 87(2)(b). Upon arriving at the underground subway station, § 87(2)(b) spoke to § 87(2)(b) to calm her down. § 87(2)(b) told § 87(2)(b) that the station attendant in the booth called the police. The booth attendant was an older black female with shoulder-length hair. § 87(2)(b) waited with § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) was still at the station. § 87(2)(b) did not know who § 87(2)(b) was, but described him as an older light-skinned black male, 5'9" to 5'10" tall.

§ 87(2)(b) denied that she argued with or threatened § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) attempted to walk through the turnstiles to board a train, but § 87(2)(b) blocked the turnstile with her body and told § 87(2)(b) to wait for the police. § 87(2)(b) had her hands in her jacket pocket while doing this in order to avoid putting her hands on § 87(2)(b). An officer § 87(2)(b) identified as "Phelps," but identified by the investigation as PO Robert Felts of the 67th Precinct entered the station from the stairs aboveground. § 87(2)(b) described PO Felts as a white male, 5'7" to 5'8" tall, with dark hair, in his late 20s, in uniform. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) explained the situation to PO Felts. As they were speaking to PO Felts, an officer identified by the investigation as PO Joseph Formantes walked down the stairs and approached them. § 87(2)(b) described PO Formantes as an Asian male, 5'9" to 5'10" tall, with a muscular build, in uniform. As PO Felts spoke to § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) PO Formantes told § 87(2)(b) to take her hands out of her pockets. § 87(2)(b) complied. PO Felts then went to the booth attendant while PO Formantes remained with § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b). PO Felts returned saying, "We don't have time for this." In her phone statement, § 87(2)(b) alleged that PO Felts stated, "These black people don't have no jobs." However, during her CCRB statement, § 87(2)(b) denied that PO Felts said anything offensive and denied that he said anything to her regarding race. In her phone statement, § 87(2)(b) also alleged that PO Felts stood close to her face and stated, "I'll beat you up." In her CCRB interview, § 87(2)(b) denied such a statement was made.

§ 87(2)(b) felt that the officers refused to take any action against § 87(2)(b) so she and § 87(2)(b) entered through the turnstiles to the Manhattan-bound platform and walked down the platform towards the front of the train to leave. § 87(2)(b) was not in their vicinity. § 87(2)(b) was still upset and § 87(2)(b) was speaking to her attempting to calm her down. § 87(2)(b) heard someone say, "Can I talk to you for a second?" § 87(2)(b) did not realize that she was being spoken to at first. She turned to her left and saw PO Felts, an officer she identified from his badge as PO Alexander Kreamer, PO Formantes and an officer identified by the investigation as PO Nickola Lyte. § 87(2)(b) described PO Lyte as a black female, wearing glasses, in uniform. Without warning, PO Felts grabbed § 87(2)(b) by her left wrist and pulled it backward while fully extended such that her arm was behind her at a 90 degree angle to her body. This caused pain to § 87(2)(b)'s shoulder and she fell down to her knees and then onto her stomach. She felt someone holding down her legs and felt something in her back. She turned to look back and saw PO Felts with a knee in her back. § 87(2)(b) was handcuffed and escorted out of the station. She was placed inside a marked patrol car driven by an officer identified by the investigation as PO Vito Poliseno, whom she could only describe as a white male in uniform, and another officer she did not recall. She was transported to the 67th Precinct stationhouse. § 87(2)(b) did not see PO Felts, PO Kreamer, PO Formantes or PO Lyte again.

At the 67th Precinct stationhouse, PO Poliseno fingerprinted § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) complained to PO Poliseno about pain in her arm and asked PO Poliseno for medical treatment. PO Poliseno ignored her. In her phone statement, § 87(2)(b) made no mention of asking for medical treatment and did not mention being denied medical treatment. In her phone statement § 87(2)(b) stated that "they wouldn't even let me see a judge without going to the hospital." At central booking, an EMT examined § 87(2)(b) and determined that she required medical treatment. § 87(2)(b) was transported to § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b)

CCRB Statement

On January 3, 2014, § 87(2)(b) provided a statement by phone (encl. 7a).

On September 28, 2013, shortly before 7:29 a.m., § 87(2)(b) was inside the Beverley Road and Nostrand Avenue 2 and 5 train subway station in Brooklyn. § 87(2)(b) bought a Metrocard from the vending machine. A man took § 87(2)(b)'s Metrocard from the vending machine. § 87(2)(b) asked the man to return her Metrocard to her, but he refused. The man pushed and shoved § 87(2)(b) while she was on the phone with § 87(2)(b).

When § 87(2)(b) arrived, she asked the male to return § 87(2)(b)'s Metrocard to her. The male was irate and refused. § 87(2)(b) did not threaten the male at any time. § 87(2)(b) asked the subway station attendant in the booth to call the police. Four officers in uniform arrived. PO Formantes, described by § 87(2)(b) as an Asian male, 5'7", slim build, 30 years old, and PO Felts, described as a Hispanic male, 5'5", stocky build, came downstairs. PO Felts and PO Formantes told § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) to stand away from § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) told PO Formantes that § 87(2)(b) had assaulted her. PO Felts spoke to § 87(2)(b). After speaking to § 87(2)(b), PO Felts told § 87(2)(b) to take her hands out of her pockets.

§ 87(2)(b) cursed and yelled at the officers. The officers instructed § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) to stay away from § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) entered through the turnstiles as did § 87(2)(b). PO Felts, PO Formantes and other unidentified officers, entered the turnstiles. The officers told § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) "You better not bother him" before walking away. § 87(2)(b) denied that she or § 87(2)(b) bothered § 87(2)(b) but the officers returned.

PO Felts told § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) to stand away from each other. PO Felts then grabbed § 87(2)(b)'s arm and twisted it against her back. He pushed § 87(2)(b) against the wall. Several other unidentified officers whom § 87(2)(b) could not describe then brought § 87(2)(b) face-down to the ground. § 87(2)(b) screamed, "My arm! my arm!" § 87(2)(b) grabbed § 87(2)(b)'s feet and attempted to pull her. An unidentified officer told § 87(2)(b) to get away. § 87(2)(b) was handcuffed and arrested. § 87(2)(b) complained that § 87(2)(b) did not deserve to be arrested and officers told her that § 87(2)(b) would likely be released with a DAT or summons.

CCRB Statement

On June 20, 2014, Inv. Wang spoke to § 87(2)(b) by phone (encl. 8a).

On September 28, 2013, at approximately 7:29 a.m., § 87(2)(b) was inside the subway station at Beverley Road in Brooklyn. Two black females identified by the investigation as § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) accused § 87(2)(b) of stealing their Metrocard. They refused to allow § 87(2)(b) to leave. The token booth clerk called 911. Approximately six to eight uniformed officers arrived. The officers spoke to § 87(2)(b) who denied that he stole § 87(2)(b) or § 87(2)(b)'s Metrocard. The officers then spoke to the token booth attendant who confirmed § 87(2)(b)'s story. The police officers behaved professionally and patiently to all parties during the incident. § 87(2)(b) was permitted to enter the train station and go onto the train platform. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) approached him and told § 87(2)(b) "You're going to get stabbed." § 87(2)(b) had her hand in her pocket as she said this. An officer whom § 87(2)(b) did not recall, asked § 87(2)(b) what happened, and § 87(2)(b) told him. A group of three or four officers in uniform whom § 87(2)(b) could only describe as a mix of male and female officers approached § 87(2)(b) and told her she was under arrest. § 87(2)(b) refused to be handcuffed. The officers pushed § 87(2)(b) to the ground and handcuffed her. The officers behaved patiently with § 87(2)(b) up to when she refused to submit to arrest. § 87(2)(b) did not appear injured and she did not complain of any injuries. § 87(2)(b) was picked up from the ground and taken out of the stationhouse. The district attorney informed § 87(2)(b) that an order of protection was issued against § 87(2)(b) on his behalf, but he did not receive confirmation of that.

During his statement, § 87(2)(b) referred to § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) as "animals" and "dykes" while also referring to their race.

Memo Book

On September 28, 2013 at 6:26 a.m., PO Felts arrived at Nostrand Avenue and Beverley Road with Sector D in response to a report of 10-39 (crime in progress). At 7:29 a.m., § 87(2)(b) was arrested by PO Polisenio (encl. 9a-c).

CCRB Statements

On January 23, 2014, PO Felts was interviewed at the CCRB (encl. 10a-b).

On September 28, 2013 at 7:29 a.m., PO Felts responded to the Beverley Road and Nostrand Avenue 2 and 5 train subway station in Brooklyn with his partner PO Lyte. PO Felts and PO Lyte were back up for sector D who were PO Kremer and PO Furman. The officers arrived almost simultaneously. The officers entered the train station and found § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) on the mezzanine level outside of the turnstiles.

§ 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were asked to explain the dispute. § 87(2)(b) stated that she bought a $20 dollar Metrocard from a vending machine which § 87(2)(b) took out of her hand. § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) then got engaged in a dispute. § 87(2)(b) arrived at the subway station and she and § 87(2)(b) together engaged in a dispute with § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) denied that he had taken the Metrocard. PO Felts took § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b)'s Metrocards to the MTA booth and determined that one card was worth $1 and the other was worth 75 cents. PO Felts also spoke to the MTA booth attendant who stated that she could not hear the exchange between the two parties, but § 87(2)(b) appeared aggressive while § 87(2)(b) appeared defensive. The officers decided that the allegation against § 87(2)(b) was without merit and that § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were harassing him. PO Felts did not hear any threats uttered in his presence. The officers asked § 87(2)(b) what he wished to do. § 87(2)(b) stated that he was a teacher and that he just wanted to go to work. PO Felts instructed § 87(2)(b) to go to one end of the subway platform and told § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) to go to the other end of the platform. He told both parties to stay away from each other.

§ 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) all entered through the turnstiles and went in separate directions. The officers were prepared to leave when they saw § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) approach § 87(2)(b). The officers entered the turnstiles and approached § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) to see why they were approaching § 87(2)(b) after being told to stay away. At that point, § 87(2)(b) stated to PO Lyte that § 87(2)(b) had threatened to stab him. PO Felts believed that § 87(2)(b) alleged that § 87(2)(b) had a knife, but his recollection was unsure. At that point it was determined that § 87(2)(b) would be arrested for harassment.

As he approached § 87(2)(b) PO Felts believed that § 87(2)(b) may have had a weapon because of the alleged threats. PO Felts did not recall seeing anything on § 87(2)(b)'s person which indicated that she may have had a knife. PO Felts stated to § 87(2)(b) "Place your hands behind your back, you're under arrest." § 87(2)(b) replied, "No. Why am I being arrested?" PO Felts repeated his order and again § 87(2)(b) had the same response. PO Furmantes was also issuing commands to § 87(2)(b) for her to put her hands behind her back, and possibly other officers as well, but PO Felts did not recall.

PO Felts and PO Furmantes each grabbed § 87(2)(b) by one of her arms and forced her arms behind her back. § 87(2)(b) was tensing her arms and moving, which prevented the officers from placing handcuffs on her. PO Felts also feared that a struggle could cause them to fall onto the subway tracks. PO Felts and PO Furmantes kept hold of § 87(2)(b)'s arms and pushed her to the ground using their leverage as they had been trained in the Police Academy. § 87(2)(b) was placed facedown on her stomach. PO Felts and PO Furmantes handcuffed § 87(2)(b) and then picked her off the ground by her arms. PO Kremer and PO Lyte remained with § 87(2)(b) during the arresting of § 87(2)(b). PO Lyte then searched § 87(2)(b) incident to the arrest. No dangerous instruments were found on § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) complained that her hands hurt from the handcuffing, which PO Felts deemed to be normal. There were no visible injuries on § 87(2)(b).

PO Polisenno arrived after § 87(2)(b) had been handcuffed. § 87(2)(b) was transported by another officer to the 67th Precinct stationhouse. PO Felts did not recall who. PO Felts did not have any further interaction with § 87(2)(b).

Subject Officer: PO VITO POLISENO

- PO Polisenio is a § 87(2)(b) white male § 87(2)(b). He has brown hair and brown eyes.
- On September 28, 2013, PO Polisenio was assigned to Patrol Sectors K, P, M and N, with PO Smith. They were dressed in uniform and drove a marked patrol car.

Memo Book

On September 28, 2013, at 7:15 a.m. PO Polisenio responded to a crime in progress (10-39) at the Beverley Road and Nostrand Avenue train station to back up Sector D. At 7:20 a.m. PO Polisenio arrived on scene. At 7:21 a.m., a female prisoner was placed in his car. The complainant § 87(2)(b) was on scene and claimed that two females harassed him. One of the suspects while outside of the turnstiles looked into § 87(2)(b)'s wallet and stated, "If you don't give me that card, you're going to get stabbed." The suspect then followed § 87(2)(b) around, which was observed by PO Formantes. At 7:29 a.m., one female under arrest. At 7:37 a.m., PO Polisenio arrived at the 67th Precinct stationhouse. § 87(2)(b) arrested for § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) stated that she was placed on floor when arrested and her arm hurts. No injuries were visible. An ambulance was offered to § 87(2)(b). She stated that she just wanted to go home and get this over with. At 11:51 a.m., PO Polisenio vouchered seven keys, a keychain and headphones. Paperwork was conducted by PO Polisenio until 5:20 p.m. when the Duty Captain Lou spoke to PO Polisenio, asking about § 87(2)(b)'s injuries. (encl. 12a-d)

CCRB Statement

On January 23, 2014, PO Polisenio was interviewed at the CCRB (encl. 13a-b).

On September 28, 2013, at approximately 7:15 a.m. PO Polisenio responded to a report of a crime in progress at the Beverley Road and Nostrand Avenue subway station to back up Sector D. When PO Polisenio arrived, § 87(2)(b) was in handcuffs seated in a patrol car. PO Polisenio did not recall whose patrol car she was in.

PO Polisenio spoke to PO Furmantes who informed PO Polisenio of the circumstances of the arrest as well as the civilian complainant identified by the investigation as § 87(2)(b). PO Polisenio concluded from the information provided that there was probable cause to arrest § 87(2)(b) for harassment at the minimum. PO Polisenio transported § 87(2)(b) to the 67th Precinct stationhouse.

PO Polisenio spoke to § 87(2)(b) who complained that her arm hurt during the course of her arrest. PO Polisenio asked § 87(2)(b) if she would like an ambulance, but § 87(2)(b) declined stating she, "Just wanted to get it over with and go home." PO Polisenio never heard § 87(2)(b) later ask for an ambulance and did not hear any officer turn down a request from § 87(2)(b) to go to the hospital.

Captain Lou conducted an interview with PO Polisenio to ask about § 87(2)(b)'s injuries which PO Polisenio described as a "mini GO-15." PO Polisenio believed that Captain Lou also spoke to § 87(2)(b). PO Polisenio was not aware of whether § 87(2)(b) was later sent to the hospital.
