Plaintiffs Dayvaughn Alexander, Donasia Lawson, Reginald Alexander, and Traeshawn Alexander
by their attorney, SYDNEY O'HAGAN, ESQ., as and for the Complaint herein, alleges upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of plaintiffs' rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Section 1983, the rights secured by the First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York. Plaintiffs were unlawfully arrested by the defendants. Plaintiffs were deprived of their federal constitutional and state constitutional and common law rights when the individually named police officer defendants unlawfully confined plaintiffs, caused the unjustifiable arrest of plaintiffs.

PARTIES

2. Dayvaughn Alexander is a citizen of the United States and a resident of Brooklyn, New York.
3. Donasia Lawson is a citizen of the United States and a resident of Brooklyn, New York.
4. Reginald Alexander is a citizen of the United States and a resident of Brooklyn, New York.
5. Traeshawn Alexander is a citizen of the United States and a resident of Brooklyn, New York.

6. Police Officer John Doe Number 1 is and was at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
7. Police Officer John Doe #1 is being sued in his individual capacity and official capacity.
8. New York Police Officers John and Jane Does #'s 2-12 are and were at all times relevant herein an officer, employee, and agent of the New York City Police Department.
9. Police Officers John and Jane Does #2-12 are being sued in his/her individual capacity and official capacity.
10. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents, and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.
11. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department which acts as agents in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

12. On February 15, 2019, at approximately 8:00 a.m., at 1747 Schenectady Avenue, Brooklyn, NY, plaintiffs were in their residence when police officers arrived. Dayvaughn Alexander, Donasia Lawson, Reginald Alexander, and Traeshawn Alexander were unlawfully arrested for unknown reasons. The plaintiffs did not commit any crime and were not in possession of any drugs or weapons to justify an arrest.
13. At Kings County Central Booking the prosecution declined to prosecute Dayvaughn Alexander, Donasia Lawson, and Reginald Alexander and they were released. Traeshawn Alexander was charged with possession of a forged instrument, possession of a pistol toy, and possession of pistol ammunition. He was ROR'd at arraignment. He accepted an "ACD" (Adjournment in Contemplation of Dismissal) on September 20, 2019.
14. Plaintiffs Dayvaughn Alexander, Donasia Lawson and Reginald Alexander were incarcerated for 32 hours. Plaintiff Traeshawn Alexander was incarcerated for 36 hours. Traeshawn Alexander made several court appearances for this case.

15. In the process of executing an unlawful search and arrest, police officers caused extensive damage to the plaintiffs' apartment, including breaking doors, mirrors, beds, and a flat-screened television. This property was maliciously and unnecessarily damaged by police officers. Police officers also took five hundred dollars in cash, a gold chain, and other merchandise from the apartment. This property was never vouchered or returned to the plaintiffs. Plaintiffs were never compensated for the damage caused to their valuables.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

FALSE ARREST AND FALSE IMPRISONMENT

16. Plaintiffs repeats and alleges paragraphs 1 through 15 as if fully set forth herein.
17. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine plaintiffs and, in fact, confined plaintiffs, and plaintiffs were conscious of the confinement. In addition, plaintiffs did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.
18. The individually named defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
19. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT HIRING, RETENTION, TRAINING AND SUPERVISION

20. The plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 19 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
21. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise the individually named defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of NYPD duties.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

FAILURE TO INTERVENE

22. The plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 21 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

23. Defendants had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of plaintiffs, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other members of the NYPD.
24. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein despite having had a reasonable opportunity to do so, and full knowledge of the unlawful conduct.
25. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiffs were subjected to an illegal search and undue force upon her person over the course of the false arrest.
26. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of her employment by the City of New York, the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.
27. The City, as the employer of defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENCE

28. The plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 27 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
29. Defendants owed a duty of care to plaintiffs.
30. Defendants breached that duty of care by subjecting them to an illegal search and undue force and unprivileged deprivation of their liberty without sufficient or any cause to do so.
31. As a direct and proximate cause of this unlawful conduct, plaintiffs sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.
32. All of the foregoing occurred without any fault by plaintiffs.
33. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

NEGLIGENT INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

34. The plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 33 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

35. By the actions described herein, the individually named police officer defendants, each acting individually and in concert with one another, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to plaintiffs. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to plaintiffs and violated plaintiffs' statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
36. As a result of the foregoing, plaintiffs were deprived of liberty and sustained great emotional injuries.
37. The City, as the employer of the defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat behavior.

SIXTH, SEVENTH, EIGHTH CAUSES OF ACTION

42 U.S.C. § 1983 and 42 U.S.C. 1988

Violation of First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments of US Constitution pursuant to Court's concurrent jurisdiction over Plaintiffs' federal first-amendment-retaliation claim (6th claim); false-arrest/unlawful-search claims (7th claim); and, deprivation-of-fair-trial claim (8th claim).

38. The plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 37 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
39. Defendants, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that violated Plaintiffs' federal constitutional rights as protected by 42 USC Section 1983.
40. New York State courts have concurrent jurisdiction to hear federal claims such as Plaintiffs' Section 1983 ones here.
41. Plaintiffs' federal constitutional claims—brought pursuant to 42 USC 1983 and 1988—allege the violation of their First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment rights.
42. In particular, Plaintiffs alleges that Defendants' retaliatory and harassing false arrest, use of undue force upon him, unlawful search, malicious prosecution and fabrication of evidence violated her First, Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment rights insofar as Defendants had no cause or legal privilege to submit Plaintiffs to deprivation of his liberty, seizure and search of their person, and other constitutional injuries, yet they did so with malice and retaliatory intent.
43. Insofar as Plaintiffs' federal claims, brought pursuant to the court's concurrent jurisdiction over them, mirror state constitutional tort and tort elements, Plaintiffs repeat and reiterate the above allegations in support of the federal claims here.
44. In the event Plaintiffs prevail at trial on one, some or all of their 42 USC Section 1983 claims pursuant to the court's concurrent jurisdiction, she also seeks reasonable fees and costs as prevailing party pursuant to 42 USC Section 1988.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Municipal liability pursuant to 42 USC Section 1983

45. The plaintiffs repeat, reiterate and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 44 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.
46. Defendants, collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law, engaged in conduct that constituted a custom, usage, practice, procedure or rule of defendant City of New York, which is forbidden by the Constitution of the United States.
47. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department included, but were not limited to policies, customs and practices wherein New York City Police officers arrest individuals without probable cause and create false versions of events to justify their actions to achieve remunerative ends through overtime, to achieve professional advancement through arrest numbers, and to satisfy personal whims through retaliatory use of their authority.
48. The aforementioned customs, policies, usages, practices, procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York Police Department were the moving force behind the violation of plaintiffs' constitutional rights as described herein. As a result of the failure of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department to properly recruit, screen, train, discipline, and supervise its officers, including the individual defendants, defendant City of New York has tacitly authorized, ratified, and has been deliberately indifferent to, the acts and conduct complained of herein.
49. Similarly, the City of NY is on notice of the obvious risk that their failure to train, discipline and supervise its officers—and in particular these specific Defendants who discovery will show to have been the subject of misconduct allegations that went uncorrected—proximately caused the constitutional violations suffered by Plaintiffs here.
50. The foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department were the moving force behind the Constitutional violations suffered by plaintiffs as alleged herein.
51. As a result of the foregoing customs, policies, usages, practices, and procedures and rules of defendant City of New York and the New York City Police Department, plaintiffs were unlawfully arrested, subjected to undue force and unlawful search, and prosecuted.
52. Defendants collectively and individually, while acting under color of state law were directly and actively involved in violating plaintiffs' constitutional rights.

ATTORNEY'S VERIFICATION

SYDNEY O'HAGAN, an attorney duly admitted to practice before the Courts of the State of New York, affirms the following to be true under the penalties of perjury:

I am attorney at the law firm of SYDNEY O'HAGAN, ESQ., I have read the annexed VERIFIED COMPLAINT and know the contents thereof, and the same are true to my knowledge, except those matters wherein which are stated to be alleged upon information and belief, and as to those matters I believe them to be true. My belief, as to those matters therein not stated upon knowledge, is based upon facts, and other pertinent information contained in my files. The reason this verification is made by me and not Plaintiffs' is that Plaintiffs are out of the county.
