CITY OF NEW YORK, FAISAL ELWAN, and JOHN
OR JANE DOE 1-10,Defendants.
-----X

Plaintiff, JAMAAL RUSS, by and through the undersigned attorneys, SIM & DEPAOLA, LLP, as and for his complaint against the Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK, POLICE OFFICER FAISAL ELWAN and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 - 10, hereby alleges and states as follows:

1. This is a civil rights action, in which Plaintiff seeks relief vis-à-vis 42 U.S.C. §§ 1981, 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988, the laws of the City and State of New York, including but not limited to New York City Human Rights Law under NYC Admin Code §§ 8-801 – 8-806, in addition to the self-executing clauses or implied private causes of action within the constitution of State of New York, for the violations of his civil rights, as enumerated by the First, Fourth, Fifth, Sixth, Eighth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, the New York State Constitution, in addition to the Laws of the City and State of New York.
2. The following claims arose on or about June 12, 2023, when defendants, acting under color of state law, caused Plaintiff to be unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, battered and assaulted, arrested and detained in the vicinity at Bristol Sdtreet and Dumont Avenue, Brooklyn, New York. As a result, Plaintiff was deprived of his liberty and suffered various physical, emotional and psychological injuries. Plaintiff was wrongfully detained over the course of approximately over 28 hours day until his release from physical custody. Plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted and denied Due Process and Equal Protection of the law, until September 14, 2023 when all criminal charges under were unconditionally dismissed and sealed, pursuant to §§ 160.50 and 160.60 of the Criminal Procedure Law which constituted a termination of the criminal proceedings in favor of Plaintiff.

3. At all times here mentioned, defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

4. Plaintiff has timely served the City of New York, Office of the Comptroller, with notice of his claims within 90 days of the date(s) from which they arose.

5. Over 30 days have elapsed since the filing of the Notice of Claim and this matter has not been adjusted or settled.

6. Under New York City Human Rights Law under NYC Admin Code §§ 8-801 – 8-806, the Plaintiff is not required to file his Notice of Claim or submit to an oral examination pursuant to section 50-H of the New York General Municipal Law.

7. This action and associated claims have been filed within the applicable statute of limitations, which is three years for state and federal claims.

8. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against defendants, an award of costs and reasonable attorney's fees, with all interest then accrued, together with such other or further relief, as this venerable Court may deem just and proper.

15. Plaintiff does not know the true names or tax registry numbers of Defendants, JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10, as such knowledge is within the exclusive possession of Defendants.

16. The first name “JOHN” is fictitious and meant as a placeholder for the true and proper first name of the NYPD Police Officer Defendant who falsely arrested, maliciously prosecuted, and denied Plaintiff his Due Process rights by attempting to improperly coerce a confession from Plaintiff despite having viewed immediately available exculpatory video surveillance which unequivocally demonstrated that plaintiff had not committed any crimes or illegal acts.

17. At all relevant times herein, Defendants JOHN OR JANE DOE 1-10 were police officers, detectives, sergeants, supervisors, policymakers or officials employed by the NYPD or City of New York. FACTUAL CHARGES

20. On June 12, 2023, at approximately 4:50 p.m., in the vicinity of the intersection of Bristol St and Dumont Avenue, Brooklyn, New York, Plaintiff was illegally targeted, because of his race, religion, national origin or other improper characteristic for adverse police action, by Defendants, including ELWAN, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 - 10.

21. On June 12, 2023, the Plaintiff had rented a Zip car. The Plaintiff was known to the 73rd Precinct since he was subjected to harassment from officers at the 73rd Precinct. While Plaintiff was lawfully operating his vehicle, he was pulled over by the Defendants with their guns drawn and pointed at the Plaintiff. The Defendants fabricated observations and asserted that he had committed traffic infractions. Further, the Defendants fabricated that the Plaintiff did not have a driver's license even though he presented a valid Georgia driver's license.

22. Plaintiff was lawfully present, in obedience of all laws, statutes and ordinances when he was illegally approached, questioned, assaulted, battered, arrested and handcuffed by Defendants including ELWAN, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 - 10 who had no probable cause or reasonable suspicion to do so and Plaintiff further exhibited no indicia of criminal or illegal behavior.

23. Defendants including ELWAN, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 - 10 then illegally searched Plaintiff's person and car without a search warrant or any legal justification.

24. No contraband was recovered from the illegal searches.

25. Defendants, including ELWAN, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 - 10, approached Plaintiff, grabbed him, and began searching the through Plaintiff's pockets without any legal basis to do so as Plaintiff had exhibited no indicia of criminality and had not been observed violating any laws.

26. Defendants, including ELWAN, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 - 10, violently contorted Plaintiff's arms behind his back to which they affixed metal handcuffs in an excessively tight fashion which caused Plaintiff's hands and wrists to become swollen, and bruised.

27. Plaintiff repeatedly requested that Defendants, including ELWAN, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 - 10, loosen the handcuffs, because they were causing him substantial pain and discomfort due to their excessive tightness.

28. Defendants, including ELWAN, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 - 10, ignored all of Plaintiff's pleas to loosen the handcuffs.

29. Defendants including ELWAN, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 - 10 reviewed surveillance footage which demonstrated that Plaintiff was nowhere in the vicinity of any reported crime or offense.

30. Defendants, including ELWAN, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 - 10, removed Plaintiff to an NYPD precinct against his will, where Defendants fingerprinted, photographed, searched and confined Plaintiff to a cell.

31. At the Precinct, Defendants, including ELWAN, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 - 10, subjected Plaintiff to a humiliating strip search in which they forced Plaintiff to completely disrobe, and then squat down while nude to expose his anus and cough. Despite this intrusive, dehumanizing and ultimately unconstitutional search, no contraband was recovered.

32. At no point prior to the above stated strip searches and cavity inspections did Defendants, including ELWAN, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 - 10 have any individualized suspicion that Plaintiff had secreted contraband into a body cavity or orifice.

33. Defendants ELWAN, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 – 10 attempted to threaten, intimidate and otherwise coerce Plaintiff into confessing to criminal activity in the absence of requested Counsel and despite the fact that they knew Plaintiff was not the perpetrator.

34. Plaintiff was eventually transported to Central Booking where he remained in a disgusting cell until his arraignment.

35. Defendants signed or caused to be signed a criminal complaint against Plaintiff, in which they knowingly affirmed the truth of the fabricated allegations against Plaintiff.

36. Plaintiff's charges were dismissed and sealed pursuant to, inter alia, CPL 160.50 on November 22, 2021 which constituted a termination favorable to the accused.

37. Defendants, including ELWAN, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 - 10, arrested and caused a criminal prosecution to be initiated against Plaintiff, because of their desires to use Plaintiff's arrest and criminal prosecution to incur additional overtime compensation, benefits and favor from the superior officers, to avoid adverse consequences associated with failing to meet NYPD departmental arrest quotas, and also to conceal their egregious violations of proper police procedures and gross misconduct, including their fabrications of non-existent observations, evidence and information.

38. Defendants, including ELWAN, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 - 10, arrested, applied excessive force and initiated a malicious prosecution against Plaintiff in retaliation for Plaintiff's exertion of his constitutional right to freely express his opinion and inquiries, namely Plaintiff's displeasure with the manner in which Defendants approached and addressed him.

39. As a result, Plaintiff developed a severe fear of police officers, which prevented him from venturing from his house for a period of time and has effectively permanently chilled his desire and ability to communicate with police officers.

40. Defendants, including ELWAN, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 - 10, unlawfully targeted and decided to stop and effect unlawful seizures of Plaintiff due to Plaintiff's status as a Black or African American male.

41. Defendants, including ELWAN, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 - 10, engaged in a conspiracy to falsely arrest and maliciously prosecute Plaintiff by personally conferring with each other, regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned non-existent evidence and observations, as well the manner and means by which said fabrications would be forwarded to the District Attorney's Office.

42. Plaintiff asserts that the Defendants, including ELWAN, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 - 10, who violated Plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers.

43. The individually named Defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

44. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculpated via incontrovertible evidence, such as video evidence.

45. The constitutionally repugnant behavior that persists within the ranks of the NYPD results from the NYPD's own policies, rules and procedures, namely the NYPD's incredibly flawed and illegal use of arrest quotas. Despite its illegality, such policies remain systemin throughout the NYPD and its individual commands. The NYPD, however, was not content in compelling its officers to effect as many arrests as possible, regardless of the presence of any legal right to do, it promulgated various subsets of quotas, which are predicated on race, color or ethnicity.

Additionally, the NYPD, its supervisors or policymakers would assign varying point values to arrests, which were, again, impermissibly based upon the arrestee's race, color or ethnicity. Unsurprisingly, officers would be better rewarded for minority arrests or summonses. This egregious conduct has reported by numerous respected media outlets and publications and has even formed the basis for federal lawsuits against the City and the NYPD, which were commenced by its own employee officers.

46. On June 17, 2020, the New York Daily News published an article, by Graham Rayman, entitled "Brooklyn Cop Claims he was Punished for not Meeting Arrest Quotas, Refusing to Take Responsibility for Controversial Arrest in which he Wasn't Involved," describing allegations from an NYPD Police Officer, Terrence Dickerson, that he was retaliated against by the NYPD for refusing to adhere to mandatory racially based arrest quotas and for his refusal to accept responsibility for a controversial and publicized arrest via the excessive force, despite the fact that he was not even at the scene.

47. Another article with a title that speaks for itself, also published by the New York Daily News, on December 5, 2019, and written by Graham Rayman, is entitled "Ex-Cop Details NYPD 'Collar Quotas'—Arrest Black and Hispanic Men, 'No Cuffs on Soft Targets' of Jews, Asians, Whites: Court Docs."

48. The New York Times, on December 6, 2019, published an article by Joseph Goldstein and Ashley Southall, entitled "I Got Tired of Hunting Black and Hispanic People," which revealed a disturbing account from a different NYPD Police Officer, Anthony Diaz, describing a police force that measures the quality of police work by the quantity of minority arrests.

49. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled "Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying," written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr.

Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers' intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

50. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled "Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars." Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

51. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "Detective's Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge," by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered through contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco's lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

52. Other articles include: (i) "Testilying" by Police: A Stubborn Problem," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) "New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) "He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him," by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) "Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers' False Statement," by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) "In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police," by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) "Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs," by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) "The Drugs? They Came from the Police," by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

53. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On June 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled "2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D." This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD's commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

54. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in Plaintiff's arrest without probable cause.

55. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

56. Defendants' actions, pursuant to Plaintiff's underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of Plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with Defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

57. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of Defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

58. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the officer Defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of Defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer Defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named Defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

59. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of Defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Defendants ELWAN, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 - 10.

60. Upon information and belief, the individually named Defendants have combined to be named as Defendants in numerous lawsuits that have accused them of committing violations similar or identical to those alleged herein, all of which have resulted no disciplinary or corrective action of any kind.

61. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named Defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct.

62. The aforementioned acts of Defendants, including ELWAN, and JOHN or JANE DOE 1 - 10, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of Plaintiff's civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

63. As a direct or proximate result of said acts, Plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of his liberty, irreparable reputational harm, loss of earnings and potential earnings, physical injury, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience, and anxiety.
