Plaintiff Maurice Garcia, by his attorney, Martha Grieco, for his complaint alleges as follows:

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

1. The claim arises from an incident that began on October 5, 2013 and concluded on September 30, 2014 in which Officers of the New York City Police Department ("NYPD"), acting under color of state law, intentionally and willfully subjected Plaintiff to false arrest, false imprisonment, denial of due process and malicious prosecution.

2. Plaintiff seeks monetary damages (special, compensatory, and punitive) against Defendants and such other and further relief as the Court deems just and proper.

NOTICE OF CLAIM

3. Within 90 days of the events giving rise to this claim, Plaintiff Maurice Garcia filed written notice of claim with the New York City Office of the Comptroller. Over 30 days have elapsed since the filing of that notice, and this matter has not been settled or otherwise disposed of. A 50H hearing was held on December 8, 2015.

PARTIES

15 DEC 21 PM 2:28
COUNTY CLERK
BRONX COUNTY

RECEIVED

4. Plaintiff Maurice Garcia is a resident of Bronx County in New York State.

5. The City of New York (or "the City") is a municipal corporation organized under the laws of the State of New York. At all times relevant hereto, Defendant City, acting through the New York Police Department (or "NYPD"), was responsible for the policy, practice, supervision, implementation, and conduct of all NYPD matters and was responsible for the appointment, training, supervision, discipline, retention and conduct of all NYPD personnel. In addition, at all times here relevant, Defendant City was responsible for enforcing the rules of the NYPD, and for ensuring that NYPD personnel obey the laws of the United States and the State of New York.

6. On information and belief, the individual police officer defendants were, at all times here relevant, police officers of the NYPD, and as such were acting in the capacity of agents, servants and employees of the City of New York. On information and belief, Defendant police officers were involved in the illegal arrest of Plaintiff and/or failed to intervene in the actions of their fellow officers. Defendant police officers are sued in their individual and official capacities.

7. At all times here mentioned Defendants were acting under color of state law, to wit, under color of the statutes, ordinances, regulations, policies, customs and usages of the City and State of New York.

FACTUAL ALLEGATIONS

8. On October 5, 2013, at approximately 10:45pm Plaintiff was planning to attend a party at or near 415 E. 157th Street in the Bronx.

9. Plaintiff met his friends on the sidewalk.

10. Many other people were milling around in front of the building.

11. Plaintiff and his friends decided to wait for some other friends before going into the party.

12. Suddenly, an unmarked police car sped up the block going the wrong way down the street.

13. Most people ran, but Plaintiff remained because he had nothing to hide.

14. Upon information and belief, the three officers in the car were Officer McGuire, Captain Deceglie, and Lt. Hennessy.

15. The police officers were all in uniform.

16. The police officers grabbed Plaintiff and placed him on the ground.

17. The police officers placed their knees on Plaintiff's back, pressing his face into the ground, causing Plaintiff to sustain a scrape on his face.

18. One of the police officers handcuffed Plaintiff.

19. At some point the police told Plaintiff they had found a gun under a parked car down the street.

20. Plaintiff had no connection with the gun whatsoever.

21. Plaintiff did not touch or possess any guns that night.

22. Nonetheless, the police, led by Lt. Hennessy, arrested Plaintiff.

23. Lt. Hennessy falsified several police documents claiming he saw Plaintiff throw the gun into the street.

24. Plaintiff was charged with gun possession, a felony, and bail was set.

25. Plaintiff remained in jail for approximately 4 months until making bail.

26. Plaintiff was subsequently indicted based on Lt. Hennessy's false testimony before a grand jury.

27. Plaintiff was tried in Bronx Supreme Court. Lt. Hennessy and Officer McGuire falsely testified against him at trial.

28. Plaintiff was acquitted of all charges on September 30, 2014.

29. At all times during the events described above, the defendant police officers were engaged in a joint venture and formed an agreement to violate Plaintiff's rights. The individual officers assisted each other in performing the various actions described and lent their physical presence and support and the authority of their office to each other during said events. They failed to intervene in the obviously illegal actions of their fellow officers against Plaintiff.

30. During all of the events above described, Defendants acted maliciously and with intent to injure Plaintiff.

DAMAGES

31. As a direct and proximate result of the acts of Defendants, Plaintiff suffered the following injuries and damages:

- a. Violation of his rights pursuant to the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution;
- b. Violation of his right to Due Process of Law under the Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution;
- c. Loss of liberty;
- d. Emotional trauma and suffering, including fear, embarrassment, humiliation, emotional distress, frustration, extreme inconvenience, anxiety.

FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION (U.S.C. § 1983)

32. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference.

33. Defendants have deprived Plaintiff of his civil, constitutional and statutory rights under color of law and have conspired to deprive him of such rights and are liable to Plaintiff under 42 USC § 1983.

34. Defendants, under color of state law, subjected the Plaintiff to the foregoing acts and omissions without due process of law and in violation of 42 U.S.C. § 1983, thereby depriving Plaintiff of his rights, privileges and immunities secured by the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendments to the United States Constitution, including, without limitation, deprivation of the following constitutional rights:

- a. Freedom from unreasonable searches and seizures of his person;
- b. Freedom from arrest without probable cause;
- c. Freedom from false imprisonment, meaning wrongful detention without good faith, reasonable suspicion or legal justification, and of which Plaintiff was aware and did not consent;
- d. Freedom from deprivation of liberty without due process of law;
- e. Freedom from excessive force.

35. Plaintiff has been damaged as a result of Defendants' wrongful acts.

SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION
(FAILURE TO INTERVENE)

36. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference.

37. Members of the NYPD have an affirmative duty to assess the constitutionality of interactions between their fellow members of service and civilians and to intervene where they observe another member of the Police Department or other law enforcement agency false arresting a civilian.

38. Defendants Capt. Deceglie and Officer McGuire were present for the above-described incident and witnessed another defendant, Lt. Hennessy, unlawfully arrest the Plaintiff.

39. Defendants Capt. Deceglie and Officer McGuire violated Plaintiff's constitutional rights by failing to intervene in other Defendants' clearly unconstitutional arrest which resulted in the injuries and damages set forth above.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
(MUNICIPAL AND SUPERVISORY LIABILITY – “MONELL”)

40. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference.

41. The City is liable for the damages suffered by Plaintiff as a result of the conduct of their employees, agents, and servants, in that, after learning of their employees' violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights, they failed to remedy the wrong; they have created a policy or custom under which unconstitutional practices occurred and allowed such policies or customs to continue, and they have been grossly negligent in managing subordinates who caused the unlawful condition or event. The City has been alerted to the intolerably frequent illegal arrests by its police officers, but has nevertheless exhibited deliberate indifference to such illegal arrests; that deliberate indifference caused the violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights in this case.

42. Defendant Lt. Hennessy has been named as a defendant in at least 5 separate civil rights lawsuits not including the instant complaint, for which the City has paid at least $200,000 total to the plaintiffs in settlement.<sup>1</sup> In one of those cases, Lt. Hennessy was accused of stealing $383 cash from a man he had arrested. All of the lawsuits involve one or more allegations of false arrest, false testimony, falsely sworn documents, or use of excessive force. Yet Lt. Hennessy has risen in the ranks of the NYPD to a supervisory position, with repeated allegations of misconduct having seemingly no impact on his career. Defendant Deceglie was also sued, in 2010, for arresting and prosecuting a Manhattan man for no apparent reason, resulting in a $25,000 settlement.<sup>2</sup>

43. The City's continuing failure to deter police misconduct has led to ever increasing numbers of lawsuits for repeat routine misconduct by the same officers, same units and same precincts. In 2012, New York City paid out over $131 million for the fiscal year, compared to 2011, when it paid out more than $166 million, and 2010, when it paid $128 million.<sup>3</sup> In the first ten years of the 21st century, the City of New York has paid nearly a billion dollars on lawsuits brought against the NYPD.<sup>4</sup> More than 40% of those settlements in 2011 stem from excessive force and false arrest.

44. The widely held assumption is that civil rights lawsuits deter police misconduct. “The purpose of § 1983 is to deter state actors from using the badge of their authority to deprive individuals of their federally guaranteed rights and to provide relief to victims if such deterrence fails. Wyatt v. Cole, 504 U.S. 158, 161, (1992) citing Carey v. Piphus, 435 U.S. 247, 254-257, (1978). “As far as we know, civil liability is an effective deterrent [to civil rights violations], as we have assumed it is in other contexts.” See Hudson v. Michigan 547 U.S. 586, 598 (2006) citing Correctional Services Corp. v. Malesko, 534 U.S. 61, 70 (2001) and Nix v. Williams, 467 U.S. 431, 446, (1984). “It is almost axiomatic that the threat of damages has a deterrent effect (citation omitted) surely particularly so when the individual official faces personal financial liability.” Carlson v. Green, 446 U.S. 14, 21, (1980), citing Imbler v. Pachtman, 424 U.S. 409, 442, and footnote 6 (1976).

45. However, the City of New York has insulated NYPD officers from accountability for its civil rights lawsuits by indemnifying officers who violate the constitutional rights of citizens, and, as a result, is preventing civil rights lawsuits from having any deterrent value to the City, the NYPD or its officers. Civil rights lawsuits against police officers have no impact on the officers' careers, regardless of the expense to the City of the officers' lawsuit liability, even after multiple lawsuits. In 1999, former Comptroller Alan Hevesi reported that there was a "a total disconnect" between the settlements of even substantial civil claims and police department action against officers. This "total disconnect" between officers' liability and NYPD discipline, results in a system where the City pays vast sums to settle false arrests, but the NYPD does nothing to investigate nor address the underlying causes of such false arrests or officers who have incurred large sums of civil rights liability. The City Council, Government Operations Committee, despite being alerted at a City Council hearing on December 12, 2009, and on other occasions, to the obvious problem of officers and precincts with a disproportionate responsibility for civil rights lawsuit liability, has failed to take action to hold officers or precincts accountable. It has likewise failed to hold an investigative hearing into what extent specific officers, units and precincts are disproportionately responsible for New York City civil rights lawsuits.

46. The City is liable for the damages suffered by Plaintiffs in that, after learning of their employees' violation of Plaintiffs' constitutional rights, they failed to remedy the wrong; they have created a policy or custom under which unconstitutional practices occurred and allowed such policies or customs to continue, and they have been grossly negligent in managing subordinates who caused the unlawful condition or event.

47. The aforesaid event underlying Plaintiffs' factual allegations was not an isolated incident. The City has been aware for some time, from lawsuits, notices of claim, complaints filed with the Civilian Complaint Review Board, and judicial rulings suppressing evidence and finding officers incredible as a matter of law, that a disturbing number of their police officers unlawfully search and seize citizens, bring charges against citizens with no legal basis, perjure themselves in charging instruments and testimony, and fail to intervene in and report the obviously illegal actions of their fellow officers. Nevertheless, the City has allowed policies and practices that allow the aforementioned to persist.

48. The City has been alerted to the regular use of false arrests by its police officers, through lawsuits, civilian complaints, notices of claim, City Council hearings, newspaper reports, and cases resulting in declined prosecutions and dismissals, but has nevertheless exhibited deliberate indifference to such false arrests; that deliberate indifference caused the violation of Plaintiff's constitutional rights in this case.

49. Nevertheless, the City has repeatedly resisted attempts to catalog even basic information gleaned from civil rights lawsuits that could improve training, leadership, supervision, and discipline in the NYPD. The City's deliberate indifference towards the contents of civil rights litigation, towards individual officers repeatedly named in lawsuits, towards incidents repeatedly occurring in the same precinct, towards patterns of misconduct that arise in civil rights litigation has caused the constitutional violations against Plaintiff.

50. Police officers have repeatedly told New York City news investigations that their supervisors pressure them into reaching "performance goals" or quotas, resulting in the violation of innocent New Yorker's civil rights.<sup>5</sup> Former Deputy Commissioner Paul J. Browne has repeatedly admitted that NYPD commanders are permitted to set "productivity goals."<sup>6</sup> NYPD Officer Adil Polanco has asserted that his command, the 41st precinct in the Bronx, regularly requires officers to make at least "one arrest and twenty summonses" per month.<sup>7</sup> The New York

City Office of Collective Bargaining concluded that officers in Brooklyn's 75th Precinct were required to issue four parking tickets, three moving violation citations, three "quality-of-life" summonses, make one arrest and two stop-and-frisks each month.<sup>8</sup> Arbitrator Bonnie Siber Weinstock ruled that the NYPD maintained an illegal quota system, and she ordered the city to cease and desist from the practice.<sup>9</sup>

51. Kieran Creighton, commander of the NYPD Housing Police Service Area 8 in the north Bronx, was investigated in 2007 for ordering officers to make a certain number of arrests each month. According to the New York Daily News:

"The incident allegedly occurred in the spring when Creighton ordered at least eight members of an undercover anti-crime team to a meeting in Pelham Bay Park to berate them about an alleged lack of arrests, sources said.

'You can't make the nine collars a month, then we'll all have to go our separate ways,' Creighton told the officers, according to an internal complaint obtained by The News.

Anything less than nine arrests would be a 'personal slap in the face,' Creighton allegedly said.

Creighton then told the cops to 'finagle' the times of arrests so any overtime was paid for by a federal funded anti-drug program, the complaint alleges.

Unbeknownst to Creighton, one officer had his NYPD radio switched on – so that captain's 10 to 12 minute speech was broadcast to Bronx precincts in Morrisania and Shuylerville and taped by a 911 dispatcher."<sup>10</sup>

52. The Civilian Complaint Review Board ("the CCRB"), a City police oversight agency, often finds complainants lack credibility based in part on the fact that such complainants have also brought lawsuits to remedy the wrongs they have experienced, a practice that often results in not substantiating the most serious charges brought to the CCRB. In addition, the CCRB virtually never initiates their own findings of false statements against officers who have made false statements to the CCRB in their own defense, nor do they initiate findings that officers have failed to report their fellow officers' misconduct; thus, officers have no real incentive to come forward, or to testify truthfully at the CCRB. The CCRB has no enforcement mechanisms once making a finding against an officer; it can only make recommendations to the NYPD, once finding misconduct by an officer.

53. The NYPD, once receiving a substantiated complaint by the CCRB, fails to adequately discipline officers for misconduct. In 2002, the percentage of officers who were the subject of substantiated CCRB complaints who received no discipline was 47%; in 2007, it was 75%.<sup>11</sup> The NYPD Department Advocate, which is endowed with the responsibility of following up on substantiated CCRB charges, is understaffed and under-utilized. Furthermore, in the extraordinarily rare event that the CCRB substantiates a complaint and the Department Advocate proves the case in an internal trial against an officer, the police commissioner still maintains the power to reduce the discipline against such an officer, which the police commissioner has done on many occasions. This entire procedure provides so many opportunities for meritorious complaints of false arrests to be dismissed or disregarded that there is no credible, effective oversight of police department employees, despite an apparently elaborate set of oversight mechanisms.

54. Further, the City has no procedure to notify individual officers or their supervisors of unfavorable judicial review of their conduct or to calculate the total liability of an individual officer or of a precinct. Without this notification, improper search and seizure practices and incredible testimony go uncorrected, problematic supervision or leadership at the precinct level goes ignored, and repeated misconduct by individual officers goes unaccounted for. Even occasional judicial findings that officers have testified incredibly are not reported routinely to the police department or any oversight agencies.

<sup>11</sup> The NYCLU issued a report in September 2007 on the CCRB detailing the failure of the NYPD to follow up on substantiated CCRB complaints, among other failures by the City and the CCRB to address police misconduct: "Mission Failure: Civilian Review of Policing in New York City, 1994-2006", available at: http://www.nyclu.org/files/ccrb\_failing\_report\_090507.pdf, last visited on June 25, 2013.

55. All of the aforementioned has created a climate where police officers and detectives lie to prosecutors and in police paperwork and charging instruments, and testify falsely, with no fear of reprisal. "Informal inquiry by the court and among the judges of this court, as well as knowledge of cases in other federal and state courts, has revealed anecdotal evidence of repeated, widespread falsification by arresting police officers of the New York City Police Department. Despite numerous inquiries by commissions and strong reported efforts by the present administration-through selection of candidates for the police force stressing academic and other qualifications, serious training to avoid constitutional violations, and strong disciplinary action within the department-there is some evidence of an attitude among officers that is sufficiently widespread to constitute a custom or policy by the city approving illegal conduct of the kind now charged." See Colon v. City of New York, et al, 2009 WL 4263362 (E.D.N.Y.)(Weinstein, J.).

56. The City is aware that all of the aforementioned has resulted in violations of citizens' constitutional rights. Despite such notice, the City has failed to take corrective action. This failure and these policies caused the officers in the present case to violate Plaintiffs' civil rights, without fear of reprisal.

57. Plaintiff has been damaged as a result of the deliberate indifference of the Defendant City.

THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION
(MALICIOUS PROSECUTION)

58. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference.

59. Defendants caused a criminal proceeding to be initiated against Plaintiff.

60. The criminal proceeding terminated in Plaintiff's favor.

61. Defendants lacked probable cause to initiate the criminal proceeding.

62. Defendants acted willfully, recklessly and with malice toward Plaintiff.

63. As a result of Defendants' conduct, Plaintiff was damaged.

FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION
(RESPONDEAT SUPERIOR)

64. The above paragraphs are here incorporated by reference.

65. Defendants' intentional tortious acts were undertaken within the scope of their employment by Defendant City of New York and in furtherance of the Defendant City of New York's interest.

66. As a result of Defendants' tortious conduct in the course of their employment and in furtherance of the business of Defendant City of New York, Plaintiff was damaged.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff demands judgment against the Defendants, jointly and severally, as follows:

A. In favor of Plaintiff in an amount to be determined by a jury for each of Plaintiff's causes of action;

B. Awarding Plaintiff punitive damages in an amount to be determined by a jury;

C. Awarding Plaintiff reasonable attorneys' fees, costs and disbursements of this action; and

D. Granting such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.

JURY DEMAND

Plaintiff demands a trial by jury.
