CITY OF NEW YORK, INDIVIDUALLY AND IN THEIR OFFICIAL CAPACITIES AS NEW YORK CITY POLICE OFFICERS, KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES,
AND JOHN AND/OR JANE DOES 1 - 10,

Defendants.

-----X
Plaintiff, MUHAMED GUMANEH, by and through the undersigned attorneys, Sim & DePaola, LLP, for his complaint against the Defendants, CITY OF NEW YORK, individually and in their official capacities as New York City police officers, KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN AND/OR JANE DOES 1 - 10, alleges and states as follows:

1. This is a civil rights action, in which plaintiff seeks relief, vis-à-vis 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983, 1985, 1986 and 1988, the laws of the State of New York, in addition to the self-executing clauses or implied private causes of action within the New York State Constitution, for the violations of her civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the Constitution of the United States, as well as the Laws and Constitution of the State of New York.
2. The following claims arise from a January 22, 2019 incident, in which defendants, acting under color of state law, unlawfully stopped, questioned, searched, arrested and detained plaintiff in the vicinity of 1315 Sheridan Avenue, within the County of Bronx, City and State of New York. Plaintiff was then subsequently transported to the 44th precinct. Plaintiff was injured at the said precinct when Defendants cut the string from his sweatpants. Plaintiff was later transferred to Bronx County Central booking. As a result, plaintiff was deprived of his liberty and suffered various physical, emotional and psychological injuries. Plaintiff was wrongfully detained over the course of twenty-four (24) hours. Plaintiff was maliciously prosecuted and denied his right to fair trial until the Bronx County District Attorney unconditionally dismissed all charges against plaintiff, resulting in the termination of the criminal proceeding in plaintiff's favor.

3. At all times here mentioned, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

4. Within 90 days of the claims herein, plaintiff timely serve a notice of claim, upon the City of New York.

5. Over 30 days have elapsed since the filing of this notice, and this matter has not been settled or otherwise disposed of.

6. Plaintiff has complied with municipal defendant's request for an oral examination, pursuant to Section 50-H of the New York General Municipal Law and/or the Public Authorities Law and/or no such request was made within the applicable period.

7. This action and associated claims have been timely commenced within all applicable statutes of limitations.

8. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (compensatory and punitive) against defendants, an award of costs and reasonable attorneys' fees, and such other and further relief as this Court may deem just and proper.

PARTIES

9. Plaintiff, MUHAMED GUMANEH, presently resides in Bronx County, within the City and State of New York.

10. Defendant, City of New York ("City"), is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York.

11. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant City, acting - the New York City Police Department ("NYPD"), was responsible for the policy, practice, supervision, implementation, and conduct of all NYPD matters and was responsible for the appointment, screening, hiring, training, supervision, discipline, retention and conduct of all NYPD personnel, including police officers, detectives, investigators, sergeants, lieutenants and other supervisory officers or officials, as well as the individually named NYPD defendants herein.

12. In addition, at all times here relevant, Defendant, City, was responsible for enforcing the rules or regulations of the NYPD, and for ensuring that the NYPD personnel obey the laws and constitutions of the United States and the State of New York.

13. Defendants, KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10, were, at all times here relevant, police officers employed by the NYPD and, as such, was acting in the capacities of agents, servants and employees of Defendant, City of New York.

Defendants were, at the times relevant herein, police officers, assigned to the 44th NYPD Precinct, located at 2 E 169th St, The Bronx, NY 10452. Defendants are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

14. At all relevant times, Defendants JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10 were police officers, detectives, supervisors, policymakers or officials employed by the NYPD, or City of New York. At this time, Plaintiff does not know the true names or tax registry numbers of defendants, JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10, as such knowledge is within the exclusive possession of defendants.

15. At all relevant times herein, Defendants JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10 were acting as agents, servants and employees of the City of New York, or the NYPD. Defendants JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10 are being sued in their individual and official capacities.

16. At all relevant times herein, Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City or State of New York.

FACTUAL CHARGES

17. On, or about, January 22, 2019, at approximately 2:25 p.m., in the vicinity of the 1315 Sheridan Ave, within the County of Bronx, City and State of New York, Plaintiff was double parked outside the said building. Plaintiff was going to pick up his girlfriend who is a lawful resident of said building.

18. On said date, time and location Defendants, including KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10, approached Plaintiff while he was exiting this motor vehicle.

19. Defendants, including KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10, illegally grabbed Plaintiff while he was exiting from the car without his consent, or any type of legal authority to do so and threw Plaintiff to the rear of the said motor vehicle using excessive force.

20. Defendants, including KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10, then proceeded to unlawfully enter and illegally search the motor vehicle without: (i) Plaintiff's consent; (ii) a judicially authorized search warrant; (iii) probable cause; or (iv) any other legal authority to do so.

21. Defendants, including KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10 never observed Plaintiff committing any crime or violation of law before they unlawfully detained Plaintiff and dragged him out of his motor vehicle.

22. Defendants, including KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10 proceeded to unlawfully order Plaintiff to present his government ID, despite possessing no valid reason to order him to do so, as no criminal activity was present or could be reasonably suspected.

23. Defendants, including KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10 unlawfully entered the said motor vehicle to retrieve Plaintiff's government ID, namely a New York State Driver License without consent, a judicially authorized search warrant or any other legal authority to do so.

24. Defendants, including KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10 then fabricated observations to justify their illegal search and seizure of Plaintiff, including that Plaintiff had a suspended driver license and three active warrants.

25. Defendants, including KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10 physically restrained and removed Plaintiff by rear handcuffing him in an excessively tight fashion, which resulted substantial pain and physical suffering to Plaintiff's person.

26. Defendants, including KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10 proceeded to pat down Plaintiff's person without consent, a judicially authorized search warrant, probable cause or any other legal authority to do so.

27. Defendants, including KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10, then forcibly removed Plaintiff to the 44th precinct by grabbing his person and shoving him into a police transport vehicle.

28. At the 44th precinct, Defendants, including KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 – 10 negligently cut Plaintiff on the upper part of his left testicle when Defendants were cutting a loose string from Plaintiff's sweatpants using a pocket knife.

29. Defendants, including KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10, proceeded to criminally process Plaintiff, which included fingerprinting, photographing and patting down Plaintiff's entire body.

30. Defendants, including KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10, retaliated against plaintiff by forwarding fabricated evidence to prosecutors, namely that defendants discovered Plaintiff had a suspended driver's licence and three (3) active warrants.

31. Defendants, including KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10, proceeded to hide exculpatory evidence from prosecutors, so that Plaintiff would be criminally prosecuted, namely that Plaintiff was never observed committing any crimes or violations of law prior to when he was illegally stopped and seized by defendants, that Plaintiff did not have a suspended drivers' license on the said date and that Plaintiff did not have active warrants against him at the time.

32. Defendants, including KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10, based upon said fabricated observations, falsely informed prosecutors that plaintiff had a suspended drivers' license and three (3) active warrants, despite their full and complete knowledge that Plaintiff had committed no crimes or violations of the law and that a criminal prosecution would never succeed in the total absence of any probable cause to believe otherwise.

33. After Plaintiff's arraignment, he was compelled to return to court multiple times to contest the false criminal charges alleged against him by defendants, including KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10.

34. Plaintiff was eventually vindicated on February 26th, 2019, when the Bronx County District Attorney's Office decided to terminate the criminal proceedings in plaintiff's favor by moving the court for the unconditional dismissal of all criminal charges then pending against plaintiff.

35. Defendants, including KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1-10, arrested and attempted cause a criminal prosecution to be initiated against Plaintiff, because of their desires to use Plaintiff's arrest and criminal prosecution as leverage against their true target, to incur additional overtime compensation, benefits and curry favor from their superior officers, to avoid adverse consequences associated with failing to meet NYPD departmental arrest quotas and also to conceal their egregious violations of proper police procedures and gross misconduct, including their fabrications of non-existent observations, evidence and information.

36. Defendants, including KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10, engaged in a conspiracy to falsely arrest and maliciously prosecute Plaintiff by personally conferring with each other, regarding the fabrication of the aforementioned non-existent evidence and observations, as well the manner and means by which said fabrications would be forwarded to the District Attorney's Office.

37. Plaintiff asserts that the Defendants, including KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10, who violated Plaintiff's civil rights, are part of a larger pattern and practice of similar misconduct, which is so widespread, pervasive and consistent throughout the NYPD and the City of New York that the commission such constitutionally violative behavior has become tantamount to an official policy or custom within the NYPD and City of New York or, at the very least, conclusive evidence that the City and the NYPD have either tacitly approved of such egregious wrongdoings or that they have become deliberately indifferent to the civil rights of those who may come into contact with their police officers.

38. The individually named Defendants herein, as well as other officers serving in the employ of the NYPD and City of New York, have blatantly, shamelessly, consistently and repeatedly engaged in conduct violative of the civil rights guaranteed and protected by Constitution of the United States, in addition to the laws and Constitution of the State of New York, all without incurring any ramifications for such misconduct and, ostensibly, with the full and complete blessing of the NYPD, the City of New York and their respective policymakers and supervisors.

39. The New York Times, as well as numerous other reputable journalistic enterprises, have reported on the widespread corruption within the NYPD and City of New York, particularly the incredibly disconcerting proclivity of many NYPD officers to lie about subject matters that are materially relevant to criminal prosecutions, including the complete fabrication of arrest evidence and witnesses. Also detailed, is the NYPD's obstinate refusal to effectuate corrective or preventive measures to combat the inevitable recurrence of such misdeeds, and perhaps most troubling, the NYPD's alarming tendency to, instead, reward and promote these officers, including those who were inculcated via some incontrovertible form of evidence.

40. On March 18, 2018, The New York Times published an explosive article, entitled "Promotions, Not Punishments for Officers Accused of Lying," written by Joseph Goldstein. Mr. Goldstein shines a light on the multitude of flaws within the CCRB and the NYPD, highlighting the fact that the substantiation of a claim against an officer will invariably rely on the presence of incontrovertible proof against the officer. Due to the rarity availability of this type of evidence, an alarmingly small percentage of officer misconduct claims are substantiated. The CCRB is further handicapped by a terribly designed system that requires evidence of a virtually indisputable nature to substantiate any claim against an officer. The article also details the NYPD's persistent reluctance to investigate or discipline officers who lie and even posits that this reluctance is a significant cause of the lying pandemic within the NYPD. The article references various officers and detectives who were the subject of credible accusations relating to the officers' intentionally false statements, with some allegations coming from federal and state judges.

41. On September 12, 2019, The New York Times published another article by Joseph Goldstein, entitled "Officers Said They Smelled Pot. The Judge Called Them Liars." Unsurprisingly, this article dealt with the unusually high frequency of officers using the odor of marijuana to excuse a search that conspicuously does not result in the recovery of any marijuana. It should not require an article in The New York Times to call attention to such patently disingenuous tactics, but has become necessary for a variety of reasons, including the NYPD's failure to correct such behavior, the willingness of prosecutors and judges to credit the lying officers and the increasing rate of occurrence.

42. On April 24, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “Detective’s Lies Sent Three People to Prison, Prosecutors Charge,” by Sean Piccolo, detailing the lies of NYPD Second Grade Detective Joseph Franco and how those lies resulted in the imprisonment of at least three innocent people. The article described how Det. Franco lied about observing drug transactions on at least three separate occasions, lies that were only uncovered - contradictory video evidence. Det. Franco’s lies resulted in the innocent individuals each being sentenced to prison terms in excess of one-year.

43. Other articles include: (i) “Testilying’ by Police: A Stubborn Problem,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, March 18, 2018; (ii) “New York Detective Charged with Faking Lineup Results,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, February 17, 2018; (iii) “He Excelled as a Detective, Until Prosecutors Stopped Believing Him,” by Joseph Goldstein, The New York Times, October 17, 2017; (iv) “Review Board Notes Rise in New York Police Officers’ False Statement,” by J. David Goodman, The New York Times, May 14, 2015; (v) “In Brooklyn Gun Cases, Suspicion Turns to the Police,” by Stephanie Clifford, The New York Times, December 11, 2014; (vi) “Detective is Found Guilty of Planting Drugs,” by Tim Stelloh, The New York Times, November 1, 2011; and (vii) “The Drugs? They Came From the Police,” by Jim Dwyer, The New York Times, October 13, 2011.

44. The NYPD has a longstanding and ignominious record of failing to discipline its officers, or even entertaining allegations of wrongdoing against them. On JUNE 26, 2019, The New York Times published an article, entitled “2,495 Reports of Police Bias. Not One Was Deemed Valid by the N.Y.P.D.” This article reported that within the last five (5) years, almost 2,500 separate individuals have filed formal complaints with the NYPD alleging that an officer acted with bias toward them, with not a single one being substantiated by the NYPD. Such a finding is plainly incredible and obviously the result of deliberately poor or nonexistent investigatory protocols. The report further impugned the NYPD's commitment to combat the prejudices and the biases exhibited by many of its officers.

45. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers, officials or supervisors have imposed, tacitly approved or acquiesced to policies, customs, or patterns and practices within the NYPD that resulted in plaintiff's arrest without probable cause.

46. Upon information and belief, the NYPD, the City of New York, and their respective policymakers or supervisors have failed to provide adequate training regarding the identification of probable cause, reasonable suspicion or the appropriate amount of force to be used.

47. Defendants' actions, pursuant to Plaintiff's underlying arrest, which occurred without even the semblance of probable cause, were so blatantly violative of plaintiff's civil rights that the tacit approval of identical or similar acts by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and the City of New York, as well as their deliberate indifference towards the rights of any individuals who may come into contact with defendants, should be inferred, because such flagrant deprivations of constitutionally protected rights could not and would not occur without the tacit approval or deliberate indifference regarding the commission of such violations by the policymakers or supervisors of the NYPD and City of New York.

48. Upon information and belief, further details and facts, relating to the unlawful policies, customs or patterns and practices of the NYPD, City of New York and their respective policymakers, supervisors, police officers or employees, will become known after the completion of discovery, as such information is presently within the exclusive possession of Defendants, the NYPD and City of New York.

49. Upon information and belief, the personnel files, records and disciplinary histories of the Officer Defendants will reveal a history of Constitutional violations indicative of defendant City's knowledge that the individual officer defendants were unfit for employment as NYPD officers, or for employment in general, and that the probability of the individually named defendants committing similar violations in the future was extremely high.

50. Upon information and belief, said personnel files, records and disciplinary histories will conclusively show that the City and the NYPD were fully aware of defendants' past constitutional violations, the unacceptably high probability for the recurrence of similar transgressions, the unreasonably dangerous situations that were likely to result from their hiring or retention, as well as their unsuitability for employment as law enforcement officers, or for employment in general, and that the NYPD and City of New York failed to engage in any preventive or corrective action intended to diminish the likelihood of recurrence for such violations, which is tantamount to the City's tacit approval of such misconduct or the City's deliberate indifference towards the civil rights of those who may interact with its employees, including Defendants, KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN AND/OR JANE DOES 1 - 10.

51. Upon information and belief, the individually named defendants have combined to be named as defendants in numerous lawsuits that have accused them of committing violations similar or identical to those alleged herein, all of which have resulted no disciplinary or corrective action of any kind.

52. Upon information and belief, the NYPD and City of New York and have failed, or outright refused, to correct the individually named defendants' predilections to engage in unconstitutional behavior or attempt to prevent the recurrence of such misconduct

53. The aforementioned acts of Defendants, including KIERAN BRENNAN, JOSE MERCEDES, and JOHN and/or JANE DOES 1 - 10, directly or proximately resulted in the deprivation or violation of plaintiff's civil rights, as guaranteed and protected by the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, as well as the laws and Constitution of the State of New York.

54. As a direct or proximate result of said acts, plaintiff was caused to suffer the loss of his liberty, irreparable reputational harm, loss of earnings and potential earnings, physical injury, as well as severe and permanent emotional distress, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, traumatization, frustration, extreme inconvenience, and anxiety.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

Defendants engaged in a conspiracy against Plaintiff to deprive Plaintiff of her rights to engage in protected speech or activities, to be free from unreasonable searches and seizures, to be afforded a fair trial, to not be deprived of her liberty or property without due process of law, or of the privileges and immunities under the laws and constitutions of the United States and of the State of New York.

136. Defendants committed overt acts in furtherance of their conspiracy against Plaintiff.

137. As a result, Plaintiff sustained injuries to her person, was deprived of her liberty or was deprived of rights or privileges of citizens of the United States.

138. Defendants' conspiracy was motivated by a desire to deprive Plaintiff of her civil rights or because of some racial, otherwise class-based, invidious or discriminatory animus.

139. The Defendants that did not engage or participate in the conspiracy to interfere with Plaintiff's civil rights, had knowledge that acts in furtherance of the conspiracy were about to be committed or in process of being committed, possessed the power to prevent or aid in the prevention of the conspiratorial objective, and neglected to do so.

140. Accordingly, defendants violated Plaintiff's rights, pursuant to the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and/or Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution.

141. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

FOURTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
New York State Law

142. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

143. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct, observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct, and failed to intervene.

144. Defendant City, as employer of the individual Defendants, is responsible for their wrongdoing under the doctrine of respondeat superior.

145. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

FIFTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Failure to Intervene Under
42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Individual Defendants

146. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth herein.

147. Those Defendants that were present but did not actively participate in the aforementioned unlawful conduct observed such conduct, had an opportunity to prevent such conduct, had a duty to intervene and prevent such conduct, and failed to intervene.

148. Accordingly, the Defendants who failed to intervene violated the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments.

149. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SIXTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Negligent Hiring, Training, Retention and Supervision Under
New York State Law

150. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

151. Defendant City owed a duty of care to Plaintiff to adequately hire, train, retain and supervise its employee defendants.

152. Defendant City breached those duties of care.

153. Defendant City placed defendants in a position where they could inflict foreseeable harm.

154. Defendant City knew or should have known of its employee defendants' propensity for violating the individual rights granted under the United States Constitution and the laws of the State of New York, prior to the injuries incurred by Plaintiff.

155. Defendant City failed to take reasonable measures in hiring, training, retaining and supervising its employee defendants that would have prevented the aforesaid injuries to Plaintiff.

156. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, Plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

SEVENTEENTH CAUSE OF ACTION

Municipal "Monell" Liability Under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 Against Defendant City

157. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference as though fully set forth.

158. Defendant City maintained a policy or custom that caused Plaintiff to be deprived of her civil rights, tacitly approved of such violative conduct or was deliberately indifferent toward the potential exposure of individuals, such as plaintiff, to such violative behavior.

159. Defendant City's employee police officers have engaged in an illegal pattern and practice of misconduct, so consistent and widespread that it constitutes a custom or usage, of which a supervisor or policymaker must have been aware of.

160. Defendant City, its policymakers and supervisors failed to provide adequate training or supervision to their subordinates, to such an extent that is tantamount to the City's deliberate indifference toward the rights of those who may come into contact with defendant City's employees.

161. Defendant City's employees engaged in such egregious and flagrant violations of plaintiff's Constitutional rights that the need for enhanced training or supervision is obvious and equates to a display of deliberate indifference by defendant City and its policymakers toward the rights of individuals, who may come into contact with defendant City's employees.

162. Defendant City's repeated refusal or failure to install or apply corrective or preventive measures constitutes the tacit approval of such violative behavior or a deliberate indifference to the rights of those who may be affected by such behavior.

163. Defendant City's conduct caused the violation of plaintiff's civil rights enumerated within the Constitution of the United States.

164. As a direct and proximate result of this unlawful conduct, plaintiff sustained the damages hereinbefore alleged.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests judgment against Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:
