Plaintiffs NICHOLAS GRAY and NOEL CASTILLO, by their attorneys, Caitlin Robin & Associates, PLLC, as and for their Verified Complaint herein, allege upon information and belief as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. This is a civil rights action to recover money damages arising out of defendants' violation of Plaintiffs' rights as secured by the Civil Rights Act, 42 U.S.C. Sections 1983 and 1988, and of rights secured by the Fourth, Fifth, and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, and the common law and the laws of the State of New York. On May 3rd, 2020, at approximately 1:00 p.m., plaintiffs NICHOLAS GRAY and NOEL CASTILLO, while lawfully in the vicinity of 1530 Mermaid Avenue in Brooklyn, New York, were subject to an unlawful stop, question, frisk, search, false arrest, and false imprisonment by the defendant New York City police officers. In addition, Plaintiffs were subjected to excessive force and were shoved, slammed, and repeatedly punched by the defendant officers, causing them to suffer physical, mental, and emotional injury. Plaintiffs were then unlawfully imprisoned at the 60th Precinct Police Station for approximately 12 hours before they were released with desk appearance tickets. Plaintiffs were denied the right to due process and a fair trial for false charges, which were dismissed and sealed on or about August 31, 2020. Plaintiffs were deprived of their constitutional and common law rights when the individual defendants unlawfully stopped, questioned, frisked, searched, confined, subjected to excessive force, assaulted, battered, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, and denied plaintiffs the right to due process and a fair trial in violation of the Fourth, Fifth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, the common law, and the laws of the State of New York.

PARTIES

2. Plaintiff NICHOLAS GRAY is a resident of the state of New York.
3. Plaintiff NOEL CASTILLO is a resident of the state of New York.
4. NYPD POLICE OFFICERS NICOLE FOX, SHIELD NO. 22143, AND MICHAEL KNOTT, SHIELD NO. 707, are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
5. NYPD POLICE OFFICER NICOLE FOX, SHIELD NO. 22143, is and was at all times relevant herein assigned to the 60th Precinct.
6. NYPD POLICE OFFICERS NICOLE FOX, SHIELD NO. 22143, is being sued in their individual and official capacities.
7. NYPD POLICE OFFICERS NICOLE FOX, SHIELD NO. 22143 is and was at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
8. NYPD POLICE OFFICER MICHAEL KNOTT, SHIELD NO. 707, is and was at all times relevant herein assigned to the 60th Precinct.
9. NYPD POLICE OFFICER MICHAEL KNOTT, SHIELD NO. 707, is being sued in their individual and official capacities.
10. NYPD Police Officers John Doe Numbers 1-10 are and were at all times relevant herein officers, employees, and agents of the New York City Police Department.
11. NYPD Police Officers John Doe Numbers 1-10 were at all times relevant herein, assigned to the 60th Precinct.
12. NYPD Police Officers John Doe Numbers 1-10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.
13. At all times relevant herein, the individual defendants were acting under color of state law in the course and scope of their duties and functions as agents, servants, employees and officers of the New York City Police Department, and otherwise performed and engaged in conduct incidental to the performance of their lawful functions in the course of their duties. They were acting for and on behalf of the New York City Police Department at all times relevant herein, with the power and authority vested in them as officers, agents and employees of the New York City Police Department and incidental to the lawful pursuit of their duties as officers, employees and agents of the New York City Police Department.

14. Defendant City of New York is a municipal entity created and authorized under the laws of the State of New York. It is authorized by law to maintain a police department, which acts as its agent in the area of law enforcement and for which it is ultimately responsible. The defendant City of New York assumes the risks incidental to the maintenance of a police force and the employment of police officers as said risks attach to the public consumers of the services provided by the New York City Police Department.

15. Plaintiffs in furtherance of their causes of action brought pursuant to New York State law filed timely Notices of Claim against the CITY OF NEW YORK in compliance with the Municipal Law Section 50 and in accordance with New York State law.

16. In accordance with New York State law and General Municipal Law Section 50, both Plaintiffs testified at a hearing held pursuant to General Municipal Law Section 50-H.

17. More than thirty (30) days have elapsed since service of said Notice of Claim was filed and THE CITY OF NEW YORK has failed to pay or adjust the claims.

18. This action falls within one or more of the exceptions as set forth in CPLR Section 1602, involving intentional actions, as well as the defendant, and/or defendants, having acted in reckless disregard for the safety of others, as well as having performed intentional acts.

19. Plaintiffs have sustained damages in an amount in excess of the jurisdictional limits of all the lower Courts of the State of New York.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

20. On May 3rd, 2020, at approximately 1:00 P.M., Plaintiffs were lawfully present in the vicinity of 1530 Mermaid Avenue in Brooklyn, New York, when the defendant police officers unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, assaulted, battered, and falsely arrested Plaintiffs without probable cause or legal justification.

21. Plaintiff Nicholas Gray had just received a haircut at his neighborhood barber shop, and was headed to a bodega at West 15th Street and Mermaid Avenue.

22. Outside a laundromat near 1530 Mermaid Avenue, Plaintiff Gray observed a few friends of his, one of which was Plaintiff Noel Castillo.

23. Plaintiff Gray approached Plaintiff Castillo and friends to say hello, while wearing a mask and observing social distancing guidelines.

24. Plaintiffs observed approximately six police officers in the area who asked the people gathered outside the laundromat to disperse, which Plaintiffs did.

25. Plaintiff Castillo decided to join Plaintiff Gray in continuing on to the bodega, and they began to cross the street in that direction.

26. At this time, defendant NYPD officers stopped the plaintiffs and asked Plaintiff Castillo for identification.

27. Plaintiff Castillo asked why he needed to show identification, because he and Plaintiff Gray were doing nothing wrong.

28. At this time, defendant officers began to arrest Plaintiff Castillo, and as more officers began to arrive on the scene on bicycles, Plaintiff Gray started recording the interaction with his phone.

29. Defendant officers ordered Plaintiff Gray to stop recording the incident, and when he insisted he was doing nothing wrong, they began to arrest him alongside his friend.

30. During their arrests, both Plaintiffs were shoved, punched, their heads slammed into the ground and onto nearby vehicles, and they were tightly cuffed and violently handled by defendant NYPD Officers.

31. At no time relevant herein did Plaintiffs commit a crime or violate the law in any way, nor did the police officers have an objective reason to accuse Plaintiffs of committing a crime or violating the law in any way.

32. Nevertheless, Plaintiffs were unlawfully arrested and handcuffed by defendant officers without legal justification or probable cause.

33. Plaintiffs did not resist arrest.

34. Plaintiffs were subject to an illegal pat-down search and no illegal contraband was found.

35. The Defendant Officers then placed the Plaintiffs in the back of two separate NYPD vehicles and transported them against their will to the 60th Precinct, where they were each unlawfully fingerprinted, photographed, and placed in a holding cell.

36. After being unlawfully detained at the 60th precinct, Plaintiffs were again unlawfully searched by defendant officers, and again no illegal contraband was found.

37. During their unlawful search and confinement at the 60th precinct, Plaintiffs were again punched, shoved, and violently handled by defendant police officers.

38. At no point did Defendant Officers recover any drugs, weapons, or other illegal contraband from either Plaintiff or from a location that was in either Plaintiff's possession, custody, or control.

39. The defendant police officers provided the District Attorney's Office with the false, misleading and/or incomplete information that Plaintiffs committed a crime.

40. Specifically, the defendant police officers falsely stated to the District Attorney's Office that the plaintiffs were guilty of resisting arrest.

41. On May 4th, 2020, after approximately twelve hours in custody, the Plaintiffs were released from custody at the 60th precinct with desk appearance tickets.

42. The charges which were falsely made against the Plaintiffs by the defendant officers were dismissed and sealed at some point after their first scheduled court appearance on August 31, 2020.

43. The Kings County District Attorney's office made a determination not to prosecute the Plaintiffs because no crime occurred.

44. Some of the police officer defendants observed the violation of Plaintiffs' rights under the Constitution of the United States and New York State Law and did nothing to prevent their fellow officers from unjustifiably searching, seizing, using excessive force, falsely arresting and imprisoning, humiliating, and denying Plaintiff the right to due process and a fair trial.

45. The unlawful search, seizure, use of excessive force, false arrest and imprisonment, and denial of Plaintiffs' right to a fair trial by the individually named defendants caused Plaintiffs to sustain physical, psychological and emotional trauma.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiffs' Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

46. The Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 45 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

47. The individually named police officer defendants, while acting in concert and within the scope of their authority, caused Plaintiffs to be seized, unlawfully searched, falsely arrested, falsely imprisoned, and maliciously prosecuted without reasonable suspicion and/or probable cause, in violation of Plaintiffs' right to be free of an unreasonable seizure under the Fourth Amendment of the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

48. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

False Arrest and False Imprisonment

49. The Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 48 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

50. The acts and conduct of the defendants constitute false arrest and false imprisonment under the laws of the State of New York. Defendants intended to confine Plaintiffs and, in fact, confined Plaintiffs, and Plaintiffs were conscious of the confinement. In addition, Plaintiffs did not consent to the confinement and the confinement was not otherwise privileged.

51. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York and the United States Constitution.

52. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

53. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

54. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Stop, Question, and Frisk

55. The Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 54 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

56. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop, questioning, and frisk employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiffs' freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

57. The conduct of defendants in stopping, frisking, and searching Plaintiffs was performed under color of law and without any reasonable suspicion of criminality or other constitutionally required grounds.

58. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

59. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

60. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Unlawful Search

61. The Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 60 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

62. The illegal approach, pursuit, stop, and search employed by defendants herein terminated Plaintiffs' freedom of movement through means intentionally applied.

63. Defendants lacked probable cause to search Plaintiffs.

64. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

65. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

66. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

67. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Assault

68. The Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 67 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

69. Defendants, their agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, intentionally, willfully, and maliciously assaulted Plaintiffs in that they had the real or apparent ability to cause imminent harmful and/or offensive bodily contact and intentionally did a violent and/or menacing act which threatened such contact to the Plaintiffs, that such acts caused apprehension of such contact in the Plaintiffs.

70. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

71. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

72. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

73. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

SIXTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Battery

74. The Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 73 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

75. Defendants, their agents, servants, and employees, acting within the scope of their employment, willfully and maliciously battered Plaintiffs when they, in a hostile and/or offensive manner, shoved them, slammed them into nearby vehicles and walls, and punched them repeatedly, with the intention of causing harmful and/or offensive bodily contact to the Plaintiffs and caused such battery.

76. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

77. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

78. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

79. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

SEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiffs' Fifth and Fourteenth Amendment Rights

Denial of Right to Fair Trial/Due Process

80. The Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 79 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

81. Defendants, individually and collectively, manufactured and/or withheld false evidence and forwarded this false evidence to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

82. Defendants filled out false and misleading police reports and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

83. Defendants signed false and misleading criminal court affidavits and forwarded them to prosecutors in the Kings County District Attorney's Office.

84. In withholding/creating false evidence against Plaintiffs NICHOLAS GRAY and NOEL CASTILLO, and in providing/withholding information with respect thereto, defendants violated plaintiffs' constitutional right to due process and fair trial under the New York State Constitution and under the Due Process Clause of the Fifth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and to be free to deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the United States Constitution.

85. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiffs NICHOLAS GRAY and NOEL CASTILLO sustained, inter alia, loss of the right to due process and a fair trial, loss of liberty, emotional distress, embarrassment and humiliation, and deprivation of their constitutional rights.

86. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

87. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

88. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

EIGHTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Violation of Plaintiffs' Fourth And Fourteenth Amendment Rights

89. The Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 88 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

90. The use of excessive force by defendants by, amongst other things, violently shoving them into the ground and surrounding vehicles while tightly handcuffing them, constituted objectively unreasonable physical seizures of Plaintiffs in violation of their rights under the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States and to be free of a deprivation of liberty under the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States.

91. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

NINTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Infliction of Emotional Distress

92. The Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 91 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

93. By the actions described herein, defendants, each acting individually and in concert with each other, engaged in extreme and outrageous conduct, conduct utterly intolerable in a civilized community, which negligently caused severe emotional distress to Plaintiffs, NICHOLAS GRAY and NOEL CASTILLO. The acts and conduct of the defendants were the direct and proximate cause of injury and damage to Plaintiffs and violated Plaintiffs' statutory and common law rights as guaranteed by the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

94. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

95. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

96. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

97. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to emotional and psychological injuries.

TENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Retention, Training and Supervision

98. The Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 97 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

99. The City of New York and its employees, servants and/or agents acting within the scope of their employment did negligently hire, retain, train and supervise defendants, individuals who were unfit for the performance of police duties on the aforementioned dates at the aforementioned locations.

100. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

ELEVENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene

101. The Plaintiffs repeat, reiterate, and reallege each and every allegation contained in paragraphs marked 1 through 97 with the same force and effect as if more fully set forth at length herein.

102. The defendants that did not physically touch Plaintiffs, but were present when other officers violated Plaintiffs' Constitutional Rights, had an affirmative duty to intervene on behalf of Plaintiffs, whose constitutional rights were being violated in their presence by other officers.

103. Defendants failed to intervene to prevent the unlawful conduct described herein.

104. As a result of the foregoing, Plaintiffs' liberty was restricted for an extended period of time, they were put in fear of their safety, and they were humiliated and subject to unlawful search, battery, and other physical constraints.

105. As a direct and proximate result of such acts, defendants deprived Plaintiffs of their rights under the laws of the State of New York.

106. Defendants were at all times agents, servants, and employees acting within the scope of their employment by the City of New York and the New York City Police Department, which are therefore responsible for their conduct.

107. The City, as the employer of the officer defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

108. As a result of the aforementioned conduct of defendants, Plaintiffs sustained injuries, including but not limited to physical, emotional, and psychological injuries.

JURY DEMAND

109. Plaintiffs hereby demand trial by jury of all issues properly triable thereby.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs NICHOLAS GRAY and NOEL CASTILLO demand judgment against the defendants on each cause of action in amounts to be determined upon the trial of this action which exceeds the jurisdiction of lower courts, inclusive of punitive damages and attorneys' fees inclusive of costs and disbursements of this action, interest and such other relief as is appropriate under the law. That the Plaintiffs recover the cost of the suit herein, including reasonable attorney's fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988.
