THIRD ENDORSEMENT

First Deputy Commissioner to Police Commissioner June 20, 2024. Contents noted. I reviewed the negotiated plea in Disciplinary Case Nos. 2022-25286 and 2022-25855 against Detective Anthony Alvino, Tax No. 961613, with the recommendation that the Charges and Specifications against Detective Alvino be dismissed and that Detective Alvino receive a Schedule "B" Command Discipline and forfeit ten (10) vacation days. Assistant Deputy Commissioner, Trials Vanessa Facio-Lince reviewed this case and made a favorable recommendation pertaining to the proposed settlement; I do not concur.

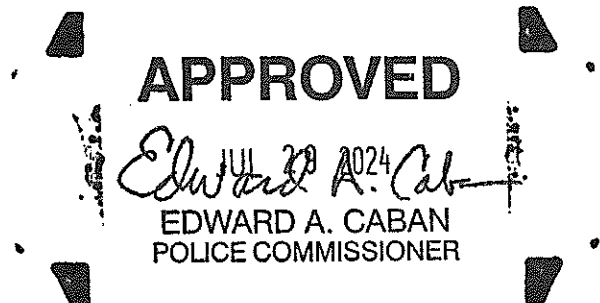

With respect to Case No. 2022-25855, Detective Alvino's failure to definitively account for a three (3) minute gap on an AVL log is not a denial, nor is it an inherently inaccurate statement. In this matter, Detective Alvino was initially interviewed by CCRB, approximately eight (8) months after the incident, and informed CCRB that he was unable to recall the incident because "it was so long ago." When Detective Alvino was interviewed a second time, nearly nineteen (19) months after the incident, during which time he reviewed the AVL log, he stated the AVL log did not refresh his recollection. Based on the passage of time, it would stand to reason that Detective Alvino's memory would not be exact.

Therefore, it is recommend that Charges and Specifications be dismissed and that Detective Alvino receive a Schedule "B" Command Discipline and forfeit six (6) vacation days for Case No. 2022-25286 and receive No Disciplinary Action for Case No. 2022-25855. RECOMMEND APPROVAL.

Re: CCRB Case No. 202002792 (Incident Date: April 8, 2020) involving Detective Merita Hoxha, Tax No. 955988 (DADS Nos. 2022-25284 and 2022-25857), Police Officer Dennis Vargas, Tax No. 957245 (DADS Nos. 2022-25285 and 2022-25859), and Detective Anthony Alvino, Tax No. 961613 (DADS Nos. 2022-25286 and 2022-25855)

Dear Mr. Darche:

The Police Commissioner has reviewed the recommendation of the Civilian Complaint Review Board (CCRB) regarding the disciplinary matter involving Detectives Merita Hoxha and Anthony Alvino, and Police Officer Dennis Vargas, and has determined that their actions do not warrant the proposed penalty.

After reviewing the facts and circumstances of the case, the Police Commissioner finds that there is insufficient evidence to demonstrate that the officers made inaccurate statements to the CCRB. However, the Police Commissioner agrees with the remainder of the CCRB's findings.

Therefore, rather than a penalty of a Schedule "B" Command Discipline with the forfeiture of ten (10) vacation days, the Police Commissioner intends to direct the issuance of a Schedule "B" Command Discipline with the forfeiture of six (6) vacation days against Detective Hoxha, Police Officer Vargas, and Detective Alvino in Disciplinary Case Nos. 2022-25284, 2022-25285, and 2022-25286, respectively. With respect to Disciplinary Case Nos. 2022-25857, 2022-25859, and 2022-25855, pertaining to the allegations of inaccurate statements, the Police Commissioner intends to impose no disciplinary action.

Sincerely,

Anthony S. Marino

Re: CCRB Case Nos. 202002792 and 202002669 (Incident Dates: January 22, 2021 and April 8, 2020) involving Detective Merita Hoxha Tax No. 955988 (DADS Nos. 2022-25284 and 2022-25857), Police Officer Dennis Vargas, Tax No. 957245 (DADS Nos. 2022-25285 and 2022-25859), and Detective Anthony Alvino, Tax No. 961613 (DADS Nos. 2022-25286 and 2022-25855)

Dear Commissioner Caban:

I am writing in response to the letter from Deputy Chief Anthony S. Marino, dated July 19, 2024. Pursuant to Paragraph 6 of the April 2, 2012, Memorandum of Understanding between the CCRB and the New York City Police Department, I am responding to Deputy Chief Marino's notification.

On January 30, 2024 in front of Assistant Deputy Commissioner Vanessa Facio-Lince, Detective Hoxha, Police Officer Vargas and Detective Alvino all accepted the findings of substantiation to the Charges and Specifications on these matters, for a sentence of a Schedule "B" Command Discipline with the forfeiture of ten (10) vacation days.

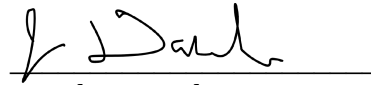

Deputy Chief Marino states that after reviewing the evidence in this case you believe that there is insufficient basis for the charge of Inaccurate Statement on CCRB Case No. 202002792, and further states that you intend to impose no discipline for that charge. Additionally, the letter states that you believe that for the remaining charges you intend to direct the issuance of a Schedule "B" Command Discipline with the forfeiture of six (6) vacation days.

The CCRB disagrees with your assessment that there is insufficient evidence that each respondent provided an inaccurate statement when they each told the CCRB that they did not remember interacting with the civilians. The CCRB investigation uncovered sufficient evidence, through both witness statements and NYPD paperwork, that the respondents did interact with the complainants and that this interaction would have been significant enough for the each of the respondents to have remembered it. All three respondents, after consulting with their attorneys, voluntarily signed paperwork accepting the findings of substantiation to this charge. Each respondent then again accepted the findings of substantiation in open court.

The CCRB would ask the Police Commissioner to accept the CCRB's recommendation and penalty that was agreed to by Detective Hoxha, Police Officer Vargas and Detective Alvino and impose upon each respondent a Schedule "B" Command Discipline with the forfeiture of ten (10) vacation days.

Respectfully submitted,
