Case Summary

On December 23, 2023, § 87(2)(b) filed this complaint with the CCRB online on behalf of his 15-year-old son § 87(2)(b).

On December 2nd, 2023, at approximately 9:10 pm, § 87(2)(b) was sitting on a set of steps inside the lobby of § 87(2)(b) in the § 87(2)(b) apartment complex in the Bronx with his friend § 87(2)(b) when Lieutenant Brian Query, Police Officer Jose Rossette, Police Officer Ashley Corsino, and Police Officer Imran Iqbal of PSA 7 entered the lobby and Lieutenant Query asked § 87(2)(b) for identification. § 87(2)(b) told Lieutenant Query that he did not have ID but lived in the building. While conversing, § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) entered the lobby from the stairwell and § 87(2)(b) stepped between § 87(2)(b) and Lieutenant Query. Lieutenant Query instructed officers to arrest § 87(2)(b) (Allegation B: Abuse of Authority – Unlawful Arrest, substantiated). Police Officer Alex Durst of PSA 7 entered the lobby and placed § 87(2)(b) in handcuffs and Police Officer Rossette took over escort of § 87(2)(b). Police Officer Rossette escorted § 87(2)(b) outside near where Police Officer Durst stood and Police Officer Durst allegedly slapped § 87(2)(b) (Allegation B: Force – Physical Force, Unable to determine). § 87(2)(b) was taken to the PSA 7 stationhouse where he was charged with Resisting Arrest, OGA, and Loitering (BR 01).

The investigation received body-worn camera (BWC) videos from the BWCs of Lieutenant Query and Police Officers Mdsuhel Ahmed, Anthony Antigua, Brian Diaz, and Rossette (BR 02) and from the BWC of Police Officer Durst (BR 03).

Findings and Recommendations

Allegation (A) Abuse of Authority: Lieutenant Brian Query arrested § 87(2)(b) unlawfully.

§ 87(2)(b) was interviewed by the CCRB on January 5th, 2024 (BR 04). Lieutenant Query was interviewed on September 5th, 2024 (BR 05) and again on February 4th, 2025 (BR 06). Police Officer Durst was interviewed on October 2nd, 2024 (BR 07). Police Officer Rossette was interviewed on November 17th, 2024 (BR 08).

§ 87(2)(b) stated that he was sitting on steps inside the lobby of § 87(2)(b) with his friend § 87(2)(b) when two officers, Lieutenant Query and Police Officer Corsino, approached § 87(2)(b) and asked him what he was doing. § 87(2)(b) told officers he was with his friend doing nothing and Lieutenant Query told him, “You can’t do that here” and Police Officer Corsino mentioned loitering to § 87(2)(b). Neither Lieutenant Query nor Police Officer Corsino told § 87(2)(b) to leave. Lieutenant Query asked § 87(2)(b) for his name and § 87(2)(b) did not provide his name but told officers he lived at the address and did nothing wrong. Lieutenant Query asked § 87(2)(b) for his ID and § 87(2)(b) told him that he did not have it but could retrieve it from upstairs and stood up from the steps. Lieutenant Query extended his arms out toward § 87(2)(b) chest and told him to stay put. While speaking with Lieutenant Query, two men familiar to § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) entered the lobby. § 87(2)(b) attempted to pull § 87(2)(b) away from officers. Additional officers arrived and then detained § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) for interfering. Police Officer Rossette then placed § 87(2)(b) in handcuffs and transported him to the PSA 7 stationhouse.

Lieutenant Query's BWC videos (BR 09) begins as he is walking in the courtyard of the § 87(2)(b) complex with Police Officer Rossette, Police Officer Corsino, and Police Officer Iqbal. Lieutenant Query and the other officers enter the lobby and § 87(2)(b) is seen sitting on steps beside § 87(2)(b). At 1:20, Lieutenant Query approaches § 87(2)(b) and asks him for ID and § 87(2)(b) says no. Lieutenant Query asks § 87(2)(b) which apartment he resides in and § 87(2)(b) responds § 87(2)(b). At 2:35, § 87(2)(b) tells Police Officer Corsino he's not giving his name. An unseen officer says "loitering." § 87(2)(b) asks where he is loitering and Police Officer Corsino and Lieutenant Query say, "This is loitering." At 3:30, § 87(2)(b) says, "Can I sit up though?" § 87(2)(b) begins to stand up from the stairs and Lieutenant Query says, "No you can wait right there." Two men, § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) enter the lobby and § 87(2)(b) walks between § 87(2)(b) and Lieutenant Query. Lieutenant Query orders § 87(2)(b) to back up and officers pull aside § 87(2)(b) toward the middle of the lobby. § 87(2)(b) stands up and Lieutenant Query and Police Officer Corsino extend their hands out and block § 87(2)(b) from standing. Additional officers enter the lobby and Lieutenant Query says "Guys, 92". Police Officer Durst approaches § 87(2)(b) and places him in handcuffs.

Juvenile Report § 87(2)(b) (BR 01) states that § 87(2)(b) was charged with Resisting Arrest (NY Penal Law 205.30), Obstruction of Governmental Administration in the 2nd degree (NY Penal Law 195.05) and Loitering (NY Penal Law 240.35 06). The narrative states that "At T/P/O observed defendant was with another person sitting in the lobby of § 87(2)(b). Above location has been getting numerous 311 calls about people loitering in the lobby of the building. Defendant was asked if they live in the building, have business in the building, or know someone that lives in the building. Defendant refused to answer and refused to leave. Multiple signs were posted in the lobby and pointed out to the defendant and was then placed in handcuffs."

Lieutenant Query stated that he received a call from the PSA7 Telephone Switchboard operator that residents of § 87(2)(b) § 87(2)(b) apartment complex had made 311 complaints about noise and arguments in the lobby. Lieutenant Query and other officers, including Police Officer Corsino and Police Officer Rossette, drove to the building and entered the lobby. Upon entering the lobby Lieutenant Query saw § 87(2)(b) sitting beside § 87(2)(b) and having an "irate" conversation in which § 87(2)(b) told § 87(2)(b) to "change your attitude" multiple times. Lieutenant Query approached § 87(2)(b) and asked him if he had any ID and had any business in the building. § 87(2)(b) refused to provide identification by not responding to his questions. Lieutenant Query pointed at signs inside the lobby stating they are not allowed to loiter inside the lobby. When asked if they were committing any crimes during their conversation, Lieutenant Query responded that § 87(2)(b) and § 87(2)(b) were committing loitering by sitting down on the steps and that loitering was prohibited in the § 87(2)(b) lobby. Lieutenant Query explained in his CCRB interview that anyone, including residents, are prohibited from sitting on the stairs for any length of time or else they will be loitering and he could have been arrested for loitering at the point he asked for their ID. Lieutenant Query repeatedly asked § 87(2)(b) for identification and § 87(2)(b) refused to provide or state any name. After speaking with § 87(2)(b) for approximately three or four minutes, a taller man, identified as § 87(2)(b) walked between Lieutenant Query and § 87(2)(b) and attempted to remove property from either § 87(2)(b) or § 87(2)(b). Lieutenant Query and other officers pushed § 87(2)(b) to one side and § 87(2)(b) attempted to flee by abruptly standing up, turning, and lunging away. Lieutenant Query stopped § 87(2)(b) from fleeing but did not recall how he did so. Lieutenant Query made a request over the radio for additional units to § 87(2)(b) to which officers responded minutes later. When additional officers arrived, Lieutenant Query announced to other officers "92" which is code for arrest. Lieutenant Query stopped paying particular attention to § 87(2)(b) and "oversaw the situation" while officers arrested § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) and detained § 87(2)(b) and other individuals in the lobby. During his CCRB interview, Lieutenant Query was shown a portion of his own BWC, from runtime 3:45 to 3:50, capturing § 87(2)(b) stepping between himself and § 87(2)(b) officers pulling him aside, and § 87(2)(b) standing up at which point Lieutenant Query and Police Officer Corsino extend their hands and § 87(2)(b) immediately sits back down. Lieutenant Query responded that this was the instance he described as § 87(2)(b) attempting to flee.

Highlights of House Rules, Lease, Law, and § 87(2)(b) Policy (BR 10) states that “the lobby or stairwell is meant for resident use to enter or exit the building or walk from floor to floor and that unlawful activity and lingering are prohibited in the lobby. Lingering occurs when, based on objective facts, an individual is observed in a vestibule, lobby, stairwell, hallway or other similar common area of a § 87(2)(b) residential building for an unreasonable period of time in light of the area’s intended purpose.”

NYPD Patrol Guide Procedure 212-60 (BR 11) states that officers may not stop a person for violation of Housing Authority unless the rule violation is also a criminal offense. Mere lingering in a common area, without more, is not a criminal offense for which a person may be stopped or arrested. It also states that officers may not take police action pursuant to Patrol Guide Procedure 208-01, “Law of Arrest,” for a violation of Housing Authority rules unless the rule violation is also a criminal offense.

NYS Penal Law § 240.35 (BR 12) states that a person is guilty of loitering when they loiter or remain in a public place for the purpose of gambling, loiter or remain in place about school grounds, a university building, children’s overnight camp, or school bus not having any reason or relationship involving custody of or responsibility for a pupil or student or any other specific legitimate reason for being there, or loiters or remains in any transportation facility, unless specifically authorized to do so, for the purpose of soliciting or engaging in any business, trade or commercial transactions involving the sale of merchandise or services, or for the purpose of entertaining persons by singing, dancing, or playing any musical instrument.

NYS Penal Law § 190.50 (BR 13) states that a person is guilty of obstructing governmental administration in the second degree when they intentionally obstruct, impair, or pervert the administration of law or other government function or attempts to prevent a public servant from performing an official function, by means of intimidation, physical force or interference, or by means of any independently unlawful act.

NYS Penal Law § 205.30 (BR 14) states that a person is guilty of resisting arrest when they intentionally prevent or attempt to prevent a police officer or peace officers from effecting an authorized arrest of themselves or another person.

It is undisputed that Lieutenant Query gave the command to arrest § 87(2)(b) following his observation of § 87(2)(b) sitting on the steps in a § 87(2)(b) lobby and subsequent interference by § 87(2)(b). Juvenile Report § 87(2)(b) (BR 01) notes that § 87(2)(b) was ultimately charged with resisting arrest, obstruction of governmental administration in the second degree, and loitering. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(b). BWC footage shows § 87(2)(b) sitting on steps inside the lobby as Lieutenant Query is asking him for his name and identification and an officer says “loitering.” § 87(2)(b) asks where he is loitering, to which Lieutenant Query and Police Officer Corsino both respond, “this is loitering.” § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

BWC video shows § 87(2)(b) entering the lobby from the stairwell and standing between § 87(2)(b) and officers, after which § 87(2)(b) briefly stands up and Lieutenant Query extends out his arms and § 87(2)(b) immediately sits back down.

§ 87(2)(g)

BWC video shows that additional officers had been called and arrived at the point Lieutenant Query gives the command to arrest § 87(2)(b)

Lastly, § 87(2)(b) was charged with resisting arrest under PL 205.30. BWC video shows § 87(2)(b) sitting while Police Officer Durst enters the lobby, approaches him, and places him handcuffs without issue. § 87(2)(g)

It is therefore recommended that Allegation A be substantiated.

Allegation (B) Abuse of Authority: Police Officer Alex Durst used Physical Force against

§ 87(2)(b)

§ 87(2)(b) stated that, after being arrested, he was escorted by Police Officer Rossette outside where he approached a male officer dressed in a ski mask. The ski-masked officer spoke to § 87(2)(b) in a manner that he considered disrespectful, and § 87(2)(b) told the ski-masked officer to “suck my dick.” The ski-masked officer said, “Say it again,” and § 87(2)(b) repeated “suck my dick.” Immediately afterward, the ski-masked officer slapped § 87(2)(b) across the left side of his face. § 87(2)(b) began to yell that he got slapped. The ski-masked officer left shortly after slapping him. Police Officer Rossette continued to escort § 87(2)(b) and placed him inside an NYPD van. § 87(2)(b) asked officers inside the van if they could identify the officer who slapped him, but officers responded that they did not see that happen. § 87(2)(b) repeatedly asked about the officer who slapped him while being driven to the 42nd Precinct stationhouse.

Lieutenant Query’s BWC footage (BR 09) shows, at runtime 3:45, Police Officer Durst, wearing a ski-mask, approach § 87(2)(b) stand behind him, and place him in handcuffs. At 4:50,

Lieutenant Query is standing outside the lobby of § 87(2)(b) with § 87(2)(b) being escorted by Police Officer Rossette and two additional officers, none of whom are wearing ski-masks. Lieutenant Query turns and walks away from § 87(2)(b) and shows two-ski-masked officers standing 6 feet ahead, a black male officer identified as Police Officer Manigault, and a white male officer, identified as Police Officer Durst. Police Officer Durst steps to the right of Lieutenant Query toward where § 87(2)(b) is standing. At 5:00, Lieutenant Query turns back and faces toward the group of officers escorting § 87(2)(b). Police Officer Durst is standing in front of § 87(2)(b). § 87(2)(b) says, “Suck my dick,” and Lieutenant Query turns and faces away from the officers. At 5:05, § 87(2)(b) yells, “You slapped me” multiple times as he continues to be escorted.

Police Officer Rossette’s BWC video (BR 15) shows, at runtime 1:45, himself holding § 87(2)(b) in handcuffs by his left arm inside the § 87(2)(b) lobby and walking him outside. Police Officer Rossette escorts § 87(2)(b) through the exit and § 87(2)(b) says, “Yo you’re buggin’ bro. Stop pushin’ me,” and § 87(2)(b) abruptly turns his head left and stands still against Police Officer Rossette’s walking. Police Officer Rossette grabs the collar of § 87(2)(b) sweatshirt and walks § 87(2)(b) forward, obscuring most of his BWC against § 87(2)(b) chest. § 87(2)(b) then yells at officers in front of him. At 2:00, § 87(2)(b) says, “Suck my dick,” toward an officer. An officer says, “Do it again, do it again.” § 87(2)(b) says, “Suck my dick,” facing slightly to his left. At 2:10, § 87(2)(b) turns his head to the left and shouts, “You slapped me,” multiple times.” Police Officer Rossette’s BWC remains mainly obscured against § 87(2)(b) body. Police Officer Rossette continues walking § 87(2)(b) forward down a path toward the sidewalk for one minute. At 3:00, § 87(2)(b) is standing on the sidewalk and says, “Yo § 87(2)(b) they just slapped me. Where’s he at?” Someone off frame of the camera says, “Which one of them?” § 87(2)(b) says, “One of them in a ski-mask bro.”

Police Officer Durst’s BWC footage (BR 16) shows, at runtime 0:50, himself entering the lobby of § 87(2)(b) and approaching § 87(2)(b) on the steps inside the lobby. Police Officer Durst places § 87(2)(b) in handcuffs and Police Officer Rossette takes over escort of § 87(2)(b). At 1:25, Police Officer Durst exits the lobby and assists officers placing § 87(2)(b) just outside the lobby in handcuffs. At 2:00, Police Officer Durst is standing outside the lobby entrance and Police Officer Rossette and two additional officers escort § 87(2)(b) outside. § 87(2)(b) resists Police Officer Rossette’s movements and tells him to stop pushing. Police Officer Rossette grabs and holds § 87(2)(b) by the collar of his hooded sweatshirt. § 87(2)(b) stands within arms-length of Police Officer Durst and Police Officer Durst holds his right arm to his chest, partially obscuring the view of § 87(2)(b) on his BWC. § 87(2)(b) says, “Suck my dick.” An officer says, “Do it again.” § 87(2)(b) says, “Suck my dick,” and then immediately § 87(2)(b) shouts, “You slapped me, nigga? You slapped me, nigga.” Police Officer Durst’s BWC does not clearly capture any actions taken by Police Officer Durst in regard to § 87(2)(b) at that moment. Police Officer Durst stands in place as Police Officer Rossette and other officers continue escorting § 87(2)(b).

Police Officer Durst stated that he was driving on patrol near Claremont Parkway and Washington Avenue when he received a radio call from Lieutenant Query for additional units at § 87(2)(b). Police Officer Durst did not receive any additional information regarding the incident but believed it was a hectic situation due to the request for additional units. Police Officer Durst entered the lobby and saw Lieutenant Query among a “couple younger FTU guys who were fairly new to the job” and waved toward § 87(2)(b) sitting on the steps in the lobby. Lieutenant Query indicated to Police Officer Durst to handcuff § 87(2)(b) by saying something like “handcuffs” or “92” meaning arrest. Police Officer Durst walked up behind § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) who proceeded to stand up, and Police Officer Durst placed him in handcuffs. Police Officer Rossette stood nearby and took over custody of § 87(2)(b). Police Officer Durst exited the lobby and saw other officers arresting § 87(2)(b) whom he recognized as a resident of the area, on the ground in front of the entrance. Police Officer Durst successfully assisted handcuffing § 87(2)(b) and stood him up. Police Officer Durst stood nearby § 87(2)(b) as additional officers exited the lobby with arrestees from inside the lobby. Approximately 10 to 20 officers gathered outside. When asked if Police Officer Durst had any interactions with civilians at this point, Police Officer Durst responded that he stood near § 87(2)(b) who “made allegations” of being slapped against a “ski-masked officer” which he understood to be himself. Police Officer Durst explained that he was wearing a balaclava covering half of his face due to the cold weather of which there were one or two officers who wore balaclavas in addition to himself. Police Officer Durst denied having conversation with § 87(2)(b) and denied slapping § 87(2)(b). Police Officer Durst was shown a portion of his own BWC capturing himself standing in front of § 87(2)(b) while § 87(2)(b) says, “Suck my dick,” and then begins shouting, “You slapped me.” Police Officer Durst responded that he was in close proximity to Police Officer Rossette and § 87(2)(b) but did not recognize the voice that said, “Do it again.” When asked where his hands were placed in this moment, Police Officer Durst responded that his right hand was visible and holding the collar of his vest and “Who knows where my other hand is. Could be by my side, could be anywhere.”

Police Officer Rossette acknowledged that § 87(2)(b) had a conversation with an officer in which he told § 87(2)(b) “do it again” but denied seeing an officer slap § 87(2)(b) while he was escorting him to the police vehicle.

§ 87(2)(b) stated that while being escorted outside the lobby of § 87(2)(b) following his arrest, he approached a ski-masked officer whom he told to “suck my dick.” Police Officer Durst stated in his CCRB interview that he was one among two or three officers present who wore a balaclava and acknowledged that he was the officer to whom § 87(2)(b) was referring in the BWC footage as the “ski-masked officer” who allegedly slapped him, although he denied doing so. BWC footage shows that Police Officer Durst is the white male ski-masked officer who enters § 87(2)(b) to place § 87(2)(b) in handcuffs and places § 87(2)(b) in handcuffs shortly before § 87(2)(b) exits the lobby. BWC footage also shows that the only other police officer on scene who wore a balaclava was a black male officer (BR 19) who stayed with another arrestee while a white ski-masked officer walked from § 87(2)(b) and approached § 87(2)(b) consistent with Police Officer Durst’s account. As such the investigation has identified Police Officer Durst as the ski-masked officer which stood in front of § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(b) stated that after cursing at the ski-masked officer, the ski-masked officer told § 87(2)(b) to “say it again” and § 87(2)(b) repeated “suck my dick.” Immediately afterward, the ski-masked officer slapped § 87(2)(b) across the left side of his face, after which § 87(2)(b) shouted about being slapped by the ski-masked officer. § 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g)

Police Officer Rossette’s BWC footage shows, consistent with § 87(2)(b) account, that an officer responded to § 87(2)(b) statement to “suck my dick” with “do it again.” Immediately afterward, § 87(2)(b) began to shout about being slapped. However, none of the BWC videos clearly capture Police Officer Durst making physical contact with § 87(2)(b).

§ 87(2)(g)

§ 87(2)(g) It is therefore recommended that Allegation B be closed as unable to determine.

Civilian and Officer CCRB Histories

- This is the first CCRB complaint for which § 87(2)(b) or § 87(2)(b) has been a party (BR 21):
- Lieutenant Brian Query has been a member of service for 20 years and has been a subject in 20 other CCRB complaints and 51 allegations, five of which were substantiated in four cases:
 - In CCRB case #201706222, an allegation of Refusal to Obtain Medical Treatment was substantiated against Lieutenant Query. The Board recommended discipline but the NYPD closed the case administratively with no reported penalty.
 - In CCRB case #202101390, an allegation of Failure to Provide RTKA Card was substantiated against Lieutenant Query. The Board recommended Formalized Training which the NYPD issued.
 - In CCRB case #202306300, allegations of Stop and Unlawful Summons were substantiated against Lieutenant Query. The Board recommended Charges. The NYPD has yet to issue discipline.
 - In CCRB case #202306826, an allegation of Vehicle Search was substantiated against Lieutenant Query. The Board recommended Formalized Training. The NYPD has yet to issue discipline.
- Police Officer Alex Durst has been a member of service for 4 years and has been a subject in 6 other CCRB complaints and 13 allegations, two of which were substantiated in one case:
 - In CCRB case #202308872, allegations of Failure to Provide RTKA Card and Vehicle Search were substantiated against Police Officer Durst. The Board recommended Command Discipline B. The NYPD has yet to issue discipline.

Mediation, Civil, and Criminal Histories

- The complaint was unsuitable for mediation due to the related arrest.
- As of February 25th, 2025, the New York City Office of the Comptroller had no record of a Notice of Claim being filed in regard to this incident (BR 24).
- [§ 87(2)(b)] [§§ 86(1)(3)&(4)] [§ 87(2)(c)]

RPBP History

- This complaint did not contain any allegations of Racial Profiling/Bias-Based Policing.
